

JUDGE RUSSELL'S STRONG CAMPAIGN
The Atlanta Constitution; Jun 8, 1906; pg. B-5

JUDGE BROYLES SETTLES FEUD BETWEEN CHILDREN
The Atlanta Journal; July 8, 1906; pg. 6

WOULD ABOLISH ALL CITY COURTS
JOEL BRANHAM; The Atlanta Constitution; Jul 12, 1906; pg. 8, 1

SUPREME COURT NEEDS RELIEF
Isma Dooly; The Atlanta Constitution; 1881; Jul 20, 1906; pg. 2, 1

JUDGE HENRY A CANDIDATE
The Atlanta Constitution; Aug 7, 1906; pg. 6, 1

STATE GOSSIP CAUGHT IN CAPITOL CORRIDORS
The Atlanta Constitution; Aug 11, 1906; pg. 4, 1

Merry Fight Over Judgeships
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 3, 1906; pg. 1-C

EVERY THING CUT AND DRIED FOR THE STATE CONVENTION WHICH MEETS IN MACON TODAY
The Atlanta; Sep 4, 1906; pg. 1, 2

Judge Profit Feels Confident
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 5, 1906; pg. 4

Nothing Done on New Court by Convention
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 5, 1906; pg. 1

Will Discuss Appeals Court
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 6, 1906

HERE IS LINE-UP FOR JUDGESHIPS
The Atlanta Constitution (1881); Sep 7, 1906; pg. 6, 1

PRIMARY FOR NEW JUDGES TO BE CALLED OCTOBER 3
The Atlanta; Sep 9, 1906; pg. A4, 1

Primary for New Judges to be Called October 3
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 9, 1906; pg. 4-B

The Court of Appeals
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 13, 1906; pg. 8

Will Cost $100.00 to Enter Race
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 13, 1906; pg.7

PRIMARY FOR JUDGES CALLED FOR OCTOBER 3
The Atlanta; Sep 13, 1906; pg. 8, 1

Judge Ray not A Candidate
Atlanta Constitution; Sept., 16, 1906; pg. 4-B

Russell to Run for Judgeship
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 19, 1906; pg. 6

Sixteen Out for Appellate Court
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 19, 1906; pg. 4

Howard Van Epps - Photo
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 20, 1906; pg. 6-A

Judge Howard Van Epps - Advertisement
Atlanta Constitution Sept. 20, 1906; pg.6-A

Judge Russell Will Consider
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 20, 1906; pg. 2-B

Judge Miller Fixes Ballot
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 21, 1906, pg. 5

Chappell Gets Many Letters- advertisement
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 22, 1906; pg. 4

Urgent Need is Shown of Court of Appeals
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 23, 1906; pg. 4-B

RUSSELL TO RUN FOR JUDGESHIP
RICHARD B RUSSELL; The Atlanta Constitution; Sep 25, 1906; pg. 8, 1

Judge Henry Enters the Race
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 25 1906; pg. 9

Logan Bleckley to A. G. Powell - advertisement
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 26, 1906; pg. 7

Advertisement for the Campaign of Thomas Green
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 28, 1906; pg. 5

Photo of Thomas F. Green
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 28, 1906; pg. 5

Photo of Judge Roberts
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 30, 1906; pg. 2-B

Photo of Benjamin Harvey Hill
Atlanta Constitution; Sept. 30, 1906; pg. 2

BENJAMIN H. HILL, CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF THE PROPOSED COURT OF APPEALS
- WITH PICTURE
BENJ H HILL; The Atlanta Constitution; Sep 30, 1906; pg. B2, 1

EASTMAN BAR ENDORSES JUDGE ROBERTS FOR COURT
The Atlanta Constitution; Sept 30, 1906; pg. B-3

JUDGE W.R. HAMMOND ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY, AND DENOUNCES FALSE CHARGES MADE AGAINST HIM
The Atlanta Constitution; Sept 30, 1906; B

POLLS OPEN WEDNESDAY FOR REGULAR ELECTION
The Atlanta; Sep 30, 1906; pg. B8, 1

B. H. HILL, CANDIDATE FOR ONE OF THE JUDGES OF THE PROPOSED COURT OF APPEALS
The Atlanta Journal; Sept 30, 1906; pg. N-12

JUDGE FREDERICK FOSTER
The Atlanta Journal; Sept 30, 1906; pg. -13

THREE MEN ARE URGED FOR JUDGESHIPS
The Atlanta Journal; Sept 30, 1906;

JUDGE ROBERTS IS ENDORSED BY THE EASTMAN BAR
The Atlanta Journal; Sept 30, 1906; pg. -17

WHAT THE STATE PRESS SAYS OF T. J. CHAPPELL
The Atlanta Journal; Sept 30, 1906;

ONLY OFFICIAL BALLOTS WILL BE VOTES IN PRIMARY
The Atlanta Journal; Sept 30, 1906;

HON. B.H. HILL COMMENDED BY GEORGIA NEWSPAPERS
The Atlanta Journal; Oct 1, 1906; pg. 7

REGULAR STATE ELECTION TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY
The Atlanta Journal; Oct 1, 1906; pg. 7

HON. THOMAS F. GREEN FOR JUDGE OF THE NEW COURT OF APPEALS
The Atlanta Journal; Oct 2, 1906; pg. 3

GENERAL STATEWIDE ELECTION IN GEORGIA WEDNESDAY
The Atlanta Journal; Oct 2, 1906; pg. 3

JUDGE HENRY'S ADDRESS TO VOTERS OF NORTHWEST GA.
The Atlanta Journal; Oct 2, 1906; pg. 9

WILLINGHAM FOR APPELLATE JUDGE
The Atlanta Journal; Oct 2, 1906; pg. 9

JUDGE FREDERICK J. FOSTER (LETTER TO THE EDITOR)
The Atlanta Journal; Oct 2, 1906; pg. 10

STATE ELECTION HELD TOMORROW
A L MILLER; The Atlanta Constitution; Oct 2, 1906; pg. 10, 1

JUDGE C. G. JANES STRONGLY INDORSED
The Atlanta Constitution; Oct 2, 1906; pg. 5, 1

POLLS WILL OPEN TODAY FOR GENERAL ELECTION
The Atlanta; Oct 3, 1906; pg. 3, 1

POWELL AND RUSSELL IN LEAD FOR APPELLATE COURT JUDGES THIRD PLACE STILL IN DOUBT

The Atlanta Constitution; Oct 4, 1906; pg. 1, 2

RETURNS BY COUNTY (STATEWIDE ELECTION)

The Atlanta Constitution; Oct 4, 1906; pg. 2

QUIET ELECTION DAY PASSES IN ATLANTA

The Atlanta Constitution; Oct 4, 1906; pg. 3

OFFICIAL VOTE CAST IN FULTON

The Atlanta Constitution; Oct 5, 1906; pg. 8, 1

FOR CLERK OF COURT OF APPEALS

The Atlanta Constitution; Oct 21, 1906; pg. A4, 1

APPEALS COURT ACTS ON CASES

The Atlanta Constitution; Nov 4, 1906; pg. G7, 1

ELECT JUDGES NEXT TUESDAY

The Atlanta Constitution; Nov 4, 1906; pg. F6, 1

STATE ELECTION HELD TOMORROW

The Atlanta Constitution; Nov 5, 1906; pg. 3, 1

STATE ELECTION OCCURS TODAY

The Atlanta Constitution; Nov 6, 1906; pg. 6, 1

GOSSIP AT THE CAPITOL

The Atlanta Constitution; Nov 23, 1906; pg. 8, 1

BEN HILL LEADS JUDGES' TICKET

The Atlanta Constitution; Nov 20, 1906; pg. 7, 1

iders, and commands obedience. Two years ago he ordered his populist friends to leave the democratic party to which they had returned, and vote for him for president. Twenty-three thousand obeyed. A year he orders them not to put out their own, but to return to democratic primaries to vote for a man for reasons which are his own content with this narrow scope of operations he assumes to boss the democratic party in this state. Those who protest against his meddling where there is no business, as I have done, he overpowers with his wrath. If there were a "Devil's Advocate" I would probably be in other business. Most likely I would be advocating his schemes of disunion and disintegration of the democratic party. But I am not. As best I can know I am a defender of the democratic faith. The greatest testimony to the effectiveness of my work is found in Watson's assault upon me. I am disinclined to feel grateful to him in a certain sense—not for his false accusations and words, but for the evidence he displays of his full appreciation of the effect of the work that I am doing. He knows he can't answer me, or silence me, therefore he tries to queer my work attempting to belittle and besmirch it. The Telegraph is not going out of business at his command. It is a living force and a potent factor in this state, neither "decadent" nor "local" and the son knows it. The Telegraph has more friends today than it ever had, and the son has made friends for it among the people. But The Telegraph speaks for itself.

Another point of difference between me and myself is as to the colossal profits made by the Southern road. By referring to what I said on this subject, reprinted elsewhere on this page, it will be seen that I made an "illustration" to show how the road had "tried to be" large and had been fairer. stones has ng, they erested in ight at first

I Talk

Think of Tom Watson and some of his friends marching on the capitol of Georgia "with ropes in their hands." Is he insane? Is he a fool?

C. R. PENDLETON.

Judge Russell's Strong Campaign.

(Communicated.)

(From The Atlanta Georgian.)

It is nothing less than truth, and nothing more than fair to say that the political campaign conducted by Hon. Richard Russell, of Winder, has been one of the most phenomenal ever prosecuted by any candidate for public office in the south. While Mr. Russell is essentially a poor man with a narrow margin of this world's goods, his four competitors have been without exception men of large wealth and of tremendous influence. While Mr. Russell has had no daily, and scarcely a weekly paper behind him in his race, each of these gentlemen has had either a powerful daily or one or two strong and influential weekly papers as their advocates and champions.

With a large family, with an exacting business, and almost entirely without organization, Judge Russell has prosecuted simply in the might and main of his colossal energies one of the most vivid picturesque and effective canvasses ever made in the state of Georgia.

He has spoken in every section of the state. On many days he has made as many as eight speeches between the rising and setting sun. His expenses made in traveling are doubtless the smallest ever recorded by a candidate in this or any other southern state, and yet it is simply honest to say that this indefatigable man of the people has worked his way by colossal energy and by keen, strong tongue and a vigorous, active brain, and an absolutely dauntless heart up into the front rank of the state campaign.

When Judge Russell's canvass was begun there was scarcely a man in Georgia who under his breath did not laugh it to scorn. No man laughs it to scorn in this day, and it is generally conceded by the wise and alert politicians that when the final ballots are counted, Judge Russell's vote will be found far up into the thousands, and dangerously close to the vote of the best men in the race.

The simple English-American spirit of fair play extorts from the average man an expression of admiration and of respect for the career of a hard, square fighter like this, and The Georgian, who loves Georgia and loves Georgians wherever they be who illustrate the best qualities of the state, cannot fall, while taking no sides in the present campaign, to write a meed of praise and of admiration for as gallant, as dashing, and as effective a fighter as has ever fought in the ranks of a Georgia political campaign.

The Attacks on Warner Hill.

(From The Marietta Vindicator.)

at all. The list is stuffed with fictitious names. There are more names on this list than a number of them are populists known to always have taken parts in the populist campaign. A number of the names are repeated to swell the list, as by a reading of the list.

The men whose names are on this list are not representative of this county. This even if there were any truth to be representative of this county in that it has so few names propose to affiliate themselves with the Hoke Smith movement, which has some 5,500 voters, with its fictitious names and a list of names, has only 250. The meeting was advertised before it was held in the county and after a meeting a committee around this town earnestly names.

The meeting was a total failure. The Smith men here who show by their inflated list the in a great state of desperation the shippers of Georgia though even to the millions in dollars reduction of rates on freight. I and able. There is not more in the universe to buy him, and beneath the stars sufficient to do that which he knows it Georgia contains no purer man than Warner Hill. He is doing save to do wrong.

This is what's the matter. I small men, without conscience bow humbly before his throne his every mandate.

But it will never be in Hoke to remove Hiram Warner Hill people of Georgia will see to it a man as Hoke Smith has shown to be is not governor of the State of the South.

What Hoke Is.

(From The Cairo Messe)

If half that candidate Hoke was true, Georgia would be a corrupt state in the union; as of it is true and Hoke is making out the biggest—(what Warner Hill did him)—in the union. Agal to remark—a bas Hoke!

And His Name Is Hoke

(From The Barnesville Ga)

The present gubernatorial race developed the biggest demagogue Georgia in a whole generation may call his name.

Keep the Facts Straight

(From The Swainsboro I) will require a two-third ated total sum of $1.

one suit for damages. nty, has been settled. that negotiations are the two railroad com- pany of many of the a settlement of

d now stand, aocket ge the attention of the courts for more than or trial at the Septem- Judges Pendleton and regular sessions of their

Friday afternoon and follows:

es, attorney: Howard ntral of Georgia Rail- 0,000; against Atlanta hroad, $10,000.

olds, attorney: H. R. oth railway companies, L. Burtz, $5,000; Miss $5,000; Mrs. Pauline ury Lancaster, $5,000; $5,000; Mrs. Olive Gar- Estelle Lancaster, $5,- re was injured to the s now forced to walk and that her earning er month, as secretary mployment Agency has nished, Miss Stella t yesterday for $15,000 the Century Building that on April 14, while from one of the evators, the oper- car, inflicting various s particularly set forth She is represented by 3; Macon 1.

y 7.—In an interesting Savannah won by con- the twelfth. It was a

R. H. E. 0 100 000 000—1 6 4 0 000 000 002—3 8 1 and Har-lish; Raymond the Black Time 1910

Athens, who always treasured it. "Home, Sweet Home" will be the pop- ular and the official air of the Georgia home coming, and an effort will be made to get the original manuscript here for exhibition during the reunion.

Professor A. J. Showalter, who will be the director of the all-day singing, reports that there were 5,000 people at the singing in Marietta on July 4, and the people there said that Cobb would send 500 singers here for two days. A committee of five, with Luther A. Moore, of Powder Springs, has been appointed to look after Cobb's delegation.

There will be a singing at Clarkesville, Habersham county, today; one in Chero- kee county next Sunday, and one at Douglasville on the fourth Sunday of this month.

JUDGE BROYLES SETTLES FEUD BETWEEN CHILDREN

All of the cotton mill town, situated near Bellwood avenue and Julian street, appeared at the police matinee on Sat- urday. The principals in the act were the Catro children and a Mr. Moore. The weapons de combat were stones from the yards of these two families. The cause of the riot was that old, old story, "Fathers afraid to fight it out, so let children do the deed."

On Thursday night the Catro side of the feud claim Pink Preast and Stan- ford Preast. Harry Moore and Will Ad- ams battered their home for one hour, without ceasing. Then Pink Preast comes to the front. "I was in Marlet- ta."

The Moore feudist takes it up at this point, Catro's babies throw stones at every one who passes on the street, one party even delgned to designate that if the judge passed that way they would treat hi min like manner.

But feuds end not here. Language, such horrible language, was brought in-

The full list of candidates for aldermen and councilmen up to date is as follows:

First Ward—Alderman M. T. LaHatte, Frank A. Hillburn and A. L. Curtis; coun- cilman, John H. Harwell and W. A. Fin- cher.

Second Ward—Councilman, Press Hud- dleston and Z. B. Moon.

Third Ward—Councilman, W. W. Gaines and Wheeler Mangum.

Fourth Ward—Councilman, Dr. B. E. Pearce and M. M. Turner.

Fifth Ward—Alderman, H. M. Beutell; councilman, A. Q. Adams, I. B. Styron and V. M. Barrett.

Sixth Ward—Councilman, John W. Grant.

Seventh Ward—Councilman, Dr. T. D. Longino.

Eighth Ward—Councilman, Charles E. Harman (not officially announced).

to the testimony. The little Catro chil- dren, ages 6 months, 1 year, 2 years and 5 years, were accused of using the most obscene utterances. But more horrible still. They threw rocks at a corpse. The culmination point of the feud.

Judge Broyles was asked to settle the matter, County Officer Dunbar making the appeal. This is what was said:

"I think the Moore and Catro children, the whole lot of you, ought to be put in an orphanage. If I had the power I would send them there. You people ought to be ashamed of yourselves. If necessary," speaking to a county offi- cer, "call out the fire department next time and shoot water on them. Mr. Moore, why don't you and Catro go be- hind the barn and have it out? I don't think you ought to let your children do this way."

"I would, judge, but Catro's 'traid," replied Moore.

"Well, I'll fine Pink Preast, Harvey Moore and Will Adams $5 and costs each."

without con- The New Y. torial as if drinks, class least calcul- weather.

Are You At

The Centra selling ticket For rates an apply to Cit Bank Buildg rietta street W. H. F

O
E
S
R

2

"The Daylight Corner."

Do you look as fresh, cool, comfortable and summery as a man should at this season?

The expense for a proper appearance is small and the benefits inestimable.

Outing Suits at $15 in cool grays or blues or light mixtures. Here are varieties in the style to suit the varieties in human taste and figures. Individuality for each man is here.

Eiseman & Weil,
1 Whitehall St.

YOUNG COUPLE ARE MARRIED

Miss Lucile Clegg Weds Mr. Emmett Clements in Americus.

Columbus, Ga., July 11.—(Special.)—The closing of this evening of Miss Lucile Clegg and Mr. Emmett Clements was one of the most brilliant of the season in Americus.

The rites were solemnized at the Clegg mansion on Lee street and witnessed by a great assemblage, representing the so-

WOULD ABOLISH ALL CITY COURTS

Warm Discussion Expected at Bar Association Meeting

Other Matters of Large Legal Importance Will Be Considered at the Meeting Next Week at Warm Springs, Georgia.

Columbus, Ga., July 11.—(Special.)—A feature of the report of the committee on judicial administration and remedial procedure, to be read before the Georgia Bar Association at its annual meeting at Warm Springs next week, that will probably cause a lively debate, is the recommendation that all city courts in the state be abolished, and superior courts established in lieu thereof.

The report of the committee, which has already been printed and distributed among the members of the association for their consideration, contains several other features that will probably provoke interesting discussion. The report of the committee, of which a number of the ablest lawyers of Georgia are members, is as follows:

Report of Committee.

"Your committee regards the relief of the supreme court of Georgia as the paramount question to be considered by it. While some members of the committee favor the establishment of a court of appeals, the majority of the committee do not think such court necessary, but believe the relief can be obtained more effectually in another way, or at any rate, they believe that if the suggestions herein made can be enforced, the necessity for the court of appeals will not exist for some time to come.

"The committee therefore makes to the association the following recommendations:

Uniform Procedure and Practice.

"That all city courts in the state be abolished, and in lieu thereof superior courts be established, sufficient in number to transact the business; that in counties or cities where more than one court be required—establish two or more courts, to be held in

INTERESTING NEWS THE BIG P

The Wester Music Co. Now Say T Be Taken Before the Closing day Night.

SOME FINE BARGAINS FOR THE L

Never Again Will There Be Such a This.—"Your Own Terms at Is the Rule In this Sale.—6

The Constitution man called at the Wester Music Co.'s store yesterday, and in reply to the question—"Is the sale a success?" Mr. Westler replied: "Success? Well, if you had seen our store Monday morning, July 2, when we had 114 pianos in stock, and will just count the number we have remaining, your question will be answered.

"You know we have leased a new store which was to be ready for us July 10th, but delay in remodeling work, our lease expiring on present quarters, as well as on the warehouse on Marietta street, forced us to choose between carting over 100 pianos to the storage house or cutting prices and closing them out.

"We preferred the latter course. By giving the buyers the benefit of the loss in profits we save ourselves an endless amount of trouble and expense, enables us to open our new home with a new stock, and makes every purchaser in this sale our everlasting friend.

"And the people were not slow in taking advantage of our offerings. The fact that we are selling on an average of ten pianos daily bears out that statement. Nor would such a thing be possible unless we carried out every promise and statement made in our advertisements.

"On Tuesday of this week, we sold twenty-one uprights, two squares, four organs and a piano player. We think that establishes the record for Atlanta and the south.

"Let me show you what we have been doing, just how we are selling pianos in this sale.

"Here, for instance, is a nice piano, fully guaranteed, that we usually sell at $275. This one is marked to sell at $153.

"Terms? Why, we are not particular about the terms at that are "Here, they are

"Bargain you won't get

"Notice we have

it a beautiful

$325. They are

"What piano on the regular worth a

been $37

"Here, rights, makes, it

$500. N and the sale at 1

"While have a 1 grades, 1 gains, 1 will be 1

"The standpoints piano.

enthusiast and we

friends 1

"Please Saturday this sale visit to another

Old 1 3

We use latest mattress machinery. All grades ticking

"The Benjamin"
DOUBLE BREASTED Sack Suit

Don't Be Hasty

Let two or three of the ordinary clothing stores show you their Men's Summer Suits (hot weather suits) before you visit our shop. We can hear you say: "What a difference."

Ready made, our "own exclusive fabrics."

$12.50 to $25

Essig Bros.

"Correct Clothes for Men"

26 Whitehall Street.

DEATH PENALTY FOR STOESEL
RECOMMENDED

Must Forfeit His Life for Surrendering Port Arthur.

VARIOUS PUNISHMENTS

SUPREME COURT NEEDS RELIEF

That Is the Opinion of the Lawyers of Georgia.

Committee Named To Take Steps Looking To Legislation for Relief of Tribunal—Court of Appeals Favored by Lawyers.

By Isma Dooly.

Warm Springs, Ga., July 19.—(Special.) The distinctively interesting features of the second day's session of the twenty-third annual convention of the Georgia Bar Association were the addresses of William Travers Jerome and Judge Andrew Cobb in the morning, and that of Judge James Blount in the evening. Besides the business side of the morning's sessions following Jerome's address, there were several interesting papers read.

Alexander Akerman, of Macon, dealt with the subject, "The Power of Municipal Courts." He was followed by R. E. Dismukes, of Columbus, whose subject, ably handled, was "The Law of Bank Checks." The report of the committee on judicial administration and remedial procedure was the occasion of lively discussion, Judge William Strickland presenting the report.

To Relieve Supreme Court.

In pursuance of a motion which was unanimously adopted president Hammond appointed a committee composed of Judge John R. Hopkins, Judge S. B. Adams, Judge Spencer Atkinson and Arthur Gray Powell for the purpose of obtaining legislation looking to the relief of the supreme court. The entire bar association is united in the belief that the legislature should establish a court of appeals.

Judge Andrew Cobb appeared before the association at the morning session and made a statement, showing the overcrowded condition of the court and its dockets. The condition was startling to all the lawyers who heard the speech. The committee appointed by President Hammond was conceded to be the strongest that could have been selected.

At the afternoon session the following papers were read: Alexander Smith, on "Should the Bankruptcy Law Be Paupered," and W. W. Gordon, of Savannah, on "Defects of Our Criminal Procedure and Remedies Therefor." "Some Legal Aspects of the Philippines," was the theme of the brilliant address made by Judge James H. Blount, of Macon. It was a valuable contribution to the association and was replete with facts of history.

At the concluding sessions Friday, ex-Chief Justice Logan E. Blockley, W. A. Wimblish, James H. Gilbert, J. Carroll Payne and Sheppard Bryan will be among the speakers.

Rap at Roosevelt.

In his address William T. Jerome, dis-

SOME IMPRESSIONS BY JEROME AN

By Isma Dooly

WARM SPRINGS, GA., July 19.—(Special.)—It is not an easy task for the man in the "public eye" to satisfy entirely in a brief address the opinions formed of him by an assemblage of people who have waited for three days to hear him talk, for in this section of our great republic the people require not only thought, but grace of expression, in the man of public life.

There is an inherited taste for eloquence, and the woman and men alike wince almost at a discord in speech from one who is brought forward as a figure in this period of time, this time of complex activities in all the great movements of the day.

A Man of Strength.

When, therefore, William Travers Jerome, of New York, accepted the invitation to address the members of the Georgia Bar Association and came heralded by his friends and the press, he could not have made the impression he did this morning had he not been the man of strength, distinction, individuality, and mental equipment, these qualities impressed not only in his high class, clear-cut and manly address, delivered this morning, but in the man's very presence.

It would be difficult to write of the impression made by the speech without recurring to the man, so complete did it seem an expression of him, and not having met Mr. Jerome, I write of the impression he made through his speech, and through the influence I have felt in what is his very pleasing presence, which compels an interest even on the part of the casual observer.

A Man of Poise.

As he approached the platform this morning, escorted there by S. P. Gilbert, chairman of the Georgia Bar Association, and before he had ceased to bow his acknowledgements, there was most impressive about the man his very keen eye, a reserve and deliberation of manner, indicative of the superb poise which, it is easy to see, well balances Mr. Jerome and his every utterance.

It was therefore a trifle amusing to mention in his introductory remarks, he said he had "promised to be good before he left home; that he would not say anything he ought not to say."

Nothing To Take Back.

To whomever he made the promise, it

GOURDAIN WILL V HIS HUNDRE

NEW YORK, July 19.—Louis A. Gourdain, of Chicago, convicted of using the mails to defraud and sentenced last May to four and a half years in the Illinois penitentiary, will make his final effort today to have that sentence carried into effect. At the Savoy last night he discussed his plans at length. He will go to Narragansett Pier this morning to see Justice White, of the United States supreme court, and present a petition praying that the warden of the Joliet penitentiary be or-

and from all accounts, it has in the democratic primary.
wants to come into the party.
veve. This he made as could make it.

he is "running this race his opinion, Mr. Smith to do "all these bitter
THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.
by Hoke Smith's aid,
one—to "free the people" submitting to submit, TEMPO-of voting in a democratic SEES IN THE HOKE
ABILITY OF DISRUPTION

Watson to come back AS A former democrats. Mr. invitation IN GOOD FAITH.
franchisement" platform because division of the white people and The Constitution opposes Watson does, what that platves to the white people of this OCRATIC party, that they may lean administration and the UP-w stands to; the credit of the

The Constitution's consistent surprise Mr. Hardwick or constitution would now be WITH ALL ITS POWER, which seeks to DISRUPT OVERTHROW THE DEMO-

CTIONS BILL.

and penalties as will go far in this state will probably be house, now comes before the upper the senate committee on general chairman.

following the action of the house and signature.

of safeguards against corruption and in this state, the merits of the extended review. The Constitution has always commended and supin all elections:

sentiment is solidly back of his nature. It has been the a few isolated instances in local from even the suspicion of fraud of t all no possibility of the slightest and is now pending before the safeguards around all elections, and it embodies

and it is so without delay

Slight Differences.

"There goes a successful author."

"Great genius, is he?"

"No; I didn't say he was a genius.—
I merely said he was a success."

"No use in our authors going abroad
this summer," says the Billville Banner,
"when the alligators lash the millponds till they foam like the ocean itself!"

A Daily Text.

The same bright sun each morning.

The same kind sky above;

The woodlands breathe in music.

The violets whisper love!

A Literary Epitaph.

"John," said the poet, "time for breakfast, isn't it?"

"Yes, sir—high time!"

"Did you warm that sconnet over?"

"I sure did, sir!"

"And the love song?"

"It was warm enough already, sir."

"All right. Just pour a little ink in the coffee cups, and ring the bell!"

The Prospect.

It's good to be a-livin' in this great old world today.

When the light is all around you, an'
when heaven ain't far away;

When a feller feels like flyin' with the bright wings of a bird,

An' his soul sings "Halleluia," an' he means it—every word!

If we could coin the moon into gold dollars, we'd still want the stars for small change.

Let us all get on the summit of the Hills of Hope, even if, at last, we come rolling down to the valleys of despair.

F. L. S.

JUDGE HENRY A CANDIDATE

For Judge of the Court of Appeals of Georgia.

Rome, Ga., August 6.—(Special.)—Judge William H. Henry, of this city, is a candidate for judge of the court of appeals.
Judge Henry was for a long time judge of the Rome circuit court and has had considerable experience as a judicial officer.

Welcomed the New Pastor.

Covington, Ga., August 6.—(Special.)—
The various religious denominations of the city Sunday night united in a welcome service to the new Presbyterian pastor, Rev. J. B. Gordon, who comes from Lewisburg, Tenn. Short addresses were made by the mayor on behalf of the city; Mayor John B. Davis, for the Methodist church, and Rev. Eugene R.
Pendleton, for the Baptist congregation.
At the close it was agreed that the Rev.
Mr. Gordon should address a union congregation at the Baptist church on next Sunday evening.

mer newspaper man.

Colonel H. P. Scott, assistant adjutant general of state troops, returned yesterday from Savannah, where he went to secure entries into the target contest which will be held in Macon shortly. Seagirt riflemen to be chosen therefrom.

Baker and Bryan counties are the only two remaining of the state which have not notified State Treasurer Park whether they will accept this year's pro rata share of state convicts or the common school fund derived therefrom.
After the 15th of August it will be too late for them to decide.

The state of Georgia, by order of Governor Terrell, yesterday afternoon offered $100 reward for apprehension of Joe Mole, a 21-year-old negro, believed to have been the would-be assassin of Mr. and Mrs. George Bloodworth, in Baldwin county, some time ago. Husband and wife were both shot through a window of their home.

A charter was yesterday granted to the promoters of the Wilkes and Lincoln Counties Railroad Company. It is capitalized at $250,000, is 50 miles in length and will run from Washington to Lincolnton. The incorporators are J. H. and
T. M. Fitzpatrick, Benjamin Orms, I. T.
Irvin, Jr., J. A. Benson, Jr., W. A.
Stanton, Emmett Callahan, F. H. Colley,
W. G. Powell and C. L. Groves.

ARRANGING FOR THE PRIMARY

Chatham County Committee Holds a Meeting.

Savannah, Ga., August 6.—(Special.)—
The Chatham county democratic executive committee met this afternoon to arrange for the state primary on the 22d.
It was determined that polls shall be open from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m. and that there shall be five ballot boxes, one for each of the four city districts and one for the country district. All the boxes will be located at the court house, as has been customary here for some years.
The committee will meet again Saturday at 1 o'clock to select managers and clerks for the primary.

Each of the six congressional candidates, four for short term and two for long term, were assessed $25 each.

To Entertain Their Brethren.

Covington, Ga., August 6.—(Special.)—
The Baptist people here have begun preparations for entertaining the Stone Mountain Baptist Association, which convenes in this city September 12-14. This is the largest of the Georgia associations, and it is expected that the representatives in attendance upon this meeting will number between 200 and 300. The committee on assignment of homes is composed of the following representative members of the Covington church: C. E. Cook, chairman; E. W. Ragsdale, Q. D. Buller, E. H. Jordan and J. I. Guinn.

Russell's Muscogee Friends.

Columbus, Ga., August 6.—(Special.)—A meeting of the Muscogee county friends and supporters of Judge Richard B. Russell, candidate for governor of Georgia, has been called next Wednesday night at the court house. It is stated that Judge Russell will speak in Columbus between now and the date of his return.

expert capacity. But Mr. McLendon is a lawyer—and the commission already has one lawyer member.

It is contended by some of those who have discussed the matter here that it would be a great stretching of the words and the meaning of the commission law to select a lawyer for the position which should go to a practical railroad man. True, Mr. McLendon's activities in his profession have been mostly along the line of corporation law, he having for a number of years been attorney for the Plant system, but whether being a railroad lawyer qualifies a man for membership upon the commission as a "practical railroad man" is a question over which there is likely to be a wide difference of opinion.

Merry Fight Over Judgeships.

A Macon lawyer is authority for the statement that there are no less than forty candidates for the three positions upon the not yet created court of appeals. Nobody has yet undertaken to compile a list. Some of these gentlemen, or their friends, are clamoring to have the three nominations made at the convention the coming week.

They may have influence enough to accomplish this, but there are many whose interest is in the creation of the court rather than in any man's candidacy who are strongly opposed to the convention taking action. Some of these have suggested that the best plan would be for the convention to adjourn to a date after the state election in October, when the amendment creating the court will be submitted to the people for ratification. These men hold that if a nomination is made next week there is bound to be a scramble for the three places, which will jeopardize the ratification of the amendment.

It has been the policy of those not themselves candidates for these judgeships to encourage the candidacy of all possible aspirants on the theory that the more men personally interested, the greater will be the chance of securing the ratification of the amendment. And they think if the convention nominates next week the result will be a lukewarmness

the speed of the natural slant system, and the latter is also more legible. Professor J. H. Smith, in charge of the business department of the Boys' High school, will have charge of the introduction of the new system of handwriting, and will give the city school teachers such instructions as may be necessary at normal school meetings.

All told, there are 320 teachers in the Atlanta public schools, and their fitness and capability is best attested by the stand which scholars take in other institutions of learning and in the business world after completing their course in our public schools.

The Boys' High school, of which Professor W. M. Slaton is principal, has the most flattering prospects of its history before it.

Never have the three departments into which the school is divided, consisting of the classical, business and technical departments, been so thoroughly equipped for educational work.

To the classical department Professor J. V. Hodges has been added as assistant instructor in science and English. Professor Hodges is a teacher of unusual attainments.

Every department of the school has been thoroughly equipped, both as to instructor and apparatus. In the science department the laboratory method of instruction is used, giving the students practical instruction as well as theoretical.

The classical department of the school will more than sustain its reputation of years past, more than which need not be said, it having long been recognized as a fact that a graduate of the Boys' High school is qualified without further preparation to take an advanced stand in the classes of the state university, or in the institutions of any other state.

The business department, under the direction of Professor J. H. Smith, will be better prepared than ever to equip boys for commercial life. It is the boast of this school that its graduates from this department are qualified to embark without further preparation into successful mercantile careers, and many of the trusted employees of large business concerns of Atlanta went from the doors of this school to the business houses to which they are now employed.

Technological Department.

The technological department of the school is on an equal footing with the excellent standard maintained by the two other departments. It is fully equipped sage.

Continued on Page Two

of the
the liq of $10.
altered
ing co Novem damper pected
The no thorize operate railway lic util le curre
the ch public been a past ye

452

S

aster depar repor board
Of
ing were poiso cy"
The death
Four dead Japan

SUB

Q

built River
the d Comp
ed hi severn many is a the s gover of th
by D

THE ATLANTA

VOL. XXXIX—No. 81

ATLANTA, GA., TUESDAY MORNING

EVERYTHING CUT AND DRIED FOR THE STATE CONVENTION WHICH MEETS IN MACON TODAY

Action Has Been Settled in Advance on Every Matter Except the Court of Appeals.

RAILWAY COMMISSION WILL BE ASKED TO QUIT BY THE CONVENTION.

And It Is Hinted That Men Who Are Running Things Would Like for All Other Officials to Get Out—Great Crowd Present for Convention and Everybody in a Good Humor.

Macon, Ga., September 3.—(Special.)—They are all here from all parts of Georgia, and the lobby of the Hotel Lanier looks like it used to look around the old Kimball when there was a convention contest in sight.

Despite the fact that there is

THERE'S PERIL LURKING IN THE CONVENTION AIR FOR THE APPEALS COURT

It is Proposed for Convention to Reassemble to Name Candidates for Bench After Amendment is Ratified.

MACON, GA., September 3.—(Special.)—There is danger for the court of appeals bill lurking in the convention air.

It is confidently stated here that Mr. Smith and his friends will oppose any action on the part of the convention looking to the nomination of candidates for the court of appeals prior to the ratification of the constitutional amendment creating the court by the people.

It is generally conceded that if candidates were nominated by the convention tomorrow, prior to the ratification of the amendment, it would defeat the bill.

But another programme has been arranged, it is said, which, if carried out, may prove equally disastrous to the new court so much needed to relieve the supreme court of its heavy and overgrown burden.

It is stated the plan is not to name

candidates, but to pass a resolution providing that if the amendment providing for the court of appeals is ratified, the same convention which meets tomorrow to nominate Hoke Smith shall reassemble to nominate three candidates for the court of appeals.

The object of this, it is said, is to await the ratification of the amendment and then to nominate three partisan Hoke Smith men for the new court of appeals.

This programme has been freely discussed on the streets of Macon today, and there has been no little criticism of it.

"That's about the most strenuous thing politics possible," was the general comment.

The general opinion was that if this course is pursued it will result just as effectively in defeating the bill for the court of appeals as would nominations by the convention prior to the ratification of the amendment.

Everybody in a Good Humor.

Macon, Ga., September 3.—(Special).—They are all here from all parts of Georgia, and the lobby of the Hotel Lanier looks like it used to look around the old Kimball when there was a convention contest in sight.

Despite the fact that there is nothing in the shape of a lively contest before the democratic state convention which assembles at noon tomorrow in the Macon auditorium, there are perhaps more people here longing for something to turn up than have gathered at a state convention under similar circumstances in years. There are plenty of them here who wish not only that every railroad commissioner would resign, but that every other state house officer and every county judge and solicitor would get out of the way and give them a chance, and yet good feeling is a drug on the market. Everybody seems to be in a good humor.

Practically every detail of the programme for tomorrow's convention appears to be outlined and there is little to talk about tonight outside of the question of the state court of appeals. That seems to be the subject that is agitating every one's mind more than anything else, and that is the only question upon which there appears to be any doubt as to what the convention will do. It is definitely settled that the convention will not nominate candidates for the court of appeals in advance of the ratification of the constitutional amendment, but will adjourn to meet subject to the call of the chair for the purpose of nominating candidates after the amendment has been ratified? That is the question that is agitating many of the candidates and their friends here tonight. Friends of the court of appeals are here in large numbers and some fifteen or twenty or twenty-five of the candidates for the bench of that court are also electioneering with the delegates to the convention, for they believe that the same convention is to be called to make nominations. They generally express the fear that such action by the convention will endanger the court of appeals bill, but they are all first and foremost for the establishment of the court and practically all of the candidates are putting that above their personal ambition.

The Platform.

Next to the court of appeals the platform is perhaps occupying most attention, and there is considerable curiosity as to what it will have to say. It is generally known here that the platform was prepared and brought to Macon by Editor James R. Gray, of The Journal, who will be chairman of the platform and resolutions committee, subject to such changes as the committee may demand. It is currently talked that the platform will in a general way deal with practically all the reforms which Hon. Hoke Smith has demanded in the course of his campaign. It is said it will demand full government regulation of railroads, and of the trusts and will endorse Bryan for president. It is also understood that the platform will demand a reduction of interstate rates, will demand the port rate and will practically call on the members of the present state railroad commission to resign.

Of course it will have a disfranchisement plank, there is no doubt on that score, but it is believed it will be set forth in very general terms. In fact Mr.

bill. But another programme has been arranged, it is said, which, if carried out, may prove equally disastrous to the new court so much needed to relieve the supreme court of its heavy and overgrown burden. It is stated the plan is not to name politics possible, was the general comment. The general opinion was that if this course is pursued it will result just as effectively in defeating the bill for the court of appeals as would nominations by the convention prior to the ratification of the amendment.

THREE INJURED WHEN BIG AUTO HIT STREET CAR 45 WAR SHIPS ARE REVIEWED BY ROOSEVELT

C. E. Currier's Car Torn to Pieces in Collision Yesterday. President Reviews Greatest American Fleet Ever Assembled.

FRIGHTENED NEGRO WOMAN WAS CAUSE OF ACCIDENT EIGHT NATIONS' ATTACHES WITNESS GREAT ENSEMBLE

Trying to dodge a frightened negro woman on Peachtree road late yesterday afternoon, C. E. Currier, president of the

CHARLES E. CURRIER Who Was Hurt in Auto Smash Yesterday.

Atlanta National bank, drove his speeding Franklin into an incoming street car, three people being badly bruised as a result of the accident.

Oyster Bay, September 3.—Under skies that broke brilliantly blue before a whistling westerly gale, which swept down Long Island sound and blew out to sea, the clouds and tempestuous rain which this morning threatened to immeasurable mar the spectacle, President Roosevelt today, within halting distance of his summer home, reviewed the most magnificent naval fleet ever assembled under the American flag. Forty-five of the most splendid types of fighting vessels afloat lay at anchor in three columns as the navy yacht Mayflower, which just a year ago was written into history as the meeting ground of the peace plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan, passed up and down the lanes, the president an applauding spectator on the bridge.

The Mayflower's journey was made amid a continuous boom of saluting cannon and gun after gun spoke the navy's honor to the commander-in-chief of all America's military forces.

Distinguished Guests.

President Roosevelt had as his guests on board the Mayflower the secretary of the navy and several other government officials, members of the senate and house committee on naval affairs and the naval attaches of eight of the powers of the world. There was something of an object lesson in this gathering of a representative array of the American navy, about one-third of the fighting forces being in the review.

When the parade of the Mayflower was over and the president had looked with critical eye at each of the flag-dressed vessels, his yacht came to anchor and he received on board the commanding officers of the fleet. Then followed a gala luncheon at which the

HC
Killing ha
SLAVE LEA
E. G. I Playf Lin
In a t er mak of Aug night l maker, catur at Hospital The ter out the s anyone. caped o'clock l and boar that pla About l C. Oury, bom and makers were gat front of Ferrell y lands of ...many of the candidates and their friends here tonight. Friends of the court of appeals are here in large numbers and some fifteen or twenty or twenty-five of the candidates for the bench of that court are also electing with the delegates to the convention for they believe that the same convention is to be called to make nominations. They generally express the fear that such action by the convention will endanger the court of appeals bill, but they are all first and foremost for the establishment of the court and practically all of the candidates are putting that above their personal ambition.

The Platform.

Next to the court of appeals the platform is perhaps occupying most attention and there is considerable curiosity as to what it will have to say. It is generally known here that the platform was prepared and brought to Macon by Editor James R. Gray, of The Journal, who will be chairman of the platform and resolutions committee, subject to such changes as the committee may demand. It is currently talked that the platform will in a general way deal with practically all the reforms which Hon. Hoke Smith has demanded in the course of his campaign. It is said it will demand full government regulation of railroads and of the trusts and will endorse Bryan for president. It is also understood that the platform will demand a reduction of interstate rates, will demand the port rate and will practically call on the members of the present state railroad commission to resign.

Of course it will have a disfranchisement plank, there is no doubt on that score, but it is believed it will be set forth in very general terms. In fact Mr. Smith himself has presented no specific plank on this subject, leaving it to be worked out.

Knowing ones say the platform will call for elimination from the councils of the party of all who are connected with corporations or special interests of any kind and again that there will be a demand for the South Carolina primary plan, which eliminates the convention and calls for running the race over between the two highest candidates.

Place for Hooper Alexander.

Chairman A. L. Miller, of the convention of tomorrow will not make an extended speech; he has practically stated he would leave that to Congressman T. W. Hardwick of the tenth, as temporary chairman. While Mr. Hardwick will be temporary chairman he will not, he said tonight, accept the vice-chairmanship of the state convention. Mr. Hardwick, it is stated, was tendered the chairmanship of the convention, but declined it. While he accepted the temporary chairmanship he declined to become even a member of the state committee, he says, and will urge that Hooper Alexander, of DeKalb, be made vice-chairman.

Quite a number of state house officials who will be renominated at tomorrow's convention are here tonight talking with

Continued on Page Two.

WAS CAUSE OF ACCIDENT WITNESS GREAT ENSEMBLE

Trying to dodge a frightened negro woman on Peachtree road late yesterday afternoon, C. E. Currier, president of the

CHARLES E. CURRIER
Who Was Hurt in Auto Smash Yesterday.

Atlanta National bank, drove his speeding Franklin into an incoming street car, three people being badly bruised as a result of the accident.

C. E. Currier was cut on the face, a long deep slit from lips to chin, receiving bruises in addition, Mrs. Jack Cutler, of Macon, Ga., was thrown from the auto and severely bruised, but it is not believed that her injuries will prove serious. Hugh Foreman was cut across the left eye, but was not tossed from the machine. Jack Cutler, Jr., was sent flying through the air, but was not hurt. The only uninjured one in the machine was the dog "Dry."

According to Hugh Foreman, who was in the car, the accident happened in front of the home of T. L. Seely out on Peachtree road. The auto was going at the rate of some 15 miles and hour when it hit the incoming car.

Mr. Foreman says that a negro woman was on the street getting ready to take the street car for town. Seeing the fast coming machine and the street car at the same time she was frightened and did not know just which way to move and in her anxiety to get out of the way got into the way. As a result Mr. Currier, who was doing the driving, dodged her, but struck the street car while doing so.

The mobile was a complete wreck after the accident. The handsome Franklin was torn all to pieces, the front of it being particularly damaged.

Mrs. Cutler is the wife of Jack Cutler, of Macon, one of the best known men in that city and in the state. He is the general freight agent of the Georgia Southern and Florida road. Before her marriage to Mr. Cutler Mrs. Cutler was Miss Bell, the daughter of Mrs. Emma Bell, of 266 Peachtree street.

Oyster Bay, September 3 - Under skies that broke L.L. Hanly blue before a whistling westerly gale, which swept down Long Island sound and blew out to sea, the clouds and tempestuous rain which this morning threatened to in-measurable mar the spectacle - President Roosevelt today, within hailing distance of his summer home, reviewed the most magnificent naval fleet ever assembled under the American flag. Fifty-five of the most splendid types of fighting vessels afloat lay at anchor in three columns as the navy yacht Mayflower, which just a year ago was written into history as the meeting ground of the peace plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan, passed up and down the lanes, the president an applauding spectator on the bridge.

The Mayflower's journey was made amid a continuous boom of saluting cannon and gun after gun spoke the navy's honor to the commander-in-chief of all America's military forces.

Distinguished Guests.

President Roosevelt had as his guests on board the Mayflower the secretary of the navy and several other government officials, members of the senate and house committee on naval affairs and the naval attaches of eight of the powers of the world. There was something of an object lesson in this gathering of a representative array of the American navy, about one-third of the fighting forces being in the review.

When the parade of the Mayflower was over and the president had looked with critical eye at each of the big-dressed vessels, his yacht came to anchor and he received on board the commanding officers of the fleet. Then followed a gala luncheon at which the officers, the government officials, the attaches, senators and congressmen were guests together with a number of the personal friends of the president.

Flanking the war vessels which glistened in purest white under the direct rays of the sun and against a low-lying back of the sound of sorm-black clouds along the horizon, was the greatest fleet of private yachts, small boats and pleasure craft probably that has ever been drawn together in such a small compass. Each of these was decorated with signal flags from stem and stern and added materially in the painting of a marine spectacle unparalleled in the history of the American people.

Boom of Many Guns.

This was the thrilling scene which greeted the president as the Mayflower steamed out from Oyster Bay shortly after 11 o'clock. It was just 20 minutes past that hour when the reviewing yacht came within range of the flagship Maine, which stood at the head of the center column of the fleet. There came a flash of flame and a puff of gray smoke from the starboard, saluting cannon of the flagship, which was the signal for the other vessels to join in a unanimous salute of twenty-one guns. It required twenty minutes for the Mayflower to run down the first lane. Then she put about and came up on the outer edge of the most westerly column of the ships. Reaching the head of the column again the Mayflower turned once more to the west and took a tour outside the torpedo boat line, coming eastward to the Maine's position once more and then cast anchor.

Politician Suicides.

Sedalia, Mo., September 3. - W. F. Hansberger, a member of the city council, and a prominent democratic politician, killed himself at his home today.

BROKEN BY FALL WEATHER

CLOUDY weather and rain are predicted to follow today in the wake of the cool spell which struck Atlanta yesterday.

The mercury dropped to the 64 point yesterday morning. And while according to the records this was nothing unusual, it came as a delightful change after some of those long hot spells and close, sticky days which were August's contribution.

So cool was it during the early morning hours that all Atlanta and Atlantans were more than glad to have a covering of some kind to draw up over them before the breakfast bell rang, and this sort of thing hasn't happened since—the membership of men ran north back to the late May or early June days.

There is a high barometer hanging over the New England states and the north-eastern section of the country and storm signals have been displayed down about the Bahamas, Cuba and the coast of Florida. The effect of this combination was to draw the cool air in the direction of the storm from the north and Atlanta being located in the middle as the great distributing center of the atmosphere as well as the railroad shipping and commercial traffic, the mercury took a pleasant drop.

This cool weather proved several things. Among the happiest proofs was that autumn is at hand, the backbone of the hot summer weather is broken past all remedy and the tropical season and the state fair and other fall events are fast approaching. "Not out that we may have some hot days," said Forecaster Marbury, "or some of the most unpleasant sometimes arrive in September. But it is not likely that we will have any of those hot spells for the season of the year has arrived which is entirely against such unpleasant moods, and cool weather may be expected as a matter of course."

One of the effects of the first cool spell in the early autumn is the return of the vacationers from seashore and mountains. As this kind of travel has broken all records in Atlanta and the south this summer, it is very probable that the coaches, on the incoming trains and the Atlanta depots will soon be crowded with the return of those who hurried away with the coming of the hot season. This will be particularly true of thousands of babies which left Atlanta this summer to remain until the last of the warm weather was over.

While rain is among the probabilities for Atlanta today, special mention is made of any severe storm so it is not likely that Atlanta will share in any of the high winds and hurricanes that are predicted for the east coast of Florida and Georgia. As a general thing these storms wear themselves out at sea before penetrating very far into the inland country. There was little of special interest in yesterday's weather map except the rains were reported general in the south with heavy rains in portions of Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and Texas, the precipitation at Columbus, Ga., being 3.80 inches. Heavy washouts were reported by the railroads in this section, the washout being at Shiloh and necessitating the deporting of through passengers to Atlanta by the Southern Railway around by Opelika and West Point over the West Point Route.

REVIVAL CLOSSES SUNDAY.

Rev. L. E. Peacock Will Deliver the Closing Sermon of the Tabernacle Tent Meeting.

HERE IS LINE-UP CRENshaw RUNS FOR JUDGESHIPS AS INDEPENDENT

Candidates Who Are Making In Race for Railroad Commissioner Against M'Clendon

There Are Twenty-One Actively in Race and Six Others Are Expected In—Meeting of Opposing Candidates at the Capitol Will Be Interesting.

Every section of Georgia is represented in the list of candidates for the state court of appeals, under the constitutional amendment providing for that court, which is to be ratified in the coming October election.

There are already twenty-one actual, active and out-and-out candidates, for these three judgeships, while there are six or seven others who might be called tentative candidates—that is, they have been generally talked of, but have not yet formally entered the race, so to speak.

Here is a list of the twenty-one candidates who are known to be in the race:

- Henry C. Peoples, Atlanta; Judge A. G. Powell, Blakely; Benjamin H. Hill, Atlanta; Judge W. R. Hammond, Atlanta; Judge Howard Van Epps, Atlanta; Judge C. G. Jones, Cedartown; Judge Fred C. Foster, Madison; Emerson H. George, Madison; George S. Jones, Macon; Thomas F. Green, Athens; Judge Frank Harwell, LaGrange; Judge D. M. Roberts, Eastman; T. J. Chappell, Columbus; Judge W. M. Henry, Rome; Judge P. P. Proffitt, Eberston; Judge W. C. Hodnett, Carrollton; O. H. B. Bloodworth, Forsyth; B. S. Willingham, Forsyth, and C. S. Reid, Palmetto.

Here are six others who have been prominently talked of in connection with the race and some, if not all, of whom may get into it:

- H. H. Perry, Gainesville; I. E. Shumate, Dalton; R. T. Fouche, Rome; E. P. Davis, Warrenton; Judge James K. Hines, Atlanta, and Judge R. B. Russell, Winder.

The candidates and prospective candidates for the court of Appeals have been called to meet in the library of the supreme court at the capitol on Saturday, September 8th, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of discussing the status of the court of appeals bill and the question of the nomination of candidates.

Chairman A. L. Miller, of the state democratic executive committee, has been invited to attend the meeting.

Asked That His Name Be Put on the Election Blanks, and Request Was Made Just in Time—Attorney General Hart's Decision in the Case.

T. C. Crenshaw, of Holly Springs, Cherokee county, is a candidate for railroad commissioner to succeed Commissioner Joseph M. Brown.

Mr. Crenshaw has not only announced as an independent candidate against S. G. McClendon, but he has succeeded in getting his name placed on the election blanks which will be sent out today by Secretary of State Phil Cook for use in the coming October election.

There is an interesting story back of this. Mr. Crenshaw has been talked of for some time in connection with the railroad commissionership, but his candidacy did not get before the state convention. Talk of Mr. Crenshaw originated chiefly as the result of the fact that he held a position as railroad commissioner for six years under appointment by Governor Atkinson, as the railroad member of the board.

Mr. Crenshaw called at the office of Secretary of State Phil Cook Wednesday and demanded that his name be put on the election blanks, to be sent out for use in making the official returns. Mr. Cook was absent at the time, and his assistant, Opodo Price, told him he would have to await Mr. Cook's return.

Later Mr. Crenshaw saw Mr. Cook and reiterated his demand. Secretary Cook said that he was ready to put the names of candidates of any party on the blanks, but did not know that under the law he had the right to put on the name of an individual.

Decision From Judge Hart

However, Secretary Cook asked Mr. Crenshaw to file with him a formal statement that he was a candidate, and desired his name printed on the election blanks.

This was done and Secretary Cook took the matter up with Attorney General John C. Hart, asking him what he was to do in the matter. Judge Hart rendered an opinion stating that under the law the question confronting Mr. Cook was one of practicability only. If practicable to put the name on the blank he should do so; if not, he could leave it off.

Secretary Cook then communicated with the state printer and found there was just time to get Mr. Crenshaw's name on the blank, which was done.

It appears, according to this view of the case, that any individual who wants to run for any office is entitled to have his name placed on the election blanks sent out by the secretary of state, provided he gets it in time. The blanks were printed yesterday, and will be distributed over the state today, so that there is no further chance at this time for any other independent candidates to get their names on them.

ND ROB BANK

Official Was Tied on Table.

...dits Leisurely Loot Rainier ...tion, Getting Away With ...000 in Gold Coin. ...liver and Currency ...Untouched.

Or., September 4.—While Cash-Vanancher lay bound hand and feet and tied to a table in a ...a, two bandits leisurely looted bank of Rainier in broad daylight. ...two hours before their victims ...see himself sufficiently to ...and in the meantime the ...id made good their escape, tak- ...them between $2,000 and $2,500 ...in. ...and bank notes lying on the ...ere untouched.

Colonel Petty, Washington. ...ton, September 5.—Lieutenant ...ames H. Petty, Eighth United ...fantry, died at his residence ...He made a good record as an ...ing the Spanish war, being ...the Fourth immune regiment ...wards became colonel of one of ...two regiments raised for ser- ...in Philippines.

Beach Coast.

San Francisco, September 4.—A thousand strong, the second contingent of Farley strike breakers were landed in this city this morning between midnight and dawn. Unlike the first train load the majority of the men are conductors and motormen. The strikers used what persuasion they could do to draw individuals from the column, and were successful with a number.

No attempt was made by the United Railway Company this afternoon to run the cars.

FRENCH CATHOLICS MEET.

Seek Way to Obey New Civil Laws and Those of Church.

Paris, September 4.—A meeting of all the French bishops and archbishops took place here today, and excited intense interest owing to the fact that the prelates will decide whether to break between the church and state is immediate or whether it is possible to find a way of obeying the law, as well as preserving the church's interest. The number of distinguished ecclesiastics attending is not certain, but it is believed eighty bishops are present under the presidency of Cardinal Richard, the archbishop of Paris. The deliberations are strictly secret, and the discussion is to last four days.

Judge Proffitt Feels Confident.

Elberton, Ga., September 4.—(Special).—From all over northeast Georgia comes reports of unprecedented activity in behalf of Judge Proffitt for a place on the new court of appeals. This candidate's friends say that beside the well-known age and experience and natural and acquired ability of Judge Proffitt the fact that it is time for this section to be represented in state political affairs will give to him a leverage which will easily land him on the new bench. From all over the state assurances of support are coming in, and Judge Proffitt feels gratified and deeply grateful for it.

SPORTS

CHICAGO

CHICAGO, September 5.—The public schools opened yesterday for fall and winter term with one of the three "R's" left out. No reading were provided and the teachers of schools (not) received the following order from the board of education:

To Principals—Please advise the principals of your school not to purchase textbooks on reading until further notice.

The Meek and Their Inheritance (Lyman Abbott in The Outlook)

Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth. The cynic laughs at this statement. "The meek," he says, "who inherit the great fortunes; who possess boundless estates; who are the millionaires; who are the lords of the earth? Are the coal magnates the road barons, the trust kings, remarkable for their meekness?"

Stop a moment, my cynical friend, and reread Christ's saying. He does not say that the meek shall acquire the earth, but that they shall inherit it. What acquirement is to us as the result of endeavor? Often of our strenuous endeavor. Not infrequently the greedy and the grasping, the ambitious and the self-assertive, acquire the earth, but they never inherit it. We inherit what comes to us without seeking, without effort, and often without even any expectation on our part. The inheritance is a free gift.

The eagle and the graying often possess, but they rarely enjoy. An art who has capacity to appreciate, but money to buy a single picture, inherits more to the public art gallery than the greedy Philistine, who purchases pictures but never actually possesses them. Judge Purvaulin, with his few acres on the banks of the Hudson, has really more the earth than a multi-millionaire who owns hundreds of acres which he rarely visits, and who does not know the difference between a maple in autumn, or between the song of the thrush

WILL DISCUSS APPEALS COURT

All Candidates to Meet at Capitol on Saturday

They Will Talk Over the Question of Ratification and Nominations.
Chairman Miller, of New Executive Committee, Invited to Meet With Them.

In order to arrive at some proper understanding of the status of the state court of appeals matter, and what should be done regarding nominations, a meeting has been called of all candidates and prospective candidates for this court to be held in the supreme court library next Saturday, September 8.

Here is the call which has been issued for this meeting:

Atlanta, Ga., September 5, 1906.—In view of the conditions surrounding the questions as to the adoption of the constitutional amendment and as to how and when nominations should be made for the judgeships of the proposed court of appeals, the suggestion that it would be advisable to have a meeting of all who may be candidates for such judgeships, to consider such conditions, has met with the favor of several of the candidates and other friends of the measure; as has also the suggestion that Hon. A. L. Miller, chairman of the democratic executive committee and president of the Georgia Bar Association, be invited to attend such meeting.

"For this reason and to put the matter in practicable shape, I have been asked to request that all candidates and prospective candidates for such judgeships and Judge Miller meet at the supreme court library, at the capitol, on Saturday, September 8, at 12 m.

"LOGAN BLECKLEY"

MOORE CHAPEL IS DEDICATED

LARGER FORCE FOR THE COUNTY

Twenty-Four Men Added to Rural Police

Election Took Place at Regular Meeting of Commissioners Yesterday.
Site of Camps Will Be Chosen at the Meeting This Afternoon.

Twenty-four additional county policemen were elected to the county police force by the board of county commissioners at their regular monthly meeting held yesterday morning. The board also elected fifteen supernumerary police officers, who will fill the places of the members of the regular force during sickness of members of the regular force, and absence on vacation leave, and will be in line for promotion to the vacancies when they occur in the regular force.

The men elected to the force are as follows: J. M. Carroll, G. D. Pippini, M.
C. Odum, G. O. Heard, W. F. Hubbard, John Peacock, T. E. Camp, R. F. Jordan,
H. C. Buchanan, I. C. Edwards, T. W.
Osfeld, W. H. Dunn, J. T. Davis, W. M.
Burdette, J. C. McCreary, H. J. Buran,
S. S. Hathcock, J. L. Gordon, W. H.
Johnson, T. W. Whitfield, Asa Eubanks,
C. A. Robinson, P. W. Buftyn and W. L.
Hardy.

The fifteen supernumeraries elected are as follows: J. W. McMurtrie, J. O.
Donegan, D. S. A. Davis, C. O. Coryll,
J. W. Coppling, J. B. Pope, W. P. Chapa-lere, T. J. Mitchell, El. T. Andrews, A. P.
Powers, R. H. Crockett, J. W. Bryant,
Lewis Connally, W. H. Price and John Harrington.

Provided at Special Meeting.

So great had become the unrest, following some five attempted criminal assaults by negroes upon white women within the past few months in Fulton county that the board of county commissioners, seeing that further police protection was an imperative necessity, had a special meeting on Saturday a week ago and adopted resolutions increasing the present county police force from one chief and

WATERWORKS MUST DR

On Entering Saloon Water Wagon b

ACCORDING to the action of the board yesterday afterno who are employed in the w partment must stick to their own water.

The board unanimously passed a resolution amending the by-laws so as to prohibit any attaché of the departm drinking liquor while on duty prohibit inspectors from entering when in uniform unless on busin if they should be called upon to a barroom on business they mu only water.

The water board believes that hoochee cocktails are the best drink fit for a man who works department. They think that water is pure and delightful as beverage, and they decided that any who drank any other drink duri business hours must be either susp discharged.

It is believed by the water commissioners that a law forcing employe department to stick to water duri business hours will benefit the men
the same time demonstrate to th that a Chattahoochee cocktail is drink for everybody.

This may have the effect of mak people drink more water and ther

MEETING HELD BY PARK BOA

New Doorkeeper Ele Bids Wanted for Bi Pavilion.

The park board yesterday afternoon elected F. A. Crawford as doo keeper of the cyclorama to take D. A. place. Mr. Ring has been ill

BROKEN BY FALL WEATHER

CLOUDY weather and rain are predicted to follow today in the wake of the cool spell which struck Atlanta yesterday.

The mercury dropped to the 64 point yesterday morning, and while according to the records this was nothing unusual, it came as a delightful change after some of those long hot spells and close, sticky days which were August's contribution.

So good was it during the early morning hours that all Atlanta and Atlantans were more than glad to have a covering of some kind to draw up over their bodies as breakfast bell rang, and this sort of thing hasn't happened since—since the necessity of man's month back to the late May or early June days.

There is a high barometer hanging over the New England states and the northeastern section of the country and storm signals have been displayed down about the Bahamas, Cuba and the coast of Florida. The effect of this combination was to draw the cool air in the direction of the storm from the north and Atlanta being located in the middle of the great distributing points of the atmosphere as well as the railroad shipping and commercial traffic, the mercury took a pleasant drop.

This cool weather proved several things. Among the happiest proofs was that autumn is at hand, the backbone of the hot summer weather is broken past all remedy, and the theatrical season and the state fair and other fall events are fast approaching. "Not that we may have some hot days," said Forecaster Marbury, "for some of the most unpleasant sometimes arrive in September. But it is not likely that we will have any of those hot hot spells for the season of the year has arrived which is entirely against such unpleasant periods and cool weather may be expected as a matter of course."

One of the effects of the first cool spell in the early autumn is the return of the vacationers from seashore and mountains. As this kind of travel has broken all records in Atlanta and the south this summer, it is very probable that the coaches on the incoming trains and the Atlanta depots will soon be crowded with the return of those who hurried away with the coming of the hot season. This will be particularly true of thousands of babies which left Atlanta this summer to remain until the last of the warm weather was over.

While rain is among the probabilities for Atlanta today and special mention is made of any severe storm so it is not likely that Atlanta will share in any of the high winds and hurricanes that are predicted for the east coast of Florida and Georgia. As a general thing these storms year themselves out at sea before penetrating very far into the inland country. There was little of special interest in yesterday's weather map except that rains were reported general in the south with heavy rains in portions of Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and Texas, the precipitation at Columbus, Ga., being 3.80 inches. Heavy washouts were reported by the railroads in this section, the washout being at Shiloh and necessitating the departing of through passengers to Atlanta by the Southern Railway around by Oprilka and West Point over the West Point Route.

REVIVAL CLOSSES SUNDAY.

Rev. E. E. Peacock will deliver the Closing Sermon of the Tabernacle Tent Meeting.

HERE IS LINE-UP CRENshaw RUNS FOR JUDGESHIPS AS INDEPENDENT

Candidates Who Are Making In Race for Railroad Commissioner Against M'Clendon

There Are Twenty-One Actively in Race and Six Others Are Expected In—Meeting of Opposing Candidates at the Capitol Will Be Interesting.

Asked That His Name Be Put on the Election Blanks, and Request Was Made Just in Time—Attorney General Harris' Decision in the Case.

Every section of Georgia is represented in the list of candidates for the state court of appeals, under the constitutional amendment providing for that court, which is to be ratified in the coming October election.

There are already twenty-one actual, active and out-and-out candidates, for these three judgeships, while there are six or seven others who might be called tentative candidates—that is, they have been generally talked of, but have not yet formally entered the race, so to speak.

Here is a list of the twenty-one candidates who are known to be in the race:

- Henry C. Peoples, Atlanta; Judge A. G. Powell, Blakely; Benjamin H. Hill, Atlanta; Judge W. R. Hammond, Atlanta; Judge Howard Van Epps, Atlanta; Judge C. G. Jansa, Coderstown; Judge Fred C. Foster, Madison; Emerson H. George, Madison; George S. Jones, Macon; Thomas F. Green, Athens; Judge Frank Harwell, LaGrange; Judge D. M. Roberts, Eastman; T. J. Chappell, Columbus; Judge W. M. Henry, Rome; Judge P. P. Proffitt, Eberston; Judge W. C. Hodnett, Carrollton; O. H. B. Bloodworth, Forsyth; B. S. Willingham, Forsyth, and C. S. Reid, Palmetto.

Here are six others who have been prominently talked of in connection with the race and some, if not all, of whom may get into it:

- H. H. Perry, Gainesville; I. E. Shumate, Dalton; R. T. Fouche, Rome; E. P. Davis, Warrenton; Judge James K. Hines, Atlanta, and Judge R. B. Russell, Winder.

The candidates and prospective candidates for the court of appeals have been called to meet in the library of the supreme court at the capital on Saturday, September 8th, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of discussing the status of the court of appeals bill and the question of the nomination of candidates.

Chairman A. L. Miller, of the state democratic executive committee, has been invited to attend the meeting.

T. C. Crenshaw, of Holly Springs, Cherokee county, is a candidate for railroad commissioner to succeed Commissioner Joseph M. Brown.

Mr. Crenshaw has not only announced as an independent candidate against S. G. McClendon, but he has succeeded in getting his name placed on the election blanks, which will be sent out today by Secretary of State Phil Cook for use in the coming October election.

There is an interesting story back of this. Mr. Crenshaw has been talked of for some time in connection with the railroad commissionership, but his candidacy did not get before the state convention. Talk of Mr. Crenshaw originated chiefly as the result of the fact that he held a position as railroad commissioner for six years under appointment by Governor Atkinson, as the railroad member of the board.

Mr. Crenshaw called at the office of Secretary of State Phil Cook Wednesday and demanded that his name be put on the election blanks to be sent out for use in making the official returns. Mr. Cook was absent at that time, and his assistant, Goodie Price, told him he would have to wait Mr. Cook's return. Later Mr. Crenshaw saw Mr. Cook and reiterated his demand. Secretary Cook said that he was ready to put the names of candidates of any party on the blanks, but did not know that under the law he had the right to put on the name of an individual.

Decision from Judge Hart.

However, Secretary Cook asked Mr. Crenshaw to file with him a formal statement that he was a candidate, and desired his name printed on the election blanks.

This was done and Secretary Cook took the matter up with Attorney General John C. Hart, asking him what he was to do in the matter. Judge Hart rendered an opinion, stating that under the law the question confronting Mr. Cook was one of practicality only. If practicable to put the name on the blank he should do so; if not, he could leave it off.

Secretary Cook then communicated with the state printer and found there was just time to get Mr. Crenshaw's name on the blank, which was done.

It appears, according to this view of the case, that any individual who wants to run for any office is entitled to have his name placed on the election blanks sent out by the secretary of state, provided he gets it in time. The blanks were printed yesterday, and will be distributed over the state today, so that there is no further chance at this time for any other independent candidates to get their names on them.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA"

The Long Road Turns at Last.

One path, and all is past—
The long road turns at last!
The shadows that darken the valley are sweet.

There are roses of rest where no rude storms shall beat,
And the roses are God's and the rest is complete—

The long road turns at last!

Ended the blight and the blast—
The long road turns at last!
The thorns that have wounded the sorrowing breast

Are lost in the beautiful roses of rest:
It was all for the best—it was all for the best!

The long road turns at last.

No stars that are overcast—
The long road turns at last!
Only a phantom: the deep sorrow seems—
Only an echo of desolate dreams:

The light of Eternity over us streams—
The long road turns at last!

Suggests From Georgia.

A little cabin that shelters Love may hold happiness enough to reach around the world.

When you can't hitch your wagon to a star, just be content to let the old mule pull it, and whistle on the way.

This world is no wilderness of woe, There's always a camping room on the hills of hope.

In bright weather, open the life-windows and soothe your soul, and save up a little sunshine for the stormy days.

In the Halleluia Way.

Keep on, believers,
In the halleluia way,
It can't far off.

To the broken of the day,
And you'll soon lose the sorrow
Where the glad times stay—

Keep on, believers,
In the halleluia way!

Briefs from Billville.

Cotton is just a white in our fields as some of the souls of us ought to be.

A cotton strike our office last week, and we saw in a new county, just after we had signed the paper, "We are here to stay!"

We now have a site for a new library, and our Webster's Unabridged Dictionary is up to Mr. Carnegie now to build a roof over the dictionary.

PRIMARY FOR NEW JUDGES
TO BE CALLED OCTOBER 3

State Committee, It Is Said, Will Take That Action Wednesday—Meeting of Candidates Held, But No Action Taken—State Capitol Gossip.

THE new state democratic executive committee will meet at the Piedmont hotel, in Atlanta, next Wednesday at noon, under call issued by Chairman A. L. Miller, of Macon, for the purpose of taking action regarding the nomination of candidates for the state court of appeals.

There appears to be no doubt about the fact that the state committee will call a primary for nominations for judges of the court of appeals to be held October 3, the same day as the regular state election. This was practically announced as a fact yesterday by parties who assert they are in a position to know something about what will be done.

It is stated the executive committee will make a request of the managers in the regular election to keep separate boxes for this primary, and the expense, which under these circumstances will be small, will doubtless be borne by the candidates.

The amendment creating the state court of appeals will, it is expected, be ratified in the general election on the same day. Then the nominees for judges of the court of appeals will be regularly elected at the election for congressmen, which will take place early in November.

Candidates Take No Action.

Fourteen of the twenty-five or more candidates for judgeships on the state court of appeals met in the library of the state supreme court yesterday, in response to call, and, after variously discussing the matter for about an hour, adjourned without taking any action.

It was, as one of those present remarked, a unique meeting. Seldom have opposing candidates for an office met in convention to determine upon some agreeable and harmonious course of action, for that was considered to be the object of the meeting, both as to the proposed constitutional amendment and as to the method of nominating candidates.

The views of those present were found to be somewhat conflicting, and, after several propositions had been made and rejected, it was finally decided, upon motion of Ben Hill, to adjourn, thus leaving the matter exactly where it stood before the meetings, so far as the candidates are concerned.

There was one thing upon which the candidates present were unanimous, and that was that the constitutional amendment providing for the new court should be ratified. Individually, each of those present pledged his support to the amendment, and stated he would do all possible to influence friends and acquaintances to vote for it.

Judge A. L. Miller, of Macon, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, though invited, was not present at the meeting. He sent the following letter, which explains itself:

"Macon, Ga., September 7, 1906.—
Loran Bleckley, Esq., Atlanta, Ga. My
Dear Bleckley: Your letter of the 5th
only reached me this morning, on ac-

day will be payable on the next business day.

To Elect New Colonel.

The officers of the Third Infantry regiment will elect a new colonel and two new majors at an election to be held tomorrow night in Augusta, the headquarters of the regiment. Captain John D.
Twiggs will be chosen colonel of the regiment, but the names of the two new majors who will be elected at that time have not yet been made public. The new officers were nominated for these positions by Colonel W. G. O'bear, inspector general of state troops, who has had charge of the reorganization of the regiment.

Mark Johnston Thanks Friends.

Mark Johnston, in the following card, thanks those who supported him in the recent state primary:

"Editor Constitution: Adequate words fall when I would express my appreciation, my gratitude, to the 92,981 democrats who supported me in the late primary. To know that practically 70,000 men, citizens of my native state, the biggest half of whom know me personally, are still kind to my faults, overwhelms me, and all that I can say will ever appear to me but a feeble response to their kindness.

"Two defeats are inclined to cause one to be skeptical as to one's chances for success; an unhappy state of affairs, truly, and at a critical point in my political life, when above all else, I need tranquillity. However, the matter may be amicably arranged, I may meet with success; I may be happy yet two years hence, and happily this is my belief, this is my judgment, as my vote of 1906 is nearly double that of 1902. But the looking back over it all is frightful and so irremediable; I feel as if I had traveled over miles and miles of desert earth.

"Now that the days have scattered the cobwebs which for a time obstructed my clear perceptions, I am surprised at the enigmatic inscrutable dexterity so adroly and secretly employed in trimming my sails by these modern political geniuses,
the gentlemen of the great New England book trust. But I will not cavil, I will not wall. Rebellion on my part shall not enter here, although the gentlemen
of the great trust set their nefarious
plans to defeat me, secretly, in the dark places, as preying vultures, unworthy of the light, build their obscure nests in deep, dusky caverns; yet I will not revolt.

"To be a party to any disturbance, to jeopardize the present tranquillity would be a crime; but for the 70,000 friends who supported me, the vast 70,000, my heart will never fail to pulse sympathet-cally.

MARK JOHNSTON.

Atlanta, Ga., September 8, 1906.

Railroad Commission.

The state railroad commission will hold its next regular meeting on Wednesday next, September 12. At that time, so far as is now known, the only questions of interest to be considered are the rates on marble from the north Georgia quarries,
and the complaint of the people of Boston, Ga., who have asked for lower erial method of problem of chance of than outtitudinous chances

th in the frozen north. While he suff very optimist-issue of his plans, gnored its sinister

e, that he has des start for a full crease the useless nature, should win rather than its ren as a man who,
in the face of inis sufficiently dis-te death with fool-nce the mission gaged has waited les, another year hardly prejudice uccess. The explinths will find him pment and more nd the world will and enthusiastic that time than it

Black Number.

so, is, we gressional paratively go, and his life,
the booming and re old foggy ideas got foothold; but ill adequately deof a man who that "the administo have a policy
the statutes."

r. Roosevelt's ads the man think-Where has he if during the past does not under usiness of the ada "policy" upon world and the

or if he is not to to his own "poliis people? Should s of congress be-spelling or reguof those whose entrusted to his logy living in the Washington-Linley days would about ad-those ex-Senator's offense toward heaven to attack a policy Roosevelt's own administration's atty—whose special d Pinchot, one of

Berlin-Johnson-DuBos

SEATS WILL COST $100 NEGROES TO ENTER RACE

Separate Assessment Fixed for Candidates for Appeals Court.

er 12.—(Special.) Afternoon passed the separation street cars in of leading neared before the he measure, and It was of no age of the ordi-

At a meeting of the subcommittee of the state democratic committee, held yesterday afternoon, it was determined to assess all candidates for the court of appeals $100 each, this amount to be paid to the chairman of the said committee on or before September 18, 1908.

The subcommittee, consisting of R. R. Arnold, of Fulton; E. H. Mason, of Glynn; Bowdre Phinzy, of Richmond; Paul B. Trammell, of Whitfield; R. L. Greer, of Macon, and A. L. Miller, ex-officio chairman, was authorized by the state democratic committee to arrange all the details of the primary election for judges of the proposed court of appeals.

The name of any candidate who has not paid said assessment on or before the date named will not be printed on the official ballot.

This assessment is merely for the purpose of printing and distributing the official ballots for such primary in the several voting precincts throughout the state. Any unexpended surplus there may be will be refunded to the candidates.

Democratic papers over the state are requested by the ex-officio chairman, A. L. Miller, to print an announcement of the assessment decided by the committee.

ATLANTA GETS MOST OF THEM

Junior Order of American Mechanics Elect Officers.

Augusta, Ga., September 12.—(Special.) The thirteenth annual convention of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics closed here this afternoon, after electing officers and choosing Maconville as the meeting place next year.

The chief business of public interest transacted was the unanimous adoption of a resolution opposing immigration. The federal government was memorialized and called upon to take action against the importation of foreigners to our shores. It was declared inexpedient that we should open our gates to "outcasts of the old world. In most cases vagabonds and the scrapings from among lawless peoples." The resolution opposes the bill which is to be introduced into the next Georgia legislature. Each legislator is to be presented with a copy of the resolutions and the state councillor is to appoint a committee of seven to appear before the legislature in opposit the bill.

BOWDEN LITHIA WATER is dispensed from our attractive coolers. When you ask for BOWDEN LITHIA WATER see that you get it.

The election of officers resulted as follows: State councillor, W. H. of Atlanta.

State vice counselor, George O. Savannah.

Junior past state councillor, W. Moxley, of Macon.

State secretary, E. R. Dillingha Atlanta.

State treasurer, O. H. Puckett, Atlanta.

State inside sentinel, William W. of Atlanta.

State outside sentinel, W. B. St. Gaiveville.

State chaplain, Rev. A. E. Sund of Rome.

S. W. M. Jones, Griffin; S. C. Belding, Augusta; C. J. R. S. Mevannah; A. J. Russell, Atlanta; A. E. Pearce, of Atlanta.

National representatives, J. R. ton, Augusta, and J. E. Lovelace, Atlanta.

Deputy national councillor, C. C. I Savannah.

SAM JONES' TABERNACLE MINGS, CARTERSVILLE, G.

On September 15 to 23, inclusive, Western and Atlantic R. R. will tickets from Atlanta, Dalton and mediate stations to Cartersville, at of one fare for the round trip. Sam Jones will be assisted by Evan Oliver and other ministers of re Prof. E. O. Excell will have charge the music, and other gospel singe note will attend. Three services day—10:30 a. m., 3 p. m. and 8 p. and the people of Cartersville will come the great crowds with the hospitality they have always show.

CHAS. E. HARMA General Passenger Ag

Negro Baptists Convene.

Memphis, Tenn., September 12. National Negro Baptist convention called to order this morning at 9 o There was a full attendance of dele The morning session was devoted vational exercises. At the afternoon session delegates will be enrolled.

his adherence to government ownership as a political issue. Mr. Bryan simply stated his individual opinion, adding: "I do not know that the country is ready for this change; I do not know that a majority of my own party are ready for it." Then he gave his own opinion rather briefly, in favor of government ownership, taking occasion to refer to conditions in Germany where there is a system of state ownership such as he regards preferable to a comprehensive system of federal ownership, with all its centralization possibilities.

It is well to bear these things in mind, especially in view of the St. Louis dispatches which make it appear that Mr. Bryan has "weakened" from his New York position on railroad ownership, and that he has done this "out of deference to the south."

As we see it, there is no back down or weakening on Mr. Bryan's part. He did not declare himself for immediate government ownership when he made that New York speech; he said nothing that would indicate a purpose or desire on his part to make government ownership the paramount issue in 1908. Others have endeavored to put him in the attitude of doing that, but Mr. Bryan's own words do not do so. He then said that unless the plan of railroads by the federal government proved effective, the country will probably come to government ownership, and he says the same thing now.

Mr. Bryan's prophecy in this regard is certainly entitled to respect. He is not the first man who has made such a prophecy nor is he likely to be the last. No matter on which side of the railroad ownership issue one may be, it is easy to conceive the possibility of conditions under which a majority of the American people would declare in favor of government ownership.

As for the suggestion that Mr. Bryan has "weakened in deference to the attitude of the south"—that seems to be simply the conclusion to which the enterprising newspaper reporter is jumped. That reporter has probably been reading the learned disquisitions of northern editors on northern sentiment—something about which the wisest of them will acknowledge they know little.

These editors have said the south is wrongfully against government ownership—therefore, strongly against Bryan's supposed views. As a matter of fact, there has been very little agitation of the railroad ownership question at the south. The populist party favored government ownership of all railroads, and populist leaders like Mr. Watson have endeavored to keep the fires alive. But improvements. No one expects that the possibilities of Georgia's waterways will be developed overnight. Complete results can only be attained by gradual, harmonious and unremitting endeavor.

The Court of Appeals.

Under the decision of the state executive committee, at its meeting yesterday, the three judges to comprise the new court of appeals will be selected at a special primary to be held at the time of the regular state election, October 3d. Provision is made for separate boxes at the regular polling places, but the election officers will also preside over the primary contest, unless in some special instance this should be found impracticable.

However, such instances are not anticipated, nor is there any reason for clash of any kind. It will be a comparatively simple matter to hold the primary in the manner and at the time indicated, and the plan adopted by the state committee will, we believe, meet the approval of all the candidates as well as the voters.

It not being found practicable at this time to put into effect the majority nomination plan outlined by the recent convention, the old plan of nomination by a plurality vote will hold in this judgeship primary. Three judges are to be chosen; the three men receiving the greatest number of votes will be declared the nominees, to be formally elected in November.

With a view to preventing "single-shotting" of favorites, the rules of the committee call for the throwing out of every ballot which does not bear the names of three candidates. In other words, every man who casts a ballot in the primary must vote for three of the candidates; he should vote for the three whom he regards best qualified for the office, and most voters will do this.

The constitutional amendment providing for the creation of the new court will doubtless be ratified by the voters. Out of the rather long array of able lawyers who are candidates, there will be no difficulty in selecting three who will honor the bench and will start the new court on a life of usefulness.

A Mistake in Names.

In its issue of September 8 The Constitution published a local news item concerning the attempted suicide of a man who had been placed under arrest the day before by Patrolman Mashburn.

The information given by the arresting officer led to the statement that

Gather the darkening shadows fast!—
"Ave Maria! the Night is near!"

II.

Star, looking down with a glance of love
Over the valley and over the sea, Guide us—direct us to look above,—
"Ave Maria! we look to thee!"

III.

Heart! are you troubled? Ah, cease to sigh!
Fluttering dove, would you seek your nest?
Ave Maria! to thee we fly—
Ave Maria! in thee we rest!

He Fixed It.

Mr. James Whitcomb Riley seems to have solved the problem of worry. He writes:

"Ain't a-goin' to worry any more—
Ain't a-goin' to fuss an' fret about it,
We'll git what's a-comin' to us—shore!
Or, thank God, well git along without it!"

Nuggets From Georgia.

Not all the gold is in the depths of the earth; the best of it all is where the heart beats fondest.

We forget that the higher we climb, the farther we have to fall. And falling down looks so undignified!

Thou Art My Dream.

I.

Darkness on land and sea—
Thou art my dream!
Life—and Death's mystery—
Thou art my dream!

II.

Though but a novel there—
Never one gleam,
Stars still through faith appear,— Thou art my dream!

III.

Come, when the dark draws near—Shades bill and stream—
Let me but whisper there!
"Thou art my dream!"

Vale!

The Papyrus—that splendid little magazine—is no more. But Michael Mahahan was its editor, and we may be sure that the genius that made it blossom will yet be heard from in other fields.

Problems.

I.

De alligator on de log—
He fer de sunshine wishin'
De fisherman fall in de lake,
Then, goodby ter de fishin'!

II.

De heathen holler 'crest de sea:
"Come, row 'un 'crest de ferry!
We want salvation, full en free,
En a big, fat missionary!"

III.

Most of the New York the shoot.

Colonel S by the wor of company in winning William Ha Jersey Stat highest ac yards with tion. This given absolu a cash priz In this c Major J. E guard of N bull's-eyes, They agreed amounting ond prizes, the medal. first shot allowed.

Sergeant l the range, v well, yet he Burpitt (w Major Rowle in military 1 o'clock four, the margin land was al man fresh fr and windage

Sergeant l without suc center bull.

"The Geor Scott, "did the selection the contests however, to number of o by business.

"The shoot A great man leave Seagirt weather con at this time

New

Information office of Adj indicating th o (the follo the Third rters in Augu Colonel—Ca company K. Lieutenant ter, company Major—Firs battalion ad; gusta.

Major—Prof Athens, late unteer infant formerly cap troops, at M There are parjes in th Augusta and berion, Mills likely that so admitted will

The follow: received at: eral Harris: Second Lieu pany A, First Second Lieu pany G, First Elections w the vacancie

at the discussion of the question in the recent campaign was but passing phase of politics—one to be forgotten with the end of the campaign; and, what is of graver import, there are evidences of effort in some quarters to make it appear that the port rate, as presented to the commission, was in the interest of Atlanta against the interests of other cities and towns of the state. This adverse sentiment is of the kind that feeds on veiled retort and sinister suggestion. Inaction on the part of the friends of the port rate is likely to be taken by critics as evidence of lack of interest or as acknowledgment of the truth of their criticism. Not only, therefore, is there nothing to be gained by delay, but every day's delay militates seriously against the port rate ever being granted. It is for these reasons that The Constitution believes we should have the port rate NOW.

The Campaign of 1906.
 The Southern League campaign of 1906 has, all in all, been a splendid success. Seven of the eight teams that started in, fired with the certainty of gathering to themselves the championship flag have had their hopes shattered, but even the "fans" philosophers enough to take it in good grace. Nothing short of the scheme by which there may be a few leaders and eight championship teams would satisfy the early season expectations of those wise in baseball. Fortunately for the great league game no such scheme has yet been invented. The fact is the greatest charm about baseball is that uncertainty which is its chief characteristic. The fate of a game turns on the unexpected hit of the poorest batter, the inexplicable bludge of the star folder, the touching victory from defeat by some cock-witted play never before seen on the diamond. And so it is with the fate of the clubs striving for the championship. Those which look best on paper often play the poorest ball. Club of first magnitude stars will lose to win games, while the team composed of men of comparative mediocrity will, through its team work or some other mysterious cause, come up victor. The champions of one year will be way down the list the next year. These uncertainties are responsible, to a very large extent, for the popular interest in baseball. Never before in the history of the national game have so many people rushed to the ball parks as they have this season. It is true of all parts of the country, from the south, where the attendance has been unusually large, the interest in ball has been up to the best minor league form. The lovers of the game have no complaint. The course Atlanta would have liked exceedingly well to pull down that man, but it was not in the cards this year. With practically the same

pride in our navy, but let us also realize that we are "mighty poor Americans" if we do not also feel that the army and navy are only minor parts of our national equipment—that our greatness rests upon the character, industry and efficiency of our people in civil life; that neither army nor navy can shape the character of the nation or prevent degeneracy. The best and most discriminating American patriotism will seek to continue the greatness of the American people not so much by warships as by the cultivation of the highest civic virtues and by the development of the best type of manhood. Patriotism is as essential a quality in times of peace as in war—indeed, it is sometimes seen in its most valuable and sensible manifestation when it undergoes strains and exerts its ingenuity to keep the horizon clear of hostile clouds and to suppress the elements, present in every country, which is ever on the pugnacious alert for a chance to "mix it up" with some other nation. It is patriotism that causes us to labor and maneuver that our educational systems shall be excelled by those of no other land; it is patriotism that has demanded from men in public stations a full measure of fidelity to trust and sincerity to conviction; it is patriotism, no less than self-interest, that sets to work the cunning and the energy of the true developer—the man who opens up idle lands, who sets spinning the wheels of new factories and who, as the modern blazer of trails, dares to tread strange and unfamiliar paths, if thereby the prestige and the wealth of his state and country may be advanced a degree. In the last analysis, it is patriotism that is the keynote of the American character. It is that quality in the national temperament which will ever keep it sane and wholesome, acting as an immovable barrier between political charity and moral obligation and standing as a stone wall against the entire nation ever going radically wrong for any fatal period of time.

these isolated exceptions. Not one of them should be, for an hour after its discovery or for any conceivable reason, tolerated. Council and the sanitary department are under serious obligations to the people of Atlanta in this regard. The consumers expect that their interests will be scrupulously safeguarded, and they stand ready to confirm whatever steps may be deemed advisable to insure such security. The matter is one of too serious a nature to admit of paltering or postponement. The time for EFFECTUAL action is in the IMMEDIATE present.

.....
LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Judge Ray Not a Candidate.
 Editor Constitution—Please permit me to thank my numerous supporters for a place on the court of appeals, should the amendment be ratified. In your valuable paper. Since the race is to be made for the position before there is such an office I withdraw, as I cannot conceive of running for an office that does not and may not exist. I think the office should seek the officer at all times.

I am in favor of the amendment establishing the court of appeals, but think the chance for its passage has been materially injured by having the nomination for judges take place the same day of the election for ratification.

I am very thankful for the many friends in every section of the state that voluntarily offered me their support and shall gratefully remember them. Had the nomination been subsequent to the ratification, I would have cheerfully remained in the race, as a great number of citizens from every county in the state (except three) are asking me to make the race.

Regretting that my ideas are such that I cannot consistently make this race, under the circumstances and trusting that my many friends who have been so active in my interest will view the situation as I do, I remain Thankfully yours,
 LUCIAN L. RAY,
 Jackson, Ga., September 14, 1906.

The Law of Suggestion.
 Editor, Constitution: The very interesting story in today's Constitution from Washington, Ga., is not so mysterious as your correspondent would have your readers believe. The "divine healer" uses a force that is universal and can be utilized by any one who understands or accidentally stumbles upon and unconsciously utilizes the "law of suggestion." Yours truly,
 ROBERT BRYAN HARRISON,
 Atlanta, Ga., September 15, 1906.

In Memory of Dr. C. D. Hurt.
 At the regular meeting of the medical board of the Grady Hospital, Tuesday evening, September 11, 1906, the following resolutions, reported by a committee of the board, were unanimously adopted. It was ordered that they be published in the daily press and that a copy, with the sincere sympathy of the board, be sent to the family of Dr. Hurt.
 "Whereas, unwelcome death has again

Wish for the weather Moonlight in the Time to take your
 To the grindin' of Feel your heart a-gol
 Like a silver band
 When you takin' of
 To the grindin' of
 Then will you for the w
 Honey cups to dra
 When you're walkin heart
 To the grindin' of

Georgia Work Day Orphans

Editor Constitution
 one days' work this y orphans." Is the am orphans' homes of Ge gatherer with death
 ask the earnings of home that they may care annually of ab ferers. Saturday, S been set aside as th Every man, every every child in a happ gift of work-day's li pleasure. There is no of helping the utterly These homes, which neglected children an gle that they will le brought before them,
 the right to ask every of them a glad day may go forward in work.
 The Baptist home feeling for funds to want new building, one in Georgia. With th previously built, they for several years.
 The Georgia Cottag
 is still in need of mo tion and for furnishi details of the state pleasure in helping in this and in his o largement.
 The Georgia Indus much needs the mon
 tion of the Mumford other cottages for t constantly asking ad
 The Methodist home
 Macon are also in gr and enlargement. Th Sunday school, under Major R. J. Gulha, at an Atlanta cottage fe at Decatur, and this that each two girls room to themselves an them those traits wh system makes so diffi thirty-five larger girl of the home and w bright, sleeping in one lanta spirit will lead of this home, which of Atlanta children, work day with a full enable them to help
 dren.
 The Hebrews have city home in the sou Sonn is never satisfie things perfect, and so needs. The same may Joseph's Orphanage at which is doing such they have doubtless a largement.
 Home of the I

HON. T. M. BELL HAS ACCEPTED APPELLATE COURT

Congressman From Ninth Sends Formal Letter of Acceptance.

Gainesville, Ga., September 18.—(Special.)—Congressman Thomas M. Bell has given out the following letter of notification and acceptance:

Gainesville, Ga., August 30, 1906.—Hon. Thomas M. Bell, Gainesville, Ga.—Dear Sir: It is our pleasant duty to notify you that you were duly nominated by acclamation as the democratic candidate for congress from the ninth congressional district of Georgia to the sixtieth congress, at the congressional convention held this day at Gainesville, Ga.

"We sincerely trust that you will accept this honor at the hands of the people of the ninth district, whom we represent in thus notifying you of your nomination.

"We desire to express our sincere appreciation of your services since you have been in congress, and we most heartily commend you for same. We feel that no district in Georgia has a better representative, and it is a genuine pleasure for us to know that the interests of the people are in safe hands while you hold the commission from them that you do.

"We feel further that you are in better position to serve us now than you were when first nominated, for the reason that experience is very valuable to all—and we know that you have made the most of it since you have represented us at Washington.

"In this connection we feel that you need special commendation for securing for the ninth district the first appropriation for a government building ever made to this district, and this, too, during your first term. Also we wish to commend you for what you are doing in interesting the proper authorities of our federal government in the development of our agricultural interests, and in securing for many of our most worthy citizens many private pensions. All these things only go to convince us more and more that we have made no mistake in selecting you to represent the ninth district in the national halls of congress.

"Again assuring you of our appreciation of your services and with best wishes from each of us personally, we are, Very truly yours,

"A. S. HARDY,

"J. V. KEITH,

"J. S. ADAMS,

"SAMUEL CRAIG,

"J. H. HOCKENHULL."

Gainesville, Ga., September 18, 1906.—A. S. Hardy, James V. Keith, J. S. Adams, Samuel Craig, Dr. John H. Hocken-hull, Gentlemen: I am in receipt of your letter under date of August 30, 1906, notifying me of my nomination as the democratic candidate for the sixtieth congress from the ninth district.

"I reply allow me to thank you and the people of this district through you for this manifestation of confidence. I appreciate the honor conferred upon me and accept the nomination with the full realization of the responsibility resting upon me. I am in receipt of your letter under date of August 30, 1906, notifying me of my nomination as the democratic candidate for the sixtieth congress from the ninth district.

"I reply allow me to thank you and the people of this district through you for this manifestation of confidence. I appreciate the honor conferred upon me and accept the nomination with the full realization of the responsibility resting upon me. I am in receipt of your letter under date of August 30, 1906, notifying me of my nomination as the democratic candidate for the sixtieth congress from the ninth district.

"I reply allow me to thank you and the people of this district through you for this manifestation of confidence. I appreciate the honor conferred upon me and accept the nomination with the full realization of the responsibility rest-

SIXTEEN OUT FOR APPELLATE COURT

Judge, Reid In a Communication, Declines to Enter the Race.

Palmetto, Ga., September 18.—(Special.)—At the last moment the name of Judge Richard Russell was added to the list of candidates for the appellate court tonight, and the list, as completed at 8 o'clock, contains sixteen names. Those who have paid the required fee to Judge A. L. Miller are as follows: Thomas J. Chap- pell, Frederick C. Foster, Thomas F. Green, W. R. Hammond, Frank Harwell, W. M. Henry, Benjamin H. Hill, Charles G. Jones, George S. Jones, H. C. Pebles, A. G. Howell, P. P. Proffitt, D. M. Roberts, Richard B. Russell, Howard Van Epps, Bartow S. Willingham. The matter of getting the election held properly has required unusually hard work, the exercise of patriotism more than service for pay does not prove attractive to election managers, who must serve without the usual fees. Middle Georgia will put up a solid front for George Jones, and Judge Russell's announcement, while creating talk, has not made any changes.

Judge Reid Out of Race.

Editor Constitution: I desire to state through your columns that I have con- sidered, after careful consideration, not to enter the race for one of the judgeships of the proposed court of appeals.

And I desire also thus publicly to ac- knowledge my obligation and to express my gratitude to that large number of friends from all sections of the state who have assured me of their support. Such loyal and generous friendship excites my most sincere feelings of appreciation. Respectfully,

C. S. REID.

BALLARD BIFOCAL

A revelation to glass wearers. Does away with two pairs of glasses. Both near and far seeing glasses in one frame, as invisible as any glass made, at any price, cost less than high priced so-called invisible Bifocals. The largest manufacturers in America, and abroad are putting in machinery to manufacture these lenses. They will be sold all over the world. Our oculist's prescription department is the most perfect system ever inaugurated in this country. Not how cheap, but how well we can serve you. Ask the oculists about us. Walter Ballard Optical Co. Manufacturing, dis- pensing and refracting opticians, 61 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga.

Rains Flood Kansas Lowlands.

Kingman, Kans., September 18.—The heaviest rains in twenty-five years fell in this part of the state last night and continued today. At Kingman the low- lands are flooded, and the lower part of the town is threatened.

emphasis in this collection are due to the people of Gadsden. This case is one in which the gove has taken the greatest interest. Lyriching followed closely after the publication of one of the alleged assassins of Mrs. Jane Smith, a white woman murdered near Gadsden, and is supposed to have been revenge for such exact clemency.

JACOBS' PHARMACY GIFT DEPARTMENT

Large Sum Spent in R modeling Store to Perfect It.

Jacobs' Pharmacy, under the manage- ment of Mr. Charles A. Smith, has been making new additions to its already magnificent store, on Marietta street. The general offices on the second story unusually attractive, being of mahogany with suitable furniture to match.

A new department has been created being located in the rear of the store. It is known as the "Gift Department." It is large, well lighted, and is now chock full of things suitable for gifts. The department will be specially pleasing to people desiring to make wedding, birthday and holiday gifts. Here you will find the newest things that can be secured either from Europe or the orient. It is finished in mahogany, and has a most attractive appearance.

In talking with Mr. Charles A. Smith the manager, yesterday afternoon, he said, "We have the largest and most beautiful drug store in the southern states. We have just created a new 'Gift Department,' and I think that the public will appreciate it. It is a department that has long been needed by our store. As we carry such a large stock of not only drugs, but of sundries, the 'Gift Department' has become a necessity, and in creating it, we desire to make it the most beautiful, and at the same time the fullest of any in the southern states. Our goods for it come from all parts of the world. When our importations are in, it will be especially pleasing to the cultured and artistic.

"Our store has always been a paragon of excellence, not only in the character of goods we handle, but in the service we give, and now that we have added our floor space, we feel that we are better able to serve the public than ever before.

Jacobs' Pharmacy is a great institution, Progressive, and is always looking for new things.

NOW IS THE TIME
drink LEMON-LIME and BOWDEN LITHI-
WATER. Keep your system in good shape. For sale at ALL SODA FOUNTS.

TRENTON

It is announced at the office of the prison commission yesterday that the institution will probably have from twenty-five to thirty white boys from

Emanuel, Gwint, Jeff Davis, Pickens, Rabun, Troup, are, Warren and Webster. These codes had this money to their credit.

JONES' MEETINGS ATTRACT CROWDS

For Plastering Bill Boards With Advertisements, Liquor Firm Is Scored.

Cartersville, Ga., September 18.—(Special.)—The Sam Jones meetings at the tabernacle are now in full blast and there is every indication that they will be more largely attended and more interesting than any that have ever been held since the tabernacle was built.

The trains coming in in the forenoon on the Seaboard and the Western and Atlantic were extra long ones and were loaded down with people. The southbound train on the latter road consisted of eleven coaches and there was an extra run from Atlanta. Sam Jones preached yesterday morning from the text "Man Cannot Live by Bread Alone," etc. It was a masterly effort and hit at the sinners promiscuously. An Atlanta liquor firm which had plastered the local bill boards with flaming advertisements came in for a scolding that was truly red-hot. Last night Rev. Walter Holcomb, a young preacher who has demonstrated exceptional powers as an evangelist, preached on the sin of David. His discourse was pronounced one of the best heard here in many a day.

The music has been especially fine. Professor E. O. Excell, of Chicago, and Professor Collisum have led the choir, which is a large one. Mrs. Pyron presides at one of the pianos and Mrs. Norton at the other, while Rev. French Oliver, when he is not preaching, presides at the organ.

If the weather continues pretty it will be no surprise to people who are well acquainted with the history of these meetings if a crowd numbering from 15,000 to 25,000 attend the services next Sunday.

COTTON LATE IN DOUGHERTY.

Crop Receipts Show a Shortage Over

RUSSEL TO RUN FOR JUDGESHIP

His Assessment Paid Without His Knowledge or Consent.

Judge Richard B. Russell has been made a candidate for one of the judgeships on the new state court of appeals without his knowledge or consent.

In other words Judge Russell's friends have put him to the race, and it was stated yesterday by Walter R. Brown, who was Judge Russell's close friend and adviser in his recent race for governor, that Judge Russell would not know that he is a candidate until he sees the announcement in today's papers.

Nevertheless, his assessment of $100 was paid yesterday to Chairman A. L. Miller, of the state executive committee, and his name will appear as a candidate on the democratic ticket to be voted in the primary on October 3.

Judge Russell is said, has received letters from all parts of the state urging him to make the race, but he decided to keep out of it.

Mr. Brown has also received letters from many parts of Georgia suggesting that he urge Judge Russell to enter the race for the court of appeals, and stating that because of Judge Russell's well-known ability many voters whose ballots were cast for other candidates for governor would be glad to give him their support in this position.

Judge Russell is one of the best known men in the state, and there is no doubt about the fact that he will make a strong race.

JEWISH NEW YEAR STARTS.

Occasion Will Be Observed in Atlanta by Reformed and Orthodox Jews.

Today usher in the Jewish New Year.

location of the 57 East Hunter firm was Swift, in name being Mr. Myers.

The deceased Y., in the year by all of his act as pallbearers of the Co the Order of R Lodge, I. O. O. Funeral rites home, 105 Fort at 3 o'clock. I view cemetery.

TO: COMPRO

Texas Attorney $40.0

Austin, Tex., General David Attorney Warr mise the forty- all the express in Texas and they operate fo anti-trust laws. Jointly is $40.0 both railroad a agreement or c at once.

VESSEL

Men When Pl to Spars

Charleston, S Clyde Hner N into port the of the Ameri Captain Sayne vannah to Ne Frying Pan s turtle and w were found cl captain and c not found.

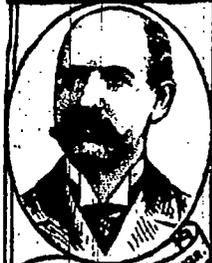

STILES WI

"Run Off" S by Hig

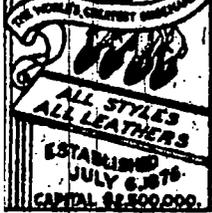

Birmingham, official return cratic primary nomination of sheriff over C majority out c cast. The offi The office of a best paying of

MEMPH

DOUGLAS 3.50 SHOES FOR MEN

Do you wear W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes? If not, you should give them a trial, because they are the best shoes produced for the price; this is proved by my sales. I make and sell more men's $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer in the world.

A SATISFIED CUSTOMER.
I have worn Douglas $3.50 shoes since the opening of their store in this city, and get more comfort, and just as good wear, as from $2 or $3 shoes. They fit properly, look well, and retain their shape.
J. C. ALLEN,
George & Allen,
Factory Agents & Brokers.

Take you into my large factories in W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are made in a way that you would then understand why they are better, fit better, wear longer, and are of more value than any other make. $2.00 & $1.75. Just the same as my $3.50 shoes, the same leathers, for $2.00 and $1.75.

You can obtain W. L. Douglas shoes. His name and price tag, which protects you against high prices and inferior quality. Sold in W. L. Douglas exclusive shoe stores in every city by the best shoe dealers everywhere. Catalogue mailed free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass. 50 Shoe Store in Atlanta: 11 Peachtree Street.

Corner Edgewood and Boulevard

You can't make a mistake in buying a corner lot on two of Atlanta's principal streets.

This one is 57 feet front on Edgewood avenue, running back 98 feet. Price $2,280.

FORREST & GEORGE ADAIR.

EVERY little while you sit at your desk and fume and fret because of an interminable wait for some bit of information that you should be able to get in an instant. Don't blame your clerks—get a Card-Index System and you'll have it all at your finger-ends, and not need so much office-help. Foote & Davies Co., Office-Supply Department, 61 E. Ala. St., Atlanta.

Special

FUNERAL
SWIFT.—The friends of H. Swift, Mr. Mrs. J. O. Pe Brown are in honor of Mr. C and Baptist church noon, September following funeral conducted by ac P Barclay, (Patterson, Hurn, J. S. H Howard) Central view cemetery will officiate.

CALDWELL.—Dr Caldwell, at her Tuesday morning funeral service at Marietta, at Oakland churches will be at 11 o'clock. please copy.

MEETING
Attention
To the chiefs of the Tribe, No. 1 Men, you are requested to attend Brother Charles and Baptist church Westview cemetery. Yours in E C. M. CAIN, Ac

ANNOUNCEMENT
For county commission

FOR BAGGAGE
PHO
Moroccan Baggage

THE C
Tonight and 7 MATINEE THRU The Fair
MURRAY
IN SUCCESSFUL

AROUND
New Songs, Daily Night prices, 25 and 50c.

Friday and Saturday
THE AL GREATER
65-P1
All the old favorite PRESS
Night prices, 25 to 75c. Sale now

No. 38 Broyles Street, 6-Room House and Barn $2,500

Terms: $400 Cash, Balance $25 Month.
Bath and gas; barn on premises; splendidly built; cabinet mantels. This is an attractive home and is offered on these liberal terms for a few days.

S. B. TURMAN & CO.

THE VICTOR Sanitarium

321-323 Whitshell Street.
DR. H. E. & P. T. TRAX, Physicians in Charge.

A private homelike institution for the treatment and cure of Nervous and Chronic Diseases; Liquor, Morphine, Cocaine or other drug habits. Cures perfected in four weeks. Treated and supplied with Static Influence, X-Ray, Magnetic, Vibratory, Modernized Bath Appliances. Electricity successfully used in the cure of diseases. Address DR. E. M. WOOLLEY, 102 North Pryor St., Atlanta, Ga.

Low and moderate...
21 1/2c; extra 24c. Cheese steady 11 1/2c to 12 1/2c.
St. Louis, September 18.—Poultry firm; chickens 10c; springs 11c; turkeys 14c; ducks 8 1/2c; geese 5c. Butter firm; creamery 26 1/2 to 26c. Eggs firm 17c.
Kansas City, September 18.—Butter steady. Eggs 20c.
Cincinnati, September 18.—Eggs firm 21c. Butter steady; extra creamery 26 1/2c; do. first 24 1/2 to 25 1/2c; dairy 18c. Poultry firm; springs 14 1/2c; hens 11 1/2c; turkeys 14c. Cheese steady 12 1/2c.
Foreign Finances.
London, September 18.—Consols for money 86 1/16; do. account 86 7/16. Atchafson 112 1/8; do. preferred 108; Illinois Central 179; Louisville; and Nashville 156 1/2.
Bar silver quiet at 31 5/16d.
Money 3 1/2 to 4 per cent. Short bills 4 1/4 to 4 1/8; three months' bills 4 1/4 to 4 1/8.
Berlin, September 18.—Exchange on London 20 marks 40 pfennigs for checks. Short bills 3 1/2; three months' bills 4 1/2 per cent.
The weekly statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows the following changes: Cash in hand decrease 6,640,000 marks; treasury notes increased 2,280,000 marks; other securities increased 155,300,000 marks; notes in circulation increase 11,850,000 marks.
Paris, September 18.—Three per cent rentes 98 francs 95 centimes for account. Exchange on London 25 francs 19 centimes for checks.
This Live Stock Market.
Chicago, September 18.—Cattle—Receipts 13,000; market steady but slow. Common to prime steers $3.75 to $3.80; cows $2.70 to $4.75; heifers $2.50 to $3.35; bulls $2.55 to $4.50; calves $3 to $3.25; stockers and

Cut Prices

In which they lie are so many that if placed end to end they would girdle the world.

As to the money invested in the telephone business its amount is inconceivable. The Bell companies alone have a capitalization of more than $300,000,000; and the capitalization of the independent companies here and of the other companies belonging to governments and individuals in Europe and the rest of the world is probably much greater.

These figures give some idea of what that still small voice meant when it first sent articulate sounds over the wires and thereby began the conversations which have so revolutionized the world of society, business and trade.

A Midnight Chat.

It required but a few words to arrange the interview. The time fixed was midnight, for the inventor of the telephone is a night worker. He has always done the greater part of his experimenting and thinking after dark, finding that his mind works more clearly as the world grows quiet and that it is at its best between 12 and 4 in the morning. During the summer months he seldom goes to sleep before dawn and his usual hours for rest are from 4 until 11 a. m.

Dr. Bell's afternoons are devoted to business and social engagements, and his nights to reading and scientific experiment. During our talk I asked him whether his arrangement of the hours was not injurious to health. He replied that he had not found it so, and that he far preferred it to that of other men who work by day. Indeed, night and day are much the same to him, and when he is especially interested in some of his experiments goes many hours without sleep, working on far into the day, and then sleeping for many hours at a stretch to make up. It is by this means that he does an enormous amount of work, carrying on studies and experiments along many lines, and, at the same time, keeping himself thoroughly abreast of the scientific world. He is now within a year or so of the age at which Dr. Oster said the working man should be chloroformed, but his eye is as bright, his step as firm and his mind as active as when he made his great discovery at the Smithsonian Institution and explained it. He tells me that he never felt better than he does now, and I doubt whether he has ever enjoyed his life or work more.

Joseph Henry and the Telephone.

Our conversation covered a wide range. In response to my questions it was at times personal, now drifting into reminiscences connected with his many inventions, and now scientific as I asked him as to the possibilities of new discoveries along certain lines in the future. A part of the talk I have already published in an article about Dr. Bell's recent experiments in the evolution of sheep, and as to his present work on his flying machine. Another part I give you today in the conversation which follows.

We had been talking about the Smithsonian Institution, of which Dr. Bell is one of the regents, and of its late secretary, Dr. S. P. Langley, who was one of Dr. Bell's intimate friends, when I asked him whether he had known Joseph Henry, the first secretary and director of that institution. Dr. Bell replied:

"I became acquainted with Professor Henry when I was still working on the telephone, and he was kind to me. It was years or so before my patent was granted when I called upon him at the Smithsonian Institution and explained my work as to the construction of an instrument which I was working. He had made many discoveries in electricity and in electro-dynamics, having constructed an electro-magnetic telegraph long before the invention of Professor Morse. He appeared much interested in my experiments, and I determined to ask his advice about the apparatus which I had designed for the transmission of the human voice by means of an electric wire. After I had explained the idea I asked him to advise me whether I had better publish my discoveries and let others go to work along the same lines, or whether I should attempt to solve the problem myself.

"He replied that he thought I had the germ of a great invention, and that I would do much better to keep the matter secret and work along by myself."

"But," said I, "I feel that my mechanical knowledge is weak. There are many difficulties to be overcome and I fear I have not the knowledge of electricity required."

"Well then you had better get it," said Professor Henry.

"Those words spurred me to action. I cannot tell you how much they encouraged me. I did go to work again and it was the result of that work which enabled me to bring about my final success. My patent for the telephone was granted last about two years before Professor Henry died."

The Dangers of Publicity.

"Suppose Professor Henry had advised you to publish your discoveries and you had done so," Dr. Bell said. "What would have been the result?"

"I might have lost my invention, and my work would have been quipped and stolen by others. As it was, as soon as the practical advantages of the telephone became known there sprang up claims of prior invention on all sides. A number of well-known electricians appeared, each announcing himself the original inventor; and numerous claims and interferences were filed against my patent. This is the case with nearly every successful patent that is issued, and claims have been filed for such inventions by men bearing fairly good reputations.

"Some of the most remarkable instances of this kind," continued Dr. Bell, "were in reference to a newspaper hoax which was perpetrated by some wag a few years after the telephone had become a success. If I remember correctly, it was about 1880, when many new things were being discovered in electricity. When the electric light was superseding gas and the electric motor beginning to run the street cars. At this time an item was published to the effect that Dr. H. E. Lix of Maunch Chunk, Pa., or some other town of that kind, had discovered a way to 'see through wire,' and had been able by this means to convey the image of a play cat kept in an adjoining room through the wall into a hall and to throw it on a screen before a delighted audience. The dispatch chronicling the discovery was full of technical electric terms and it also contained several proper names, founded like that of the alleged inventor, Dr. H. E. Lix (heli) or some such scientific word.

"Well that dispatch went the round of the press and coupled with it came the statement that Professor Bell, the inventor of the telephone, was interested in it and that he had filed in the Smithsonian Institution a sealed package containing a full description with illustrations of his investigations. Now, the fact was that I had filed a package, which I did not know. At any rate the moment my name was published in connection with it, an indignant letter was printed in a reputable English scientific journal, signed by two well-known professors, Ayrton and Perry, stating that neither I nor the mythical Dr. H. E. Lix had any right to claim the first discovery of transmitting images by wire and that they were the real discoverers of the process. A week or two later other claimants appeared. They came forth from different parts of the United States and from England.

"One of the claimants was a well known New York electrician, Mr. Sawyer, who, like the rest, asserted that he could see through a telegraph wire and could send any kind of an image he wished in that way from one place to another. Another published an article in The Scientific American with illustrations of his invention. I answered nothing in reply to such statements. I had never made any experiments of the kind, and had no inventions to claim. After a short time it appeared that the claimants, themselves were in the same situation. They were frauds, pure and simple, and some of them undoubtedly had put forth their statements with the idea of filing interferences if the invention as alleged should prove to be a practical success."

Elisha Gray and the Telephone.

"How about Elisha Gray?"

"Professor Gray made his claims, I believe, at the instance of his lawyers, and largely through the influence of the directors of a great telegraph company, who then feared that the telephone might injure the telegraph. He had, however, fortunately for me written me a letter of congratulation upon learning that I had made my discovery and disclaiming it for himself; and this letter was brought forth as evidence with the other testimony before the courts. Professor Gray and myself were working at multiple telegraphy at about the same time, and his discoveries were so much like mine that I was for a time afraid of him, and thought he had some way of getting at the secrets of my laboratory work. It was for that reason that I changed my laboratory. When I afterwards met Professor Gray, I realized that his character was such that he could not have done anything of the kind I had imagined, and I regretted my unjust suspicions."

Telephoning Without Wires.

"Will we ever have a wireless telephone, Dr. Bell?" I asked.

"I think it is possible, although the distance of its use may be limited. I remember some experiments I once made not far from the Cambridge observatory near Boston. We had driven two poles into the ground a few hundred feet apart, and had connected them by wire. As soon as the connection was made I put the receiver to my ear and heard a clock distinctly ticking. The tick was a peculiar one, and I recognized it as that of the clock on the Cambridge observatory, which set the time for the greater part of Boston. Upon studying the matter, I concluded that the sound was conducted by the ground to my receiver. A short time later I tried some experiments as to wireless telephony on the Potomac here at Washington, and I was able to hear signals made on a boat at the Aqueduct bridge while in another boat, stationed as far down the river as the Washington monument. In this case the water acted as the conductor. Indeed it is a question whether what we now know as wireless telegraphy is brought about by the signals being carried by the medium of the air or by means of the ground and water. It may be found that in all cases the real conductor is ever a If

KENT
HORS

Y
W which

R

18 Dec

and buttons by a turned off and on "I don't know Bell. Such an long ago in Vlebin but whether it is am unable to say, recently made by carried long dista they are now pla so furnished all c the best of class thousands of subs the practicability not known; but mu le of value and th I have not seen it in operation."

Locating Garfield's Body.

"During my talk him to tell me so tempts to locate I Garfield's body. I that when Gulligan X-ray had not bee geons probed aga experiments were i bullet lay, and a means of Dr. Be which had then ju Dr. Bell:

"My instrument mahogany board c shape of a Natron. the top, and its bo a green cloth. In electric coil, so m moved over anyth stance it would bu let in my hand, a proper electrical c the board over the the result would be the sound being I was over the builid towards proved to this purpose in t failed in connectio field." It was on ac that the Universi me the degree of h "What was the doctor?"

"It is easy to see although we did

ATLANTA SUPPLY COMPANY,

OLE T TE AGE T FO... TED GI, 2 31 outh Forsyth l., Atlanta, Ga. J. C. GREENFIELD, President; C. A. PEEK, Secretary

ER JUDGE RUSSELL WILL CONSIDER

Has Not Finally Decided, but May Be Candidate for Appeals Court.

Judge R. B. Russell, of Winder, who recently made the race for governor, and whose friends have put him in the race for one of the judgeships on the state court of appeals without his knowledge or consent, came to Atlanta yesterday, fully determined not to permit the use of his name, and had already prepared a card along that line.

He found, however, as has been stated, that his assessment of $100 had already been paid by his friends, and that his name would appear on the democratic ticket for the primary of October 3.

Notwithstanding this, it was with great difficulty that his friends persuaded him not to publish the card he had prepared, and upon their urgent solicitation he decided to take the matter under advisement. For the present, therefore, and until he shall make definite announcement as to his purpose, he gave the following interview to the press:

"I had stated to hundreds of parties friends," Judge Russell said, "who had asked me personally and by letter to be a candidate for judge of the court of appeals, that I could not even consider the subject. I thought the matter was concluded so far as I was concerned, and was, therefore, surprised beyond measure when I heard that the necessary assessment of $100 had been paid by friends, and my name thereby entered on the official democratic ballot as a candidate. This was done without either my knowledge or consent. What I shall do of the position. It would honor me or any other citizen to faithfully fill the office of judge of the court of appeals, if the people should establish it.

"I appreciate more than words can express the hundreds of unsolicited assurances of support I have received, largely from those who supported my distinguished successful opponent for governor. But I am not prepared to say what I shall do. The recent death of my little boy makes it impossible for me to make any effort whatever to reach the voters, and my mind has been so completely on other things that I thought the time for paying the assessment had passed. I am in no sense a candidate, but in deference to my friends I shall take it under advisement and let the public know whether or not I shall allow my name used—if indeed I can prevent it.

"I should highly esteem the honor of an election, but I do not desire to embarrass anyone by my candidacy."

Smuggling Charge Delays Ship.

Shellbourne, Nova Scotia, September 19. The Canadian customs officials have seized the American fishing schooner Arthur Binney at Northeast harbor. It is charged that the schooner landed smuggled goods at Liverpool, Nova Scotia, some time ago. The Binney sails from Boston.

THE TEXAS WONDER.

Cures all Kidney, Bladder and Rheumatic troubles; sold by all druggists. Or two months' treatment by mail, for $1. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2926 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials.

SAM JONES' TABERNACLE MEETINGS, CARTERSVILLE, GA.

On September 15 to 23, inclusive, the Western and Atlantic R. R. will sell tickets from Atlanta, Dalton and intermediate stations to Cartersville, at rate of one fare for the round trip.

Sam Jones will be assisted by Evangelist Oliver and other ministers of renown. Prof. E. O. Excell will have charge of the music, and other gospel songs. A note will attend. Three services daily—10:30 a. m., 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. and the people of Cartersville will come the great crowds with the hospitality they have always shown.

CHAS. W. HARRIS,
General Passenger Agent.

ER
aves

O. B. ink of disap-ing he e safe money

S

and ooks.
place
men, their take other s the

It is is act rious liver, ed in n the

ER

S A

THE

JUDGE HOWARD VAN EPPS

JUDGE HOWARD VAN EPPS.

(Epps' of Ge of 18 is no editio great have the p gaged treatl ctally togetl law o lading banks is ext Avary declar pacty than less r In l the A signed quence tice. dent South consol Atlant organl Colleg was death 1893.

EX-

C
Dear of a

RD VAN EPPS

ARD VAN EPPS.

Certainty for the Court of rief Sketch of Life.

He had the happy faculty of interweaving fancy with fact and his speeches were always rhetorical gems. "He took the law course after graduating and left the university the following year with a legal dip." He cast about him for a location and selected Atlanta. "He came here young and fresh from school, to practice law and win fame and fortune. Like hundreds of other brilliant and worthy young men, he did not immediately succeed. Clients did not rush over him in their eagerness to retain him and for a long time he found it an uphill struggle. No one who has not endured it can imagine the bitterness of the beginning when a young man leaves college with exceptional honors to win his way in a profession that meets with no success. The waiting clients, the longing for an opportunity to prove himself worthy, the struggle to keep up, and to keep up appearances without any income—these things are known alone to those who have passed through them. And there are many now among the brightest lights at the bar and the most successful attorneys, who have experienced them. They know just how young Van

Epps' Code Supplement, in which the laws of Georgia are codified, bringing the code of 1895 down through the century. He is now engaged in annotating the reprint edition of Georgia Reports, a work of great magnitude; 29 volumes of this work have already issued from the press. At the present time, Judge Van Epps is engaged in the preparation of an elementary treatise on "Banks and Banking," especially as applied to banks in this state, together with a full treatment of the law of notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading and collateral securities, with which banks are accustomed to deal. His life is extremely laborious. Mr. Robert Lee Avery, who shares an office with him, declares: "Judge Van Epps has more capacity and disposition for hard work than any man I ever saw; he is nothing less than an inspiration to others." In 1895 he was elected president of the Atlanta board of education, but resigned after a few months in consequence of the demands of his legal practice. He was for many years the president of the board of trustees of the Southern Medical college, and upon the consolidation of that institution with the Atlanta Medical college into the new organization now known as the Atlanta College of Physicians and Surgeons, he was elected vice president. Upon the death of President N. J. Hammond, in 1893, Judge Van Epps was elected president of the board of trustees of the college, a position he now holds. He is also vice president of the American Bible Society, in New York, and of the American Sunday School Union, in Philadelphia. No man is more devoted to his profession, and while ever ready to do his duty as a citizen, political honors have no charms for him. Judge Van Epps is one of the sixteen candidates for a place on the court of appeals, if the act creating that court is ratified by the people in October next. He says in reference to this subject: "I have a simple creed as judge. I say of myself that I am absolutely without prejudice in reference to any individual or business interest in the state. Corporations, wealthy men, obscure and friendless men may be absolutely assured that I will be without any sort of feeling in the cases that may come before me, except to do right and enforce the law as I find it. Those who know me well will understand how solemn and sacred a statement this is. With a view to reaching, so far as finite intelligence may enable a man to do so, the real justice of the cause, I pledge myself to an attentive and patient hearing and consideration of the arguments and briefs of counsel, whom clients have honored by their selection, and a decision rendered only after the most conscientious and thorough inquiry."

EX-CHIEF JUSTICE BLECKLEY'S OPINION ON JUDGE VAN EPPS' CANDIDACY

Clarksville, Ga., August 21, 1906.—Hon. Howard Van Epps, Atlanta, Ga.: "Dear Sir: Your announced candidacy for a place on the bench of the new court of appeals induces me to say a few words in behalf of your election. Though I prefer to speak directly to you, I have no wish to put any seal of confidence on what I say. The time, mode and manner of publication are left to your own discretion."

Three facts operate upon my mind to make it upon public grounds wholly distinct from considerations of private friendship. The first is your broad, clear and vigorous judicial faculty. Your discernment of legal truth is apt, ready, strong and safe. By nature you have a large and liberal judicial endowment. The second and third facts relate to the apt and ample cultivation which this natural basis for judicial functions has received to develop, and expand it. For many years you presided over the city court of Atlanta, perhaps the richest city court of the state in point of range and variety of business; and to this experience you have added that of a maker of law books more extensive (I believe) than that of any other Georgian, living or dead. The analytical work done by you in indexing and annotating the Georgia Reports has been a rare and admirable training for judicial service in a court of review. This training may be expected to bear fruit, choice in quality and rich in abundance, should you be elected. That the people will have the enlightened self-interest to make you a member of the court, I sincerely trust. I wish you the most complete success both in becoming a judge and in being a judge. Very truly yours, LOGAN E. BLECKLEY.

OPINION OF EX-ASSOCIATE JUSTICE CANDLER.

August 22, 1906.—Judge Howard Van Epps, Atlanta, Ga. Dear Sir: I have just received your letter, announcing your candidacy for a place on the court of appeals, in the event of the amendment to the constitution, proposed by the general assembly, being approved by the people at the October election. The need for this new court is so apparent to all thinking men, that I need not dilate upon it here. Not less urgent and important is the need that the men who compose it shall measure up to the full stature of judicial learning and ability. An acquaintance with you extending over thirty years, and intimate knowledge of your professional and personal character, convince me that you are admirably qualified for high judicial office, and I earnestly hope that your fellow-citizens may see fit to elect you to a place on this court, if the same should be created.

Ansley
Mon
Go Out and Forrest & Geor

GENERAL DUVAL
TO GO TO FR

Stated for Cuban
With Army.
Gen. Funston to Command
Are Sent to the Island, Officer Stationed in Atlanta
Will Be His Lieutenant.

Washington, September 11.—Officers for command in Cuba the army is sent there has been decided upon by the war department authorities. General Frederick probably will be in command chief lieutenants are likely to be General Thomas S. Barry, Ham P. Duval. These two officers recently completed an inspection of German maneuvers in Europe. notified the war department that tended to call for this country on September 29, but owing to acute in Cuba they have been advised their presence in this country earlier date will be desirable. Operations are going forward to emergency that may arise in reconciliation of the warring in Cuba cannot be accomplished. While the state department informed unofficially of the Havana today of Secretary Taft's official Secretary of State. Official advices had been received department up to the hour of publication. It is said at the state department unlikely that either secret

JUDGE HOWARD VAN EPPS

JUDGE HOWARD VAN EPPS.

His Friends Say He Is a Certainty for the Court of Appeals—A Brief Sketch of His Life.

Robert Adamson, writing for this paper in 1896, used the following language: "It is said of Judge Howard Van Epps that he has written that queer, unreadable signature of his to more judgments than any other Georgia judge has rendered."

It is said of him that he has told more good stories and scattered more sunshine in the paths of his lucky companions than any three occupants of the Georgia bench combined. And it is also claimed that he has found time during this industrious official career to win more social popularity than any of his fellow judges enjoy. Furthermore, he has devoted himself to a lovely family with a beauty and tenderness calculated to revive faith in the reality of domestic bliss. In addition, he has acquired a broad general culture, a knowledge of men and books, and has proved his right to wear the title of learned and dignified.

Wor is this all; his popularity with the members of the bar is one of the finest tributes to his success. Nowhere is his fame more securely fixed than in the hearts and minds of the hard working attorneys who, almost daily, for ten years, have plead in his court. They like for him to preside when they have a case in court, and like to meet him in social life; they like to meet him around his own fireside.

Altogether, his career in Atlanta has worn the hue of brilliancy, and the gradual steps by which he has gone into an enviable place in his profession have been marked by personal effort and individual merit. And the best point of it all, it seems to me, is that his success has been self-made and stands as a tangible illustration of what will and brains and luck can do.

Judge Van Epps says he was born in Zulaega, Ga., some years ago, but that

He had the happy faculty of interweaving fancy with fact and his speeches were always oratorical gems.

"He took the law course after graduating and left the university the following year with a legal dip. He cast about him for a location and selected Atlanta.

"He came here young and fresh from school, to practice law and win fame and fortune. Like hundreds of other brilliant and worthy young men, he did not immediately succeed. Clients did not rush over him in their eagerness to retain him and for a long time he found it an uphill struggle. No one who has not endured it can imagine the bitterness of the beginning when a young man leaves college with exceptional honors to win his way in a profession and meets with no success. The waiting for clients, the longing for an opportunity to prove himself worthy, the struggle to keep up, and to keep up appearances without any income—these things are known alone to those who have passed through them. And there are many now among the brightest lights at the bar and the most successful attorneys, who have experienced them. They know just how young Van Epps felt. This was a time when Judge Van Epps was not as ruddy and robust as he is now. The strain of care, the worry, the doubt, the mental anxiety, took the color from his cheeks and almost the strength from his frame.

"One day he appeared in the city court to represent a client. Judge Cowart was presiding. It was a criminal case—not a big one—but enough to give scope to the eagerness and enthusiasm of the young attorney. He spoke with all the earnestness of his soul, feeling that not only the liberty of his client, but that to a great extent his own future hinged upon the effort he made. Judge Cowart saw something in the speech which the jury did not see and immediately appointed Van Epps the

Epps' Code Supplement, in which the laws of Georgia are codified, bringing the code of 1835 down through the century, is now engaged in annotating the re-edition of Georgia Reports, a work of great magnitude; 29 volumes of this work have already issued from the press. At the present time, Judge Van Epps is engaged in the preparation of an elegant treatise on "Banks and Banking," a treatise as applied to banks in this State together with a full treatment of the law of notes, bills of exchange, bill lading and collateral securities, with which banks are accustomed to deal. His work is extremely laborious. Mr. Robert Avary, who shares an office with him, declares: "Judge Van Epps has more poeity and disposition for hard work than any man I ever saw; he is not less than an inspiration to others."

In 1895 he was elected president of the Atlanta board of education, but signed after a few months in consequence of the demands of his legal practice. He was for many years the president of the board of trustees of Southern Medical college, and upon consolidation of that institution with Atlanta Medical college into the organization now known as the Atlanta College of Physicians and Surgeons, was elected vice president. Upon the death of President N. J. Hammond, 1893, Judge Van Epps was elected president.

EX-CHIEF JUSTICE BLI ON JUD

Clarksville, Ga., August 21, 1906
Dear Sir: Your announced candidacy of appeal induces me to say a few words I prefer to speak directly to you, I have what I say. The time, mode and in discretion.

Three facts operate upon my mind distinct from considerations of private and vigorous judicial faculty. Your strong and sane. By nature you have

The second and third facts relate to this natural basis for judicial function. For many years you presided over the richest city court of the state in position to this experience you have added tenative (I believe) than that of any other work done by you in indexing a rare and admirable training for training may be expected to bear fruit should you be directed. That the position make you a member of the court. I wish you the most complete success as a judge. Very truly yours,

OPINION OF EX-ASSO

August 22, 1906.—Judge Howard Van Epps just received your letter, announcing of appeals, in the event of the same the general assembly, being approved.

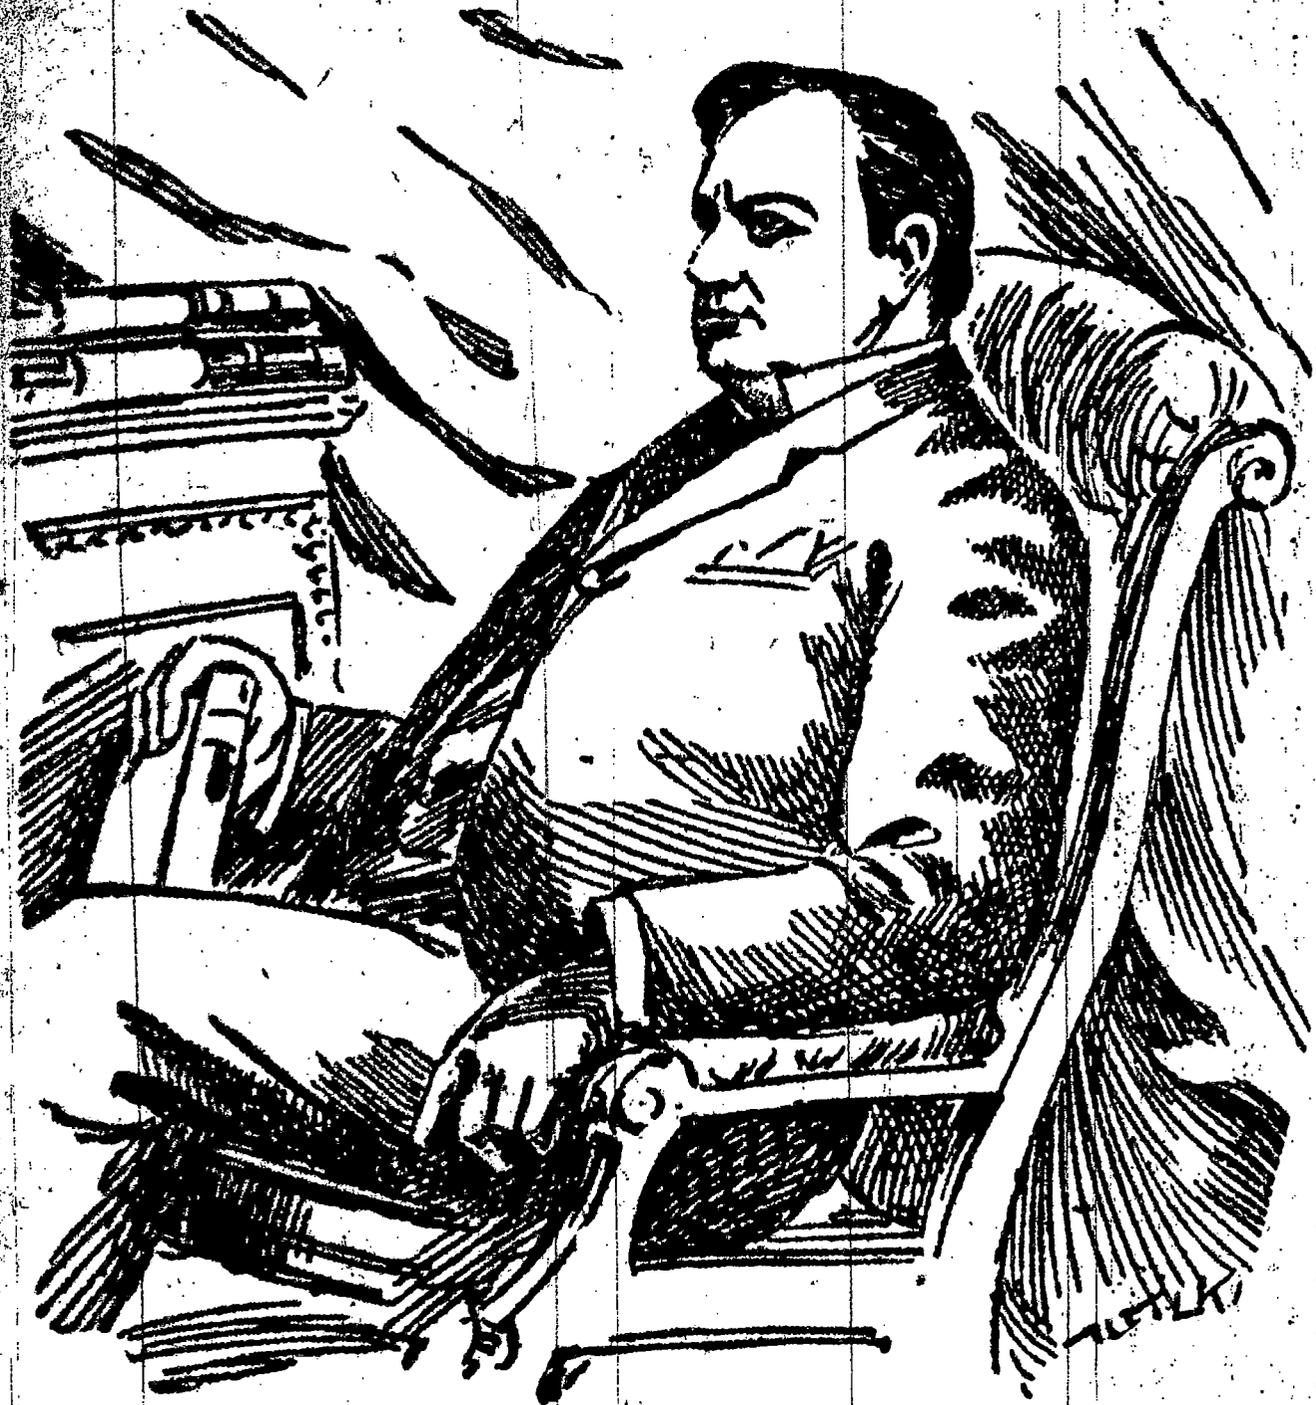

The need for this new court is so not dilate upon it here. Not less so when who compose it shall measure its ability. An acquaintance with your mate knowledge of your professional you are admirably qualified for high your fellow-citizens may see fit to elect should be created.

As judge of the city court of Atlanta since your retirement from the bench of the greatest benefit to all Georgia, convincing manner the depth and the research.

I do not hesitate to say that, if elected to the bench, your friend,

JEWELS STOLEN FROM DEAD ROD

JUDGE HOWARD VAN EPPTS

JUDGE HOWARD VAN EPPTS.

Epps' of Ge of 18 is no editio great have the p gaged treatl ctally togeth law o lading banks is ext Avary declar packy than less n In 1 the A signed quence tice. dent South consol Atlant organl Colleg was death 1893.

EX-

C Dear of a

ATLANTA CITY
WAL ROOMS
 170 North Street
 Guaranteed $2.00 10 ft.
 on taken in the morning
 one day.
$3
W PRICES.
Specialty.
 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

JUDGE MILLER FIXES BALLOT

Sixteen Candidates Out for Court of Appeals.

Three, and Only Three, Men Can Be Voted For, Eliminating All Single Votes.—The Primary Will Occur With Regular Election.

Macon, Ga., September 20.—(Special.)—Judge A. L. Miller, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, announced the official form of the ballot to be used in the election for judges in the appellate court at the primary set for October 3 today, and from the instructions accompanying the form it will be seen that there can be no single-shot vote. Three men, and only three, must be voted for. If the ballot is to be counted at all, this instruction must be carried out.

The primary will be held along with the regular elections, but in separate ballot boxes. The expenses will thus be made less than if it were to be made an independent affair. The ballot form is as follows:

COURT OF APPEALS.

OFFICIAL BALLOT.

For State Democratic Primary, Held October 3, 1906.

INSTRUCTIONS.

The voter must scratch all but three names. He cannot vote for more than three candidates, nor for less than three.

FOR JUDGES OF COURT OF APPEALS.

- THOMAS J. CHAPPELL.
- FREDERICK C. FOSTER.
- THOMAS C. GREEN.
- W. R. HAMMOND.
- FRANK HARVELL.
- W. M. HENRY.
- BENJAMIN H. HILL.
- CHARLES G. JAMES.
- GEORGE S. JONES.
- H. C. PEEPLES.
- A. G. POWELL.
- P. F. PROFFITT.
- D. M. ROBERTS.
- RICHARD B. RUSSELL.
- HOWARD VAN EPPS.
- BARTOW S. WILKINGHAM.
- STREET CAR MAY REVIVE TROUBLE.

Street Car Men May Again Strike.
 Macon, Ga., September 20.—(Special.)—There are indications that the trouble between the officials of the Macon Rail

GRAVEYARD FIGHT AIRED IN COURT

Undertaker Committed to City Court for Assault Upon Doctor.

Growing Out of a Dispute Over the Design of a Vault at Rose Hill Cemetery, Undertaker Burghard Used Buggy Whip on Dr. Roland Hall.

Constitution Bureau, 467 Second Street, Macon, Ga., September 20.—(Special.)—The first statements from the principals involved in the fight Saturday at Rose Hill cemetery in which Undertaker L. H. Burghard used a buggy whip on Dr. Roland Hall, were made in police court this morning by the men themselves. They were long and involved old quarrels in which it was revealed that the two men had been out with each other for a long time. It wound up with a dismissal of the charges of fighting against both men and the undertaker was committed to the city court on his own recognizance under charge of assault and battery.

The accounts as given by both men revealed that Dr. Hall had termed Mr. Burghard a scoundrel and a meddler into his business affairs. This arose out of a request from Oscar Dooly for a better grade of brick in a vault which was being made for the transfer of a body. When the undertaker was informed as to the term which had been used by the city sexton, he went to the cemetery and meeting Dr. Hall at the gateway he demanded that Dr. Hall stop abusing him to his friends. It all occurred before the removal of the body was in progress and at a distance from the point of interment.

Here, after some words, the one said he was attacked while he was making an effort to avoid a difficulty and the other said he had hit no lick until he was forced to so. Dr. Hall was slightly injured, while Mr. Burghard came out with little damage.

At police court numbers of prominent people were witnesses and the whole morning session was taken up. The question of the quality of brick used in the grave was thoroughly thrashed out and the attorneys making the defenses were busy for a long time.

Prisoner Makes Escape.

Macon, Ga., September 20.—(Special.)—While Dr. E. B. Elder was allowing W. M. Blankenship an opportunity to take

FAILED TO ALEXANDER

Alexander Aight
 Two Miles Out

Counsel Immediately and in Sum of $5,000.
 bezler Taken to His le Home, Where He d All Callers.

September 20.—Thomas the alleged defaulter, Lieutenant William Coligusta at 9:30 this morning who awaited Alexander's motion, station, were disappointed that the other left about 2 miles from the office of Sheriff Alexander was taken in door. His counsel were immediately bond was in of $5,000. Alexander his residence in the fashion of the city and has been seclusion all day, deers. A hearing will be stood, in a few weeks.

TABERNACLE MEET- ERSVILLE, GA.

15 to 23, inclusive, the Atlantic R. R. will sell tickets, Dalton and interspersed at Cartersville, at rate and trip.
 listed by Evangelist ministers of renown, cell will have charge of other gospel singers of id. Three services each 3 p. m. and 8 p. m.—of Cartersville will welcome with the same has always shown.
 CHAS. E. HARMAN,
 General Passenger Agent.

$11.00

FREE

GRAND

Open to everybody (with a Dictionary and see how much)

WESTER

Other prizes ranging in value and will be accepted at our regular retail price. This is "Kimball" piano, and is 1

RULE

Lists must reach our office Dictionary to be authority towns or places. Do not "Wester Music Company," once. No one connected with will be given. Decision of plied on the same piano, and attach coupon to list. will be rejected. The winners citizens of Atlanta, the o

SEE THE PRI

OUT, FILL OUT AND WESTER M

I herewith submit list test.
 Name.....

Smiths Convicted of Enslaving Black Who Was With Roosevelt.

When a vivid stroke he barrel from which he a quart, and set the barrel and quick- before the tire was fully buried.

Cape Girardeau, Mo., September 21.—The jury in the Smith case today returned a verdict of guilty against Charles M. Smith and Charles M. Smith, Jr., and the five tenants of their farms on the eleventh count in the secession cases. The eleventh count of the forty-four indictments refers to John Reed, the negro who was with President Roosevelt in Cuba and escaped from the snuck on the farm by sawing his way through the floor at night. He was the strongest witness for the government. Sentence has not yet been passed. Judge Krum filed a motion for a new trial.

CONFECTIONS.

Law to Be Ap-Candy. e.

September 21.—Confessionary en up by the federal 1 by congress to draft for the enforcement d drug law. Featu- the opening of the t mineral substances specially forbidden in of harmless or not. animal coloring shall ibility. Colors pro- process shall not be or animal colors. istic nature as defined to drugs, are also ibility. Dr. Edward ng a number of con- icturers, protested on of the use of coal

ATLANTA BOY IS HONORED.

Dozier Lowndes Elected President of University's Junior Class.

Athens, Ga., September 21.—(Special).—The junior class of the university, at its meeting this morning, elected the following officers for the present year: President—Dozier Lowndes, of Atlanta. Vice President—C. G. Mills, of Griffin. Secretary and Treasurer—S. B. Hatcher, of Columbus. Captain Football Team—Kyle Smith. Captain Baseball Team—Frank Martin. Chaplain—W. C. Herford. Poet—S. M. Gates.

To Write Up Columbus.

Columbus, Ga., September 21.—(Special).—J. Wright Thompson, a traveling representative of The Chattanooga Tradesman, is in the city gathering data for a descriptive article about Columbus and its industries, which is soon to appear in that well-known trade journal.

Plumbers Still on Strike.

Macon, Ga., September 19.—(Special).—Macon plumbers have failed to reach an agreement as to $5.00 with an eight-hour day and are still out. Master plumbers are still laboring to meet the demands on the large contracts which have been left unfinished.

DENTAL SESSION IS CLOSED.

Work of the Convention Was Closed Yesterday at a Meeting of the Resolutions Committee.

The National Dental Association, through its committee on resolutions, completed the work of the convention yesterday by preparing resolutions of thanks to the various local committees, the press of the city and the hotels, St. Thorpe, of St. Louis, a member of that committee, being delegated to perfect the papers and transmit them to the points objective.

"I have been attending the convention of the association every year since I became a member, immediately after my graduation, and with a single exception I feel safe in saying that the session just completed was the happiest, the most satisfactory and the most thoroughly complete of them all. The Buffalo meeting was a feature in the life of every one who went near the roaring Niagara, singing, singing noise of Niagara Falls. The residents of that section excited themselves in every possible manner to please the visitors. But, it may have been the genial, warm Indian summer sunshine down here—I don't attempt to say what it was—anyhow, there was something that made our meeting just closed the equal in the minds of many of the Buffalo meeting. It will require some little time to perfect the resolutions, as the papers must, after they have been drawn, be sent from member to member for observation, changes and signatures.

"There were but three of us present this morning, but the gist of the papers was practically agreed upon."

Violent Letter From Bishop.

Madrid, September 21.—The Bishop of Cordova has issued a pastoral letter of extreme violence against the Royal Decree, authorizing civil marriages. Count Romanones, the minister of justice, has decided to act firmly in the matter.

CHAPPELL GETS ATLANTA MANY LETTERS IN I

Friends Assure Him of Their Support in His Candidacy.

Columbus, Ga., September 21.—(Special).—Judge Thomas J. Chappell, the Columbus candidate for the judgeship of the proposed court of appeals, is receiving assurance of support from his friends in all sections of the state. His mail is quite a heavy one now that the day for the primary is approaching, and the letters from his friends in other counties are of a confident tone, that is gratifying to the people in Muscogee, his home county. It is quite probable that Judge Chappell will have the solid vote of the Chattahoochee circuit, in every county of which he has practiced law, and in the cities and towns over the state where he is personally known his friends are expecting that he will receive a handsome vote. Under the ruling of the state democratic executive committee, three candidates for judge must be voted for, else the ballot will not be counted. There is much speculation as to what other candidates will receive a plurality in Muscogee. It is probable that the vote will be divided among quite a number of candidates.

Executive Committee Meets.

Columbus, Ga., September 21.—(Special).—A meeting of the Muscogee county democratic executive committee was held this morning. Chairman J. B. Key presiding. W. Cecil Nell was elected permanent secretary of the committee. W. C. Woodruff was elected as temporary secretary in Mr. Nell's absence from the city. On motion of R. W. Page the committee directed that the primary for appellate judge in Muscogee county be held in connection with the regular election on October 3 and under the same rules, and that the chairman be requested to confer with the ordinary of the county and arrange for the managers and clerks of the regular election to conduct the democratic primary for judges at the same time and place. The managers and clerks are asked to do this without compensation, as the new committee has not yet raised any funds, and it would be unjust to call on the candidates for appellate judgeships to pay the expenses of the primary in each of the 148 counties in the state.

Grand Marshal Suspended.

Columbus, Ga., September 21.—(Special).—Marshal Floyd, of Girard, Ala., has been suspended by Dr. D. E. Morgan, chairman of the police committee of this city, because the marshal would not release a prisoner on $2.00 bond. The marshal thought $10 should be the proper bond.

Russell County Citizen Dies.

Columbus, Ga., September 21.—(Special).—A. M. Fuller, a prominent Russell county farmer, died yesterday at his home near Gantt, Ala. He was a member of Camp Waddell, at Columbus. Yestern. Immortal took place at Villa.

Columbus Contributions.

Columbus, Ga., September 21.—The

To be in one railr day is more th looking for, but gen on a train which in the distance of st enough to break one hand for life. This is exactly the S. Ry. Bridges, manage Tycodon System, 415 building underwent miraculously escaping. no greater injuries than knee and a suit of cloth of commission.

Mr. Bridges, Wednes on the passenger train ville Millard Railway to Jefferson, the latest terminus of 33-mile b pending from Belmont. The train was made u tive, one box car, an cars. The road has r verted from a narrow standard gauge, but as not been changed, the moved to broaden the near to the end of the sult'bring, that in som is not very securely fa to this fact the passen accidents which befell

"We had proceeded," said Mr. Bridges, to of Jefferson, and the ning at a speed of 3 miles per hour when pened. It was riding t reserved for whites, w other passengers when began jumping up an facking broncho. It' its back at times for a a cat when it seen it would come down stiff wheeled, as would be press it—and all the w gers were making fr reach the windows or t That, however, was a well a headlubber try t of a side in a storm s passengers to have a in that car, other the

Sometimes the Nature has provid Dyspepsia, Indiges Discomforts ever direc It thoroughly water neutralize th increase the action food in the stomach plenty of Daniel W strong, and has a "Dana's Water" for the ill that art

We Urge Women to leave no stone unturned, which may lead to their cure, if sick. If other treatments have failed to relieve your womanly trouble, pain, misery and distress, you may find, like Mrs. Mary Irvin, of Pamplin City, Va., a sure cure and prompt relief in WINE OF CARDUI Woman's Relief. She says: "I feel it my duty to let other ladies know of the good that Cardui did for me. I suffered untold misery with headache, straining pains, numb feelings, and other troubles, every month. My doctor did me no good so I wrote you for advice. Since taking Cardui according to your directions I have had no pain at all and am in better health than in ten years. Cardui is a pure vegetable remedy for all the ills peculiar to women. Safe, reliable, and sure. Try it. At Every Drug Store in $1.00 Bottles"

THE GEORGIA

URGENT NEED IS SHOWN OF COURT OF APPEALS

roadway to Halleluia

sunlight's in the rain

not for long

the road to Halleluia

ur troubles in Halleluia

re Four Winds as they re hands to you,

of a heart-beat from its crosses—they make ng sweetest welcome to nd the breast:

love of God and Halle-hat Suffer Here.

y ways of wining

nd feel hell in this more terribly than hell here, the better

et take hold on hell,

y hope is high heaven.

to Say!

is told him—

ame in view:

warm welcome,

end, for you,"

ct very nice:

'cross the settlement

accidents that happen

The Whiteiff Courier,

ch man in the country

THE legislature, with practical unanimity, has submitted to the people, for ratification at the general election on October 3, an amendment to the constitution, creating a court of appeals. The immediate and urgent need for such a court is manifest to all who are familiar with the conditions that caused the legislature to do this.

Under a provision of the constitution of this state, inserted to insure speedy justice to suitors, failure of the supreme court to decide a case before the close of the second term after it has reached that court would be EQUIVALENT TO A DISMISSAL OF THE CASE. There is imminent danger that this provision will operate as a denial of justice to many. The business of the supreme court has increased to such an extent that it will be impossible to decide all cases in the required time.

Some time ago, in order to prevent this result, the court found it necessary to deprive counsel of the important privilege of being heard in oral argument, except in a limited class of cases. Yet the court will begin its October term with nearly 300 cases of the last March term not disposed of—enough to occupy nearly the whole, if not all of its time until the next March term. The cases thus far entered for the October term have increased the number on the docket to more than 700; and the docket of that term will be greatly augmented by the continual dumping in of criminal cases and others in which fast writs of error are allowed. If the cases docketed for that term and for the next March term are as many as those of the last October and March terms, viz., 4,150, THERE WILL BE NEARLY 1,500 CASES WHICH SHOULD BE DISPOSED OF OR HEARD BY THE SUPREME COURT BETWEEN THE BEGINNING OF THE NEXT OCTOBER TERM AND THE END OF THE MARCH TERM.

Ten years ago, when three judges were added to the supreme court, the cases docketed for the October and March terms amounted to 778. The dockets for the last two terms show an increase of about 50 per cent. The increase during the ten years preceding that period was in about the same proportion. THE SUPREME COURT DECIDES IN A YEAR MORE CASES THAN ARE DECIDED IN THE SAME TIME BY THE SUPREME COURTS OF THE FOUR STATES OF VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA AND SOUTH CAROLINA COMBINED.

The congested condition of the business of the supreme court is not due to any lack of industry on the part of its judges. They work almost continuously throughout the year, even during the recesses of the court. In a few years several judges have failed in health, some have died, and some have resigned, on account of overwork. Men are not physically capable of doing satisfactory work at all times under such conditions.

How It Affects the Public

The view of most people is that if there is need of a supreme court for the rich man, there is need of it for the poor man. A case involving less than $100 may involve all that a man has.

It has been suggested, as a means of relief, that those city courts from which cases can be taken to the supreme court, now numbering about about seventy, should be abolished. The city courts have been created to meet the demand for the speedy trial of cases and the necessity caused by the rapid increase of population and business; and the creation of additional city or other courts will continue as long as that increase continues. It is a mistake, however, to suppose that city courts are the main cause of the great increase of cases in the supreme court. It has been found, from an examination of the dockets of the supreme court, that less than nine per cent of the increase in the last ten years came from city courts.

The Only Practicable Relief

Whatever may be the merits of the different plans of relief suggested, the fact remains that the need of relief is immediate and urgent; and the only immediate means of relief available is that provided for by the amendment creating the court of appeals. If the amendment is adopted, that court will begin work next January, with cases transferred to it by the supreme court. WHY SHOULD RELIEF BE DELAYED INDEFINITELY BECAUSE OF THE SUPPOSED ADVANTAGES OF SOME OTHER PLAN, WHICH HAS NO REASONABLE PROSPECT OF ADOPTION? EVEN IF SUCH A PROSPECT EXISTED, A DELAY OF AT LEAST TWO YEARS WOULD BE NECESSARY BEFORE THE CONSTITUTION COULD BE AMENDED SO AS TO INAUGURATE ANY OTHER PLAN OF RELIEF.

If the court of appeals should prove to be unsatisfactory, the people could soon abolish it. If experience should show that changes in the law relating to the court are desirable, the amendment creating the court contains provisions which allow the legislature to make changes without an amendment to the constitution. This amendment, however, was carefully prepared, and if it has the full approval of the ablest judges and lawyers in the state.

Features of the Court of Appeals

The court of appeals would not be an intermediate court, from which cases could be taken to the supreme court and which would thus further delay litigation and add to its expense. It would be the court of last resort in all cases within its jurisdiction. It would be a court alone for the correction of errors in law and equity, as is provided in regard to the supreme court. Its jurisdiction would include all criminal cases not involving capital punishment. Its jurisdiction in

"Judging by the accidents that happen to 'em," says The Whitsett Courier, "there isn't a rich man in the country who will ever ride into heaven in an automobile."

Brother Dickey's Sentiments.

"Don't find fault wid de worl'. Remember, you wuzn't dar ter give instructions whilst it wuz a-makin'."

It's a good idee we can't see de trouble ahead er us. Ef we could, we wouldn't git nowhars fum now twel jedgmint.

Ef you can't skeer off yo' troubles, you kin whistle on de way, en make folks think you doin' ez well ez could be expected.

When you gite ter a high place on de hill, don't holler too loud, kaze a hurricane might come long en sen' you, flyin' ter de valley, whar all de folks would laugh at you.

We kin be happy wid de little things er life. De thing what makes misery in de worl' is folks reachin' fer mo' dan dey kin tote away convenient.

Storm and Rainbow.

I.

De Storm he come a-howlin'—

De wild winds in a race;

De Sun say: "I so shame er you

I bleege ter hide my face!"

II.

Sen' de Lightnin' leapin',

All zig-zag fum de sky,

En all de clouds, in skeery crowds—

De whole worl' see 'um cry!

III.

But out dar come a rainbow,

En 'en sez Mister Sun:

"Oh, ho! I know—I tol' you so,—

You blush fer what you done!"

Never Can Tell.

"You never kin tell what's in store fer you in this old world," said the old man.

"Why I knowed a feller who wuz raised an' born to de ox-cart, an' yit, he wuz finally run over by a automobile, an' got his pictur' in the papers, jest like the fellers that run away with the bank's funds!"

The Dead Soul.

I.

With no soul for dreaming,

Heaven eludes your view;

Calm, or lightning's gleaming,

All alike to you!

II.

Bent upon the pleasure

Which the world imparts,

Find a life to measure

Breaking human hearts!

One of the weather prophets says that we won't have frost enough next winter to frighten the flowers, or please the plumber.

about the same proportion. THE SUPREME COURT DECIDES IN A YEAR MORE CASES THAN ARE DECIDED IN THE SAME TIME BY THE SUPREME COURTS OF THE FOUR STATES OF VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA AND SOUTH CAROLINA COMBINED.

The congested condition of the business of the supreme court is not due to any lack of industry on the part of its judges. They work almost continuously throughout the year, even during the recesses of the court. In a few years several judges have fallen in health, some have died, and some have resigned, on account of overwork. Men are not physically capable of doing satisfactory work at all times under such conditions.

How It Affects the Public.

The public are vitally interested in this. A decision of the supreme court applies not merely to the case decided, but the law gives it the force of a statute, and it controls all other cases involving a like state of facts. It may declare a statute unconstitutional. Its construction of a deed or contract may affect thousands. It is in the highest degree important that the decisions of such a court shall be well considered, and that it shall have sufficient time for investigation and deliberation.

It must have time to prepare decisions which shall stand permanently as correct expositions of the law and guides for the courts and the people.

Remedies Discussed.

There have been and are different theories as to what is the best remedy for the state of affairs which caused the legislature to submit to the people the amendment providing for a court of appeals. For a number of years efforts have been made to secure relief in other ways. The people are not going to abolish the provisions of the constitution which limits the time allowed to the supreme court for the decision of cases. Supreme courts in states in which there is no such law have fallen years behind in their work. Such delays are often ruinous. Parties and witnesses die, property involved depreciates in value, many become insolvent, and many are forced to make disastrous compromises, while awaiting a decision. If this provision of the constitution was necessary to prevent such delays, it is now more necessary than ever, and certainly it will not be repealed in order to allow delays.

Some think that no cases should be allowed to go from the superior courts to a higher court unless a large amount is involved. Repeated efforts to obtain legislation on that line have failed, and there is no reasonable prospect that there will ever be such legislation. It has always been the policy of this state to allow the poorest suitor an opportunity to obtain justice in its highest court creating the court contains provisions which allow the legislature to make changes without an amendment to the constitution. This amendment, however, was carefully prepared, and it has the full approval of the ablest judges and lawyers in the state.

Features of the Court of Appeals.

The court of appeals would not be an intermediate court, from which cases could be taken to the supreme court and which would thus further delay litigation and add to its expense. It would be the court of last resort in all cases within its jurisdiction. It would be a court alone for the correction of errors in law and equity, as is provided in regard to the supreme court. Its jurisdiction would include all criminal cases not involving capital punishment. Its jurisdiction in civil cases would include those originating in city courts and those brought to the superior courts from county courts, justices' courts and other courts, except the court of ordinary.

Should a constitutional question arise in a case in the court of appeals, however, and a decision of the question be necessary to a determination of the case, the court would have to submit that question to the supreme court for instruction, and would have to follow the instruction given. It could of its own motion submit other questions to the supreme court for instruction. In order to prevent conflict of decisions, it is provided that the decisions of the supreme court shall bind the court of appeals as precedents. Except in the particulars stated, it would be a second supreme court.

Provisions for Speedy Hearing.

Its procedure would be more speedy than that of the supreme court. A feature which should greatly commend the court to popular favor is the provision that all cases reaching the court during a term and before it has closed the docket of the term shall stand for hearing at that term. As the law now stands in regard to the supreme court, cases not reaching the court by a fixed time before the term must be placed on the docket of the succeeding term, unless they are of the class in which fast writs of error are allowed, and in this way they may be delayed for many months. In its practice and procedure and in all other respects, except as otherwise provided in the amendment, the court of appeals will be governed by the laws relating to the supreme court, so far as they can be made to apply.

Extent of Relief.

The court of appeals would take more than a third of the cases which would otherwise go to the supreme court, and EVEN THEN THE SUPREME COURT WOULD BE CALLED ON TO DECIDE AS MANY CASES AS ANY OTHER SUPREME COURT IN THE UNITED STATES.

LETTERS FROM PEOPLE.

Industry and Crime.

Editor Constitution: I very willingly comply with your proposal of a few days ago, that the leaders of my race come together in mass meetings, draw up resolutions showing and expressing our stand in regard to the many crimes that are factories and in any field of honest endeavor.

I am more anxious to see every negro hard at work than I am the white member of other races, as the man, let him be black or of any other color, that gives his time, his energy, his thoughts to his work six days in the week, as he should, will find no time whatever to study plans for doing his neighbor an injustice.

I would like to assure you, Mr. Editor, that we stand ready to join you and others in any legitimate effort to wipe

LEY CALLS OFF AUCTION

RUSSELL TO RUN FOR JUDGESHIP

Ansley Park Lots Will Wait For More Settled
Weather.

Former Candidate for Governor Decides to Make Race.

Once more prevented the promised sale of lots at Ansley Park yesterday afternoon. Shortly after noon a shower arrived. Later, by the time six o'clock arrived, the hour set for the closing of the sale, the rain was pouring down hard and all those who had gathered were glad to rush for cover. Mr. P. Ansley, when seen regarding postponement of the sale, made the following statement: "I have already held my sale once and now that the weather is upon us, the weather is so apt to remain unsettled that I have finally decided to postpone the auction of the eighty-three lots indefinitely. While I am taking this action, it is my purpose to hold the sale as soon as the weather settles down again, but I will give plenty and sufficient notice of the date of the sale in the newspapers. It is better to do this than it is to make every preparation with the probability of having to postpone it again. I will wait until Atlanta weather is itself more settled and then I will hold the sale, advertised, and everybody will know it."

Judge R. B. Russell has yielded to the urgent requests of his friends and has decided to make the race for the court of appeals, though, as he states, he will not have time to make any canvass of the state.

Since he has had the matter under consideration at the request of friends he has received numerous letters and telegrams urging him to run, and yesterday he wrote the following card in which he announces that he is in the race:

"Winder, Ga., September 24.—To the White Voters of Georgia: Without any consultation or intimation to me some of my over-partial friends paid the assessment necessary to place my name on the official democratic ballot for the primary October 3. This, per force, entered my name for one of the three judgeships of the proposed court of appeals. The first knowledge of this fact came to me through the daily press.

"Sitting in the shadows of a bereavement, which took from our home circle my youngest son, nothing was further from my mind than public office. I had no desire to tax my friends or obtrude myself upon the public, but in consideration of personal appeals consented to take the matter under advisement. Since the entry of my name by my friends my heart has been touched by the hundreds of voluntary letters and telegrams from all sections of the state requesting that I consent to the use of my name. These require an answer.

"I am not unconscious of the high honor of the responsible position to be filled and if the voters in the primary of October 3 nominate me I will gratefully devote all my energies to giving the people of the state the best service in my power.

"Present conditions make impossible any canvass on my part. Grateful for the many expressions of confidence and support I have received, I leave the matter in the hands of the voters. If elected I shall feel much honored in being permitted to devote the best years of my life and my past judicial experience to the service of Georgia on this new court. If, on the other hand, you choose three of the many distinguished candidates to the exclusion of myself in this unsolicited presentation of my name, it will cause me no complaint. Yours truly,
"RICHARD B. RUSSELL."

INSTANT RELIEF FROM CATARRH.

For a Trial Sample of This Great Remedy, and Convince Yourself on Its Merits.

When we say that Eclipse Catarrh Cure is instant relief from that disagreeable disease from which so many of us are ready to prove this as a relief to your entire satisfaction. No matter how long you have been afflicted, whether how badly stopped up your nose may be, the sample which we will give you will give immediate relief, clear the clogged air passages, throw off the accumulations, and soothe the delicate, irritated mem-

Catarrh Cure is a vegetable preparation of wonderful curative powers, promptly reaches the remotest air passages, where the disease is located, effects a permanent cure in even the most obstinate cases.

A. Wear, Ozone, Fla., Writes:

Open a Box
of Children's Leave it where it is. Watch them Watch their cheeks with health and Uneda are the only So the most nutritious from wheat, the wholesome food 5¢ in a tin moisture NATIONAL BISCUIT

STERLING S FORKS AND Manufactured by the largest makers in solid MY FALL STOCK IS
CHARLES W. CR
Diamond Merchant
16 Whitehall Street,

J. C. Melli Importer of I

WELSH FIGHT PROVES FATAL

Negro Pugilist's Blow on White Man's Head Causes Death.

Buffalo, N. Y., September 24.—Following a prize fight held Saturday night at Titus hotel, Woodlawn Beach, Richard Munson, 20 years old, one of the contestants, died today. Injuries to the brain resulting from a blow behind the left ear are said to have caused the young man's death.

Walter Robinson, a negro, his opponent, was arrested.

AT DOUGLAS PARK

WELSH JIM DOUGLAS WINS HANDICAP, DAY'S FEATURE

Louisville, Ky., September 24.—Douglas park reopened today, and drew a fairly large crowd. The card was an excellent one, and the finishes were spirited. Favorites fared badly, but well-played horses captured all of the events.

Colonel Jim Douglas came back to life, and took the handicap from Harmakis and Celeres.

Jockeys Huddin and J. McIntyre were set down for the rest of the meeting by Judge Hamilton for rough riding. Jockey W. McIntyre was suspended for five days by Starter Dade.

Judge Hamilton today reinstated Jockeys Cherry, Rice and Riley, who were set down for keeping late hours.

Summaries:
FIRST RACE—Selling, about six furlongs: Posing, 105 (Moriarity), 9 to 2, won; Green Room, 101 (Perkins), 14 to 5, second; Ida Davis, 105 (Oregar), 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:10 3-8. Florentine, Telepatny, Balshot, Brookston, Percy Green, Frank Hill, Veto, Optional, Prince Magnet, Darling, and Peter Nathaniel ran.

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs: Zipango, 96 (Oregar), 20 to 1, won; Plausible, 98 (Wishard), 16 to 1, second; Timothy Wen, 102 (Moriarity), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 1-8. Koberva, Nuss Lida, Betty Minot, Red Gauntlet, Sir Mince, Trace Larsen, Western, and Meran ran.

THIRD RACE—Selling, about six furlongs, 3-year-olds, and up: Mansard, 114 (Scoville), 14 to 5, won; Russell, 111 (Wishard), 6 to 1, second; Hector, 106 (Beland), 17 to 10, third. Time, 1:11. Roscoe, Excitement, Alvor, Chief Milliken, Sunny Brook, and Black Mantilla ran.

FOURTH RACE—For 3-year-olds and up, handicap, mile and seventy yards:

JUDGE HENRY ENTERS THE RACE

Launched Candidacy for Appellate Civil Judgeship.

Rome, Ga., September 24.—(Special.)—Judge W. M. Henry, for twelve years judge of the superior court of the Rome circuit, is actively in the race for one of the three judgeships of the court of appeals.

In advocacy of his candidacy, Judge Henry has issued the following announcement, which will be read with great interest by his hosts of friends throughout the state of Georgia:

"To the People of Georgia: I am a candidate for the nomination as one of the judges of the court of appeals. I am in the prime of mature middle life. As to my qualifications and fitness for that important office, I beg to refer you to the statements and indorsements of the bar of this county and circuit, where I have lived all my life, practiced law for many years, and served, for twelve years as judge of the superior courts, as well as to the statements and indorsements of other gentlemen, official and otherwise, whose opportunities to know me as man, lawyer and judge, have been the best.

"For nearly forty years northwest Georgia, that splendid part of the state lying north and west of the Chattahoochee river, has had no one of her sons upon the supreme bench. That bench is now graced by six able and distinguished lawyers from other parts of our commonwealth. As you know, the court of appeals will have three judges. This section of the state does not ask to furnish all of these, but does respectfully ask to furnish a part of them.

"You have observed that, under the terms of the resolution providing for this primary election, you can and must vote for three men. In order to have your ballot counted, may I not hope to have my name one of the three on your ballot? If so, I shall gratefully appreciate your support, and, if elected, I will show that appreciation, in the best way possible, by diligently using every power I have, of brain and heart, to make Georgia a just and efficient judge. Sincerely yours,
 W. M. HENRY.

"September 24, 1906."

See the petition that is being circulated among and signed by the ladies and gentlemen of the entire city of Atlanta, which has particular reference to one of the immediate causes of so many fiendish acts by the black brutes. Leave a message for Hugh S. Wallace, second floor, Fourth National Bank bldg.
 (Paid advertising.)

HARNESS RACES AT CINCINNATI

Bystander, Outsider, Is Easy Winner of 2:13 Pace.

Cincinnati, September 24.—The fifth grand circuit meeting opened here today with a good crowd in attendance. Sweet Marie, who broke her own record at Columbus last week, was the especial attraction of the day. Sweet Marie was driven by A. R. McDonald in an attempt to break her record of 2:02. The best she could do was 2:04 3-4.

The 2:13 pace brought out a field of seventeen. Carrie B. was the favorite in the betting. In the first heat Queen of Clubs bolted into the outside fence, carrying Miss Gay and Country Boy with her and interfering with five other horses. Three were distanced in this heat, but the judges decided that the accident was unavoidable and allowed all horses to start in the second heat. Bystander, an outsider, won the first heat in easy fashion. Carrie B. was again made the favorite in the second heat, but Bystander beat her in a hard drive by a head. The third and final heat went to Bystander. In this heat Miss Gay, driven by Thomas T. Murphy, was run into by Country Boy, driven by Cox. Both men were thrown from their sulkies. Murphy sustained a broken collar bone, but Cox was uninjured. Only four horses started in the 2-year-old division of the Horse Review futurity, and Blue Hill was an easy winner in straight heats. In the 3-year-old division Governor Francis was an easy winner in straight heats.

The track was lightning fast.

THEATERS.

At the Grand.
 The main fact of interest, about Wonderland is that it serves to bring back to Atlanta Mary, Marble and Little Chip.

They are the real fun makers of the whole production, and their efforts throughout the evening won the generous and indulgent tribute that the local theatergoers voluntarily accord to these two who have entertained them so often. Despite the request of Mayor Woodward that all good Atlantians should remain at home after nightfall, the house was well filled, and the audience a most representative one. They applauded the songs and dances of the two stars, ad-

2
S
R
all de thi an co wl me
M.

on bre labe not tast
-it

Com
Qua

R

79-81 Pea

CO

St

Gre

book only in the

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT OF THE NEAL BANK

Interest allowed at the rate of THREE AND ONE-HALF PER CENT PER ANNUM, compounded semi-annually.

H. H. THORNTON, President.

W. F. MANBY, Cashier.

H. O. CALDWELL, Asst. Cashier.

JUDGE BLECKLEY TO A. G. POWELL

Distinguished Jurist Writes Strong Approval of His Candidacy.

Hon. A. G. Powell, of Blakely, one of the well known candidates for the new state court of appeals, who is in Atlanta for a day or two in the interest of his campaign, has just received an interesting and characteristic letter from Judge Logan E. Bleckley in which that distinguished jurist strongly indorses his candidacy for this position.

Judge Bleckley's letter, which will be read with interest, is as follows:

Clarksville, Ga., September 21, 1906.
—A. G. Powell, Esq., Blakely, Ga.,
Dear Sir: During my service of about twelve years on the bench of the supreme court, I studied the mind of lawyers, as well as the cases they argued before me. This experience assured me that as musicians widely differ in musical touch, so lawyers differ in legal aptitude, or what may be called their legal touch; many of them being moderately gifted, some highly gifted, and a few very highly gifted. The three grades or orders are analogous to the grammatical degrees of positive, comparative and superlative—good, better, best.

"The best legal minds are readily distinguished and easily recognized as soon as, with tongue or pen, they touch upon any complex or difficult topic of law, whether in oral argument, their professional documents and writings or merely in conversation. Whenever the superlative lawyer expresses himself his light is set upon a candlestick; it is hidden under a bushel only when he is silent.

"In view of your candidacy for a seat on the bench of the proposed court of appeals, allow me to say, I have seen your light shine with resplendent brightness. I can bear testimony to your being one of the elect few among the members of our profession. You are a genuine lawyer, with a true insight into the nature of law and its real import, both in letter and spirit. With ample opportunity for judicial service I am sure you will not fail to prove yourself a great judge.

Though my letter is addressed to you, it is really intended for other readers, and I request you to publish it.

"My works shall correspond with my faith. In the coming primary I am confidently and cordially for you.

—LOGAN E. BLECKLEY.

PROMINENT ALABAMAN DIES.

Death of Dr. W. E. Jackson, Father

J. E. M'CLELLAND IS INDORSED

Enthusiastic Meeting in De- Kalb Indorses Com- missioner.

Clarkston, Ga., September 25.—(Special.)—An enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Clarkston, held at the town hall, unanimously indorsed Hon. J. E.

HON. J. E. McCLELLAND.

McClelland for county commissioner of DeKalb county. Mr. McClelland has served with distinction for four years as chairman of the board in DeKalb, and has made an unexcelled record for efficiency of administration of county affairs.

W. C. VanVorst acted as chairman and R. D. Moon as secretary. The chair stated the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the question of indorsing a candidate for county commissioner to be elected on October 3, and requested those desiring to present their views to address the meeting.

The following gentlemen addressed the meeting: Dr. C. T. Brockett, F. M. Kenny, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Anthony, Mr. Camp, Mr. Barrett, Mr. Thebaut.

After discussion, on motion by Mr. Johnson, seconded by Mr. Camp, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

THE Geor taking present have issued t statement:

"We are gr the saloons in the time being tion of affairs We wish to Atlanta to st good or evil, city, and satis is the better. "If in the j the town will loons, it will mand upon th nerve and dete demand, and good.

"The one hu establishments to hell, that here only by every good cit see that he is the existence city, the soon made for its r

"The saloons life blood of plunging deepe ery and crime ment of the co

"Information that 90 per c done in the c existence of th than half of l ence of liquors and it is high look into the s plying a reine purpose of the influence possit authorities to ments closed o

T. C. C WRIT

Renews the Against

Hon. T. C. railroad commi ocratic nominee. furnished anothe pers of the state charges against Among other says:

"I recognize yo and I will now n are my exact w McLendon is a erds show that peared in the c tem of railways. If not to assist l of bills inimical work as is now

VOW ON MISSION

tioned for the ice Board.

Race—John Har-
Other Names Commission-ted to Sucunnally.

missioner is now for the office are

unnally will retire March and lected before that past it has been to hold a caucus rth and select a ually the election

HON. THOMAS F. GREEN FOR JUDGE OF THE NEW COURT OF APPEALS

HON. THOMAS F. GREEN, of Athens, Ga.

Hon. Thomas F. Green, of Athens, is now considered one of the foremost can have been doing some their own motion and t that the candidate put Athens bar with its una ment, is one of the ables yers in the state, well qu way for the position he s

Mr. Green has been at past seventeen years, ha from the University of C
His experience as a lawye and varied. He has bee sight into all branches well as a thorough kno procedure of all the court naturally judicial, and he qualification for a judge conservative, careful, upr

In addition to an unque
he possesses a characte and an advocate at all th and morally. His positio munity in which he lives the solid front of the pe in support of his candida

Mr. Green is at present l eral law in the law dep University of Georgia, a p to the time of his deat Chancellor Walter R. Hill son of the late, Chancell

CONTEST NOW ON FOR COMMISSION

HON. THOMAS F. GREEN FOR JUDGE OF THE NEW COURT OF APPEALS

DIXE
W

Candidates Mentioned for the Place on Police Board.

Howard Pattillo in Race—John Harwell May Enter—Other Names Mentioned—New Commissioner Will Be Elected to Succeed Orion Nunnally.

The race for police commissioner is now on and the candidates for the office are beginning to line up.

Commissioner Orion Nunnally will retire when his term expires on March 1st and his successor will be elected before that date.

For some years past it has been the custom of council to hold a caucus on the 1st of March and select a commissioner. This is virtually the election and the same thing will probably be done this year.

The candidate most prominently mentioned at this time is Councilman Howard Pattillo, from the second ward. His term as councilman expires on January 1st and he will be eligible for police commissioner. Mr. Pattillo's friends claim he has ten members of the present council who will hold over to vote for him, and he claims at least six of the new councilmen. As there are twenty-four members of the general council, it will require thirteen votes to elect.

Another member of council who may become a candidate for police commissioner is Attorney John H. ...

HON. THOMAS F. GREEN, of Athens, Ga.

Hon. Thomas F. Green, of Athens, is now considered one of the foremost candidates in the race for a position on the new court of appeals in this state, should the people adopt the amendment creating the court at the election next Wednesday.

From every section of the state, from personal friends, from acquaintances and from men who know him only by reputation, come assurances of hearty and active support in his race. The people have been doing some investigating on their own motion and they have found that the candidate put forward by the Athens bar with its unanimous indorsement, is one of the ablest and best lawyers in the state, well qualified in every way for the position he seeks.

Mr. Green has been at the bar for the past seventeen years, having graduated from the University of Georgia in 1889. His experience as a lawyer has been wide and varied. He has been given an insight into all branches of the law, as well as a thorough knowledge of the procedure of all the courts. His mind is naturally judicial, and he possesses every qualification for a judge. He is wise, conservative, careful, upright.

In addition to an unquestioned ability, he possesses a character unblemished, and an advocate at all times of sobriety and morality. His position in the community in which he lives is attested by the solid front of the people of Athens in support of his candidacy.

Mr. Green is at present lecturer on federal law in the law department of the University of Georgia, a position held up to the time of his death by the late Chancellor Walter B. Hill. He is a grandson of the late Chancellor Andrew A. Lipscomb, of the University of Georgia, and much of the ability of that distinguished Georgia educator and scholar descends to the grandson.

Georgians who are looking for a man of unquestioned ability, high character, abundant courage and convictions, experience in his profession and conservatism in his judgment, will find in Mr. Green the man of their choice for the position of judge of the court of appeals.

"Clans

Manage:
Manag ing
F

"The G dealing v feats of booked t 31, Nove seen in asserted.

Manage play hou had writ telling o gesting c lanta. A owners t course, h engagem them. M will be li tively ab until he happ un reach AT Howeve be no tr
on this a backers

JUDGE BRILES RESUMES

BENJAMIN H. HILL, CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF THE PROPOSED COURT OF APPEALS

BEN H. HILL, OF ATLANTA,
Candidate for Judge of the Proposed Court of Appeals

by parties unknown, and these tickets do not contain the name of Judge Frank Harwell, of LaGrange, who is a candidate for one of the judgeships.

Chairman A. L. Miller, of the state committee, has made it plain that no tickets except those officially issued by the state committee and containing the names of all the candidates for the judgeships will be counted in the primary. There are sixteen candidates, and the names of all of them must be in every ticket voted.

The following communication has been received by The Journal from Hon. J. B. Ridley, chairman of the executive committee of Troup county:

"LAGRANGE, Ga., Sept. 29, 1906.
Editor of The Journal, Atlanta, Ga.:
Gentlemen: Through a mistake someone thereof except the name of Judge Frank Harwell, of LaGrange. It is not known to what extent these tickets have been distributed throughout the state. Under the ruling adopted by the executive committee, these tickets cannot be voted in the primary to be held next Wednesday, and, if voted, could not be counted. In justice to all of the candidates as well as to Judge Harwell, the press of the state should call attention to these tickets so that if any are scattered in the various counties the managers and the people can be cautioned against them.

Yours truly,

J. B. RIDLEY,

Chairman, Dem. Exec. Com. Troup Co."

A. H. THOMPSON,

Secy. Dem. Executive Com. Troup Co."

Judge Frederick J. Foster

Mr. Editor:

Permit me through your columns to call the attention of the people of Georgia to the eminent qualifications of Judge Frederick C. Foster for one of the judgeships of the proposed court of appeals.

This court is a court of last resort, exactly like the supreme court, and it is of the utmost importance that the people select for its judges our very best lawyers. In fact, if this is not done, it is to be hoped that the amendment will be defeated. The appellate court judges should in every respect be the equal of the supreme court judges. They have similar duties and equal responsibilities.

I have known Judge Foster all my life. I have practiced with him as a member of this bar, and before him as judge of the superior courts of the Ocmulgee circuit. While on the bench he made the best judge I have ever known. His ability and purity are attested by the fact that, during his term of office, he was reversed by the supreme court only once.

He is the author of "Foster on Bankruptcy," which is accepted as authority throughout the United States. He is among the very greatest lawyers Georgia has ever produced, and is pre-eminently qualified for any judicial office.

Madison, Ga., Sept. 29, 1906.

Very truly,

EMERSON H. GEORGE.

has not been able to have meet.

The matter of the investigation of establishing gas and electric lighting be discussed Monday, as of which Alderman Key, Councilman Ellis secretely completed its investigation. Neither will the question of the city stock Messrs. White, McLendon, others for the erection house be considered, as committee, of which Council the chairman, has postponed consideration of the matter till next week.

USED VET'S LIC TO OPERA'

Charged with operating and restaurant, under the license belonging to J. A. Simpson, a negro, he up at police headquarters charge against Simpson doing business without a Simpson's drink and rum is located, on Pete the officers got wind of he was working under a license. Accordingly Plattcers Rowan and Coogler by License Inspector Ewl place Saturday afternoon suit that this proprietor under arrest.

DOCTOR AND DAU KILLED IN A

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 27. Skinner, of Glasgow, near best known physicians in it daughter, Rhena, were killed home, when their horses became the locomotive of a nearby train Dr. Skinner was 55 years old.

THE S. B. ADAMS JUDGE ROBERTS IS GIVE ANSWER Y THURSDAY ENDORSED BY EASTMAN BAR

MEMBER OF CONGRESS IN THE EASTMAN DISTRICT WILL RE-PLY BY LETTER IN THAT TIME.

DAVID M. ROBERTS, OF EASTMAN,
GEORGIA, CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 29.—The commissioner appointed by the congressional committee to wait on Judge Samuel B.
Adams and notify him of his nomination
for that duty at 1 o'clock today.
Mr. Obyrne, Mr. E. K. Overstreet,
Mr. Moore, and Colonel E. P. Miller,
the committee which went to Eastman to confer with Judge Adams. The conference lasted about half an hour and Mr.
Adams acted as spokesman.
The committee left with promise that Judge Adams was to address them by radio next week not later than he gave them no further reply. He would reconsider.
He will leave for Atlanta Monday night next.
The committee is encouraged in that Judge Adams has not declined outright,
the drift of his expression at Eastman seems to be that of turning down
the nomination.
His conference with Judge Adams last night left for their homes, first tentative arrangements for the committee to be called together in Sa-vanah next Friday in case Judge
Adams refuses the nomination.

THE WEATHER FORECASTERS TO CONVENE IN 1907

It is likely to be Selected as the Place of Meeting for the Weather Prophets.

Mr. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, announced that the next convention of the weather forecasters will be held in 1907. This is of general interest locally, for it is probable that this convention will be held in Atlanta if sufficient effort is made by officials.
The conventions of the weather forecasters are held either in the north or the south. These meetings have occurred in Dixie and it deserves to be the scene of the next convention, and what city in the south is better adapted for the weather men to meet than Atlanta?
The weather conventions are very important ones, attended by delegates from every state in the union, and it would be a decided feather in the cap if the forecasters could be induced here in 1907.

Bar Meeting and Endorsement.

STATE OF GEORGIA—Dodge County.
EASTMAN, Ga., Sept. 27, 1906.

By the members of the Eastman bar, in a meeting held at the courthouse on September 27th, 1906, Mayor J. P. Highsmith presiding, the following resolution endorsing the candidacy of Judge D. M. Roberts was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the last legislature passed an act creating a court of appeals, consisting of three judges, to be approved by the people on October 3rd, 1906, and there being such great necessity for the creation of such a court, there can be no doubt about its ratification by the people.

And whereas, it is of the utmost importance that judges of experience and ability and judicial training should be selected to fill these important positions, and having in our wiregrass section of south
Georgia a man native and to the manor
born, of eminent qualification, ripe in experience not only from a general practice,
but as judge of the superior courts of the several counties of this circuit for eight years, and confidently believing that he possesses the four cardinal virtues of a judge—ability, courtesy, patience and industry.

Therefore be it Resolved, That in the candidacy of Judge Roberts, we commend him to the people of Georgia, with the assurance that if he should be selected as one of said judges, they will never have cause to regret it, as he is not only able and well qualified, but he has the confidence of all people who know him for judicial integrity.

And without desiring to be sectional we beg to state that Judge Roberts' experience and training has been in cases involving titles to real property in trespass and ejectment cases, for he is considered one of our best lawyers on the subject of title to land as well as being engaged in a large criminal practice.
Judge Roberts has the energy and endurance necessary for the work that may come to the court of appeals.

We therefore confidently recommend
Judge Roberts to the favorable consideration of the people of Georgia, and hope they will select him to one of the judgeships on the bench of the court of appeals.

JOHN F. DELACY,

GEO

PIEDMONT PARK

WHY

Greatest Courtles Show in

GREATEST

KNAE

EASILY ASCENDS 1 OR 2

It Will App-
Nowhere E-
In Georgia

These THRIL-

ST DISTRICT WILL REPLY BY LETTER IN THAT TIME.

(Special to The Journal.)
 Ga., Sept. 29.—The commission appointed by the congressional committee to wait on Judge Samuel B. Adams and notify him of his nomination for that duty at 1 o'clock today. Obyrne, Mr. E. K. Overstreet, Moore, and Colonel E. P. Miller, of the committee which went to Adams of Judge Adams. The conference lasted about half an hour and Mr. Adams acted as spokesman. The committee left with promise that Judge Adams was to address them by some time next week not later than Friday, he gave them no further to believe he would reconsider. leave for Atlanta Monday night next. The committee is encouraged in that Judge Adams has not declined outright, in the drift of his expression. at seems to be that of turning down the nomination. The conference with Judge Adams gates left for their homes, first tentative arrangements for the commission to be called together in Savannah next Friday in case Judge Adams refuses the nomination.

THE FORECASTERS TO CONVENE IN 1907

is likely to be Selected as the Place of Meeting for Prophets.

L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, announced that the next convention of the forecasters will be held in 1907. This is of general interest locally, for it is probable that this convention will be held in Atlanta if sufficient effort is made by officials.

The conventions of the weather forecasters have been held either in the north or south. Dixie deserves to be the scene of the next convention, and what city in the south is better adapted for the weather men to meet than Atlanta?

Conventions are very important ones, and by delegates from every state in the south, and it would be a decided feather in the cap if the forecasters could be induced to meet here in 1907.

The next time of the convention and the date which it will be held will be decided later. In the meantime if Atlanta is chosen for a convention it would be wise for the bureau to get in communication with the forecasters and convince them that Atlanta is the ideal city of the south.

MOOR'S FAMILY ALMOST DESTITUTE

Who Was Shot During the Riot in Need of Help.

the most pathetic results of the riot is seen in the destitute condition of the family of A. C. Moore.

GEORGIA, CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Bar Meeting and Endorsement.

STATE OF GEORGIA—Dodge County. EASTMAN, Ga., Sept. 27, 1906.

By the members of the Eastman bar, in a meeting held at the courthouse on September 27th, 1906, Mayor J. P. Highsmith presiding, the following resolution endorsing the candidacy of Judge D. M. Roberts was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the last legislature passed an act creating a court of appeals, consisting of three judges, to be approved by the people on October 3rd, 1906, and there being such great necessity for the creation of such a court, there can be no doubt about its ratification by the people.

And whereas, it is of the utmost importance that judges of experience and ability and judicial training should be selected to fill these important positions, and having in our wiregrass section of south Georgia a man native and to the manor born, of eminent qualification, ripe in experience not only from a general practice, but as judge of the superior courts of the several counties of this circuit for eight years, and confidently believing that he possesses the four cardinal virtues of a judge—ability, courtesy, patience and industry.

Therefore be it Resolved, That in the candidacy of Judge Roberts, we commend him to the people of Georgia, with the assurance that if he should be selected as one of said judges, they will never have cause to regret it, as he is not only able and well qualified, but he has the confidence of all people who know him for judicial integrity.

And without desiring to be sectional we beg to state that Judge Roberts' experience and training has been in cases involving titles to real property in trespass and ejectment cases, for he is considered one of our best lawyers on the subject of title to land as well as being engaged in a large criminal practice. Judge Roberts has the energy and endurance necessary for the work that may come to the court of appeals.

We therefore confidently recommend Judge Roberts to the favorable consideration of the people of Georgia, and hope they will elect him to one of the judgeships on the bench of the court of appeals.

- JOHN F. DELACY,
- J. A. NEESE,
- DICK EDWARDS,
- OSCAR J. FRANKLIN,
- J. P. HIGHSMITH,
- W. M. CLEMENTS,
- B. R. CALHOUN,
- CHAS. W. GRIFFIN,
- W. M. MORRISON,
- C. W. ATWELL.

CHAMPION "COUSSER" FINED BY RECORDER

Mrs. Dora Jordan Said to Have Been Very Careless in Her Conversation.

PIEDMONT PARK

WHY

Greatest Court Show in

GREATEST

KNAE

EASILY ASCENDS 1 OR 2

It Will App
Nowhere E
In Georgia

These THRILL
Flights to the C are sights of a life

The M

PAIN

LANTA SALOONS ARE DENS OF VICE

id Dives Are n Streets
ity.

MITTEE ESTIGATE

en Fifty and aloons Will Some Are for Vice ity.

een fifty o out of n committee
w applications. committee have at least fifty-Decatur, Peters
uld be closed. meet Tuesday
nd at that time
be investigated.
ecided is which dives and such ot to warrant em to continue rigid investighof saloons and e will probably ally, the police, ons in the city entioned which ble as whiskey

oes congregat mill 10 o'clock est liquor, and ng propane lan-Such people l thereby often rmation.

aloons when a proprietors and ell by inform-en Patrol the proprietto be arrested
d then he told

n allow the negling the vilest elr turn call the speak of them

MACON TROOPS CALLED TO ARMS

Continued From Page One.

car today in which pistols were used, but no one was hurt. Great excitement prevailed tonight while men parade the streets yelling in most threatening manners.

Further trouble is anticipated, as trolley wires have been cut in East Macon. Since 10 o'clock quiet has prevailed in Macon and there is now little fear of danger for the night. The directors of the railway system refused to consider a proposition which would have disposed of the differences on the grounds that they had to take care of thirty-five men with whom they had contracted for employment. The union and the citizens' committee urged that all the former employees be put back to work in their regular places, and when the board adjourned there was no possibility of reaching any agreement which may promise a cessation of the strike. Several of the directors are charging Mayor Smith with failure to guarantee protection to the property and in a long statement for publication tonight they have urged that such is the case.

Wild Sunday Feared.

A threshing out of the whole situation goes out in this statement, which was dictated by Jacob Collins, of Savannah, and tomorrow may witness wild scenes. Meetings of strike sympathizers have been called and Sunday will be a day of unrest in Macon.

No attempt will likely be made to run the cars until a settlement is reached.

EDITORIAL ON THE RIOT.

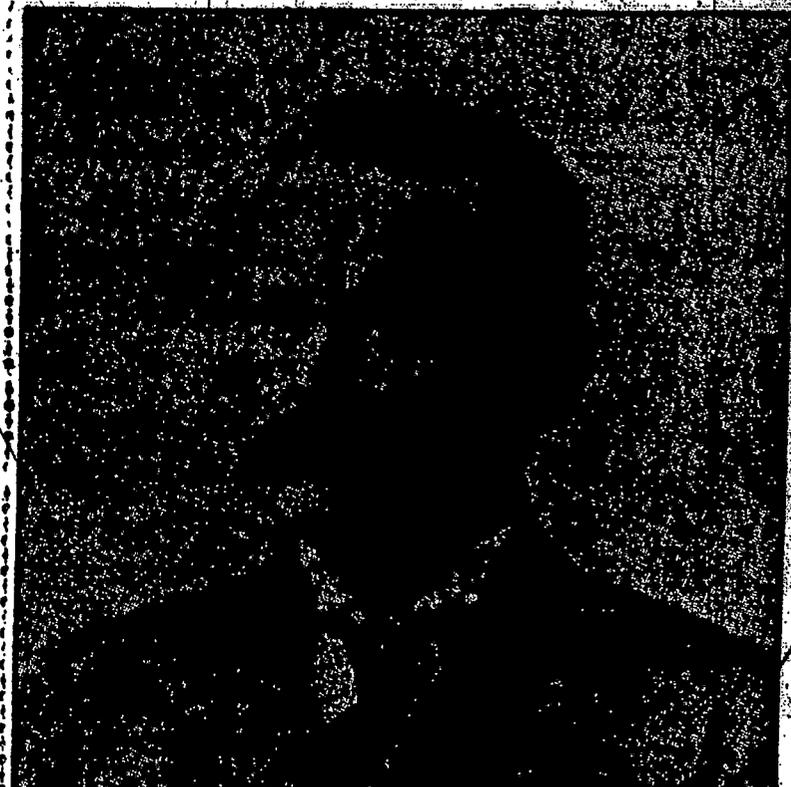

Sensible View of Trouble in Atlanta Taken by The Covington Advocate.

The following sensible editorial on the recent disturbances in Atlanta appeared in The Covington Advocate, Warren Scott, Lawery, editor-in-chief:

"No doubt every one of our readers has, ere this, read the full account of the grievous situation in the Gate City, where about three days since Saturday night of last week there was a reign of terror for negroes, about six of whom were killed and a large number of whom were wounded. The cause of all the trouble is traceable to the large number of criminal assaults committed by negroes in that place within the past few weeks.

There faces this city a vexing problem which we are praying earnestly she will be able to solve without further bloodshed. How to wipe out from among the colored people the tendency to, and the further commission of, the nameless crime, is a question which every white man and every negro of sense and character have their minds centered upon. This thing must stop, and we believe the end of it is not far off, for the class guilty of the commission of these crimes.

BENJAMIN H. HILL, CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF THE PROPOSED COURT OF APPEALS

BEN H. HILL, OF ATLANTA,
Candidate for Judge of the Proposed Court of Appeals.

Benjamin H. Hill, candidate for one of the three judges of the proposed court of appeals, is the oldest son of Georgia's great senator, the matchless defender of the south's honor, humanity, and civilization. He was born in Troup county and received his education at the University of Georgia, graduating with distinction in the famous class of 1866. He also received his legal training at the law school of the university. In 1872 he came to the city of Atlanta, and with his father began the practice of law. In 1873 he was appointed by Governor Colquitt, solicitor general of the Atlanta circuit, and was elected by the legislature for the second term. He declined a third term, and his brother, Charles D. Hill, was elected his successor. During his service as solicitor general he tried many important cases, and made a great reputation as a strong, eloquent advocate, and able lawyer. On the death of his lamented father, in 1892, he was offered the vacancy in the United States senate by Governor Colquitt, the tender being made on the petition of a very large number of citizens of Georgia. He declined the position in a letter, which created much favorable comment at the time throughout the whole country. In 1885 he was appointed, by President Cleveland United States attorney for the northern district of Georgia, and per-

J. L. Moore,
J. A. Steteman,
W. H. Terrell,
W. B. Hutches,
Paul E. Johnson,
Jesse M. Wood,
Edgar Latham,
Lamar Hill,
Heuson Arnold,
Carl N. Guess,
J. T. Wright,
F. M. Powers,
Alvin Golucke,
E. A. Etheridge,
Shepard Bryan,
Clydes Lewis,
Felix Camp,
L. F. McClelland,
H. C. Erwin,
W. W. Gaines,
D. E. Moore,
S. D. Johnson,
Harvey Hatcher,
James E. Warren,
E. E. Pomeroy,
T. O. Hathcock,
W. W. Visser,
Percy H. Adams,
Arthur Thurman,
W. D. Ellis, Jr.,
C. J. Haden,
W. O. Wilson,
William F. Hill,
Edward L. Meyer,
F. I. Hirsch,
C. D. Maddox,
Fulton Colville,
M. L. Tolbert,
S. C. Crane,
Ben Z. Phillips,
E. M. Underwood,
Harry Dodd,
John O. Gartrell,
A. J. McBride, Jr., Hamilton Douglas,
Thomas L. Bishop,
J. F. Daniels,
Edward R. Austin,
E. A. Angier,
Ligon Johnson,
Hugh M. Scott,
A. D. Quarles, Jr.,
Frampton E. Ellis,
R. J. Jordan,
T. C. Battle,
Perry S. Pearson,
George M. King,
A. A. Manning,
Walter C. Hendrix,
F. Roland Alston,
Clyde Brooks,
P. F. Smith,
A. A. Meyer,
Owens Johnson,
R. E. Wright,
T. J. Ripley,
W. W. Haden,
Claude C. Smith,
Don K. Johnston,
J. A. Noyes,
Chas. A. Reed,
Morris Mack,
Ben J. Conyers,
E. L. Lumpkin,
Brutus J. Clay,
E. H. Barnett,
W. D. Thomson,
John W. Henley,
J. H. Pitman,
Ebb F. Upshaw,
W. C. Cousins,
E. T. Brown,
Jno. Clay Smith,
Geo. C. Spence.

In its own way practically all that is known about when and where she was built. Engraved on the bell are the words: "Let Her B." 1864. W. C. Miller, Shipbuilder, Liverpool."

The accompanying illustration is made from a copy of the old photograph mentioned above, and shows the historic steamer lying at her, West India coaling station. The masts of the sailing ships outside which she lies make a rather confusing background, but otherwise the outlines are quite clear. The awnings amidships and aft were for the protection of the crew while cruising in tropical waters.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

THAW IS BREAKING DOWN.

Life in Tombs Is Telling on White's Slayer.

New York, September 29.—Harry K. Thaw, despite the efforts of his relatives to bring hope and sunshine into the gloomy tombs, is breaking down physically and is melancholy, fretful and irritable. He is carefully watched, it is stated, lest he become violent. The further statement is made that he is dissatisfied with his lawyers, and may change the entire list as he did once before.

Strong Gale Strikes Hong Kong.

Hongkong, September 29.—A strong gale raged throughout last night. The shipping and the inhabitants had been warned of its arrival by a forecast of the observatory.

JUDGE W. R. HAMMOND ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY, AND DENOUNCES FALSE CHARGES MADE AGAINST HIM

To the People of Fulton County—I am a candidate for the court of appeals at the democratic primary of October 3d, and respectfully solicit your support.

I have lived in Atlanta forty-four years, and my record, both public and private, is known to you.

The information has come to me that statements are being made in different sections of Georgia that I voted for McKinley in 1896. The statements are false. I have always been a democrat, and have never voted the republican ticket.

I have also learned that statements are being made in different sections of the state that my candidacy is not meeting with favor in my own home. These statements are false. I am as well backed at home as any candidate here. I have refused to allow my friends to circulate petitions indorsing me, taking the ground that if I was not well enough known in Georgia without this I ought not to be in the race.

These false statements are designed to injure me on the eve of the election without giving me the opportunity to reply. I ask you to rebuke them by your votes.

W. R. HAMMOND.

Independent of the "Wash Lady." Covington, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Application has been filed for charter of incorporation of the Covington Steam Laundry, a cooperative enterprise capitalized at $3,000, with the privilege of increasing to $15,000, the stock of which has been subscribed by about one hundred citizens of Covington, Oxford and Porterdale. The officers are E. H. Jordan, president; J. H. Echols, vice president, and George T. Smith, secretary and treasurer.

Makers of laws and those who are entrusted to enforce them have learned a lesson which cost very heavily, but one that evidently it was necessary to learn. The owners of the street car system, in their eagerness to get rich quick, overreached themselves in refusing to furnish separate cars for the races and will now at increased expense be driven to adopt measures which should have been more readily acceded to. The law of reaction is swift and sure.

The dealers in whiskey who lent their aid in inflaming brains already heated will reap where they have sown and must pay their share of the debt.

The law of suggestion played an important part in the tragedy. If a newspaper publishes the details of a suicide, the suggestion is sure to find other weak or distracted minds to follow the example and sometimes one suicide produces a wave of suicides. The same holds good in murders, rapes, bank robberies and other crimes. The extras with sensational headlines should be suppressed.

"ROBERT BRYAN HAMMOND."

Overhauling Bell Exchange. Columbus, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Officials and expert workmen are in the city from Atlanta overhauling the local exchange of the Southern Bell Telephone Company. The service was rendered unsatisfactory by the severe summer electrical storms and by other causes. It is announced that in a week or two the exchange will be in normal physical condition and that good service will be restored.

Marshal Killed Negro.

Columbus, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Whit Jackson, a drunken negro with a pistol, who was on the war path, was shot and killed by Night Marshal B. M. Seeling, of Richland, Ga., yesterday afternoon. The negro snapped his pistol twice at the officer, but each time the plunger clicked to fall on an empty shell. The revolving chambers had just brought a loaded cart to go into position when the marshal fired barely in time. He shot the negro twice, killing him instantly. The negro had two loaded cartridges in his pistol. He is said to have been a good, industrious negro when sober.

Judge R. J. Jinnett Dead.

Columbus, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Judge Robert J. Jinnett, aged 55 years, one of the best known citizens of Phenix City, died yesterday. The funeral this morning, which was conducted from West Side Baptist church, was attended by the members of Creek tribe of Red Men in a body.

Mrs. J. D. Garrison, Bibb City.

Columbus, Ga., Septemb. 29.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. D. Garrison, of Bibb City, aged 42 years, is dead.

Same Thing in the End.

(From Gil Blas.) Examiner—You seem to find my question embarrassing?

Student—By no means. It's not the question that's embarrassing. It's the answer to it.

Alas! Yes!

(From The Philadelphia Ledger.) A humble tailor death he caught, Within his clutches grim, Yet by his grave we stood and thought How much we owed to him.

To Invite Conference.

Columbus, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—The South Georgia Methodist conference will be called to meet in session in Columbus. A delegation of local Methodists will go to the meeting of the conference in Valdosta in November and extend a cordial invitation to the gathering to meet in this city. It has been fifteen years since the conference has met in Columbus.

Mrs. Wittich's Funeral.

Columbus, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—The funeral of Mrs. A. Wittich took place this afternoon from her late residence on Broad street. Her husband, the late A. WITICH, was for many years a jeweler in Columbus. He bequeathed $5,000 which served as the nucleus for the fund with which the handsome Masonic temple in Columbus was erected.

Overhauling Bell Exchange.

Columbus, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Officials and expert workmen are in the city from Atlanta overhauling the local exchange of the Southern Bell Telephone Company. The service was rendered unsatisfactory by the severe summer electrical storms and by other causes. It is announced that in a week or two the exchange will be in normal physical condition and that good service will be restored.

Marshal Killed Negro.

Columbus, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Whit Jackson, a drunken negro with a pistol, who was on the war path, was shot and killed by Night Marshal B. M. Seeling, of Richland, Ga., yesterday afternoon. The negro snapped his pistol twice at the officer, but each time the plunger clicked to fall on an empty shell. The revolving chambers had just brought a loaded cart to go into position when the marshal fired barely in time. He shot the negro twice, killing him instantly. The negro had two loaded cartridges in his pistol. He is said to have been a good, industrious negro when sober.

Judge R. J. Jinnett Dead.

Columbus, Ga., September 29.—(Special.)—Judge Robert J. Jinnett, aged 55 years, one of the best known citizens of Phenix City, died yesterday. The funeral this morning, which was conducted from West Side Baptist church, was attended by the members of Creek tribe of Red Men in a body.

Mrs. J. D. Garrison, Bibb City.

Columbus, Ga., Septemb. 29.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. D. Garrison, of Bibb City, aged 42 years, is dead.

Same Thing in the End.

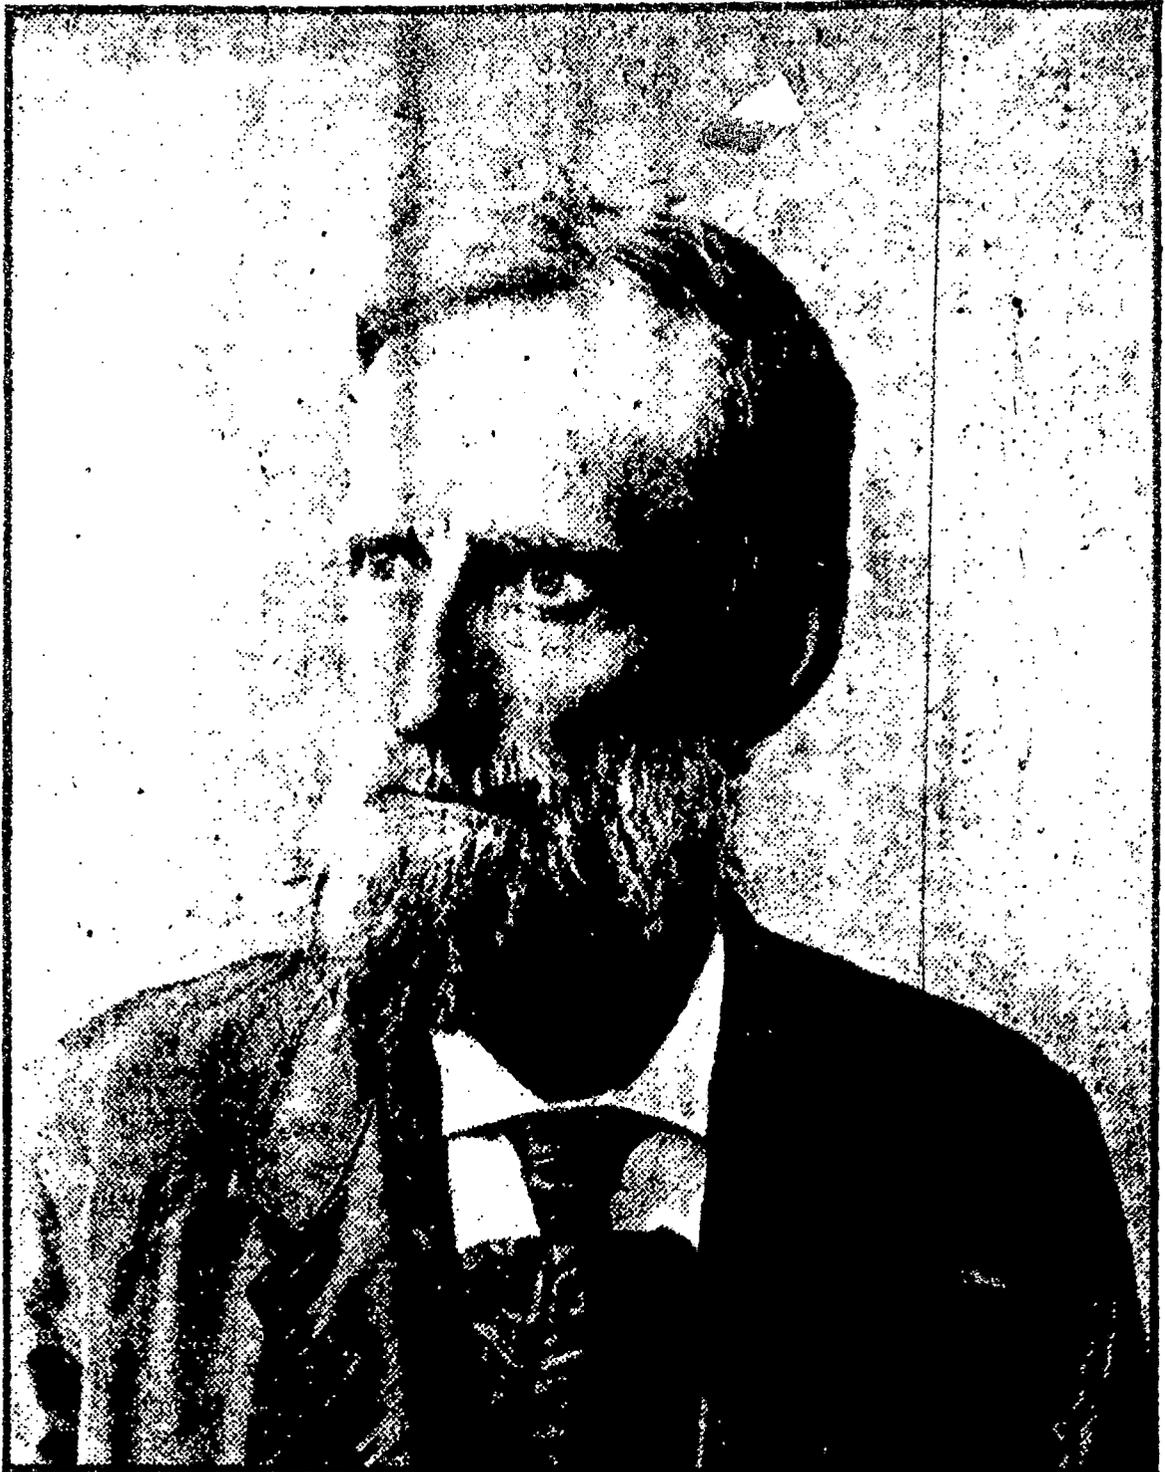

(From Gil Blas.) Examiner—You seem to find my question embarrassing?

Student—By no means. It's not the question that's embarrassing. It's the answer to it.

Alas! Yes!

(From The Philadelphia Ledger.) A humble tailor death he caught, Within his clutches grim, Yet by his grave we stood and thought How much we owed to him.

EASTMAN BAR ENDORSES JUDGE ROBERTS FOR COURT

JUDGE D. W. ROBERTS, OF EASTMAN, GA.

icy us-ods hat bel
-an his ect le.
me

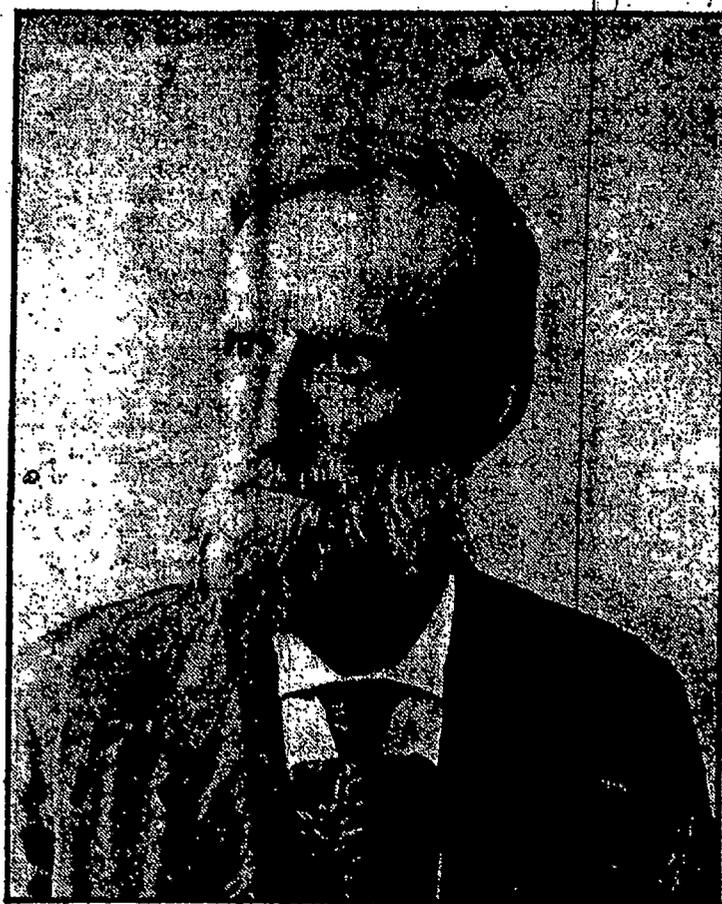

ita.

MINN

his minor ture of ab-hat took es place in
; the angel
i shall
of the ; therefore ill be born
n of God.
come par-itude for

EASTMAN BAR ENDORSES JUDGE ROBERTS FOR COURT

JUDGE D. W. ROBERTS, OF EASTMAN, GA.,
Who Is Enthusiastically Recommended by the Bar of Dodge for a Place on the New Court of Appeals.

Will Make Hard Fight to Secure His Election of
One of the Judgeship
Places.

EASTMAN, GA., September 29.—(Special.)—A very enthusiastic meeting of the bar of this county was held at the court house yesterday for the purpose of commending to the people of Georgia the candidacy of Judge David M. Roberts for one of the appellate court judgeships.

The members of the bar of this county realize that Judge Roberts is one of the strongest and most capable of the candidates running for these places and that from every standpoint his candidacy should appeal to the voters of Georgia.

At the beginning of the civil war Judge Roberts, then a mere boy, was among the first to volunteer to fight for the cause of the confederacy and was among the last to lay down arms. After the close of the war Judge Roberts took up the study of law and by sheer force of endorsing the candidacy of Judge D. M. Roberts was unanimously adopted:

Resolutions of Indorsement.

"Whereas, The last legislature passed an act creating a court of appeals, consisting of three judges, to be approved by the people on October 3, 1906, and there being such great necessity for the creation of such a court, there can be no doubt about its ratification by the people.

And,

"Whereas, It is of the utmost importance that judges of experience and ability and judicial training should be elected to fill these important positions, and having in our wiregrass section of south Georgia a man native and to the manner born of eminent qualification, ripe in experience not only for a general practice, but as judge of the superior courts of the several counties of the Oconee circuit for eight years, and confidently believing that he possesses the firm

Convey Sale of High-Grade C

At
For the R alread
ments
An really what

In qu
Rainc
Rei
ers—t
other

Children's Raincoats

With schools opening, wouldn't it be a good idea to provide your children with Raincoats? Especially when you can buy them as low as $2.00 and are worth twice and a half as much.

Quality

fundamental policy built—that of refusing anything but goods of an accepted fact that in Oppenheim label first-class article—an unquestioned merit. This ten years of correct loyalty to principle. orders. Telephone

EIM,

Atlanta.

DICTION" OF DR. GWINN

a child of God. In his minor (taking out the feature of aboriginal personality). What took the birth of Christ takes place in the birth of every Christian; the angel to Mary. The Holy Ghost shall be in thee, and the power of the Father shall overshadow thee; therefore that holy thing which shall be born shall be called the Son of God. In true sense, we become part of the divine nature.

and a profound solicitude for his kinmen in the flesh, for those to whom he was specially dear, and for sinners. Hence, as about to close his connection with these Philippians, he makes mention, "My God shall supply all that is lacking in Christ Jesus." This promise, as well, originated in God, revealed by God and communicated by divine authority. To be a child is to do the will of God; to do it is well pleasing in His sight "Christ Jesus." God works that work; when He works in us we are Him.

with God in Christ makes us alike in thought, in feeling, in deed in action. As a child of a Father, himself like his father, so of God represents Him. This character into harmony with the Father is true and honest, and just and lovely and of good report. A childlike spirit is charged with lovingness; the quenchless love of life within and beyond of life and health to the man. True manhood is the God-man who is formed in the image of glory. "Ye are in Christ." The complete God-son who abides through faith in the manifold graces of Christ, a character full of benevolence and love. There are different

EASTMAN BAR ENDORSES JUDGE ROBERTS FOR COURT

JUDGE D. W. ROBERTS, OF EASTMAN, GA.,
Who Is Enthusiastically Recommended by the Bar of Dodge for a Place on the New Court of Appeals.

Will Make Hard Fight to Secure His Election of
One of the Judgeship
Places.

EASTMAN, GA., September 29. (Special.)—A very enthusiastic meeting of the bar of this county was held at the court house yesterday for the purpose of commending to the people of Georgia the candidacy of Judge David M. Roberts for one of the appellate court judgeships.

The members of the bar of this county realize that Judge Roberts is one of the strongest and most capable of the candidates running for these places and that from every standpoint his candidacy should appeal to the voters of Georgia. At the beginning of the civil war Judge Roberts, then a mere boy, was among the first to volunteer to fight for the cause of the confederacy and was among the last to lay down arms. After the close of the war Judge Roberts took up the study of law and by close cooperation endorsing the candidacy of Judge D. M. Roberts was unanimously adopted:

Resolutions of Indorsement.

"Whereas, The last legislature passed an act creating a court of appeals, consisting of three judges, to be approved by the people on October 3, 1906, and there being such great necessity for the creation of such a court, there can be no doubt about its ratification by the people. And,

"Whereas, It is of the utmost importance that judges of experience and ability and judicial training should be elected to fill these important positions, and having in our wiregrass section of south Georgia a man native and to the manner born of eminent qualification, ripe in experience not only for a general practice, but as judge of the superior courts of the several counties of the Oconee circuit for eight years, and confidently

Conver

Sale of High-Grade

Children's Raincoats

With schools opening, wouldn't it be a good idea to provide your children with Raincoats? Especially when you can buy them as low as $2.00 and are worth twice and a half as much.

GOODYE

21-52 White

Quality

fundamental policy omit—that of refus-anything but goods accepted fact that Oppenheim label
st-class article—an stioned merit. This er years of correct
yalty to principle.
orders. Telephone

HEIM,

Atlanta.

DICTION"

DR. GWINN

a 'child of God.' In his minor n (making out the feature of ab-nd personality). What took e birth of Christ takes place in th of every Christian; the angel s Mary. 'The Holy Ghost shall e them and the power of the all overshadow thee; therefore oly thing which shall be born all be called the Son of God.'
true sense, we 'become par-the divine nature.'

ad a profound solicitude for his kinsmen in the flesh, for to whom he was specially saints and for sinners. Hence, as about to close his connecthese Philippans, he makes ration by God shall supply ed in Christ Jesus. This prom-ish us well, originated in God, ed by God and communicated by divine authority. To be a od is to do the will of God; to t is well pleasing in His sight Christ Jesus. God works that ork when He works in us wo ill

God in Christ makes up all in thought, in feeling, in in action. As a child of a th himself like his father, so of God represents Him. This charac into harmony with is true and honest, and just and lovely and of good report.
allike spirit is charged with lovingness; the quenchless allife is within and be-of life and health to man. True manhood man who is 'formed the image of glory.' 'Ye are Christ.' The complete God-found completeness bides through faith
the manifold graces of Christ character full of benevolence
There are different solate divine personality). What took place in the birth of Christ takes place in the new birth of every Christian; the angel declared to Mary, "The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God." In a true sense, we become part of the divine nature.

I had a profound solicitude for his brethren, his kinsmen in the flesh, for the gentiles to whom he was specially sent, for saints and for sinners. Hence, when he was about to close his connection with these Philipians, he makes this declaration, "My God shall supply all your need in Christ Jesus." This promise, and wish as well, originated in God, was fostered by God and communicated to them by divine authority. To be a child of God is to do the will of God; to work what is well pleasing in His sight through Christ Jesus. God works that we may work; when He works in us we work for Him.

"Union with God in Christ makes us godlike—godlike in thought, in feeling, in purpose and in action. As a child of a king depicts himself like his father, so the child of God represents Him. This brings his character into harmony with whatsoever is true and honest, and just and pure and lovely and of good report; to his Christlike spirit is charged with preeminent lovingness; the quenchless term of the Christ-life is within and becomes the carrier of life and health to very part of the man. True manhood springs from the God-man who is formed in the bosom of glory. "Ye are complete in Christ." The complete God-man imparts his all-round completeness to the person who abides through faith in Him. So the manifold graces of Christ construct a character full of benevolence and beneficence. There are different degrees of believers: "Star differeth from glory." We are apt to grow one day, we are apt to excuse ourselves on the plea "my temperament is different from yours." So some justify their idleness by calling it candor, passionateness by calling it zeal, injustice to men by calling it loyalty to God. Put it down as fact, "If I don't love man, I don't love God."

God Shall Supply Your Needs.
 "My God shall supply all your needs, knowing the cause he knew the effect. Linked with the central generator of life he could safely assert what that force would do. He could "bind" when and where God ordered him to "bind." The believer becomes "Keeper of the Holy Scroll." In no sovereign, efficacious sense, is he God's agent.
 "No paga nation, from which Paul wrote this letter, could fetter his free spirit. "The word of God is not bound." Like Elijah saying to the hostile Syrians that Dothan, blasted with blindness, the Christian is empowered both by authority from his King and by the irresistible sympathies and sympathies of his new life with and in Christ, to say to all, "Come, and I will lead you to your Master."
 "Knowing the fountain he commands and commands the stream. Once on that team he is assured that it can ever run up dry nor run into a desert, for he knows that everything shall live wither the river cometh."
 "All your need, according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus." What various measure of supply, "according to his riches in glory." The wealth is infinite, precious, eternal will be his children "in glory," the glory of his church militant, and of his church triumphant, the glory at the foot of the cross, and that at the foot of the throne. "Need not want" supplied evokes allure; need supplied guarantees success. The sense of highest needs is, God-brought, and therefore God-supplied.

JUDGE D. W. ROBERTS, OF EASTMAN, GA.,
 Who Is Enthusiastically Recommended by the Bar of Dodge for a Place on the New Court of Appeals.

Will Make Hard Fight to Secure His Election of One of the Judgeship Places.

EASTMAN, GA., September 29.—(Special.)—A very enthusiastic meeting of the bar of this county was held at the court house yesterday for the purpose of commending to the people of Georgia the candidacy of Judge David M. Roberts for one of the appellate court judgeships.

The members of the bar of this county realize that Judge Roberts is one of the strongest and most capable of the candidates running for these places and that from every standpoint his candidacy should appeal to the voters of Georgia. At the beginning of the civil war Judge Roberts, then a mere boy, was among the first to volunteer to fight for the cause of the confederacy and was among the last to lay down arms. After the close of the war Judge Roberts took up the study of law and by sheer force of his splendid, God-given intellect and the keen intelligence of his analytical, judicial mind, he rapidly rose to the high standard of the honorable, successful lawyer. He served for eight years as judge of the superior courts of one of the largest and most important circuits in the state—the Oconee. Judge Roberts was born and reared in Laurens county, within about 20 miles of Eastman. Being now at the very pinnacle of his physical and mental activity, possessing a native talent that is hardly surpassable, having judicial attainments of the highest order and representing in the highest degree the strong, honest, sturdy Georgia, and especially south Georgia, manhood, his friends believe the services of Judge Roberts on the bench of the new court of review would be of the greatest value to the people of the state.

The resolution today adopted by the members of the bar of his home county follows:

The members of the Eastman bar, in a meeting held at the court house on September 27, 1906, Mayor J. P. Highsmith presiding, the following resolution endorsing the candidacy of Judge D. M. Roberts was unanimously adopted:

Resolutions of Indorsement.
 "Whereas, The last legislature passed an act creating a court of appeals, consisting of three judges, to be approved by the people on October 3, 1906, and there being such great necessity for the creation of such a court, there can be no doubt about its ratification by the people. And,

"Whereas, It is of the utmost importance that judges of experience and ability and judicial training should be elected to fill these important positions, and having in our wiregrass section of south Georgia a man native and to the manner born of eminent qualification, ripe in experience not only for a general practice, but as judge of the superior courts of the several counties of the Oconee circuit for eight years, and confidently believing that he possesses the four cardinal virtues of a judge—ability, courtesy, patience, and industry. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the candidacy of Judge Roberts we commend him to the people of Georgia with the assurance that if he should be selected as one of said judges they will never have cause to regret it, as he is not only able and well qualified, but he has the confidence of all people who know him for judicial integrity.

"And without desiring to be sectional, we beg to state that Judge Roberts' experience and training has been in cases involving titles to real property in trespass and ejectment cases, for he is considered one of our best lawyers on the subject of title to land as well as being engaged in a large criminal practice. Judge Roberts has the energy and endurance necessary for the work that may come to the court of appeals.

"We therefore confidently recommend Judge Roberts to the favorable consideration of the people of Georgia and hope they will elect him to one of the judgeships on the bench of the court of appeals.

"John F. DeLacy, J. A. Neese, Dick Edwards, Oscar J. Franklin, J. P. Highsmith, W. M. Clements, B. R. Calhoun, Charles W. Griffin, W. M. Morrison, Charles W. Atwell, J. H. Roberts."

DAMAGE DONE TO THE COTTON

Alabama Suffered Severely by the Heavy Storm in That Section.

Montgomery, Ala., September 29.—(Special.)—The storm of the last forty-eight

the cotton in this section will be very seriously damaged, as pretty near all of it was open and not more than half has been gathered. The cotton crop in this immediate section is very short, being at least one-third off from last year and nothing like a full crop was made last year.

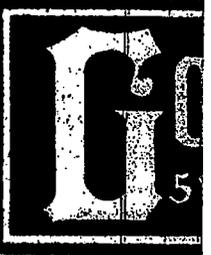

Hamilton, Marion county: "Rain has continued to fall here for several days. The cotton being nearly all opened, has been damaged very much."

Eufaula, Barbour county: "Rain fell almost in ceaseless torrents here. A strong east wind has prevailed and farmers say cotton will be very much injured in grade."

HELP IS NEEDED AT FRISCO.

Children's Raincoats
 With school wouldn't it be to provide you with Raincoats when you can as low as $2. worth twice as much.

CHRISTIAN EULOGY

THE Christian of London, England, September 8, has arrived and preaching Broughton, of Atlanta, will be of interest to Georgia.

In part, it says: "Dr. Len G. Broughton country has been eager only by the congregational chapel, where to commence ministry last Sunday, and all over the country, acquainted with him, his visits, or who have heard able work in America." "Dr. Broughton arrived week, and kindly gave the readers of The Christian. He crossed the Minneapolis, which in passage, and was one of the 75 passengers people returning from States and American among the latter being and women who have tried to pursue various of This is Dr. Broughton, England; he arranges alternate year. It will that two years ago preached with great acc

STATE ELECTION HELD TOMORROW

Hoke Smith and J. B. Osborn Candidates for Governor

Voters Will Cast Ballots For or Against the Establishment of a Court of Appeals, and Will Also Vote for Judges.

Tomorrow, as the law provides, the regular state election, coupled with the appellate court judgeship primary, will be held.

Hon. Hoke Smith, the democratic nominee, will be opposed by J. B. Osborn, the socialist candidate. In several instances, democratic nominees will be opposed by socialists. Hon. S. G. McLendon, the regular democratic nominee for railroad commissioner to succeed Hon. Joseph M. Brown, has opposition in Hon. T. C. Crenshaw, an independent.

Voters, in addition to electing a governor and other officials, will express themselves on the proposed court of appeals, as well as the creation of Ben Hill county, both being constitutional amendments, and a majority of voters casting ballots being necessary to become a law.

Great interest is felt in the judgeship race. There are sixteen candidates in the race, and in case the court is created the three candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be declared nominees, and will be regularly elected in November.

Chairman A. L. Miller has issued the following statement regarding the official ballot:

"The attention of the election managers who will hold the general election and the primary on Wednesday next, is called to the following matter:

"I am informed that certain ballots, with the name of one of the candidates for the proposed court of Appeals omitted therefrom, are being distributed in the state. These ballots are also defective in other particulars.

"No ballot should be received and counted by the election managers in the court of appeals primary, except the official ballot furnished by me to the county chairmen and candidates. This ballot contains the names of all the candidates, and contains full instructions at the head.

"Democratic papers throughout the state are requested to publish this notice.

A. L. MILLER,
Chairman State Committee.
September 28, 1906.

DELAY PROHIBITION FIGHT.

ivals in lling

who has the wis-make selections stock will secure ect a well dressed
s. Our Fall perfect in fit, elematerial, superb in and faultless in fin-

5 to $35 ig Bros.

Clothes for Men"
Whitehall St.

DRUGGISTS CONVENTION

ted from Page Seven

- I. Staple, Boston, Piedmont;
- Bor... Piedmont; M. Lerch,
- N. Oxley, Chicago,
- Sperrman, Atlanta; A.
- Atlanta; J. A. Parker, At-
- arker, Atlanta; Hugh
- anta; H. H. Griffith, Atlan-
- nnent, Atlanta; W. Hersh-
- E. D. Crawford, Atlanta;
- Carr, Providence, Aragon;
- N. Henderson, Boston;
- P. Watson and wife, Atlan-
- Jacksonville 22 Mead...

"GO

RHODES-

WATCH FOR THE STRATION II

WE have made arrangements v our windows the wonderfu bed that can be changed from I wink. If you want to see the m piece of Furniture possible to pro Demonstration.

The "Gold Medal" Davenport makes a perfect, useful, ornament port for the day, and a comforta rious bed any time.

"If stays put"—When it's up and when it's down, it's down.

A beautiful adornment for any
You will be delighted with Medal." When you see it, you

JUDGE C. G. JANES STRONGLY INDORSED

JUDGE C. G. JANES,
Who Is Strongly Backed by the Bar of the Tallapoosa Circuit for One of the Places on the New Appellate Court Bench.

To the Voters of Georgia: The undersigned members of the bar of the Tallapoosa circuit heartily inuorse the candidacy of Hon. Charles G. Janes, of Polk county, for one of the places on the court of appeals. Judge Janes presided for twelve consecutive years, from 1891 to 1903, over the courts of the Tallapoosa circuit, making a fine record. We commend him to the people of the state as a man whose learning, ability and character omently fit him for the position he seeks.

J. M. Hunt, J. L. Tyson, H. H. Carpenter, F. A. Irwin, judge city court of Polk; Joseph A. Blance, G. R. Hutchens, W. C. Bunn, senator thirty-eighth district; W. H. Trawick, C. C. Bunn, Jr., W. W. Mundy, Paul R. Turner, William Janes, I. F. Mundy, nominee for representative; A. J. Camp, R. E. L. Whitworth, P. M. Richards, C. D. McTreggar, E. S. Griffith, ex-representative Haralson county; J. M. McBride, ex-representative and ex-senator Haralson county; Walter Matthews, C. B. Weatherly, Lowell McEwen, Herbert McBride, F. G. Brock, S. L. Craven, J. N. Cheney, J. S. James, ex-United States district attorney; W. T. Roberts, ex-solicitor general Tallapoosa circuit; L. Z. Dorsett, J. R. Hutcherson, W. A. James, B. G. Griggs, L. J. Spinks, Price Edwards, nominee, Judge Tallapoosa circuit; W. G. M. Simmons, president Hoke Smith Club Polk county; J. A. Beck, president Estill Club Polk county; W. J. Harris, chairman Polk county democratic executive committee; W. S. Coleman, president Georgia Weekly Press Association; E. B. Russell, editor Cedartown Standard.

Admitting that locality should not control in the selection of the judges of the court of appeals, we beg leave, however, to submit the following statement: The section of the state in which Judge Janes was born and has always lived, called northwest or Cherokee Georgia, embraces about twenty-five prosperous and progressive counties, containing more than one-fifth of the white people of Georgia. In the days of reconstruction this section did much to save the state, and without it the negroes would now constitute a majority of the inhabitants of the state.

Nevertheless, since its creation we have been represented on the supreme court for only the short time of five years, and in the last forty years we have had no representative on the court. We wish also to call attention to the fact that the supreme court is made up of city lawyers. While there is no objection to a fair recognition of the city lawyers, it would be unfair and unwise to take all judges of the two highest courts from the cities alone.

Under the circumstances ought not we be given one of the judges of the court of appeals? Ought we not to have at least one of the nine judges of the two highest courts? We offer a candidate as well qualified for the position as any man in the field, and earnestly appeal to the people of Georgia to support him. With the utmost confidence in their sense of justice and fairness, we confidently expect from them a "square deal."

J. A. Blance, ex-senator thirty-eighth district; F. A. Irwin, judge city court of Polk county; W. C. Bunn, senator thirty-eighth district; Price Edwards, nominee for Judge Tallapoosa circuit, and J. M. Hunt, committee.

ROOSEVELT BACK AT WHITE HOUSE

JUDGE C. G. JANES STRONGLY INDORSED

Family Ride in Special Car On Pennsylvania

President Heavily Guarded by Squad of Policemen and Headquarters Detectives as He Walks to His Carriage.

Washington, October 1.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt and three of their children, Miss Ethel and Archie and Quentin, returned to Washington at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon from their summer home at Oyster Bay, Long Island, where they have spent the last three months. The president looked the picture of health as he stepped from the train and cordially greeted a number of acquaintances who were awaiting his arrival. He and Mrs. Roosevelt entered their carriage and were driven to the white house.

The president and his party occupied a special car, which had been attached to the regular Pennsylvania train from New York. In addition to his family those with him included the wife of Secretary Loeb and her infant child, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Richardson, of New York, intimate friends of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, and who are to be guests at the white house, and M. C. Latta, the assistant secretary to the president, and several of the white house clerical staff.

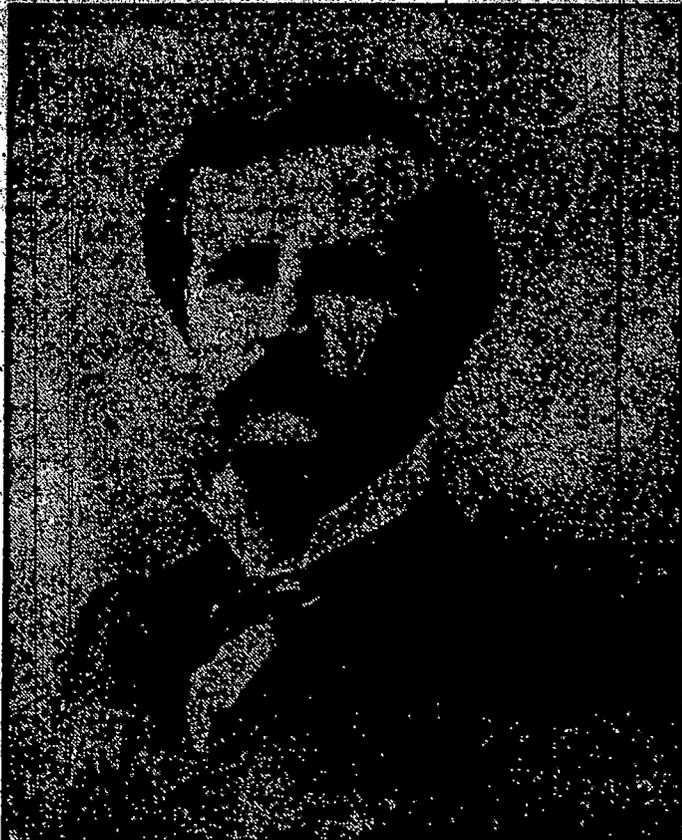

The president's car was detached from the train before reaching the station, and shifted to a side entrance, where the carriage was in waiting. Here various officials of the government had gathered to welcome the chief executive on his return home.

The president was the first to make his appearance in his special car came to a stop. Surrounded by a squad of policemen and headquarters detectives, Mr. Roosevelt made his way to his carriage; the remainder of the party following his lead. It was raining slightly when the president arrived and the hood of the carriage had to be raised as it proceeded up Pennsylvania avenue to the white house.

CHARLES HUGHES, ON TRAIN, CONFERS WITH PRESIDENT

West Philadelphia, October 1.—The conference between President Roosevelt and Charles E. Hughes, which began fifteen minutes before the time for the president's train to leave Jersey City, had not been concluded when the train was about to leave, and the president invited Mr. Hughes to accompany him on his journey. Mr. Hughes left the train at Trenton, and returned to New York. This trip added over an hour to the conference, which was ample for a complete discussion of the New York political situation. At the conclusion of the conference the president said he had nothing to say for publication regarding it, except he was very much interested in the situation which he had discussed thoroughly with Mr. Hughes.

Negro Crushed in Machinery.
 Davisboro, Ga., October 1.—(Special.)—Willie Williams, a colored laborer at the Davisboro cotton gin mill, was accidentally caught in the machinery this morning and badly injured.

JUDGE C. G. JANES, Who Is Strongly Backed by the Bar of the Tallapoosa Circuit for One of the Places on the New Appellate Court Bench.

To the Voters of Georgia: The undersigned members of the bar of the Tallapoosa circuit heartily inorse the candidacy of Hon. Charles G. Janes, of Polk county, for one of the places on the court of appeals. Judge Janes presided for twelve consecutive years, from 1891 to 1903, over the courts of the Tallapoosa circuit, making a fine record. We commend him to the people of the state as a man whose learning, ability and character eminently fit him for the position he seeks.

J. M. Hunt, J. L. Mason, H. H. Carpenter, F. A. Irwin, Judge city court of Polk; Joseph A. Blance, G. R. Hutchens, W. C. Bunn, senator, thirty-eighth district; W. H. Frawick, C. C. Bunn, Jr., W. W. Mundy, Paul R. Turner, William Janes, I. F. Mundy, nominee for representative; A. J. Camp, R. E. L. Whitworth, F. M. Richards, C. D. McCreag, E. B. Griffith, ex-representative Haralson county; J. M. McBride, ex-representative and ex-senator Harrison county; Walter Matthews, C. B. Weatherly, Lowell McEwen, Herbert McBride, I. G. Brock, S. L. Craven, J. N. Cheney, J. S. James, ex-United States district attorney; W. T. Roberts, ex-solicitor general Tallapoosa circuit; L. Z. Dorsett, J. R. Hutchenson, W. A. James, B. G. Griggs, L. J. Spinks, Price Edwards, nominee Judge Tallapoosa circuit; W. G. M. Simmons, president Foke Smith Club Polk county; J. A. Peok, president Estill Club Polk county; W. J. Harris, chairman Polk county Democratic executive committee; W. S. Coleman, president Georgia Weekly Press Association; E. B. Russell, editor Cedar town Standard. Admitting that locality should not control in the selection of the judges of the court of appeals, we beg leave, however, to submit the following statement: The section of the state in which Judge Janes was born and has always lived, called northwest or Cherokee Georgia, embraces about twenty-five prosperous and progressive counties, containing more than one-fifth of the white people of Georgia. In the days of reconstruction this section did much to save the state, and without it the negroes would now constitute a majority of the inhabitants of the state. Nevertheless, since its creation we have been represented on the supreme court for only the short time of five years, and in the last forty years we have had no representative on the court. We wish also to call attention to the fact that the supreme court is made up of city lawyers. While there is no objection to a fair recognition of the city lawyers, it would be unfair and unwise to take all judges of the two highest courts from this cities alone.

Under the circumstances ought not to be given one of the judges of the court of appeals? Ought we not to have at least one of the nine judges of the two highest courts? We offer a candidate as well qualified for the position as any man in the field, and earnestly appeal to the people of Georgia to support him. With the utmost confidence in their sense of justice and fairness, we confidently expect from them a "square deal."

J. A. Blance, ex-senator, thirty-eighth district; F. A. Irwin, Judge city court of Polk county; W. C. Bunn, senator, thirty-eighth district; Price Edwards, nominee for Judge Tallapoosa circuit, and J. M. Hunt, committee.

fant. They have already ordered six prisa Jersey cows to supply with provender against the predicted

FOR GENERAL ELECTION

POLLING PLACES IN CITY.
 The polling places in Atlanta will be located as follows:
 First Ward—Curtis drug store, corner Forsyth and Mitchell streets.
 Second Ward—County courthouse.
 Third Ward—Bryant's drug store, Fair and Fraser streets.
 Fourth Ward—Pierce's store, corner Auburn avenue and Jackson street.
 Fifth Ward—A. J. Martin Hardware Company's store, 248 Marietta street.
 Sixth Ward—44 North Pryor street.
 Seventh Ward—Mrs. M. I. Florence's store, 308 Lee street.
 Eighth Ward—Judge Langston's court room, 324 Peachtree street.
 Polls open at 7 a. m. and close at 8 p. m.

In the country precincts the polls will be located at the same places in the following districts as they were on the day of the democratic primary election held on August 22: Adameville district, Battle Hill, Edgewood, Collins, Hapeville, Cook's Oak Grove, Peachtree, South Bend, Black Hall, East Point, Bryant's, Buckhead and College Park.
 Polls open at 8 a. m. at the country precincts and close at 3 p. m.

Report of the "Cotton Belt."
 St. Louis, October 2.—The fifteenth annual report of the St. Louis Southwestern Railroad Company, the Cotton Belt route, was made public last night. The report shows a decrease in the surplus for the fiscal year ending June 30 over the preceding year of $477,187; gross earnings were $8,889,884, an increase of $129,332; operating expenses, $6,899,444, an increase of $480,071; net earnings, $2,290,119; a decrease of $350,730.

RIGHT HOME

Doctor Recommends Postum From Personal Test.

No one is better able to realize the injurious action of caffeine—the drug in coffee—on the heart than the doctor. When the doctor himself has been relieved by simply leaving off coffee and using Postum, he can refer with full conviction to his own case.
 A Mo. physician prescribes Postum for many of his patients because he was benefited by it. He says:
 "I wish to add my testimony in regard to that excellent preparation—Postum. I have had functional or nervous heart trouble for over 15 years, and part of the time was unable to attend to my business.
 "I was a moderate user of coffee and did not think drinking it hurt me. But on stopping it and using Postum instead, my heart has got all right, and I ascribe it to the change from coffee to Postum.
 "I am prescribing it now in cases of sickness, especially when coffee does not agree, or affects the heart, nerves or stomach.
 "When made right it has a much better flavor than coffee and is a vital sustain-

In Court of Appeals Primary Sixteen Are Candidates for Three Positions.

HAT BOXES WILL SERVE IN DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY

Socialists Have Put Out a Ticket Against the Nominations of the Democratic Party—T. C. Crenshaw Is Opposing S. G. McLendon.

This is the day of the general state election, in which state-house officers, from governor down through the list, will be voted for, also county officials.

The most important feature of the ballot which will be voted today is the ratification of the amendment to the constitution establishing a court of appeals, which, should the amendment be ratified, will commence its sessions on January 1. Three judges will preside over this court, and they are to be selected today from sixteen candidates for these three positions. Immediately after casting their votes for state and county officers and for the ratification of the amendments to the constitution creating the court of appeals, creating the new county of Ben Hill and conferring on the legislature the power to create additional judges of the superior courts when the business of a circuit necessitates such action, voters cast the separate ballot which will be furnished them with the names of the sixteen candidates for the three judgeships of the new court. From this list of sixteen names the voter must scratch thirteen, leaving the names of the three candidates he is voting for, unscratched. This ballot is to be deposited in a hat box, which will serve for a ballot box at each polling place. Neither more nor less than three candidates may be voted for.

Three general tickets in addition to the court of appeals ticket will be presented to voters at each of the twenty-two polling places in the city and county, the polls opening in the city at 7 o'clock a. m. and closing at 6 o'clock p. m., and opening in the country districts at 8 o'clock a. m. and closing at 3 o'clock p. m. One of these tickets is the official democratic ticket, issued under the directions of Chairman Miller, of the democratic state executive committee; a second will be the ticket issued by T. C. Crenshaw, independent candidate for railroad commissioner against S. G. McLendon, who was nominated in the state democratic convention at Macon for that position, and the third ticket will be that put forth by the socialist party, on which Winter is Rapidly Approaching and Act Now!

ECONOMY—HEAT The King Hardware People Fort and Flow.

The season is now on for winter and we beg to call your attention to we were never in a better condition people with what is needful for all comfort and economy than we are right a well established fact that a first stove gives out just three times the grate will give, and consumes just fuel—that is not the only advantage the use of a heating stove. They let to a room. You get up on a cold and turn the damper and there's your fire the kind we sell, they keep fire over that alone is not a small circumstance when these cold, snowy, sleety, blizz occur so often now during our winter.

We have just about twenty styles from, and the price ranges according of workmanship, size, ornaments, etc. as it may, we can assure you that a very reasonable and the thousands of we have sold in the past stand as a statement. We always give you the best the least price possible, and it is not to do business when we cannot do statement.

Our leader this season in high quality will be the Estate Oak and we can many good things about this particular just as a little stimulant on the stove with us to comment on one certain Estate Oak; for it is certainly of interest if you anticipate the purchase of a stove.

The Hot Blast Attachment—By this attachment we are able to maintain perfect combustion of the fuel, burn up, consume the smoke. This is accomplished producing hot air on all sides of the slots in the fire pot. The cold air peculiar chamber at the top of the fire a screw draft, which gives entire amount of draft entering upon the air then presses around this chamber.

any business transacting it has at have been transaction. In the winter, his is my plan similar attention

Atlanta.

THE CITY HOTEL ROOMS
 Hall Street.
$2.00
 in the morning.
$3.00
PRICES.
economy.
 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

BYNER RESIGNED

Will Take Effect
 December Election.

of the Race to Succeed
 W. B. Cumber will

Byner, of the Atlanta fire terday wrote but in and forwarded it to

Joyner, of the Atlanta fire yesterday wrote out his vision and forwarded it to G. Woodward, the same to be prior to the election held on the chief will become nation will be held in the next regular at which time it is, and it is highly probable that the successor will be elected at vo candidates seeking the of whom are trained fire-connected with the department. Cumming, now assistant re Department, is anxious in the capacity of chief Haney, engineer of fire is also an applicant for ne years "Cap" Joyner, as every Atlantian, has been the Atlanta fire department management the department and been brought to a state as a fire-fighting today it compares with reputation in the south. reputation as a practical fighter of fires is not only out the United States he is of the best men engaged in bus calling.

GE TO COTTON.

ham Notified That the Crop Is Damaged. 5 to 50 Per Cent.

atham, secretary of the on Growers' Association, from yesterday from Wall-ident of the Mississippi association, stating that p in Mississippi had been 25 to 50 per cent.

the state the most op has been beaten the wind and hard loss.

es from Texas tell of the of affairs in many sec-ate.

I am prescribing it now in cases of sickness, especially when coffee does not agree, or affects the heart, nerves or stomach.

"When made right it has a much better flavor than coffee, and is a vital sustainer of the system. I shall continue to recommend it to our people, and I have my own case to refer to." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

PAVEMENT SOON FOR PEACHTREE

Street Committee Will Act Early Part of Next Week.

The street committee of the city council will meet early next week to consider the bids made for the repaving of Peachtree street. Three bids are to be considered, which were published in yesterday's Constitution.

Those who have analyzed the bids say that the bid of the Asphalt Paving Company of Georgia to relay asphalt on the street is the best for the city and the property holders. The bid of this company was $1.24 a square yard, and $1.08 if county convict labor is furnished to take up the old pavement.

The bid of the Southern Bitulithic Paving Company was to place bitulithic pavement on the street at $1.16 a square yard if county convict labor was furnished, an 99 cents if the city furnished the stone along with the county labor and plant.

Some of the property holders on Peachtree had wavered between asphalt and bitulithic pavement, believing that the experiment might save a large sum of money. Since the bids have been opened they seem now to think that asphalt is the pavement to be used.

The street committee will make its report when council meets next Monday week.

railroad commissioner against G. McLendon, who was nominated in the state democratic convention at Macon for that position, and the third ticket will be that put forth by the socialist party, on which J. B. Osborne, the blind orator and socialist, is a candidate for governor against the democratic nominee, Hoke Smith. A full state house ticket is put out by the socialist party with the expectation that they have no candidate for railroad commissioner and no candidates for the judgeships of the court of appeals.

The ticket put out by T. C. Crenshaw, independent candidate for railroad commissioner, is headed "Straight Democratic Ballot," and differs from the official democratic ballot in that Crenshaw's name appears as a candidate for railroad commissioner in place of the name of McLendon. Secretary Charles N. Allen, of the county democratic executive committee, also calls attention to the fact that the Crenshaw ticket may lead to confusion in voting that ticket for commissioner of roads and revenues. The ticket does not specify that C. L. Anderson and E. V. Carter have already been nominated, and the instructions to strike two candidates may lead to voters scratching one or both of these candidates. Two of the following candidates for county commission, to succeed H. L. Culbertson, should be scratched by the voter: Robert F. Maddox, Dr. George M. Pierce and Thomas M. Poole.

Contests Are as Follows: The candidates to be voted for today, where there is a contest between candidates, are as follows:

- For Governor. HOKE SMITH, J. B. OSBORNE.
- For Secretary of State. PHILIP COOK, GEORGE H. EHRHORN.
- For Comptroller General. WILLIAM A. WRIGHT, MAX WILK.
- For Treasurer. ROBERT E. PARK, F. P. BRANCH.
- For Attorney General. JOHN C. HART, JOHN ALLEN METTE.

- For Commissioner of Agriculture. T. G. HUDSON, W. R. NEWSOME.
- For State School Commissioner. W. B. MERRITT, A. M. THOMAS.
- For Prison Commissioner. CLEMENT A. EVANS, A. J. ESTES.
- For Railroad Commissioner. S. G. MCLENDON, T. C. CRENSHAW.
- For Commissioner of Roads and Revenues. (Vote for One.) ROBERT F. MADDOX, DR. GEORGE M. PIERCE, T. M. POOLE.

- For Judges of Court of Appeals. (Vote for Three.) THOMAS J. GRANTFIELD, FREDERICK C. FOSTER, THOMAS C. GREEN, W. R. HAMMOND, FRANK HAYWOOD, W. M. HINNEB, BENJAMIN H. HILL, CHARLES G. JAMES, GEORGE E. JONES, H. C. STAMPER, A. G. POWERS, P. F. PROFFER, D. M. ROBERTS, RICHARD B. HUNTER, EDWARD VAN RIFE, HERMAN W. WILLIAMS.

amount of draft entering upon the air then presses around this cha

Florida Club at Emory. Emory College, Oxford, Ga., October 2.—(Special.)—The Florida club has a very enthusiastic meeting, the number of members was larger than ever before. The following officers were elected: President, C. M. Tramel, Lakeland, Fla.; treasurer, W. J. Delaney, Key West, Fla.; secretary, J. R. Blocker, Plant City, Fla. The first banquet will be held in Covington. The other three banquets will be held either in Oxford or Atlanta.

HEAR At Our Ware

The latest marvel. The one you are cordially invited to hear Calve Plancon Scott Pa at our studios.

Sold on Easy Plan PHILIP... Whole... Velos...
 PHILIP...
 Whole...
 Velos...
 PHILIP...
 Whole...
 Velos...

New York
 not by any individual.
 expression of the clothes men's styles come from Social Paris, men's styles come from Social New York.
 Alfred Benjareflect New York styles
 e created, and they are fabrics by the best tailor othes for Men

Exclusive Agent Here
 Essig Bros.

This Copy is Non-Returnable. Any Person Selling It is Liable to Prosecution.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1906. — FOURTEEN PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

DIED BURNING

COAL MINE

Occurs in Bowels
Where Many Were Lost in Disaster of 1902.

COAL MINE
THE FLAMES, DESCENT

Prevails in Vicinity of West Virginia, where Men, Women and Children Crowd Drift Mouth.

October 3.—As the afternoon, at the Pocahontas
the explosion Superintendent and sixteen others are supposed have entered the clock tonight two and Godash, have recovered.

reported to be on fire,
is not deter-

in the neigh-hoods. Crowds of men, remained around the awaiting news of among the missing.
is going on slowly.

POWELL AND RUSSELL IN LEAD FOR APPELLATE COURT JUDGES; THIRD PLACE STILL IN DOUBT

HENRY C. PEOPLES.
Who is Probably One of Successful Candidates for Appellate Court Judgeship.

JUDGE RICHARD B. RUSSELL.
Who was probably nominated for One of the Appellate Court Judgeships.

RUSSELL LEADS FOR JUDGESHIP

Former Gubernatorial Candidate Seems Sure Winner.

Powell and Peoples Show Strong Following in Many Sections of the State—Consolidated Vote of the Big Counties in the Judgeship Race.

Richard B. Russell,
Arthur G. Powell,
Henry C. Peoples.

The completed returns from the state will probably change the standing

HON. S. G. McLENDON
Of Thomas County. Elected Yesterday as a Member of the Railroad Commission. The Opposition

Owing to the Number of Candidates, the Official Count Will be Necessary.

HON. GUY McLENDON NAMED RAILROAD COMMISSIONER

Full Democratic Ticket Was Named Yesterday, Without Opposition, Making Clean Sweep—The Views of all Candidates Voted for: Nominees of the Primary.

The regular state election held in Georgia yesterday resulted in the practically unanimous election of the democratic nominees; headed by Hoke Smith for governor.

Returns received up to a late hour last night from 10 counties show that the amendment providing for the court of appeals was carried by a safe majority, although there was strong opposition to the amendment in some sections of the state.

The amendment providing for additional superior court judges and the amendment creating the new county of Ben Hill, with Fitzgerald as the county site, were also carried.

In the appellate court judgeship race the probable winners are Judge R. B. Russell, who is leading in about eighty-five counties; Judge A. G. Powell, who is reported to be leading in about sixty counties, and H. C. Peoples, who has a lead in about forty of the counties so far reported.

In the second division are probably Hill, Chappell, Willingham and Green. For railroad commissioner, Hon. S. G. McLendon carried practically every county against T. C. Crenshaw, his only opponent.

Returns received by The Constitution from every part of the state indicate that the balloting in almost every county was phenomenally light. The largest turnout was shown in the state ticket, as all factions conceded the finality of the primary result of August 27. The nominees

KE DARING DESCENT

Prevails in Vicinity of West Virginia, ... Men, Women and Children Crowd ... Mouth.

October 3.—As the ... this afternoon, at ... of the Pocahontas ... the explosion ... which Superintendent ... and sixteen others ... men are supposed ...

... have entered the ... o'clock tonight two ... and Godash, have ... involved. ... to be on fire, ... rescue is retarded, ... the explosion is not deter-

... in the neigh- ... Crowds of men, ... remained around the ... anxiously awaiting news of ... friends among the missing. ... rescue is going on slowly, ... fire in the mine, and be- ... lack of practice cloth, a ... hurried for- ... from Bluefield. ... the results of ... known definitely

... excited over the ... which is the worst since ... the minutes, when twenty ... were snuffed out. ... explosion was hardly ... the mine's mouth, as the ... occurred in two and a ... mountains, although a ... in the south pine were ... before rescued.

SHOOTING MERCHANT.
October 3.—J. M. ... Ala., was shot ... wounded at his ... by Dr. B. F. Scott. ... as Soles was writ- ... the surgeon, Dr. Scott ... merchant had threatened

DEATH WAS SUICIDE.
"Al" Adams ... Adams ... Members of the ... representatives of ... who was found dead Monday ... in the head, de- ... after a full and ... were of the ... a single fact warranted ... murder. In- ... to them showed that ... to depression ... although he had ... from his family, and ... favorable twin taker ... which he had long

HENRY C. PEEPLES, Who is Probably One of Successful Candidates for Appellate Court Judgeship.

RUSSELL LEADS FOR JUDGESHIP

Former Gubernatorial Candidate Seems Sure Winner.

Powell and Peoples Show Strong Following in Many Sections of the State—Consolidated Vote of the Big Counties in the Judgeship Race.

Richard B. Russell, Arthur G. Powell, Henry C. Peoples.

The completed returns from the state will probably not change the standing of the above three candidates, who are in the lead for the new court of appeals bench.

With 16 candidates in the race the returns were necessarily slow in coming in, and as the election is based upon the popular vote throughout the state, instead of upon the vote of counties in convention as is the case in the selection of state house officers, it will take the official vote to determine the precise standing of the candidates and the exact pluralities of the winners.

Some idea of the general result may be obtained from the consolidated vote (unofficial) of a number of the larger counties of the state.

In Chatham, Judge Russell received 1,619, against Peoples 1,26 and Powell's 989.

In Muscogee, the consolidated vote showed Chappell 827, Russell 938, Powell 321, Hammond 303, Van Epps 173, Hill 112, Harwell 122, Green 110, Peoples 110 and Foster 65.

In Richmond the vote was Foster 429, Chappell 396 and Peoples 204.

BRITISH SEALERS PROTEST.

Accuse Japanese Using Fire Arms in Bering Sea.

Victoria, October 3.—In consequence of interference with their business in Bering sea by Japanese vessels, a large fleet of which were in the sea this summer, hunting within the prescribed limits and using firearms, the British Columbia sealers are to present a protest to the imperial government. The British Columbia sealers are bound by the terms of the modus vivendi to remain outside a 60-mile zone and use spears only to take seals. The sealers claim the use of firearms by the Japanese makes the seals so restless that it is only with great difficulty that they can be taken with spears.

JUDGE RICHARD B. RUSSELL, Who was probably nominated for One of the Appellate Court Judgeships.

HON. S. G. McLENDON, Of Thomas County, Elected Yesterday as a Member of the Railroad Commission. The Opposition to Him Developed Comparatively Little Strength.

CAR ACCIDENT INJURES TWO

R. W. White and M. D. Stowers are lying in the Grady hospital badly injured as the result of a peculiar street car accident which occurred about 2 o'clock this morning, at the corner of Decatur street and Piedmont avenue.

The car was bound for the "Soldiers' home, one running to that point every morning, and White, who is a conductor, was acting as motorman. An express car had just passed the switch at the point of last night's accident and apparently it had been left open for when white's car reached the place, instead of going straight down Decatur, it suddenly took the curve of the track leading to the power house or Piedmont with such violence that White and passenger, M. D. Stowers, of East Fair street, were thrown out, sustaining many painful bruises, and it is feared internal injuries. They were taken to the hospital immediately in an ambulance. The injured conductor resides at 81 McLendon street.

The car continued on its course unguided and had gone half a block when W. E. Bender, of 17 Cherokee avenue, who had been hurled under a seat by the sudden swerve, jumped to the platform and stopped its flight between Decatur street and the railroad tracks on Piedmont avenue.

Friends of all Candidates Voted for Nominee of the Primary.

The regular state election held in Georgia yesterday resulted in the practically unanimous election of the democratic nominees, headed by Hoke Smith for governor.

Returns received up to a late hour last night from 110 counties show that the amendment providing for the court of appeals was carried by a safe majority, although there was strong opposition to the amendment in some sections of the state.

The amendment providing for additional superior court judges and the amendment creating the new county of Ben Hill, with Fitzgerald as the county site, were also carried.

In the appellate court judgeship race the probable winners are Judge R. B. Russell, who is leading in about eighty-five counties; Judge A. G. Powell, who is reported to be leading in about sixty counties, and H. C. Peoples, who has a lead in about forty of the counties so far reported.

In the second division are probably Hill, Chappell, Wiliingham and Green.

For railroad commissioner, Hon. S. G. McLendon carried practically every county against T. C. Crenshaw, his only opponent.

Returns received by The Constitution from every part of the state indicate that the balloting in almost every county was phenomenally light. The balloting at least was shown in the state ticket, as all factions conceded the finality of the primary result of August 22. The nominees were generally supported by the friends of all the candidates. The regular state ticket made a clean sweep of the field.

The day was practically uneventful. The weather and crop conditions throughout the state probably had its effect in keeping the farmers away from the polls. Not even the constitutional amendments submitted for ratification, nor the contest for three judgeship places on the new appellate court, excited enough interest to overcome the general lethargy of the voters.

The polls closed last night throughout the state at 6 o'clock, but the count of the ballots was rather slow, as there were fifty or sixty names on the lengthy state ticket. However, the election clerks and managers were hampered by the fact that they were expected to keep track of two elections at the same time and look after two ballot boxes. The balloting for state house nominees and the balloting for court of appeals justices were cast at the same voting precincts, though not in the same boxes. Necessarily, the work of consolidating the returns was a little slow and it will be impossible to tell definitely the winners until the official consolidation which occurs in all counties of the state at 12 o'clock today. The Constitution therefore makes no attempt to present the itemized figures of the election, as the naming of the new

THE WEATHER.

Washington, D. C., October 3.—Forecast for Thursday and Friday: Georgia—Fair, somewhat warmer Thursday; Friday, fair, light south winds.

Local Report

Highest temperature	78
Lowest temperature	64
Mean temperature	70
Normal temperature	68
Precipitation 24 hours	1.39
Excess since 1st of month	2.96
Excess since January	5.14

From Various Stations.

RESULTS DECIDED YESTERDAY

Station	Temperature	Wind
State	12 1/2	12 1/2
Weather	11 1/2	12 1/2

CUESTA REY
Cigars are a rich antidote for the blues. Take home
a box.

State officials was practically settled at the primary.

The main interest centered in the primary for the selection of three judges to fill the bench of the new appellate court. There were sixteen candidates, as follows: Frank Harwell, Bartow S. Willingham, Howard Van Epps, Richard B. Russell, D. M. Roberts, P. P. Proffitt, A. G. Powell, H. C. Peoples, George S. Jones, Charles G. Jones, Benjamin H. Hill, W. M. Henry, W. H. Hammond, Thomas C. Green, Frederick C. Foster and Thomas J. Chappell.

New State House Officers.

The ticket, as adopted on yesterday follows:

- For Governor—Hoke Smith.
- For Secretary of State—Philip Cook.
- For Comptroller General—William A. Wright.
- For Treasurer—Robert E. Park.
- For Attorney General—John C. Hart.
- For Commissioner of Agriculture—T. G. Hudson.
- For State School Commissioner—W. B. Merritt.
- For Prison Commissioner—Clement A. Evans.
- For Railroad Commissioner—S. G. McLendon.
- For Chief Justice of Supreme Court for Unexpired Term, Ending January 1, 1911—William H. Fish.
- For Associate Justice of Supreme Court for Unexpired Term, Ending January 11, 1911—Marcus W. Beck.
- For Two Associate Justices of Supreme Court for Unexpired Terms, Each Ending January 1, 1907—Samuel C. Atkinson, Joseph H. Lumpkin.
- For Two Associate Justices of Supreme Court for Full Terms of Six Years Each, Beginning January 1, 1907—Samuel C. Atkinson, Joseph H. Lumpkin.
- For Judge Superior Court, Atlanta Circuit—John T. Pendleton.
- For Judge Superior Court, Atlantic Circuit—Paul E. Seabrook.
- For Judge Superior Court, Augusta Circuit—H. C. Hammond.
- For Judge Superior Court, Brunswick Circuit—T. A. Parker.
- For Judge Superior Court, Chattahoochee Circuit—W. A. Little.
- For Judge Superior Court, Cordel Circuit—V. N. Whipple.

ment in lead. No opposition to McLendon for railroad commissioner.

Bibb County.

Macon, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Jones, Powell and Hammond are the leading candidates for court of appeals. More than necessary vote for the court of appeals amendments was cast in Bibb.

Bulloch County.

Statesboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Russell, Foster and Hammond lead the ticket. Appellate court amendment probably defeated, as well as new county. Only 400 votes cast in Bulloch county.

Burke County.

Waynesboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Burke county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Jones and Foster.

Butts County.

Jackson, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Butts county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Russell.

Campbell County.

Fairburn, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Campbell county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Henry, Powell and Peoples.

Carroll County.

Carrollton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Carroll county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Willingham, Russell and Powell.

Charlton County.

Folkston, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Charlton county show three leading candidates for judgeships are H. B. Russell, Powell and W. M. Henry.

Chatham County.

Savannah, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Chatham county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, dates for judgeships are Russell, Hill and Peoples.

Coffee County.

Douglas, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—In Coffee county 208 cast; for ratification of amendments 100, against 18. A. G. Powell, 182; H. C. Peoples, 152; Hill, 48; Green, 31; Roberts, 34; Russell, 43; Van Epps 14; Jones, 18; Willingham, 5; Foster, 3; Hammond, 10.

Colquitt County.

Moultrie, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Colquitt county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Willingham and Henry.

Columbia County.

Harlem, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Columbia county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Willingham, Van Epps and Peoples. Not 100 votes polled.

Crawford County.

Roberta, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Crawford county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Green, Powell, Russell.

Crisp County.

Cordale, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Crisp county, show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Russell and Hammond.

Dade County.

Newton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Vote so badly scattered cannot say who has carried the county for places on appellate bench.

Decatur County.

Bainbridge, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Decatur county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, 500; Russell, 300, and Chappell, 250.

DeKalb County.

Decatur, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Returns received at Decatur show Hill, Peoples and Russell probably carried county for judgeship places. J. L. Chupp wins county commissioner race after a hotly contested and most interesting fight. He was closely followed by Freeman and McClelland. Five candidates were in the field for this office. DeKalb has but one county commissioner, and he has entire charge of the roads and revenues department of the county.

Dodge County.

Eastman, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Dodge county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Roberts, Willingham and Russell.

Dooly County.

Vienna, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Dooly county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Jones.

Dougherty County.

Albany, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Dougherty county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Foster.

Douglas County.

Jackson County.

Commerce, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—In the election held here today Judge Russell leads for court of appeals, followed by Green and Hammond.

Jasper County.

Monticello, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Jasper county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Foster, Russell and Roberts.

Jefferson County.

Louisville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Jefferson county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Russell. Heard from only three precincts.

Jeff Davis County.

Hazlehurst, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Jeff Davis county show three leading candidates for judgeship are Hill, Roberts and Russell.

Jenkins County.

Millen, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Jenkins county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Powell and Willingham.

Jones County.

Grays, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Jones county show three leading candidates for judgeships are F. C. Foster, H. C. Peoples and George S. Jones.

Laurens County.

Dublin, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Laurens county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Roberts, Foster and Russell.

Lowndes County.

Lowndes county show three leading candidates for judgeship are Russell, Peoples and Powell.

Liberty County.

McIntosh, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Liberty county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Roberts, Russell and Green.

Lincoln County.

Lincoln, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Lincoln county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Hill, Powell and Willingham.

Lumpkin County.

Chloega, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Lumpkin county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Hammond and Hill.

Marion County.

Buena Vista, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Marion county show three leading candidates for judgeship are Chappell, Powell and Russell.

Madison County.

Danleja, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Madison county show three leading candidates for judgeship of Crawford, Green and Hill.

Mitchell County.

Wrensboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Mitchell county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Roberts and Russell. Amendment beaten.

Monroe County.

Wrensboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Monroe county show three leading candidates for judgeship are Peoples, Willingham and Powell.

Morgan County.

Wrensboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—In the election and primary held here today all the amendments were carried by nice majorities for judges of court of appeals. Foster leads the ticket by vote in today's election in Polk, nor was a vote cast against the democratic ticket.

Pulaski County.

Hawkinsville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Pulaski county show three leading candidates for judgeship are Roberts, Chappell and Powell.

Putnam County.

Patonton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Putnam county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Hammond, Peoples and Powell.

Quitman County.

Georgetown, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate result from Quitman county show three leading candidates for judgeship are Russell, Powell and Hill.

Randolph County.

Cuthbert, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Randolph county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Chappell, Powell and Russell.

Richmond County.

Augusta, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Richmond county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Foster, Chappell and Hammond.

Rockdale County.

Conyers, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Rockdale county show three leading candidates for judgeships are; Howard Van Epps, Richard Russell and Charles G. Jones.

Schley County.

Blairville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—About half vote polled here today. Amendment for court of appeals defeated. Hill, Peoples, Chappell, Russell and Powell are close, in favor of last three.

Spalding County.

Griffin, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Indications point to the nomination of Chappell, Hammond and Russell in Spalding. All amendments carried. Peoples running strong.

Stephens County.

Toccoa, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Stephens county show the leading candidates for judges are Russell and Proffitt, in the order named, with Powell and Green running close for third place.

Stewart County.

Lumpkin, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Stewart county show leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Powell, Chappell and Hill.

Sumter County.

Americus, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Sumter county indicate that three leading candidates for the appellate judgeships are Chappell, Hill and Russell. A tight vote polled in Americus. Constitutional amendments carried easily.

Talbot County.

Talbotton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Thomas H. Chappell, of Columbus, led the vote in Talbot county for one of the judges of the court of appeals. It is not known who comes next. It is thought that the amendment of the court of appeals was defeated in Talbot

of the Georgia Railroad

R. E. MORGAN

General Agent

county. The vote in Talbot county was small, only about 230 votes being cast.

Taliaferro County.

Crawfordville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Taliaferro county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Jones and Foster.

Telfair County.

McRae, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Roberts, Russell and Powell seem to be ahead in Telfair county.

Terrell County.

Dawson, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Terrell county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Powell and Willingham.

Thomas County.

Thomasville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Thomas county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Green and Russell.

Tift County.

Tifton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Tift county gives a majority for Powell, Willingham and Peoples for court of appeals. R. E. defeats Judge, John Morrow for judge of the city court of Tifton by 109 majority. J. Wallace wins over R. E. Dinsmore for solicitor of city court of Tifton by 38 majority. County bonds failed to get a constitutional majority.

Troup County.

LaGrange, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Troup county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Harwell, Hill and Powell.

Turner County.

Ashburn, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results in Turner county show the three leading candidates for judgeships are Harwell, Russell and Powell.

Twiggs County.

Jeffersonville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Twiggs show three leading candidates for judgeships are B. H. Hill, D. M. Roberts and R. B. Russell.

Upson County.

Thomaston, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Upson county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Chappell, Hammond and Hill.

Walker County.

Lafayette, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Walker county show three leading candidates for judgeship are W. M. Henry, R. B. Russell and B. H. Hill.

Walton County.

Monroe, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Walton county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Foster and Green.

Warren County.

Warrenton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Warren county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Willingham, Powell and Russell.

Ware County.

Waycross, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Russell leads all candidates by a big majority, with Green probably in second place. Powell and Jones are running close together for third place, with a possible small majority in favor of Powell. All amendments carried. For county commissioner, J. F. Taylor, of Beach, defeated W. S. Booth, of Manor, by 150 majority. The sockallets, who had out a ticket for county office in evidence.

Washington County.

Sandersville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Whitfield County.

Dalton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Whitfield county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Hill, Hill and Foster.

Wilkinson County.

Irwinton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Wilkinson county show three leading candidates for judgeships are B. Powell and Jones.

Wilkes County.

Washington, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Wilkes county show three leading candidates for judgeships are B. Powell and Harwell.

Headaches and Neuralgia LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine, the wide Cold and Grip remedy for cause. Call for full name. Look for natuife. E. W. Grove. 25c.

Ohio U. S. Marshal Appointed
Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Today appointed Eugene J. ... United States marshal for the 1st district of Ohio, vice Faghter

Women's Diseases

Such as Nervous Strain and Exhaustion, Sick Headaches, Backache, Female Weakness, Irritation of Bladder, Womb and Ovaries, Troubles, Leucorrhoea, etc.

J. NEWTON HATHAWAY, M. D.
Graduate Dartmouth Med. Col- lege 1871. Ex. Pres. N. W. Med. Soc. Society, St. Member Nat. Med. Soc. Board of Health, etc.

First spare moment you have, diseases also cured. If you can't possibly call, write interesting medical booklets, examination blank free. DR. HATHAWAY & CO., 117 Broad St., Atlanta, Ga. 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sundays

ANTONIC
ARROW COLLARS
Climaco Shrink, Quarter Size
MADE BY CLAUDE, PEABODY & CO.
MAKERS OF SHIRTS AND COLLARS

Brains Repaired
Grape-Nuts
"There's Reason"

Get Rid of Scrofula

Rashes, eruptions, inflammations, soreness of the eyelids and ears, diseases of the bones, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, wasting, are only some of the troubles it causes. It is a very active evil, making havoc of the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Eradicates it, cures all its manifestations, and builds up the whole system. Accept no substitute.

Glascok county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russe., Willingham and Van Epps.

Glynn County.

Brunswick, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate, results from Glynn county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Peoples, Willingham and Powell.

Gordon County.

Calhoun, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—A small vote was cast in the election today. The amendments were scratched promiscuously and owing to the high waters in the county, making it impossible to get returns, the result will not be known until tomorrow. The court of appeals amendment has probably carried, and Judges Russell and Henry are leading in returns so far received.

Greene County.

Greensboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Greene county show the leading candidates for the court of appeals to be Harwell, Jones and Peoples.

Hall County.

Gainesville, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Hall county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Hammond, Hill and Russell.

Hancock County.

Sparta, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—The election passed off quietly here. A small vote only was polled. Russell, Chappell and Willingham are leading as candidates for judges of court of appeals.

Harris County.

Hamilton, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate, results from Harris county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Harwell and Powell.

Henry County.

McDonough, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate result from Henry county shows the three leading candidates for the judgeships are Peoples, Russell and Willingham.

Irwin County.

Fitzgerald, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Approximate results in Irwin county shows three leading candidates for judgeship are Russell, Roberts and Hammond.

Jackson County.

about 600 plurality; Powell second, and Hammond third.

Montgomery County.

Mount Vernon, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Montgomery county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Roberts, Russell and Powell.

Murray County.

Spring Place, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Murray county show three leading candidates for judgeships Hill, Peoples and Russell.

Muscogee County.

Columbus, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—About one thousand votes were polled in Muscogee county. All the constitutional amendments were carried. Crenshaw received but a few votes. For judge, T. J. Chappell received the solid vote of the county. For the other judgeships the vote seems divided between Russell, Powell and Hammond.

Newton County.

Covington, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Newton county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Chappell, Russell and Foster.

Oconee County.

Watkinsville, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Oconee county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Thomas F. Green, F. C. Foster and R. B. Russell.

Oglethorpe County.

Lexington, Ga., October 3.—Unofficial but approximate results from Oglethorpe county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Proffitt, Green and Foster.

Paulding County.

Dallas, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Paulding county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Jones and Henry.

Pickens County.

Jasper, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate, results from Pickens county show the leading candidates for judgeships are Chappell, Hill and Peoples. Chappell and Hill received practically all the votes.

Polk County.

Cedartown, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Election in Polk passed off quietly. Very light vote, about 600 votes cast out of 3,000 registration. In the Cedartown precinct 238 votes were cast. No names were voted for other than the democratic nominees. For additional superior court judges there were 134 for and 170 against; for Ben Hill county, 232 for and 34 against; for court of appeals, 173 for and 113 against; for judges court of appeals, Jones received 255, Henry 106, Peoples 102, Powell 96, Harwell 95, Russell 56, Green 61, Chappell 54, Jones 29, Hammond 28, Foster 21, Hill 21, Roberts 14, Van Epps 13, Willingham 3, and Proffitt 1. Other precincts not yet heard from. As far as learned, not a negro voted in today's election in Polk, nor was a vote cast against the democratic ticket.

A Perfect G

Mrs. Bessie Spencer, completely cured of her ailment by the use of this medicine without good results.

MRS. BESSIE SPENCER.

Duffy's Pure Malt

is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant. It tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, cleans and enriches the blood. It brings into action a man perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat the maximum of nourishment. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's is the only whiskey that has been recognized as a medicine and is guaranteed absolutely free from fusel oil. Seven thousand doctors prescribe and 2,000 hospitals use Duffy's Malt Whiskey exclusively.

BEWARE of dangerous imitations and substitutes. They are positively harmful and are sold for profit only by unscrupulous dealers. Look for the trade mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and be certain the seal over the cork is unbroken. All druggists and grocers, or direct, $1.00 a bottle. Doctor's advice and medical booklet free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, New York.

GEORGIA RA

LOW PASSENGER

ATLANTA, GA. Account Georgia

MACON, GA. Account Macon

For Full Information call upon of the Georgia Ra

SOUTHERN SHOPS IN FULL BLAST

Striking Union Machinists Return to Work

Strike-Breakers Have Left and Union Men Fill Their Former Positions at Advanced Wage Scale. Money Received From National Union.

The cheerful ring of hammer upon anvil was heard in the Southern railway machine shops Sunday morning when fifteen of the striking journeymen mechanics returned to work, pursuant to the agreement reached between the railway officials and the representatives of the union at Washington last week.

The remainder of the 135 machinists who walked out of the shops on a strike on the morning of October 3 returned to work yesterday morning, with the exception of a few men who had left the city and who have been telegraphed to return to fill their old positions.

The men struck for an increase of 2 1/2 cents per hour, and, by the agreement reached in Washington last week, they return to work at an increase of 1 1/2 cents per hour, the question of the additional cent per hour being left for future arbitration of a board to be composed of three arbitrators, one of whom will be named by the machinists, one by the railway officials and these two will select the third.

The strikebreakers who were imported from the east by the railway officials were paid off Sunday and left the shops. Secretary F. W. McCabe, of the union, was busily engaged in distributing checks for the second week's pay of the strikers, the check from the national union for this purpose having been received yesterday morning.

J. L. Jones, chairman of the strike committee, will arrive in Atlanta this

STATE ELECTION OCCURS TODAY

Appellate Judges and Congressmen To Be Elected

Democratic Candidates for Court of Appeals Have No Opposition. Congressman Livingston Is Unopposed—Where Polls Will Be Located.

WHERE TO VOTE TODAY.

The polling places in the city are located as follows in the several wards:

- First Ward—39 West Mitchell street.
 - Second Ward—County court house.
 - Third Ward—Poole's store, corner Fair and Fraser streets.
 - Fourth Ward—Mrs. Chamberlain's store, corner Jackson and Chamberlain streets.
 - Fifth Ward—Martin's hardware store, 248 Marietta street.
 - Sixth Ward—Avery drug store, 78 North Broad street.
 - Seventh Ward—Mrs. Florence's store, 208 Lee street.
 - Eighth Ward—Judge Langston's court room, 824 Peachtree street.
- In the country districts of Fulton county the polling places will be located at the various justice of peace courts in each district.

Today is national election day, on which congressmen for the next two years will be elected throughout the country.

In Georgia, in addition to the election of a democratic congressman in each of the eleven congressional districts, the people will elect three judges for the newly created state court of appeals.

The democratic candidates for congress are without opposition except in the first district, where Charles Edwards, the democratic nominee is opposed by a re-

BACK STAMPING STOPPED

Authorities Are Saving Expenses

Since November 1st Has Not Been Stamped at Postoffice—The May Be A

Since the first of the plants observers will instead of the custom stamped on the back of day of the month, ye and minute of receipt at office printed therein, a them, or a delicately t pending on whether the a rushing business ma maiden.

On November 1 the department has caused time and labor by p Uncle Sam's long pre back-stamping letters.

However, this may o sumed, for at present experiment to ascertain ties whether the time s enough to warrant the idea.

Postmaster Bloc

Yesterday afternoon gett stated that althou tem had been tried for his co-officers had con sions as to just how a saving of time. Tha a further test of some or for such length of vince them that the a back-stamping will be department in the mat principally, for that is of the test. Mr. Bloc is uncertain what would ly, as the definite arran on further experiment.

The discontinuation has been put into effect

STATE ELECTION HELD TOMORROW

Congressmen and New Court Judges To Be Named.

Democratic Candidates for the Court of Appeals Have No Opposition.
All Democrats Are Urged To Cast Their Votes on That Day.

Tuesday morning (is congressional election day, and while in Georgia the result is a foregone conclusion, it is nevertheless desirable that a full vote be polled, the light vote cast in congressional elections being the basis of many arguments made in the halls of congress in support of the position that southern representation in congress be appointed according to the voting population as thus officially registered.

In this state the electors have but to designate their representatives in congress for the eleven congressional districts in the state, and to formally elect the three democratic candidates chosen in the primary to fill the position of judges of the newly constituted state court of appeals.

Judge Richard B. Russell, Hon. Benjamin H. Hill and Hon. Arthur G. Powell are the three jurists whom the democracy of Georgia have chosen to wear the ermine on the bench of the court of appeals, and, being without opposition, will receive the full vote cast.

In this, the fifth congressional district, Hon. Leonidas F. Livingston, the present representative in congress, is without opposition, and will be returned to represent the district which he has so ably represented for a long number of terms.

The democratic candidates for congress, in the order of districts, are as follows:

Charles Edwards, of Savannah; J. M. Griggs, of Dawson; E. B. Lewis, of Montezuma; W. C. Adamson, of Carrollton; L. F. Livingston, of Newton county; Charles S. Bartlett, of Macon; Gordon Lee, of Chickamauga; W. M. Howard, of Lexington; T. M. Bell, of Gainesville; T. W. Hardwick, of Sandersville, and W. G. Brantley, of Brunswick.

In Fulton county the polls will open in

REP WILLIAMS, ction May Make Him a United Senator.

postoffice and then placed the letters in the various boxes ready for distribution.

"Word was received at the sub-station early this morning to allow the matter to go through the mails and the matter was released. There was no delay whatever, and no delivery was missed."

MARGIN IN MISSOURI WILL BE VERY NARROW

St. Louis, November 4.—The election in Missouri arouses particular interest, in

Correct Clothes for Men
MADE IN NEW YORK
Alfred Perini & Co. MAKERS

MERELY A SUGGESTION

May we suggest a warm and comfortable Suit of Clothes or Overcoat these cold days? Don't blame the weather if you feel cold. Try our new, stylish winter suits or coats. The kind of clothes you want are in abundance. They look well; they wear well; they are made to stand up to rough usage. Come and try one of our keep-warm Suits or Coats on and you will be under no obligation to buy.

15.00 to 37.50

They are all to the good.

ESSIG BROS
"Correct Clothes for Men"
26 WHITEHALL STREET

MARGIN IN MISSOURI WILL BE VERY NARROW

St. Louis, November 4.—The election in Missouri arouses particular interest, in that it will be the first of the party oration since the republican landslide years ago. Ever since that election which placed a democratic governor in power and carried the rest of the field with a republican victory, fence building as been pursued vigorously and relentlessly by both democratic and republican parties, the former to regain the lost round and the latter to retain supremacy.

All indications tonight are that victory by either party will be won by a close margin. Chairman W. N. Evans, of the democratic state committee, says the state will go democratic, but he declines to make any statement for publication. Chairman Thomas K. Niedringhaus, of the republican state committee, expresses himself as confident that the election will show a republican victory.

DEMOCRATS OF VIRGINIA MAY GET EVERY DISTRICT.

Richmond, Va., November 4.—There were no developments in Virginia's political campaign today. Both sides are resting on arms preparatory to the battle of ballots on Tuesday. The democrats are sure to carry nine of the ten districts in the state and have good reason to believe that they will wrest the tenth district, which numerically is the ninth, and which is now represented by Campbell, the head and front of the republican party in the state, from the delegation. There has been no fight here in the ninth and fifth districts and in the latter it is only a question of the size of the democratic candidate's majority. There is to be no election in the state other than that for congressmen.

EVEN BREAK PREDICTED IN THE MARYLAND FIGHT.

Baltimore, Md., November 4.—The day has passed without developments in the political situation and without apparent access of the interest in what has been an exceedingly dull campaign. Opinions differ as to the effect of the labor agitation against the reelection of Congressman Mudd, the general consensus being that while it will cost him some votes, it will not bring about his defeat. There is little to indicate any change in the present composition of the delegation in congress from this state—three democrats and three republicans.

Florida May Defeat Drainage.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 4.—Developments today indicate that the drainage amendment may be defeated in Tuesday's election. Anti-drainage speakers here receive enthusiastic attention from audiences.

He Ran for Office.

(Joe Kerr in The New Orleans Picayune.)
"No, I am not a fugitive from justice."

Howard, of Lexington; T. M. Bell, of Gainesville; T. W. Hardwick, of Sandersville, and W. G. Brantley, of Brunswick.

In Fulton county the polls will open in the city at 7 o'clock in the morning and close at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. In the country districts the polls will open at 5 o'clock in the morning and close at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The polling places in the city are located as follows in the several wards:
First Ward—39 West Mitchell street.
Second Ward—County court house.
Third Ward—Poole's store, corner Fair and Fraser streets.

Fourth Ward—Mrs. Chamberlain's store, corner Jackson and Chamberlain streets.

Fifth Ward—Martin's hardware store, 249 Marletta street.

Sixth Ward—Avery drug store, 78 North Broad street.

Seventh Ward—Mrs. Florence's store, 206 Lee street.

Eighth Ward—Judge Langston's court room, 824 Peachtree street.

In the country districts of Fulton county the polling places will be located at the various justice of the peace courts in each district.

The following managers and clerks will conduct the election in Fulton county:

Adamsville, 1289th District—Managers, J. P. McDonald, N. P. and J. P.; R. E. L. Carroll, J. W. Thompson. Clerks, Frank Jones, Jack B. Smith, W. R. Knight.

Battle Hill, 1311th District—Managers, W. E. Wood, N. P. and J. P.; A. S. Smith, H. C. Dunlop. Clerks, T. C. Coursey, R. C. Meager, W. P. Little.

Black Hall, 630th District—Managers, Taylor Y. Brent, N. P. and J. P.; Dr. J. W. White, Almand Morgan. Clerks, J. A. S. Baisden, B. D. Thomas, W. W. Tracy.

Bryants, 479th District—Managers, J. P. Robbins, N. P. and J. P.; J. M. McGee, Dr. J. M. Suttles. Clerks, R. A. McMurray, D. W. Connally, W. H. Sims.

Buckhead, 722d District—Managers, J. S. Donaldson, C. H. Hicks, G. P. Donaldson. Clerks, G. W. Hammett, O. B. Langford, C. C. House.

College Park, 1615th District—Managers, Henry Harris, N. P. and J. P.; J. M. Mason, I. A. Madden. Clerks, J. D. Ersdwell, H. A. Godby, J. C. Bond.

Collins, 1329th District—Managers, C. A. Howell, N. P. and J. P.; P. B. Seagraves, M. J. Rosser. Clerks, J. B. Thomason, M. M. Walker, D. L. D. McDonald.

Cooks, 469th District—Managers, Virgil Jones, N. P. and J. P.; C. P. Jeter, J. R. Booth. Clerks, William Gilleland, Russell Shirley, O. C. Lewis.

East Point, 1332d District—Managers, J. E. Nabell, N. P. and J. P.; W. G. Wisenaut, C. Q. Trimble. Clerks, J. W. Norton, S. Kendrick, P. S. Pearson.

Edgewood, 1422d District—Managers, H. W. Hopkins, J. P.; E. T. Staney, Shelby Smith. Clerks, L. W. Allen, J. J. Thomas, John Faith.

Hapeville, 1589th District—Managers, E. A. Doane, N. P. and J. P.; J. L. Sims, J. F. Wilson. Clerks, G. A. C. Hill, Dr. Sam Hape, J. C. Nesbit.

"Correct Clothes for Me 26 WHITEHALL STREET

CYPRESS SHINGLES.

Inspect our Carolina Special, all heart cypresses. All old contractors and property owners will tell you that all heart cypress shingle outlast all heart pine shingles 2 to 1. Call Portland Cement Company.

MORTUARY

Representative Ketcham.

New York, November 4.—Representative John Henry Ketcham, of I Plains, died of apoplexy at a hospital in this city today. He was 74 years of age. He served in the house of representatives from the eighteenth New York district during the terms 1866-1877-93 and 1897-1903, and following apportionment had represented twenty-first district.

He was colonel of the Fifteenth New York volunteers in the civil war, in which service he was promoted to brigadier general and breveted in general.

Mrs. Fannie Eggart.

Mrs. Fannie L. Eggart, who lives 121 Capitol avenue, died at 6 o'clock Saturday night. The funeral was at the residence at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She was well known among numbers of Atlanta people. Her husband is connected with Jax Pharmacy.

W. B. Robertson.

W. B. Robertson, aged 28 years, died at a private sanitarium yesterday afternoon and the body was taken to Ann Arbor, Ala., at 11:35 last night for the funeral and interment.

Mrs. B. F. Mackey.

Mrs. B. F. Mackey died at her residence yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and funeral services were conducted at the People's tabernacle on McDuff street at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body will be removed to Milledgeville, Ga., this morning for the funeral and interment.

Mrs. Robertine Fish.

Mrs. Robertine Fish, aged 78 years, died at a private sanitarium Saturday night, and the funeral was at Bar & Brandon's chapel yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The interment was at Westview.

Eugene Asher.

The funeral of Eugene Asher, who died at the residence, 221 South Pryor street Saturday morning was conducted at 8 o'clock that night, and the body was taken to Augusta at 8:15 o'clock yesterday morning for the interment.

Mrs. Fannie Hollingsworth.

Funeral services over the body of Fannie L. Hollingsworth, the sister-in-law of C. B. Hollingsworth, of the Atlanta fire department, were conducted at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the East Atlanta Methodist church.

Mrs. E. W. Nye, New Iberia, exceedingly dull campaign. Opinions fer as to the effect of the labor agita-n-against the reelection of Congress-in Mudd, the general consensus being it while it will cost him some votes, not bring about his defeat. There to indicate any change in the composition of the delegation in gress from this state—three demouts and three republicans.

Florida May Defeat Drainage.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 4.—Developments today indicate that the drainage amendment may be defeated in Tuesday's election. Anti-drainage speakers everywhere receive enthusiastic attention in audiences.

He Ran for Office.

He Kerr in The New Orleans Picayune.)
No, I am not a fugitive from justice.
I had the sight of a policeman does not give me a chill," said the reader and best-looking old man on the rear platform of the street car. "I am headed for the country to hide myself for a month, but there is no crime connected with it.
I simply ran for office."

"Oh, I see," replied the other.
"Yes, I ran. They wanted me for sheriff of the county. They came to me by a dozen to say that I was honest and I would make a good man for the office and that the opposition couldn't say a word against me. When they made me believe that it was my duty, I accepted the nomination."

"And your majority was—?"
"Ninety. I am supposed to be snowed under about 10 feet deep."
"But how did it happen?"
"Oh, easy enough. The opposition that didn't say a word against me announced:

- That I stole sheep.
- That I embezzled money.
- That I was down on education.
- That I once robbed a widder.
- That I burned a barn to get the insurance.
- That I beat my children and I kicked my wife.
- That I was a turncoat in politics and bar in business.
- That I crippled a man in Maine and ordered one in California. All this and more was urged against me, and I was ped off the face of the earth, as they say, and as I said, I am retiring to the country to think things over and get fresh introduction to myself. After seven or eight days I shall perhaps be able to come back and face my family again, but the best thing I can do now is to go to the law courts and get a divorce from the woman who has been beating me and kicking my children.

Langford, C. C. House.
College Park, 1615th District—Managers, Henry Harris, N. P. and J. P.; J. M. Mason, I. A. Madden. Clerks, J.
D. Bradwell, H. A. Godby, J. C. Bond.
Collins, 1320th District—Managers, C.
A. Howell, N. P. and J. P.; P. B. Seagraves, M. J. Rosser. Clerks, J. B.
Thomason, M. M. Walker, D. L. D. Mc-Donald.

Cooks, 469th District—Managers, Virgil Jones, N. P. and J. P.; C. P. Jeter, J. R. Booth. Clerks, William Gililand,
Russell Shirley, O. C. Lewis.
East Point, 1332d District—Managers,
J. E. Nabell, N. P. and J. P.; W. G.
Wisnaut, C. Q. Trimble. Clerks, J. W.
Norton, S. Kendrick, P. S. Pearson.
Edgewood, 1422d District—Managers, H.
W. Hopkins, J. P.; E. T. Stoney, Shelby
Smith. Clerks, L. W. Allen, J. J.
Thomas, John Faith.

Hapeville, 1589th District—Managers,
E. A. Doane, N. P. and J. P.; J. L.
Sims, J. F. Willson. Clerks, G. A. C.
Hill, Dr. Sam Hape, J. C. Nesbit.
Oak Grove, 1100th District—Managers,
B. F. Burdette, N. P. and J. P.; A. A.
Acree, J. L. Heard. Clerks, M. J. Cook,
H. F. Lively, J. L. Chapman.

Peachtree, 1362d District—Managers, J.
C. Todd, N. P. and J. P.; A. J. Collier,
E. L. Douglas. Clerks, A. P. Laddell,
E. R. Black, T. J. Cheshire.
South Bend, 1348th District—Managers,
C. K. Buzbee, N. P. and J. P.; W. C.
Henderson, W. H. Burroughs. Clerks,
T. E. Harper, J. L. Hughes, J. R. Stater.

The City of Atlanta.

First Ward Precinct—Managers, E. H.
Orr, J. P.; Isaac Steinheimer, George A.
Kudge. Clerks, E. P. Childress, A. C.
Belcher, D. W. Ligon.

Second Ward Precinct—Managers, J. G.
Bloodworth, N. P. and J. P.; E. D.
Thomas, Paul Ethridge. Clerks, N. S.
Culpepper, R. R. Shropshire, E. S. Stuart.

Third Ward Precinct—Managers, Amos
Baker, J. H. Owen, W. W. Gaines. Clerks, N. H. Penny, C. G. Murray, W. A.
Ivey.

Fourth Ward Precinct—Managers, S.
R. Landrum, J. P.; M. L. Tolbert, M. M.
Turner. Clerks, J. C. Dunlap, L. D.
Thompson, Louis Stahl.

Fifth Ward Precinct—Managers, O. H.
Puckett, J. P.; W. T. Winn, J. O. Adams.
Clerks, W. E. Harris, J. A. Dodson, B.
Forsyth.

Sixth Ward Precinct—Managers, C. S.
Kingsberry, N. P. and J. P.; Robert Lee
Avary, George C. Drummond. Clerks,
Eb T. Williams, Thomas A. Daniel, M.
E. Avary.

Seventh Ward Precinct—Managers, G.
J. Dallas, J. S. Dozier, J. M. Simpton.
Clerks, F. S. Browalee, Charles Evans,
E. P. Foster.

Eighth Ward Precinct—Managers, J. N.
Langston, J. P.; H. F. McCord, H. Lee
Walker. Clerks, A. M. Sanchez, Walter
C. Pearson, E. Carr.

street at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body will be removed to Fulton, Ga., this morning for the funeral and interment.

Mrs. Robertine Fish.

Mrs. Robertine Fish, aged 78 years, died at a private sanitarium Saturday night, and the funeral was at Bar-& Brandon's chapel yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The interment was Westview.

Eugene Asher.

The funeral of Eugene Asher, who died at the residence, 221 South Pryor street Saturday morning was conducted there at 8 o'clock that night, and the body was taken to Augusta at 8:15 o'clock yesterday morning for the interment.

Mrs. Fannie Hollingsworth.

Funeral services over the body of Fannie L. Hollingsworth, the sister-law of C. B. Hollingsworth, of the Atlanta fire department, were conducted at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the East Atlanta Methodist church.

Mrs. E. W. Nye, New Iberia, La.

New Orleans, November 4.—Mrs. E.
Margaret W. Nye, widow of the late "Big Nye," the famous humorist, died today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E.
Pharr, at Avoca plantation, New Morgan city. Mrs. Nye was 58 years old, a was formerly a resident of North California. Her body will be interred at New Iberia tomorrow.

G. W. Young, Columbus, Ga.

Columbus, Ga., November 4.—(Special) George W. Young, aged 53 years, died yesterday at the residence of his son, A. L. Young, on East Highlands. Interment was at Hopeful church, west of the city, today.

Mrs. Mary Mysterfelt.

Mrs. Mary Mysterfelt, aged 65 years, died at a private sanitarium last night.
She is survived by her husband and five children. The body was removed to the undertaking parlors of Harry G. Poole Company, where it will remain until relatives can be communicated with.

Captain John Ayers, Mexico City.

Mexico City, November 4.—Captain John Ayers, who was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and who for many years was superintendent of the United States Memorial Society, died late last night of paralysis of the heart. He was 80 years of age and a native of New York state. He will be buried in the national cemetery tomorrow, the location of the Grand Army of the Republic
officials.

Wireless Delegates Lunch with Kaiser.

Berlin, November 4.—Two delegates from each country represented at the international wireless telegraph conference took luncheon with Emperor Wilhelm today. John I. Waterbury, of New York, and Rear Admiral Manly Stone, of the United States, were present.

THE MASONRY ELECTION JUDGES NEXT TUESDAY

Subscriptions Given for People Will Also Vote for Masonic Temple. Congressmen

When Completed Will Cost Enthusiastic Banquet Held at the Aragon Hotel Last Night by the Masons.

There Is Little Interest Manifested in the Election, Due to Lack of Opposition—The Democrats Are Urged to Vote.

of the prominent Masons of ered together at the Aragon ght for the purpose of enquet served under the direc-for J. Lee Barnes, and ays and means toward a Masonic temple, start-riptions to this end. J. K.
at the banquet and meeting, tmaster, and money raiser at success, the subscriptions ght amounting to over $28,-

Little interest, apparently, is manifested in the election for congressmen and appellate judges which will be held in Georgia next Tuesday, November 6. The democratic candidates for judges of the new court of appeals are unopposed, and there is no noteworthy opposition to any of the candidates for congress—at any rate, there is none which is attracting any attention.

t proved to be a feature of
and with the tables artisted and an elaborate menu, late hour that Toastmaster
d, with the cigars, the oc-meeting. After explaining e lodges had subscribed to-nd, and that the Masonic to be a building which, ed, would cost $180,000 out-ound, stated that there was which must be raised, and ted that this meeting, the ind, would show an enthusiasm which would insure e success of the proposi-

Three judges of the state court of appeals and eleven congressmen are to be chosen in this election. The democratic candidates, all of whom will be elected, are, for the court of appeals, Richard B.
Russell, Ben H. Hill and Arthur G. Powell, and for congress in the order of the districts, Charles Edwards, of Savannah; J. M. Griggs, of Dawson; E. B. Lewis, of Montezuma; W. C. Adamson, of Carrollton; L. F. Livingston, of Newton county; Charles S. Bartlett, of Macon; Gordon Lee, of Chickamauga; W. M.
Howard, of Lexington; T. M. Bell, of Gainesville; T. W. Hardwick, of San-dersville, and W. G. Brantley, of Brunswick.

of the evening, it was uni-ed that the amount sub-ch made the certainty of the temple with the d in the immediate fut at the corner of Peacn street has already been the purpose, and it is exmen completed, the entire ul represent an expenditure

The democratic candidates for congress in particular are all anxious to get out a large vote. Owing to the fact that they generally have no opposition in the regular election, their vote is generally a very small one, a fact which is a source of some criticism on the part of the northern members who do not understand the situation in Georgia.

Chairman A. L. Miller, of the state democratic committee has issued a strong appeal to the voters all over the state to turn out on Tuesday and to give the candidates a good vote. It is due them and it is to be hoped that they will get it.

FREE MEDICAL ON ANY D

J. NEWTON HATHAWAY, M. D. al
Graduate Dartmouth Med Col. Ex-
Pres. N. Mich. Med. Soc. Ex-Mem. State Co
Med. Society Board of Health, Etc.

COMPETENCY.— There is which experience counts for more, in the practice of medicine. Before hands of a specialist, investigate taking. Not all doctors are compet in other lines are competent. The a be to get the highest medical skill in that way only can he hope to b pensive cure.

VAST EXPERIENCE.— I
to a sick person is to see Dr. Hat very outset of his disease. They quarter of a century in training am tice has been devoted to the trea alone. They have successfully trea ner of chronic and private diseases.
hospital and sanitarium experience,
give the best that is possible to l
They have practiced in this commu and they are still young enough to force new methods and new ideas.
tation for reliability and skill and t specialists that any chronic invalid

HONEST METHODS.—

Atlanta's business interests.

here—pardon the triteness—attention might be called to the fact that Atlanta never goes backward. Look out for $9,000,000 and over for the October week of 1907.

of Bulloch and Bartow Counties. An interesting feature of the sub-Bulloch county, in making an average of 95 per cent on the state fair in Atlanta last year, is the friendly rivalry between Bulloch and Bartow counties which is accentuated.

Bartow beat Bulloch on the agricultural display. This year it is Bartow. Bartow has challenged Bulloch to enter a contest showing next year in which the question of supremacy will be decided. The county receiving the award next year will have won out of three contests and will be conceded the banner agricultural county of the state. The challenge has been accepted.

The rivalry will not only settle the respective claims of Bulloch and Bartow, but will be a test of the agricultural supremacy of north Georgia.

Bartow has won all the prizes in its displays of its agricultural resources in north Georgia, and Bulloch has carried off the blue ribbon at all the south Georgia fairs. The winners have each won credit in the two last fairs and they will probably make every effort to demonstrate their superiority to be held next year.

The respective counties are the most productive and the most intelligent with the most gratifying results in the state.

Such contests of this kind are to be entered and will not detract from the reputation or reduce the standing of either county if the other is awarded the ribbon of superiority. Both are victors and both have farmers who know the possibilities of the soil from which they derive a livelihood and have the intelligence, the patience and the capacity for hard work that will develop its greatest fertility and make it produce the utmost of which it is capable under the most advanced science.

J. R. Miller, the man who collected and installed the prize winning Bulloch county exhibit, and who has been appointed to take charge of Georgia's agricultural display at the Jamestown exposition, has produced this year five separate crops on one piece of land. No better man lives in Georgia.

Bartow county has long been noted for its fertile farms, its energetic citizenry and its abundant agricultural resources. It is not to be supposed that this prosperous county believes it possible, or will permit the palm for agricultural supremacy in Georgia to go to the southern part of the state, without a fight. All of Georgia will watch the contest with interest.

For Clerk of Court of Appeals.

Elberton, Ga., October 26.—(Special.)—Colonel George C. Grogan, of the Elberton bar, has applied for the position of clerk of the new court of appeals. He is endorsed by the local bar and prominent men throughout the state, and his friends predict his election. Colonel Grogan is one of the most prominent lawyers and eloquent speakers in the section.

comes at once a real rate-making factor for Georgia, and when Birmingham and Atlanta are reached, connecting at these two points with systems ramifying the entire country, it will occupy the unique distinction of being able to dictate its own traffic terms.

It would be difficult to overestimate the advantages that will accrue to Georgia in the building of this line, which is entitled to, and will receive, the hearty support not only of the territory it traverses, but of the whole state, for the completion of the work in hand by this company means more in the readjustment of freight rates in Georgia to their normal level than anything the railroad commission has yet done, or is likely to do.

It is the natural outcome that freight rates between Atlanta and other Georgia points to the east should be based upon the routing via the state coast. Up to this time the demand has been that the railroads be given the LONG haul to the east, instead of the SHORT haul to the Georgia coast. By ownership of competing lines, by mergers, or the "community of interest" evasion, they have been able to control the situation, and the only way by which that power will be effectually broken is through the instrumentality of independent competition.

Mr. Atkinson's entire plan is based upon the idea that the rates between Georgia and the east should be based upon the short railroad haul to the coast, and the long water haul to the east—an exact reversal of the conditions controlling today.

And God speed him in the work, and keep him free from entangling alliances! If he works out his plans he will build a monument to himself and his associates more enduring than in any other industrial achievement now standing in Georgia to the credit of any man.

Dusen

... tried doctors
... that Duffy's P
... key helped her tr
... and restored her to
... in a short time
... cer, filled with g
... s:

Using Duffy's Pure Malt
I am so glad as it has than all the doctors' medicine
I know that I worked sitting fast every day until this wonderful Pure Malt Wh
I can praise it anywhere and am not ashamed thousands of people I ha me out of hard suffering its one foot at a time, in the morning I could for some time, my lig so under me, and wa recommended to me I sent I could, and before I of Duffy's Malt I stairs very well. This get goldsend to me, and I as long as I live, and I I sell more of it all o that it may reach many could prolong their life and Mrs. HESSIE SP
Abot Co., Goldsborough,

Whiskey

... tonic builds up the nerve
... and elasticity to the musc
... tal forces, it makes digest
... the nourishment it con

ROAD

S TO

Fair. Tickets on sale
... dated to October 23
... al Fair. Tickets on
... rning trains of Octo
... ber 13th.

Ticket Agent
OPGAN
il Agent

... county offices, were re
... ton County.
... October 3. (Special)
... proximate results
... show three lead

QUIET ELECTION DAY PASSES IN ATLANTA

Democratic Candidates for Governor and State House Officers Received Prac- tically Total Vote.

CANDIDATE J. B. OSBORNE GOT 8 VOTES IN FULTON

Many Freak Ballots Were Cast by Voters Yesterday, One Man Scratching All the Candidates but the Coroner.

While the primary election held on August 22 was marked by strenuous effort on the part of all the candidates, the scenes around the twenty-two polling places in the county abounding in excitement and cheers, yesterday's general election was in marked contrast. Only about one-third of the registered voters of the county exercised their right of franchise, and there was not in a single precinct or ward anything which bore the least semblance of excitement.

Few, indeed, were the scratches for state officers. As a whole this ticket was voted straight through from govern-ment on down through the list. Quite a number lost their votes on the question of voting for the ratification of the amendment to the constitution establishing the court of appeals by failing to scratch either the proposition for ratification or against it, and so it was with the other proposed amendments to the constitution, one to confer on the legislature the power to create additional superior court judges, the other to create the new county of Ben Hill. All of these amendments were passed upon favorably, however, by a large majority.

Freak voting was the order of the day. In one city ward a voter cast a ballot on which he had scratched every candidate with the exception of the candidate for county coroner, and on another ballot the coroner and county surveyor were the only two candidates voted for. Owing to the complexity of the ballot, the returns in the city wards were not compiled until a late hour, the count in the second ward, in which the vote was heaviest, not being completed until 12:30 o'clock this morning.

Hon. Hoke Smith, democratic candidate for governor, received but 55 scratches in the county, and his opponent, J. B. Osborne, the socialist candidate, received but 8 votes in the county. All other state house candidates, county officers and judges and solicitors of the superior courts of the various circuits received the same vote.

The vote for governor in the several wards and precincts of the county was as follows:

	Total vote	Hoke	Smith.
	Cast.
First ward	400	395
Second ward	842	820
Third ward	478	467
Fourth ward	442	437
Fifth ward	462	448
Sixth ward	791	771
Seventh ward	238	231
Eighth ward	279	272
Adamsville	54	51
Beth Hill	56	56
Bryant	58	58
Brook	56	56
Brook	50	50
Brook	54	52
Brook	58	58
Brook	58	58
Brook	153	153
Brook	150	150
Brook	51	51
Brook	55	55
Brook	47	47
Brook	44	43
Brook	104	104
Total	4670	4514

B. Osborne, the socialist candidate for governor received the eight votes cast for him in the following wards and precincts, it being notable that he received but one vote outside of the city: First ward 1, third ward 1, fifth ward 1, sixth ward 2, seventh ward 1, Adamsville district 1; total 8.

The ratification of the amendment to the constitution establishing the court of appeals, 3,165 votes were cast in Fulton county, while 240 were voted against the proposition.

The vote in favor of the establishment of Ben Hill county was 3,385, the negative vote being only 105, and the proposition to confer upon the legislature power to create additional superior court judges received 3,248 favorable votes, 279 voting against it.

KODAKERS.

Do not forget that A. K. HAWKES CO. is headquarters for Eastman kodaks in all sizes and popular sizes. Fresh kodak films and plates, and all other kodak supplies. We also have the most perfectly equipped finishing department in the south, and are prepared to do your finishing work promptly and satisfactorily. A. K. Hawkes Co., 14 White.

CRENshaw GETS SMALL VOTE.

Over Four Thousand Votes in Fulton He Received 40 for Railroad Commissioner.

The vote of T. C. Crenshaw in Fulton county for railroad commissioner was disappointing to his friends. In the entire county he received only 40 votes out of a total of over four thousand. In this county he simply was not in the race at all.

G. McLondon received a total vote of 3,813 to Mr. Crenshaw's forty. In many precincts Mr. Crenshaw did not receive a single vote. In the city his vote was only thirty, and in the country he received just votes.

to name some of the results of his long list will begin with sickness, dyspepsia, thin blood, bad skin. Ask him if he would recommend his Pills for constipation. Just one

A Mild Ask your doctor for constipation, headache, biliousness, dyspepsia, thin blood, bad skin. Then try our pills for constipation. Just one

26 LICENSES FOR SALOONS

Continued from Page One.

ceeded to act upon the report of the committee.

A list of saloons reported favorably by the committee, and to which were granted a renewal of license follows: J. C. Wallace, 7 Central avenue, for whites; Georgia Liquor Company, 60 Decatur street; George Hansell, J. W. Gray, 120 Decatur; J. E. Brown, 123 Decatur, colored; C. M. Calloway, 143 Decatur, whites; A. C. Minninetto, 23 Decatur, whites; C. D. Chestnut, 45-47 Decatur street, colored; M. Ellman, 54 Decatur street, colored; Gus Berman, 117 Decatur street; S. C. Little, 11 Decatur street; P. O. Hagerty, 109 Decatur street, whites; Dan Gavaghan, 98 Decatur street, whites; M. M. Cohen & Sons, 94 Decatur street, colored; L. Rosenfeld, 143 Decatur street, whites; A. Abelsky, 151 Decatur street, colored; B. Feld & Co., 189 Decatur street; John Faith, 181 Decatur street, whites; J. M. Swords, 170 Decatur street, colored; J. Smullyan, 185 Decatur street, colored; Friend & Quinn, 190 Decatur street, whites; F. Frederick, 155 Marietta street, whites; F. M. Simmons, 159 Marietta street, whites; W. W. McNinch, 273 Marietta street, whites; Plenis Miner, 178 Marietta street, whites; Hanlon Brothers, 228 Marietta street, colored; Gann & Garreaux, 236 Marietta street; Myer & Co., 207 Marietta street; B. Erdich, 20 Madison avenue, colored; B. Groham, 91 Peters street, whites; George Bruce, 107 Peters street; Lambert & Harbuck, 131 Peters street; Lowenstein & Co., 133 Peters street; S. M. Wilson, 135 Peters street; Syl McNinch, 147 Peters street, whites; J. T. and W. A. McCollough, 187 Peters street; Campbell & Poole, 181 and 183 Peters street; J. E. Brown, 123 Decatur street, whites.

Many Licenses Revoked.

The following were reported adversely and licenses revoked: South Bend Dispensary Company, W. S. McCarty, 28 West Hunter street; A. Spitz, 20 Wall street; W. E. Archer, 212 Marietta street; B. J. Mayfield, M. Shurman, 35 Decatur street; J. and L. Klein, 40 Decatur street; J. Cohen, 68 Decatur street; Sam Klein, Decatur street and Central avenue; W. H. Faith, 10 Ivy street; I. C. Clark, 4 Central avenue; Klein Brothers, 74 Decatur street; Wallace & Co., 80 Decatur street; Steinberg & Abelson, 81 Decatur street; M. M. L. Bhatzen, 112 Decatur street; Goldberg & Feen, 149 Decatur street; M. Shurman, 150 Decatur street; S. Pfeiffer, 172 Decatur street; M. Shurman, 189 Decatur street; S. M. Wilson, 135 Peters street; Campbell & Poole, 145 Peters street; Yarbrough & Co., 152-154 Decatur street; J. R. Moore & Co., 155 Peters street.

The following were reported adversely and reconsidered or referred back to the committee for further investigation: N. Wheeler, 148 Peters street; Dan Gavaghan, 139 Peters street; Ike Wheeler, 108 Decatur street; L. Hersovits, 152 Decatur street; J. Hirsowitz, 110 Decatur street; S. S. Moore, 18-18, 26-1-2 Wal street; A. H. Harris, 10-12 Wall street; W. J. Brown, 18 North Broad street; H. Jacobs Liquor Company, 8 Central avenue; P. Abelman, 84 Decatur street.

Licenses Granted in Afternoon.

Favorable reports on the granting of the following licenses were presented, and passed at the afternoon session by city council, some of which were passed providing certain conditions are complied with as named: Prouty & Co., 9 Decatur street; W. H. Faith, 17 Marietta street; J. C. Wallace, 2 South Fryer street; J. R. Seawright, 50 Madison avenue; W. Shurman, 46 Wall street, entrance

NOT ME

So Cha

Republic Attack and CI
New York campaign of republic principles, the vital Charles I formally governor committee vention?
The ces Mr. Hug can club Governor Frank S. congratu clusion o Mr. Hu
"Highly have con responsi the nomt as one b traditions unanimor recognize us the 1 state se and of leader ment. heart an result.

"We er by the v achieve dore Raa tion, wft form, ha confident
"The 1 paign, in the matt find a which p the noley
"Our s complish Mr. H with spe companie
"What us?" he
"A m league, w trayed, a ocratic r principle
"If you ministrat of their conventic motives their m method.
"We t A pendence

CUESTA REY
 Cigars are a rich
 antidote for the blues. Take home
 a box.

state officials was practically settled at the primary.

The main interest centered in the primary for the selection of three judges to fill the bench of the new appellate court. There were sixteen candidates, as follows: Frank Harwell, Bartow S. Willingham, Howard Van Epps, Richard B. Russell, D. M. Roberts, P. P. Proffitt, A. G. Powell, H. C. Peoples, George S. Jones, Charles G. Jones, Benjamin H. Hill, W. M. Henry, W. H. Hammond, Thomas C. Green, Frederick C. Foster and Thomas J. Chappell.

New State House Officers.

The ticket, as adopted on yesterday follows:

- For Governor—Hoke Smith.
- For Secretary of State—Philip Cook.
- For Comptroller General—William A. Wright.
- For Treasurer—Robert E. Park.
- For Attorney General—John C. Hart.
- For Commissioner of Agriculture—T. G. Hudson.
- For State School Commissioner—W. B. Merritt.
- For Prison Commissioner—Clement A. Evans.
- For Railroad Commissioner—S. G. McLendon.
- For Chief Justice of Supreme Court for Unexpired Term, Ending January 1, 1911—William H. Fish.
- For Associate Justice of Supreme Court for Unexpired Term, Ending January 11, 1911—Marcus W. Beck.
- For Two Associate Justices of Supreme Court for Unexpired Terms, Each Ending January 1, 1907—Samuel C. Atkinson, Joseph H. Lumpkin.
- For Two Associate Justices of Supreme Court for Full Terms of Six Years Each, Beginning January 1, 1907—Samuel C. Atkinson, Joseph H. Lumpkin.
- For Judge Superior Court, Atlanta Circuit—John T. Pendleton.
- For Judge Superior Court, Atlantic Circuit—Paul E. Seabrook.
- For Judge Superior Court, Augusta Circuit—H. C. Hammond.
- For Judge Superior Court, Brunswick Circuit—T. A. Parker.
- For Judge Superior Court, Chattahoochee Circuit—W. A. Little.
- For Judge Superior Court, Cordéle Circuit—J. N. Whipple.

in lead. No opposition to McLendon for railroad commissioner.

Bibb County.

Macon, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Jones, Powell and Hammond are the leading candidates for court of appeals. More than necessary vote for the court of appeals amendments was cast in Bibb.

Bulloch County.

Statesboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Russell, Foster and Hammond lead the ticket. Appellate court amendment probably defeated, as well as new county. Only 400 votes cast in Bulloch county.

Burke County.

Waynesboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Burke county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Jones and Foster.

Butts County.

Jackson, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate results from Butts county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Russell.

Campbell County.

Fairburn, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Campbell county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Henry, Powell and Peoples.

Carroll County.

Carrollton, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Carroll county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Willingham, Russell and Powell.

Charlton County.

Folkston, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate results from Charlton county show three leading candidates for judgeships are R. B. Russell, Powell and W. M. Henry.

Chatham County.

Savannah, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Chatham county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, dates for judgeships are Russell, Hill and Peoples.

Coffee County.

Douglas, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—In Coffee county 208 cast; for ratification of amendments 100, against 15. A. G. Powell, 182; H. C. Peoples, 152; Hill, 48; Green, 61; Roberts, 34; Russell, 43; Van Epps 14; Jones, 13; Willingham, 5; Foster, 3; Hammond, 10.

Colquitt County.

Moultrie, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Colquitt county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Willingham and Henry.

Columbia County.

Harlem, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Columbia county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Willingham, Van Epps and Peoples. Not 100 votes polled.

Crawford County.

Roberts, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate results from Crawford county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Green, Powell, Russell.

Crisp County.

Cordele, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate results from Crisp county, show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Russell and Hammond.

Dade County.

Newton, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Vote so badly scattered cannot say who has carried the county for places on appellate bench.

Decatur County.

Bainbridge, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate results from Decatur county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, 500; Russell, 300, and Chappell, 250.

DeKalb County.

Decatur, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Returns received at Decatur show Hill, Peoples and Russell probably carried county for judgeship places.

J. L. Chupp wins county commissioner race after a hotly contested and most interesting fight. He was closely followed by Freeman and McClelland. Five candidates were in the field for this office. DeKalb has but one county commissioner, and he has entire charge of the roads and revenues department of the county.

Dodge County.

Eastman, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate results from Dodge county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Roberts, Willingham and Russell.

Dooly County.

Vienna, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Dooly county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Jones.

Dougherty County.

Albany, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate results from Dougherty county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Foster.

Douglas County.

son, Joseph H. Lumpkin.
 For Two Associate Justices of Supreme Court for Full Terms of Six Years Each, Beginning January 1, 1907—Samuel C. Atkinson, Joseph H. Lumpkin.

For Judge Superior Court, Atlanta Circuit—John T. Pendleton.
 For Judge Superior Court, Atlantic Circuit—Paul E. Seabrook.

For Judge Superior Court, Augusta Circuit—H. C. Hammond.

For Judge Superior Court, Brunswick Circuit—T. A. Parker.

For Judge Superior Court, Chattahoochee Circuit—W. A. Little.

For Judge Superior Court, Cordele Circuit—C. V. Whipple.

For Judge Superior Court, Flint Circuit—E. J. Reagan.

For Judge Superior Court, Macon Circuit—W. H. Felton.

For Judge Superior Court, Middle Circuit—B. T. Rawlings.

For Judge Superior Court, Northeastern Circuit—J. J. Kimsey.

For Judge Superior Court, Ocmulgee Circuit—H. G. Lewis.

For Judge Superior Court, Pataula Circuit—W. C. Worrill.

For Judge Superior Court, Rome Circuit—Moses Wright.

For Judge Superior Court, Southern Circuit—R. G. Mitchell.

For Judge Superior Court, Tallapoosa Circuit—Price Edwards.

For Judge Superior Court, Western Circuit—C. H. Brand.

For Solicitor General, Atlantic Circuit—N. J. Norman.

For Solicitor General, Cordele Circuit—Walter E. George.

For Solicitor General, Northeastern Circuit—W. A. Charters.

For Solicitor General, Tallapoosa Circuit—W. K. Felder.

For Senator from Thirty-fifth District—E. P. Dobbs.

For amendment authorizing legislature to provide additional superior court judges.

In favor of ratification of the amendment to the constitution creating the county of Ben Hill, with Fitzgerald as the county site.

For court of appeals amendment.
 For Sheriff—John W. Nelms.

Returns by Counties.

The returns by counties, as reported by The Constitution's special correspondents, showing the approximate result of the day's balloting as regards the court of appeals judgeship places, are presented below:

Appling County.

Baxley, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Appling county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Roberts and Powell.

Banks County.

Homer, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Small vote, Russell, Peoples and Hammond but approximate results from Carroll county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Willingham, Russell and Powell.

Charlton County.

Wright, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Charlton county show three leading candidates for judgeships are R. B. Russell, Powell and W. M. Henry.

Chatham County.

Savannah, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Chatham county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Powell and Peoples.

Chattahoochee County.

Cusseta, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Chattahoochee county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Chappell, Powell and Peoples.

Clarke County.

Atlanta, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Firstaries Clarke by sold vote. Foster second, about 200 votes behind Russell runs third, about 100 behind Foster. Chappell and Hill get good vote.

Clayton County.

Johnsboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Clayton county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Peoples, Hammond and Russell.

Chattooga County.

Summerville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Chattooga county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Henry, Powell and Jones.

Cherokee County.

Canton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Evan Epps and Peoples will carry Cherokee county. Epps, democratic nominee defeated his opponent, an independent, who received only a few votes.

Clay County.

Fort Gaines, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Clay county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Green and Chappell.

Clinch County.

Homerville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Clinch county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Peoples, Powell and Russell by 200 majority.

Cobb County.

Marietta, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Cobb county shows three leading candi-Willingham and Russell.

Dooly County.

Vienna, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Dooly county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Jones.

Dougherty County.

Albany, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Dougherty county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Foster.

Douglas County.

Douglasville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Douglas county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Henry, Peoples and Willingham.

Early County.

Blakely, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Early county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Powell, Peoples and Jones. Full vote polled. All amendments ratified.

Echols County.

Statenville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate result from Echols county show three leading candidates for judgeship are Hill, Peoples and Russell.

Elbert County.

Elberton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Elbert county show three leading candidates for judgeship are Proffitt, Russell and Hill.

Emanuel County.

Swainsboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Emanuel county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Powell and Peoples.

Fannin County.

Blue Ridge, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Fannin county show the three leading candidates for judgeships are Green, Hill and Powell.

Fayette County.

Fayetteville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Indications are that Fayette will choose Peoples, Hill and Russell.

Forsyth County.

Cumming, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—The three leading candidates for the judgeships in Forsyth county are Peoples, Powell and Russell.

Bond Comes to Legislature.

Cumming, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—The race for representative today was an exciting one. A. E. Bond, democratic nominee, defeated J. H. Woodliff, over 300 votes.

Floyd County.

Rome, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Floyd county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Henry, Peoples and Jones.

Gilmer County.

Ellijay, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Gilmer county show the three leading candidates for judgeships are Ben Hill, H. C. Peoples and A. G. Powell.

Glascock County.

Gibson, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from

Law's Special
$3.50 and $4
Stetson

Mc
Unof
Heg;
cand
dles.

 App show ship

 Co
In Russ
low

 Mc
Unof
Jasp
date
and

 Lo
Unof
Joffe
didat mond thres

 Ha
Unof
Jeff candl
erts

 Mil
offic Jenk
didat
Pow

 Gr
offic
Jones
date
H. C

 Du
offic Laur
didat ter a

 Va
Unof
Low
didat
and

 Mc
Unof
Libe
didat sell

 Lin
Unof
Line
didat
and

 Du Unof
Lum
didat
mond

 Bus
Unof
Marl
candl
Powe

Jackson County.

Commerce, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—In the election held here today Judge Russell leads for court of appeals, followed by Green and Hammond.

Jasper County.

Monticello, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Jasper county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Foster, Russell and Roberts.

Jefferson County.

Louisville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Jefferson county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell, Hammond and Russell. Heard from only three precincts.

Jeff Davis County.

Hazlehurst, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Jeff Davis county show three leading candidates for Judgeship are Hill, Roberts and Russell.

Jenkins County.

Millen, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Jenkins county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Russell, Powell and Willingham.

Jones County.

Grays, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Jones county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are P. C. Foster, H. C. Peoples and George S. Jones.

Laurens County.

Dublin, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Laurens county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Roberts, Foster and Powell.

Lowndes County.

Lowndes county show three leading candidates for Judgeship are Russell, Peoples and Powell.

Liberty County.

McIntosh, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Liberty county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Roberts, Russell and Green.

Lincoln County.

Lincoln, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Lincoln county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Hill, Powell and Willingham.

Lumpkin County.

Dahlonega, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Lumpkin county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Russell, Hammond and Hill.

Marion County.

Buena Vista, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Marion county show three leading candidates for Judgeship are Chappell, Powell and Russell.

Madison County.

Danielville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Madison county show three leading candidates for Judgeship of Crawford, Green and Hill.

Mitchell County.

Wadley, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Mitchell county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell, Roberts and Russell. Amendment beaten.

Monroe County.

Forsyth, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Monroe county show three leading candidates for Judgeship are Peoples, Willingham and Powell.

Morgan County.

Wadley, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—In the election and primary held here today all the amendments were carried by clear majorities for judges of court of appeals. Foster leads the ticket by voted in today's election in Folk, nor was a vote cast against the democratic ticket.

Pulaski County.

Hawkesville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Pulaski county show three leading candidates for Judgeship are Roberts, Chappell and Powell.

Putnam County.

Fatonton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Putnam county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Hammond, Peoples and Powell.

Quitman County.

Georgetown, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Quitman county show three leading candidates for Judgeship are Russell, Powell and Hill.

Randolph County.

Cuthbert, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Randolph county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Chappell, Powell and Russell.

Richmond County.

Augusta, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Richmond county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Foster, Chappell and Hammond.

Rockdale County.

Conyers, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Rockdale county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are: Howard Van Epps, Richard Russell and Charles G. Jones.

Schley County.

Ellaville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—About half vote polled here today. Amendment for court of appeals defeated. Hill, Peoples, Chappell, Russell and Powell are close, in favor of last three.

Spalding County.

Griffin, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Indications point to the nomination of Chappell, Hammond and Russell in Spalding. All amendments carried. Peoples running strong.

Stephens County.

Toccoa, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Stephens county show the leading candidates for Judges are Russell and Proffitt. In the order named, with Powell and Green running close for third place.

Stewart County.

Lumpkin, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Stewart county show leading candidates for Judgeships are Russell, Powell, Chappell and Hill.

Sumter County.

Americus, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Sumter county indicate that three leading candidates for the appellate Judgeships are Chappell, Hill and Russell. A tight vote polled in Americus. Constitutional amendments carried easily.

Talbot County.

Talbotton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Thomas H. Chappell, of Columbus, led the vote in Talbot county for one of the Judges of the court of appeals. It is not known who comes next. It is thought that the amendment of the court of appeals was defeated in Talbot county. The vote in Talbot county was small, only about 230 votes being cast.

out a ticket for county officers in evidence.

Washington County. Sandersville, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Whitfield County. Dalton, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial, but approximate results from Whitfield county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Jones.

Wilkes County. Washington, Ga., October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Wilkes county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Harwell.

Headaches and Neuralgia from LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. The wide Cold and Grip season is the cause. Call for full name. Look to nature. E. W. Grove, 255

of the Georgia Railroad
R. E. MORGAN
General Agent

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

of the Georgia Railroad
R. E. MORGAN
General Agent

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Washington, October 3.—(Special).—Unofficial but approximate results from Washington county show three leading candidates for Judgeships are Powell and Roberts.

Women's Diseases

Such as Nervous Strain and Exhaustion, Sick Headaches, Backache, etc.

DR. HATHAWAY & CO. 117 Inman Bldg. 3rd floor. Atlanta, Ga. a. m. to 8 p. m. Sundays

ANTONIC

ARROW COLLARS
Cresco Struck, Quarter
W. H. HATT, PEABODY & CO.
Makers of Shirts and Collars

Brains Repaired Grape-Nuts
There's a Reason!

Get Rid of Scrofula

Rashes, eruptions, inflammations, soreness of the eyelids and ears, diseases of the bones, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, wasting, are only some of the troubles it causes. It is a very active evil, making havoc of the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Eradicates it, cures all its manifestations, and builds up the whole system. Accept no substitute.

Glacocks county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russel, Willingham and Van Epps.

Glynn County.

Brunswick, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate, results from Glynn county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Peoples, Willingham and Powell.

Gordon County.

Calhoun, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—A small vote was cast in the election today. The amendments were scratched promiscuously and owing to the high waters in the county, making it impossible to get returns, the result will not be known until tomorrow. The court of appeals amendment has probably carried, and Judges Russell and Henry are leading in returns so far received.

Greene County.

Greensboro, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Greene county show the leading candidates for the court of appeals to be Harwell, Jones and Peoples.

Hall County.

Gainesville, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Hall county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Hammond, Hill and Russell.

Hancock County.

Sparta, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—The election passed off quietly here. A small vote only was polled. Russell, Chappell and Willingham are leading as candidates for judges of court of appeals.

Harris County.

Hamilton, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate, results from Harris county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Harwell and Powell.

Henry County.

McDonough, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate result from Henry county shows the three leading candidates for the judgeships are Peoples, Russell and Willingham.

Irwin County.

Fitzgerald, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Approximate results in Irwin county shows three leading candidates for judgeship are Russell, Roberts and Hammond.

Jackson County.

about 500 plurality; Powell second, and Hammond third.

Montgomery County.

Mount Vernon, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Montgomery county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Roberts, Russell and Powell.

Murray County.

Spring Place, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Murray county show three leading candidates for judgeships Hill, Peoples and Russell.

Muscogee County.

Columbus, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—About one thousand votes were polled in Muscogee county. All the constitutional amendments were carried. Cronshaw received but a few votes. For judge, T. J. Chappell received the solid vote of the county. For the other judgeships the vote seems divided between Russell, Powell and Hammond.

Newton County.

Covington, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Newton county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Chappell, Russell and Foster.

Oconee County.

Watkinsville, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Oconee county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Thomas F. Green, F. C. Foster and R. B. Russell.

Oglethorpe County.

Lexington, Ga., October 3.—Unofficial but approximate results from Oglethorpe county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Proffitt, Green and Foster.

Paulding County.

Dallas, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial but approximate results from Paulding county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Russell, Jones and Henry.

Pickens County.

Jasper, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial, but approximate, results from Pickens county show three leading candidates for judgeships are Chappell, Hill and Peoples. Chappell and Hill received practically all the votes.

Folk County.

Cedartown, Ga., October 3.—(Special.)—Election in Polk passed off quietly. Very light vote, about 600 votes cast out of 3,000 registration. In the Cedartown precinct 238 votes were cast. No names were voted for other than the democratic nominees. For additional superior court judges there were 134 for and 170 against; for Ben Hill county, 232 for and 34 against; for court of appeals, 173 for and 113 against; for judges court of appeals, Jones received 255, Henry 106, Peoples 102, Powell 96, Harwell 93, Russell 56, Green 61, Chappell 54, Jones 29, Hammond 28, Foster 21, Hill 21, Roberts 14, Van Epps 13, Willingham 3, and Proffitt 1. Other precincts not yet heard from. As far as learned, not a name voted in today's election in Polk, nor was a vote cast against the democratic ticket.

A Perfect Cure

Mrs. Bessie Spencer, completely cured of her ailment without good results.

MRS. BESSIE SPENCER.

Duffy's Pure Malt

is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant, tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, cleans and richness to the blood. It brings into action a tonic perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's is the only whiskey that has been recognized as a medicine and is guaranteed absolutely free from fusel oil. Seven thousand doctors prescribe and 2,000 hospitals use Duffy's Malt Whiskey exclusively.

BEWARE of dangerous imitations and substitutes. They are positively harmful and are sold for profit only by unscrupulous dealers. Look for the trade mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and be certain the seal over the cork is unbroken. All druggists and grocers, or direct, $1.00 a bottle. Doctor's advice and medical booklet free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, New York.

GEORGIA RAILROAD

LOW PASSENGER RATES

ATLANTA, GA. Account Georgia October 9th to 24th MACON, GA. Account Macon sale October 1st to ber 10th, limited	For Full Information call agent of the Georgia Railroad
---	--

to fill their old positions.

The men struck for an increase of 2 1/2 cents per hour, and, by the agreement reached in Washington last week, they return to work at an increase of 1 1/2 cents per hour, the question of the additional cent per hour being left for future arbitration of a board to be composed of three arbitrators, one of whom will be named by the machinists, one by the railway officials and these two will select the third.

The strikebreakers who were imported from the east by the railway officials were paid off Sunday and left the shops.

Secretary F. W. McCabe, of the union, was busily engaged in distributing checks for the second week's pay of the strikers, the check from the national union for this purpose having been received yesterday morning.

J. L. Jones, chairman of the strike committee, will arrive in Atlanta this morning from New York, where he has been in conference with the railway and union officials in regard to the settlement of the strike.

NOV. 23, 1906

GOSSIP AT THE CAPITOL

EFFORTS are being made looking to supplying the state militia with the new Springfield rifle, which has some time since replaced the Krag in the regular army, the Krags having been placed in the hands of the state troops. The adjutant general's office here learns that the United States war department will submit a bill to congress at its coming session authorizing the government to issue in exchange to the state militia, the new Springfield rifle for the Krag, to conform to the requirements of the Dick bill. Now that the regular army has been supplied with the new rifle, there would seem to be no reason for further delay in issuing them to the state troops as fast as they can be turned out by the arsenals.

Lieutenant Colonel Robert J. C. Irvine, Twenty-first Infantry, United States army, appointed from Augusta, Ga., has been found incapacitated for active service on account of disability incident thereto. He has been retired from active service, and will proceed to his home.

First Lieutenant James M. Kimbrough, Twenty-seventh Infantry United States army, appointed from Griffin, Ga., and recently military instructor at the state university, Athens, Ga., has been detached from his regiment, which is in Cuba, and temporarily assigned as assistant to the judge advocate, Major Blanton Winship, from Macon, Ga., army Cuban pacification, for the purpose of investigating certain courtmartial charges ordered to be tried before a general courtmartial.

North Broad street.
Seventh Ward—Mrs. Florence's store, 206 Lee street.
Eighth Ward—Judge Langston's court room, 824 Peachtree street.
In the country districts of Fulton county the polling places will be located at the various justice of peace courts in each district.

Today is national election day, on which congressmen for the next two years will be elected throughout the country.

In Georgia, in addition to the election of a democratic congressman in each of the eleven congressional districts, the people will elect three judges for the newly created state court of appeals.

The democratic candidates for congress are without opposition except in the first district, where Charles Edwards, the democratic nominee, is opposed by a republican. The three democratic nominees for the court of appeals bench, Hon. Benjamin H. Hill, Judge Richard B. Russell and Hon. A. G. Powell, are also without opposition, and, as is the case with the democratic candidates for congress, their election is a foregone conclusion.

In Fulton county the people will be called upon to vote for Hon. L. F. Livingston, the present democratic congressman from the fifth district, and the three democratic candidates for the court of appeals bench.

The democratic candidates for congress, in the order of districts, are as follows:

Charles Edwards, of Savannah; J. M. Griggs, of Dawson; E. B. Lewis, of Montezuma; W. C. Adamson, of Carrollton; L. F. Livingston, of Newton county; Charles S. Bartlett, of Macon; Gordon Lee, of Chickamauga; W. M. Howard, of Lexington; T. M. Bell, of Gainesville; T. W. Hardwick, of Sandersville, and W. G. Brantley, of Brunswick.

In Fulton county the polls will open in the city at 7 o'clock in the morning and close at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. In the country districts the polls will open at 6 o'clock in the morning and close at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Chicago and Atlanta.

(From The Chicago Record-Herald.)

A few years ago a through sleeping car service was established between Chicago and Jacksonville, Fla., by way of Atlanta. Before that time even Pullman passengers for the southeast had to change at the Ohio river, excepting during the brief period of the Florida winter season. Next month there is to be another step forward and a great one. The Evansville route will establish an all-the-year-round, through, fast passenger service between Chicago and Atlanta.

sumed, for at present experiment to ascertain ties whether the time an enough to warrant the idea.

Postmaster Blodge

Yesterday afternoon F gett stated that although tem had been tried for f his co-officers had comsions as to just how m a saving of time. That a further test of some d or for such length of vince them that the ab back-stamping will be o department in the matte principally, for that is of the test. Mr. Blodge is uncertain what would ly, as the definite arrang on further experiment.

The discontinuation of has been put into effect postoffice after an exper was ordered by the gov vember 1, the day the office began. Several practice was tried in sor offices and met with the government in that it ma deliver the mail much in time being a very sat In the Savannah office been indefinitely discont not probable that it will into use.

The method of back-sts deemed unnecessary by public losing only one p that of a knowledge of are received at the office

At the local office the only a temporary one, as before, and it will not definite steps will be method is more extensive with.

"NOT GUILTY" SAYS L.

Makes Statement Indictment for Ing.

L. H. Fain, who was Louis last week on an the grand jury charging ing, and who returned to officer Saturday night, su ment in which he says th of the charge against him of The Constitution, Mr. terday:

"I did not run away f left the city on business lutely nothing of any ind me. In fact I never aling the gas. called in and he from the time until yesterday 12.

o the funeral n, where the the Elks, m... of that or-n to Knoxville, burnial. noxville.

ed was in Knox- ves at the time suicide and she nd reached At-ed by his wife. was living with leader.

o Atlanta four nperial hotel, in position at the health had been it that he was e. Within two npts to end his s, and the sixth The other at- by the timely 'hen discovered- as too far gone him again.

ON TRIAL.

Contractor mber 19.—Trial e against R. B. road contractor, a special term ult court. Judge The defendant a continuance, the court, fol- court to concur n to quash the s for the prose- this morning, ng sworn.

DR LIBERTY.

Three Recap- caped.

mber 19.—Five for liberty at morning. One pitched battle, and the fifth the Sunflower unks.

ariety ever k and bag

rt further probing the trend of public sentiment. Yesterday he reiterated this position, stating that he finds many prominent prohibitionists against an election in Fulton now, and that, because of the division in the white ribbon ranks, he is opposed to inaugurating the con- st just at this time.

BEN HILL LEADS JUDGES' TICKET

Official Vote for Judges of New Court of Appeals Is Announced.

The official vote for judges of the new state court of appeals, cast in the election of November 6, with the exception of Spalding county, from which no returns have yet been received, was announced by Secretary of State Philip Cook yesterday, as follows:

- Ben H. Hill, of Atlanta, 33,051.
- Arthur G. Powell, of Blakely, 33,042.
- T. B. Russell, of Winder, 32,989.

It looks like a case of the last shall be first. Judge Russell, who led in the primary, drops to the bottom in the regular election; Mr. Hill, who was third in the primary, goes up head, and Mr. Powell holds his own.

It will be noted that the vote was an unusually small one. Maybe the people had done so much voting this year they had gotten tired of it, and then there were no contests to call them out.

The vote in the state election in October, when there were no contests of any moment, was 77,182 for secretary of state, that being the highest. It was more than double that of the November election. The state primary vote went up above 160,000.

Only two counties in the state, Chatham and Bibb, showed a larger vote in the November than in the October election. In the case of Chatham this is accounted for by the fact that there was a contest in the first district for congress.

Here is the vote—first in the October election and second in the November election—in the four largest counties: Fulton, 4,696—915; Chatham 1,833—2,139; Bibb, 846—1,115; Richmond, 877—311.

The vote for congressmen will be announced upon Governor Terrell's return to the city tomorrow.

FOR A CUBAN PROTECTORATE. Liberals Want Permanent Control by United States.

Yates, v. State, from Decatur. Submitted.

CIVIL DOCKET.

T. J. Sellers et al, v. J. M. Cox et al., from Mitchell. Submitted. W. S. Cooper v. M. E. Cooper, from Coweta. Argued. W. S. Witham v. A. P. Stewart, tax collector, from Fulton. Argued.

JUDGMENTS REVERSED.

Irvin, adm'r, v. Sprallin et al.; and Irvin, adm'r v. Callaway; from Wilkes superior court, before Judge Holden. S. H. Hardeman, F. H. Colley, I. T. Irvin, Jr., and William Wynne, for plaintiff in error. Samuel H. Sibley, contra.

Bridger, trustee, v. Exchange bank et al., from Fulton superior court, Judge Pendleton. W. H. Terrell, for plaintiff in error. L. Z. Rosser, J. H. Porter, Dorsey, Brewster & Howell, contra.

Blackwell v. Ramsey-Brisben Stone Co., from city court of Atlanta, Judge Reid. Westmoreland Brothers and Henderson Hallman, for plaintiff in error. Smith, Hammond & Smith, contra.

Waters v. McDowell, from Early superior court, Judge Sheffield. Powell & Pottle, for plaintiff in error. Oliver & Russell and W. C. Worrill, contra.

INSTANT RELIEF FROM CATARRH.

Send for a Trial Sample of This Great Remedy, and Convince Yourself of Its Merit.

When we say that Eclipse Catarrh Cure gives instant relief from that disagreeable, offensive disease from which so many suffer, we are ready to prove this assertion to your entire satisfaction. No matter how long you have been afflicted, no matter how badly stopped up your head may be, the sample which we will send you will give immediate relief, clear up the clogged air passages, throw off the offensive accumulations, and soothe and heal the delicate, irritated membrane.

Eclipse Catarrh Cure is a vegetable preparation of wonderful curative powers. It promptly reaches the remotest air passages, where the disease is located, and effects a permanent cure in even the worst cases.

Mrs. M. C. Black, Anderson, S. C., writes:

"I write to tell you that I am a thousand times obliged to you for the trial package of Eclipse Catarrh Cure which you sent me a short time ago. The remedy has done me more good than any other medicine I ever used and I am going to recommend it to all my friends who suffer with catarrh. It is worth its weight in gold to any one who suffers with this disease.

"I feel that I can never say enough in praise of your remedy and will always be your friend for the good it has done me."

Send for Week's Treatment.

We are anxious for every sufferer to try this great remedy and will send for twenty-five cents in stamps a liberal trial treatment and a pipe to all who will send us their name and address. We have hundreds of letters from grateful patients whom we have cured and will send you also our booklet containing these testimonials and full information about the disease. Do not delay but write today. Address Eclipse Medicine to lay pipes to. The pipes will nue, at the cor thence along Ce street and on street.

SUMTER :

Governor Terrell in Americus, Ga (ial).—Governor board of trustee agricultural colle day morning, fo ling proposals f college. A mass has been called will address the house at 10 o'cl get it if possibl appropriated $5, private subscrip and the county desire to have Americus, the district, is gene Sumter, and effc be spared. A r accorded Govern cation of his vis Exasperated b outrageous servi tral railway in the people here any means prom sections may seem almost in ing of resentment apparent utterl upon the part of a thing as a ma schedule, or eve no longer expec determination, a of the railway o the way of bett more exasperati schedules, sever here and dates i senger trains are out headlights, t aboard the train

Inasmuch as long existed, an was no rush of speculate upon than when holdi trains are reall; tution's brave fi ple of Georgia passenger servi indorsement of men and people and section of tl

No Oppositio Indianapolis, I nations have cl officers by the America. John T. L. Lewis, fo B. Wilson, for no opposition. Th ba held in India;

No Oppositio Indianapolis, I nations have cl officers by the America. John T. L. Lewis, fo B. Wilson, for no opposition. Th ba held in India;

ated total sum of $1.-

one suit for damages. nty, has been settled. that negotiations are the two railroad com- pany of many of the a settlement of

and now stand, a docket go the attention of the courts for more than or trial at the Septem- Judges Pendleton and regular sessions of their

Friday afternoon and follows:

es, attorney: Howard ntral of Georgia Rail- 0,000; against Atlanta Railroad, $10,000.

olds, attorney: H. H. oth railway companies, L. Burtz, $5,000; Miss $5,000; Mrs. Pauline vory Lancaster, $5,000; $5,000; Mrs. Ollie Gar- Estelle Lancaster, $5,- re was injured to the s now forced to walk and that her earning per month, as secretary employment Agency has nished, Miss Stella t yesterday for $15,000 the Century Building that on April 14, while from one of the elevators, the oper- car, inflicting various e particularly set forth She is represented by

3, Macon 1. y 7.—In an interesting Savannah won by con- the twelfth. It was a

R. H. E. 0. 100 000 000—1 6 4 0 000 000 002—3 6 1 and Harshly Raymond the Black Time 1910

Athens, who always treasured a. "Home, Sweet Home" will be the pop- ular and the official air of the Georgia home coming, and an effort will be made to get the original manuscript here for exhibition during the reunion.

Professor A. J. Showalter, who will be the director of the all-day singing, reports that there were 5,000 people at the singing in Marietta on July 4, and the people there said that Cobb would send 500 singers here for two days. A committee of five, with Luther A. Moore, of Powder Springs, has been appointed to look after Cobb's delegation.

There will be a singing at Clarkesville, Habersham county, today; one in Chero- kee county next Sunday, and one at Douglasville on the fourth Sunday of this month.

JUDGE BROYLES SETTLES FEUD BETWEEN CHILDREN

All of the cotton mill town, situated near Bellwood avenue and Julian street, appeared at the police matinee on Saturday. The principals in the act were the Catro children and a Mr. Moore. The weapons de combat were stones from the yards of these two families. The cause of the riot was that old, old story, "Fathers afraid to fight it out, so let children do the deed."

On Thursday night the Catro side of the feud claim Pink Preast and Stan- ford Preast. Harry Moore and Will Adams battered their home for one hour, without ceasing. Then Pink Preast comes to the front. "I was in Marlet- ta."

The Moore feudist takes it up at this point, Catro's babies throw stones at every one who passes on the street, one party even deigned to designate that if the judge passed that way they would treat hi min like manner.

But feuds end not here. Language, such horrible language, was brought in-

The full list of candidates for aldermen and councilmen up to date is as follows:

First Ward—Alderman M. T. LaHatte, Frank A. Hilburn and A. L. Curtis; coun- cilman, John H. Harwell and W. A. Fin- cher.

Second Ward—Councilman, Press Hud- dleston and Z. B. Moon.

Third Ward—Councilman, W. W. Gaines and Wheeler Mangum.

Fourth Ward—Councilman, Dr. B. E. Pearce and M. M. Turner.

Fifth Ward—Alderman, H. M. Bentell; councilman, A. Q. Adams, I. F. Styron and V. M. Barrett.

Sixth Ward—Councilman, John W. Grant.

Seventh Ward—Councilman, Dr. T. D. Longino.

Eighth Ward—Councilman, Charles E. Harman (not officially announced).

to the testimony. The little Catro chil- dren, ages 6 months, 1 year, 2 years and 5 years, were accused of using the most obscene utterances. But more horrible still. They threw rocks at a corpse. The culmination point of the feud.

Judge Broyles was asked to settle the matter, County Officer Dunbar making the appeal. This is what was said:

"I think the Moore and Catro children, the whole lot of you, ought to be put in an orphanage. If I had the power I would send them there. You people ought to be ashamed of yourselves. If necessary," speaking to a county offi- cer, "call out the fire department next time and shoot water on them. Mr. Moore, why don't you and Catro go be- hind the barn and have it out? I don't think you ought to let your children do this way."

"I would, judge, but Catro's 'traid," replied Moore.

"Well, I'll fine Pink Preast, Harvey Moore and Will Adams $5 and costs each."

The New York... torial as to drinks, class least calcul- weather.

Are You At

The Centra selling ticke For rates at apply to Cit Bank Buidlr rietta street W. H. F

O
E
S
R

2

OSSES
URLY
ING

ION IS RE-KING DAM-
D IN WAKE

Press.)
29.—Hourly the storm in Mississious today as the communication
med in every di-own in the inteldings had been igered and crops arrived an un-unbroken line of the gulf coast
le. However, all ended abruptly
west of Mobile.
ipping washed st reports came ked or stranded out in the gulf lpl fingers.
river report that usehold goods, was reported. It fore the details
shing and oyster a ds, which antine and s on the lower communication

UNER A L C

Only Official Ballots Will Be Voted in Primary

Chairman A. L. Miller Gives Out Another Important Statement About Judgeship Pri- mary--Tickets will Contain All Names.

The receipt in La Grange of a number of alleged official ballots for the court of appeals judgeships, bearing the names of but fifteen candidates, has caused Chairman A. L. Miller of the state committee to again reiterate that no tickets can be voted in the judgeship primary of October 3rd unless the name of every candidate running for one of the judgeships appears thereon.

The tickets received in La Grange are said to have been minus the name of Judge Frank Harwell, himself of La Grange. They are said to have been sent out by another judgeship candidate living in a different section of the state.

The following dispatch to The Journal from Macon explains the matter:

MACON, Ga., Sept. 28.—"None but official ballots can be received by the manager of the primaries," said Chairman A. L. Miller, of the state Democratic executive committee, in referring to the dispatch from La Grange that ballots had been received there, with one of the candidates for the court of appeals omitted.

"I have already taken the matter up," continued Judge Miller, "with Judge Harwell and the chairman of county, and have informed him that only the official ballots sent out from Macon can be voted. I have sent out the ballots to every county, but have declined to allow candidates have the ballot copied for fear that some typographical error might occur. I informed the candidates that I would be glad to furnish them official ballots with the names of all the candidates thereon at their expense. You can say that no ticket can be voted in the primary unless the names of all candidates appear thereon. The executive committee has been very careful about this matter and intends to see its ruling carried out."

MA
GI

FOR EN
STAE MUST
SERV

For the Recorder, levied the him by li workhouse heavy pu: Starling saloon at the result saloon aft the record Mayfield ternoon b Lanford, a in custody saloon wl concealed witnesses trips to h sion went held conv men. The was furnl directly in cently pla saloonkeep ell. It was Mayfield charge. A had gone for the pu up. Reco go with a neared Sat

EXTRA POLICE TO GO OFF DUTY SUNDAY

CLAIMS STREET CAR SMASHED TEAM, INJURED HIM

CHIEF JENNINGS SAYS THE FOR-TY EXTRA PATROLMEN WILL BE NO LONGER

C. G. ALLEN ALSO ALLEGES HE LOST MONEY AND DIAMOND
IN COLLEGE PARK

Atlanta History Center - Photos

Judges and Gov. Brown:

Pottle, B. H. Hill, Hiram Warner Hill, Samuel Atkinson, J. Henry Lumpkin, Gov. Jos. Brown standing near gov. desk. 1912-1913.

Atlanta History Center; Item # 3189

Pioneer Schoolboys Club:

Group of about 25 men including: Richard B. Russell and H. C. Peeples

Atlanta History Center; Item # 292

Georgia Bar Association of 1890:

Outside on step, group of about 50 men including : Bleckley, Chappell, Dessau, Andrew Cobb, Hoke Smith, Rosser

Atlanta History Center; Item #941

Homer Eberhardt Papers:

Judge of the Court of Appeals oath

Atlanta History Center; MSS 601, Box 3, Folder 6

Letter from the Governor's Commission on Appellate Judicial Selection

Atlanta History Center; MSS 601, Box 4, Folder 3

Notice of Candidacy and Affidavit (1968)

Atlanta History Center; MSS 601, Box 10, Folder 2

"Bell House Boys"

16 men, in suits. #10 is Nash Rose Broyles.

Atlanta History Center; #3550

Appellate Judges in Old Courtroom

Worrill, Gardner, MacIntyre, Sutton, Felton, Townsend; 1949-1952

Atlanta History Center; #3220

DATE OF 1910 EXPO. TO BE DECIDED

COMMITTEE OF FIFTY CITIZENS WILL MEET NEXT FRIDAY AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The question as to whether Atlanta have the exposition of 1910 will be decided at a meeting of the committee, of which Robert F. Maddox is the chairman, which will be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce next Friday afternoon.

It will be remembered that at the meeting of the general committee, which was held in June, the committee decided upon the suggestion of Samuel H. Hays, chairman, to postpone further consideration of the question until the first of October. It was stated at that time that the dull summer season is about to begin, and that many Atlanta's leading citizens were leaving the city for their summer holidays and further that the consideration of so important a question should be had in the dullest time of the year.

At the time of the adjournment of the committee, the sum subscribed by citizens had reached the amount of $27,231, which with the $100,000 already guaranteed by the city and public service corporations, made a total amount in sight go beyond the handsome figure of $300,000. Of $500,000 from the city and the public service companies, the Georgia Railway and Electric Co. subscribed $100,000, the city of Atlanta gave a factory guaranty of $250,000, and the railroads and telephone companies gave assurance that they could be relied on for the balance. The sum fixed by the committee in 1907 was $1,000,000 before the work should begin. The question, therefore, is whether the committee should undertake to raise the remaining part of the sum.

WHAT THE STATE PRESS SAYS OF T. J. CHAPPELL

Hon. Thomas J. Chappell is a candidate for a place on the court of appeals; as has been announced. The state press tells the story of his fitness for that important office:

(Exchange.)

Mr. Chappell is an honored and representative member of one of the most distinguished families of the south, the members of which have been notable for great ability and high achievements.

(Columbus Ledger.)

The friends of Hon. Thomas J. Chappell are much gratified over his apparent success in the race for appellate court judge. Mr. Chappell is being highly spoken of all over the state and few, if any, are more popular in the race.

(Savannah Press.)

Mr. Chappell has been a member of the general assembly, is a brother of the mayor of Columbus, Lucius H. Chappell. His other brother, J. Harris Chappell, recently deceased, was president of the Georgia Normal and Industrial college at Milledgeville. Mr. Thomas J. Chappell is a very able man.

(Sandersville Progress.)

He enjoys a fine reputation, as a lawyer of ability and high standing, belongs to one of the most intellectual families in the state and is thoroughly qualified for the position he seeks.

(Exchange.)

The state would be fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Chappell as a judge of the court of appeals.

(Meriwether Vindicator.)

Mr. Chappell is a splendid lawyer, a gentleman of the old school and would make an excellent member of the high court.

(Exchange.)

To place him upon the bench of this court would mean to furnish an example to the younger members of the profession worthy of emulation.

(Covington Enterprise.)

Mr. Chappell is an able attorney, a clean man and would fill the place with credit.

MADDOX

When I entered might be able to avoid Mr. T. M. Poole has, make unjust insinuations in business, in tative to the man who that Mr. Poole is the fully sold Sundays as plated establishing a that among his principal Brewery.

I am unalterably
toxicants in any party Board, I pledge my first, irrespective of a public.

The meeting of the committee of next Friday will decision.

WILL HAVE BIG CIRCUS.

Barnum & Bailey Coming Here With New Sensational Incitements.

Barnum & Bailey's Advertising Car No. 1 is come and gone, and the results of its visit are very much in evidence. Every way one turns the eyes are fairly dazzled by the pictorial announcements heralding the coming of this famous big show to town. The date has been definitely fixed for Friday and Saturday, October 19 and 20, and circus day promises to be an event of more than usual interest. The coming of the Barnum & Bailey show is always the occasion for presenting the best ideas in the arena line and, according to all preliminary accounts, this year is more than ordinarily true this year. The public has learned to associate the name of magnitude and novelty with the Barnum & Bailey show, but it is evident that no previous conception of its size and what it can do, it justice. A representative of the show, in speaking of its colossal dimensions, said:

From the standpoint of magnitude alone, the Barnum & Bailey circus would justify its title of 'The Greatest Show on Earth.' Some idea of its comprehensiveness may be gained from the fact that long trains of cars are utilized to transport the paraphernalia from city to city.

The big show employs, in its various departments, nearly 1,100 men, women and children; the horse fair includes over 100 horses; the zoological department presents three herds of big and little elephants, and hundreds of other animals, including four towering giraffes and the specimen of the very rare blue-horned okapi now in this country; the performance is given in a huge canvas amphitheatre, with comfortable seats for 15,000 spectators; the triple-ring and double-ring performances enlist the services of artists from all parts of the world; the 'Peace' spectacle employs an army of trained people to impersonate the Russian, Japanese and other national contingents represented in the display; and the hippodrome numbers serve to introduce a hundred of the finest racehorses ever seen with a circus.

These figures serve to give an idea of the colossal proportions of the show. The nature of the performance is indicated by the fact that, in addition to scores of pure acts of a strictly circus character, the very best of their kind, the show has this season introduced a series of new acts of such a startling and sensational nature, as to create a genuine craze wherever they have been seen. One of these is of such a startling character as to be almost beyond belief. An automobile speeds down a runway with the dignity of an express train, shoots into the air and, continuing its journey, lands and runs to the other end of the runway. This thrilling act is known as 'The Race of Death,' and the daring chauffeur who drives the auto is a young American girl. In still another sensational display, the Bolter Brothers, two daredevil bicyclists, turn somersaults in mid-air on their wheels. This sensational feat is called the 'Two Twirls of Terror,' and is well named. Combining these

(Exchange.)

He should be elected for the sake of the court itself, above all reasons, for the state could furnish no better qualified lawyer nor abler or better man.

(Exchange.)

He should be elected by the people for the sake of the distinguished services of his family to the state.

(Columbus Enquirer-Sun.)

Mr. Chappell is one of Georgia's most able lawyers who has a long and successful experience in the courts and as advisory counsel. He is a profound and masterful student of law and is a man of decided judicial temperament.

(Exchange.)

He is endorsed unanimously by the Columbus bar and by hundreds of the members of the profession throughout the state.

(Columbus Enquirer-Sun.)

Mr. Chappell is an honored and representative member of one of the most distinguished families in the south, the members of which have been notable for great ability and high achievements.

(Exchange.)

Should make one of the greatest races in the history of Georgia politics.

(Cordale Rambler.)

He is a man of unflinching integrity and enjoys the highest respect of all who know him. Georgia has very few public men who have his high political integrity.

(Sandersville Herald.)

He should be elected because he stands in the front row and because he illustrates in the practice of law those qualities which guarantee his fitness for the high office he seeks.

(Exchange.)

Mr. Chappell represented his district in the senate some years ago with distinguished ability.

(Talbotton New Era.)

He is one of the most able lawyers in Georgia and we don't know of a man who would fill the office with greater credit to himself and honor to the state.

(Columbus Enquirer-Sun.)

Mr. Chappell is an honored and representative member of one of the most distinguished families of the south, the members of which have been notable for great ability and high achievements.

RAILWAY AND UNION MAY HAVE FRICTION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 29.—It is not improbable that Savannah will shortly experience some friction between the Savannah Electric company and the men who employ motormen and conductors. The men want a union and the management is discouraging the idea.

ATTORNEY GENERAL GOES TO WASHINGTON

Six People Dr Fort Mor

Department of Gulf C Damage Done Hur

According to a telegram received Saturday morning by Major Millard F. Walts, military secretary of the department of the gulf, Fort Morgan was completely inundated, six people were killed, and property there was damaged to the extent of $100,000 by the West Indian hurricane which swept along the gulf coast Monday, wrecking Pensacola and working havoc at New Orleans and Mobile.

This telegram was signed by Captain Dyer, who is in command at Fort Morgan, and was sent Friday. It is very brief and contains but a scant account

DARLING, I'M TIRED OF LIVING WITH YOU

MRS. CHAS. COCHRAN RECEIVED THIS MESSAGE OVER LONG DISTANCE PHONE FROM HER HUSBAND.

"Darling, I'm tired of living with you, so I took my clothes and left."

This startling message was received over the long distance phone early Saturday morning by Mrs. Charles Cochran, 185 McAfee street, from her husband for whom at the very moment she was waiting breakfast, but who in reality was standing nearly a hundred miles away at the other end of the line in Macon.

Friday evening Cochran who is a barber at Grubb's shop, Marietta and Alexander streets, came whistling into his home, kissed his wife and nine-months-old baby, chatted a little while and then said:

"Honey, you are looking blue. I have to go to lodge meeting tonight, so you and the baby run over to Aunt Martha's and spend the night. I'll be home soon tomorrow, kity. Keep cheerful."

That was the last Mrs. Cochran heard of her husband, who is remarkably gifted with endearing epithets, until the phone rang Saturday.

the law in their own hands dirty, thieving, contemptible town, because law is not to guarantee protection for his work trying to make an honest he is given thirty days fit only for the wretches rid the city of and protect say, and I believe I voice of every true son of Georgia that it is time for those whose force the law to wake up, for stood all they are going am not ashamed of the recent lanta. One other thing to be is: When a negro commits a to what is called an honest, negro and is by him shielded, d protected as far as possible, take his escape to some other takes a new name and come life he previously led in the me one says, or the world says, going to do with the black t answer that, but if there is id the authorities can't do any that it is up to the people to manent arrangement to have ure while at their daily labor. ge of Him who doeth all things get together and do something he lawlessness among the no- JOE WILSON.

R SPELLING

NOT ALL ROOSEVELT

don't see why everybody much credit in the mat-spelling. Three thousand peo-witness to the fact that our lect Smith, from the stage of v. nights previous to August able day in Georgia politics), and stated that he favored a spelling, and that something e to simplify our language in e. don't want to detract from but he didn't issue his now legto of reform until August after it became known that overnor Smith hereafter (for sm't it just possible that Ted- nat if he didn't move quickly, would get ahead of him, de- t at once and thereby reap the st great move in one of the of the century?

O. S. OLIVER.

LESLIE WALKER

ITECT

Bldg. Main 1106.

the dagger to him and teach him to regard his benefactor.

Let us take the dagger that Sherman advised the negro to take to us in one of his memor-able speeches and see what virtue there is in it. It might be of great benefit to us in this moment of insult and injury. Sherman, I often think of him and every time I think of him my mind has a downward tendency. Golly, I can't help it. I have thought of him when my face would burn. Yes, son wants to take second march to the sea; better bring the whole Yankee nation with him and pass in the night. It would be cooler; it would be too hot to march in day time down here. So it is, and I reckon it was to have been just like it has happened or it would not have been. Yankees punching us on one side and low down negroes on the other. we have turned round and round until we are sore on all sides, and it looks to me like forty years of constant kicking and punching ought to satisfy any degree of animosity, but it has not. Just wait until a foreign war comes along and we will even up things by taking a British musket and departing to the mother country. I'm durned if I ain't tired of Yankee rascality and African musk. Ain't you? But we must protect our women folks. I will suggest a way!

Say there is 200 men in East Atlanta from 16 to 60. We will let ten of this number stay at home one day in each month and patrol this community, relieving one another until all has served his day and then go around again perpetuating this plan. Let us act and act now. L. C. DOGGETT.

THREE MEN ARE URGED

FOR APPELLATE JUDGESHIPS

Editor Journal: I desire that my personal friends all over the state may read this letter. It is a personal letter from me to my close friends and I ask them to take it as such.

Now to the point: I am advocating the following able and distinguished lawyers for the three exalted positions of judges, of the proposed court of appeals, which court we will vote for October next.

Arthur G. Powell, of Blakely, Ga., a former pupil whom I love almost as a son, and who is conceded to be the best lawyer in all south Georgia; my second choice is Hon. Frederick C. Foster, who, like myself, is a native of Morgan county. He and I were both prepared for college in the private schools at Madison and afterwards repaired to Mercer university and afterwards repaired to Mercer did institution of learning.

Hon. Fred. C. Foster is one of the best known and ablest lawyers and law-book writers in Georgia.

As judge of the Ocmulgee superior court, he gave entire satisfaction to bar and public. My third preference is Hon. Geo. S. Jones, of Macon, one of three leading attorneys of the Central City. He is highly indorsed by such prominent lawyers as A. C. Bacon, Isaac Hardeman, C. L. Bartlett and others.

My friends, help me elect these three good and worthy men. Very sincerely,

Z. I. FITZPATRICK.

Madison, Morgan County, Ga.

$1.00 per year. Said to school fund of the sta Compel each possess when trading, transfe any of said weapons, to the registrar and he weapon canceled, and person to whom such p Also, compel each hard of arms to keep a rej all persons to whom w giving a description of date of sale, etc.

Make it a misdemea fail to comply with ar of said law.

By passing and enfor not in my opinion, be element in our state w be kept up the tree un is a civilized country, and poltroons need to p byways with a little pockets." R. Virgings, Ga.

ADVANTAGES IN STA

Editor of The Journal— regarding the extension to the coast, I am very wish to write of the at of Georgia in building t First, St. Marys can 20 feet of water over

Second, this road wou now being built or abo gulf.

Third, it would pass t and timber belt of Midd gla, which is quite larg idly developed.

Fourth, this road being west corner to the south extensions to ramify the desired better than any

5th. There is an Inial Marys to the St. Johns r miles distant, and stea on this route and give amount of truck, oran from Florida, and bes road all these products loads in Florida to giv Florida products to this and the northwest. The merchandise coming fro to Florida is enormous, and this road shapn of this besides th traffic to Florida and mountains in summer. efts it would draw ra from Florida.

If you would like me about the benefits to Geo built to St. Marys, I w I go home. I live only Marys.

Yours ver

Hendersonville, N. C.

by parties unknown, and these tickets do not contain the name of Judge Frank Harwell, of LaGrange, who is a candidate for one of the judgeships.

Chairman A. L. Miller, of the state committee, has made it plain that no tickets except those officially issued by the state committee and containing the names of all the candidates for the judgeships will be counted in the primary. There are sixteen candidates, and the names of all of them must be in every ticket voted.

The following communication has been received by The Journal from Hon. J. B. Ridley, chairman of the executive committee of Troup county:

"LAGRANGE, Ga., Sept. 29, 1906.

"Editor of The Journal, Atlanta, Ga.:

"Gentlemen: Through a mistake someone except the name of Judge Frank Harwell, of LaGrange. It is not known to what extent these tickets have been distributed throughout the state. Under the ruling adopted by the executive committee, these tickets cannot be voted in the primary to be held next Wednesday, and, if voted, could not be counted. In justice to all of the candidates as well as to Judge Harwell, the press of the state should call attention to these tickets so that if any are scattered in the various counties the managers and the people can be cautioned against them.

Yours truly,

J. B. RIDLEY,

"Ch'mn. Dem. Exec. Com. Troup Co."

A. H. THOMPSON,

"Secy. Dem. Executive Com. Troup Co."

has not been able to have meet.

The matter of the investigation of establishing gas and electric lighting be discussed Monday, as of which Alderman Key 1 Councilman Ellis secrets completed its investigation. Neither will the question part of the city stock Messrs. White, McLendon, others for the erection house be considered, as committee, of which Council the chairman, has postponed consideration of the matter til next week.

USED VET'S LIC TO OPERA'

Charged with operating and restaurant under the license belonging to J. A. Simpson, a negro, he up at police headquarters charge against Simpson doing business without a Simpson's drink and rum is located, on Pete the officers got wind of he was working under a license. Accordingly Platters Rowan and Coogler by License Inspector Ewl place Saturday afternoon suit that the proprietor under arrest.

DOCTOR AND DAU KILLED IN A

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 27. Skinner, of Glasgow, near best known physicians in the daughter, Rhea, were killed home, when their horses been the locomotive of a nearby the Dr. Skinner was 55 years old.

Judge Frederick J. Foster

Mr. Editor:

Permit me through your columns to call the attention of the people of Georgia to the eminent qualifications of Judge Frederick J. Foster for one of the judgeships of the proposed court of appeals.

This court is a court of last resort, exactly like the supreme court, and it is of the utmost importance that the people select for its judges our very best lawyers. In fact, if this is not done, it is to be hoped that the amendment will be defeated. The appellate court judges should in every respect be the equal of the supreme court judges. They have similar duties and equal responsibilities.

I have known Judge Foster all my life. I have practiced with him as a member of this bar, and before him as judge of the superior courts of the Ocmulgee circuit. While on the bench he made the best judge I have ever known. His ability and purity are attested by the fact that, during his term of office, he was reversed by the supreme court only once.

He is the author of "Foster on Bankruptcy," which is accepted as authority throughout the United States. He is among the very greatest lawyers Georgia has ever produced, and is pre-eminently qualified for any judicial office.

Very truly,

EMERSON H. GEORGE.

Madison, Ga., Sept. 29, 1906.

GEORGE S. B. ADAMS JUDGE ROBERTS IS GIVE ANSWER Y THURSDAY ENDORSED BY EASTMAN BAR

MEMBER OF CONGRESS IN THE EIGHTH DISTRICT WILL RE-PLY BY LETTER IN THAT TIME.

(Atlanta Dispatch to The Journal.)
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 29.—The commissioner appointed by the congressional committee to wait on Judge Samuel B.
Adams and notify him of his nomination
for that duty at 1 o'clock today.
Mr. Obyrne, Mr. E. K. Overstreet,
Mr. Moore, and Colonel E. P. Miller,
the committee which went to see Judge Adams. The conference lasted about half an hour and Mr.
Adams acted as spokesman.

The committee left with promise that Judge Adams was to address them by some time next week not later than Friday. He gave them no further promise, but he would reconsider.
The committee for Atlanta Monday night

The committee is encouraged in that Judge Adams has not declined outright,
the drift of his expression at the conference seems to be that of turning down
the nomination.

The conference with Judge Adams has left for their homes, first tentative arrangements for the committee to be called together in Savannah next Friday in case Judge
Adams refuses the nomination.

WEATHER FORECASTERS TO CONVENE IN 1907

Atlanta is Likely to be Selected as
the Place of Meeting for
the Weather Prophets.

Mr. Moore, chief of the weather bureau,
announced that the next convention of the weather forecasters will be held in 1907. This is of general interest locally, for it is probable that this convention will be held in Atlanta if sufficient effort is made by the citizens.

The conventions of the weather forecasters are held either in the north or south, and these meetings have occurred in the past. Dixie deserves to be the scene of the next convention, and what city in the south is better adapted for the weather men to convene in than Atlanta?

These conventions are very important ones,
attended by delegates from every state in the Union, and it would be a decided feather in Atlanta's cap if the forecasters could be induced here in 1907.

DAVID M. ROBERTS, OF EASTMAN,
GEORGIA, CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Bar Meeting and Endorsement.
STATE OF GEORGIA—Dodge County.
EASTMAN, Ga., Sept. 27, 1906.

By the members of the Eastman bar, in a meeting held at the courthouse on September 27th, 1906, Mayor J. P. Highsmith presiding, the following resolution endorsing the candidacy of Judge D. M. Roberts was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the last legislature passed an act creating a court of appeals, constituted of three judges, to be approved by the people on October 3rd, 1906, and there
being such great necessity for the creation of such a court, there can be no doubt about its ratification by the people.

And whereas, it is of the utmost importance that judges of experience and ability and judicial training should be selected to fill these important positions, and having in our wiregrass section of south
Georgia a man native and to the manor
born, of eminent qualification, ripe in experience not only from a general practice,
but as judge of the superior courts of the several counties of this circuit for eight years, and confidently believing that he possesses the four cardinal virtues of
a judge—ability, courtesy, patience and industry.

Therefore be it Resolved, That in the candidacy of Judge Roberts, we commend
him to the people of Georgia, with the assurance that if he should be selected
as one of said judges, they will never have cause to regret it, as he is not only able and well qualified, but he has
the confidence of all people who know
him for judicial integrity.

And without desiring to be sectional we beg to state that Judge Roberts' experience and training has been in cases involving titles to real property in trespass and ejectment cases, for he is considered one of our best lawyers on the subject of title to land as well as being engaged in a large criminal practice.
Judge Roberts has the energy and endurance necessary for the work that may come to the court of appeals.

We therefore confidently recommend
Judge Roberts to the favorable consideration of the people of Georgia, and hope they will elect him to one of the judgeships on the bench of the court of appeals.

JOHN F. DELACY,

GEO

PIEDMONT PARK

WHY

Greatest Court Show in

GREATEST

KNAE

EASILY ASCENDS 1 OR 2

It Will App
Nowhere E
In Georgia

These THRIL

ST DISTRICT WILL REPLY BY LETTER IN THAT TIME.

Spatch to The Journal.)
 Ga., Sept. 29.—The committee appointed by the congressional on to wait on Judge Samuel B. and notify him of his nomination at that duty at 1 o'clock today. A. Obyrne, Mr. E. K. Overstreet, Moore, and Colonel E. P. Miller, the committee which went to of Judge Adams. The conferred about half an hour and Mr. acted as spokesman.

committee left with promise that Adams was to address them by some time next week not later Saturday, he gave them no further to believe he would reconsider. leave for Atlanta Monday night

committee is encouraged in that Adams has not declined outright, the drift of his expression at seems to be that of turning down the conference with Judge Adams gates left for their homes, first tentative arrangements for the on to be called together in Sa- next Friday in case Judge refuses the nomination.

THE FORECASTERS TO CONVENE IN 1907

likely to be Selected as Place of Meeting for Prophets.

Moore, chief of the weather bureau, announced that the next convention of the forecasters will be held in 1907. This is of general interest locally, for it is probable that this convention will be held in Atlanta if sufficient effort is made by officials.

The conventions of the weather forecasters have been held either in the north or south of these meetings have occurred with Dixie deserves to be the scene of the next convention, and what city in the south is best adapted for the weather men to meet in?

Conventions are very important ones, decided by delegates from every state in the south, and it would be a decided feather in the cap if the forecasters could be induced to meet here in 1907.

The next time of the convention and the date which it will be held will be decided later. In the meantime if Atlanta is chosen for a convention it would be wise for the forecasters to get in communication with the bureau and convince them that Atlanta is the ideal city of the south.

MOOR'S FAMILY ALMOST DESTITUTE

of a Man Who Was Shot During the Riot in Need of Help.

The most pathetic results of the riot is seen in the destitute condition of the family of A. C. Moore.

GEORGIA, CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Bar Meeting and Endorsement.

STATE OF GEORGIA—Dodge County, EASTMAN, Ga., Sept. 27, 1906.

By the members of the Eastman bar, in a meeting held at the courthouse on September 27th, 1906, Mayor J. P. Highsmith presiding, the following resolution endorsing the candidacy of Judge D. M. Roberts was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the last legislature passed an act creating a court of appeals, consisting of three judges, to be approved by the people on October 3rd, 1906, and there being such great necessity for the creation of such a court, there can be no doubt about its ratification by the people.

And whereas, it is of the utmost importance that judges of experience and ability and judicial training should be selected to fill these important positions, and having in our wiregrass section of south Georgia a man native and to the major born, of eminent qualification, ripe in experience not only from a general practice, but as judge of the superior courts of the several counties of this circuit for eight years, and confidently believing that he possesses the four cardinal virtues of a judge—ability, courtesy, patience and industry.

Therefore be it Resolved, That in the candidacy of Judge Roberts, we commend him to the people of Georgia, with the assurance that if he should be selected as one of said judges, they will never have cause to regret it, as he is not only able and well qualified, but he has the confidence of all people who know him for judicial integrity.

And without desiring to be sectional we beg to state that Judge Roberts' experience and training has been in cases involving titles to real property in trespass and ejectment cases, for he is considered one of our best lawyers on the subject of title to land as well as being engaged in a large criminal practice. Judge Roberts has the energy and endurance necessary for the work that may come to the court of appeals.

We therefore confidently recommend Judge Roberts to the favorable consideration of the people of Georgia, and hope they will elect him to one of the judgeships on the bench of the court of appeals.

- JOHN F. DELACY,
- J. A. NEESE,
- DICK EDWARDS,
- OSCAR J. FRANKLIN,
- J. P. HIGHSMITH,
- W. M. CLEMENTS,
- B. R. CALHOUN,
- CHAS. W. GRIFFIN,
- W. M. MORRISON,
- C. W. ATWELL.

CHAMPION "CUSSER" FINED BY RECORDER

Mrs. Dora Jordan Said to Have Been Very Careless in Her Conversation.

PIEDMONT PARK

WHY

Greatest Court Show in

GREATEST

KNOWLEDGE

EASILY ASCENDS 1 OR 2

It Will App
Nowhere Else
In Georgia

These THRILLING
Flights to the Clouds are sights of a lifetime

The Most

PAIN

EDITORIAL BENJAMIN H. HILL, SAYS HIS D BY DONE IN SHELL GRAN

Candidate For One of The Judges of The Proposed Court of Appeals.

ATLANTA VIR-GINIES THE MOHOND
ER.

om the News-
Virginia, copied
Friday's Jour-
e attention of ident of the and now mission to declared people are too ection of the
to have the ent of every said, in pro-judicious and lanta's not be-city," he con-the highest refinement to America. It a ante-bellum rded as the south. The n of the mob,
nated from thern woman-
ern character.
he country of ore churches, aritable insti-
that is, com-aring, orderly

dd that in his
the Georgia
estown exhibi-
upon to make before public name of Virioned he e from ased.
ll declared is from which eceived attenom Atlantians herself could

Ben Hill, as he was affectionately called by his admirers, was the greatest lawyer and orator the south ever produced. His wonderful speeches on the hustings and in the courthouse are still remembered by thousands of Georgians who were thrilled by their eloquence. This marvelously gifted man devoted his genius to the defense of his country and the vindication of its humanity and civilization. The south owes him a debt of gratitude which it can never fully pay. His two sons, Ben H., Jr., and Charles D., have inherited much of their father's legal and oratorical gifts. Ben is regarded by the profession as a lawyer of learning and unof the United States for this district. The position of "standing master" is really that of an equity judge and is a place of great responsibility, requiring both learning and ability of a high order with great industry and labor. Mr. Hill has tried many important equity causes, and so satisfactorily that not one of his decisions has ever been reversed either by the circuit court or the circuit court of appeals. Ben Hill's friends of the bar, recognizing his fine judicial equipment and peculiar fitness for judicial honors, have frequently urged him to offer for the bench. At the beginning of this year, his name was presented to Governor Terrell as a suitable successor of Judge John S. Cand-

W. M. TALLEY, F
INDICTED YESTE
NECTION WI
MAKES PF

Commenting on the day by the grand jur bert Talley, a clerk of Broe, on a charge of in connection with t riot, W. M. Talley, street, father of the that the indictment de injustice.

Mr. Talley declares can prove that he v street in the crowd at ing occurred, much b assault, and that he v evidence of negroes en the father says, will his son's trial. While Mr. Talley at was held on suspicion the Cannon house aff. he says that all charge dismissed, as was sta Journal.

MISS ANNIE HA AND NATHA

Former Theatrical N
ness at Rome
Bened

(Special Dispatch t
ROME, Ga., Sept. 29.
and Miss Annie Lee Hi in marriage this after Allen at the Second parsonage. The mar surprise to the friends
Miss Hamilton is a
Hamilton, a promise
Hoyt is a son of M
For several years he
with theatrical comp
he returned to his business. His many and over the south w
the announcement of

arded as the e south. The on of the mob, manated from outhern woman-
n character.
country of churches, ha ble insti-
that is comearing, orderly aid that in his

of the Georgia
estown exhibi-
upon to make before public
s name of Virmentioned he applause from is ceased.
itchell declared
as from which received atten-rom Atlantians
a herself could

SELF AFFAIR

lin, Ga., Puts His

ournal.)
-Mr. E. S. Dan-blin, committed hooting himself only reason for d to be a love

Mr. W. B. F.
e soldier.

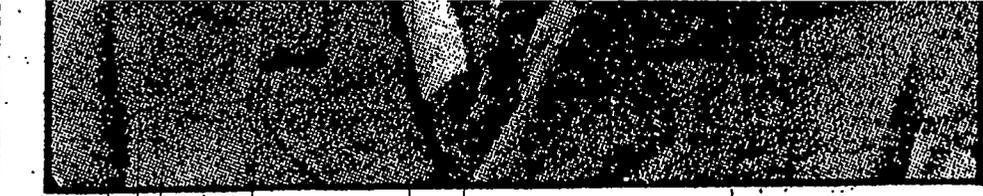

NO DEATH HUSBAND

of South Cares His

Press.)
pt. 29.—William beaten to death Keasler, a white
ast of the city.
easler's wife by tion is that the lly assault her.
to save his wife.

girl ever loved."
haughtily.
ish."—Mil-

His Fit?

Ben Hill, as he was affectionately called by his admirers, was the greatest lawyer and orator the south ever produced. His wonderful speeches on the hustings and in the courthouse are still remembered by thousands of Georgians who were thrilled by their eloquence. This marvelously gifted man devoted his genius to the defense of his country and the vindication of its humanity and civilization. The south owes him a debt of gratitude which it can never fully pay. His two sons, Ben H., Jr., and Charles D., have inherited much of their father's legal and oratorical gifts. Ben is regarded by the profession as a lawyer of learning and unusual ability and a speaker of force and logic. Charles D. is universally looked upon as a most brilliant speaker and the most forceful criminal lawyer in Georgia. These two brothers have never been aspirants for political office, each having held only the position of solicitor general of the Atlanta circuit. Ben served the state most efficiently for eight years as solicitor general and made a reputation as an able, faithful and just public official. He declined re-election for a third term and was succeeded by his brother. C. D. Hill was first elected by the legislature in 1885 by a majority of one vote, since which time he has held the office practically without opposition and will probably hold it as long as he lives. His ambition seems to have been satisfied by this office, and although he has made great reputation and popularity and repeatedly urged by many friends to seek higher political honors, he has always declined and never entered politics and never made a speech outside of the courthouse. In 1882, on the death of Senator Hill, Ben, Jr., was offered the appointment to fill the unexpired term in the United States senate by Governor Colquitt. The tender was made on the petition of a great many prominent citizens of the state, but the son in a letter to the governor, which was highly complimented, refused the honor. In 1885 he was appointed United States district attorney for the northern district of Georgia by President Cleveland and served for four years with credit to himself and satisfaction to the government. At the expiration of the term he formed a partnership with his brother and has since been practicing law in Atlanta, taking no active part in politics, except to help his friends and to support Democratic principles and standard bearers. Some years ago, Justice White, of the supreme court, and Judges Pardee and Newman, of the circuit and district courts, appointed him "standing master in chancery" of the circuit court of the United States for this district. The position of "standing master" is really that of an equity judge and is a place of great responsibility, requiring both learning and ability of a high order with great industry and labor. Mr. Hill has tried many important equity causes, and so satisfactorily that not one of his decisions has ever been reversed either by the circuit court or the circuit court of appeals.

Ben Hill's friends of the bar, recognizing his fine judicial equipment and peculiar fitness for judicial honors, have frequently urged him to offer for the bench. At the beginning of this year, his name was presented to Governor Terrell as a suitable successor of Judge John S. Candler for the vacancy on the supreme bench, but the governor thought it wise to select a man from the southern part of the state. He was then asked by many friends to run before the people for one of the three positions on the supreme court to be filled October 3 next, but he declined to antagonize either one of the three judges who had been appointed by Governor Terrell, on the ground that he had joined the bar in asking the governor to appoint Judge Lumpkin and Judges Beck and Atkinson were his close personal friends, whose services and ability entitled them to election by the people. It will thus be seen that Ben Hill is not a personal office seeker. His friends all over Georgia are now pressing his claim for a place on the proposed court of appeals. The lawyers of Atlanta have, in a splendid tribute to his personal character, legal attainments and peculiar fitness, urged him to enter the race, and in this tribute declare that "he possessed in a marked degree all the elements that go to make a good judge," ability, learning, fairness and industry. In reply, Mr. Hill states that "relying on their estimate of his fitness, and in response to an ambition to serve the people in a judicial capacity," he consents to become a candidate. And why should not the people of Georgia elect Ben Hill to this position? His character is unblemished, and habits are temperate and above reproach, he has lived an honorable life and has the respect and confidence of all who know him. His professional brethren declare that he is fully equipped to discharge the duties of this high office. He has never vexed the people by appeals for office and he has a name beloved and honored by the entire south. Without disparaging the claims of the other candidate, I express the earnest hope that the people of the state will select him as one of the members of the proposed court.

LUTHER Z. ROSSER.

MISS ANNIE H. AND NATHA

Former Theatrical ness at Rom
Bence

(Special Dispatch.
ROME, Ga., Sept. 21
and Miss Annie Lee E in marriage this aft
Allen at the Second parsonage. The ma surprise to the friend
Miss Hamilton is a
Hamilton, a promine
Hoyt is a son of N
For several years he
with theatrical comp
he returned to his business. His many and over the south
the announcement of

DEATHS AND

The remains of M who died Friday eve 96 Jones avenue, w morning at 11 o'clock for funeral and inte Hish is survived by one child.

The funeral of M whose death occurre
at a private sanitar Sunday afternoon at residence of Mr. F Crew street. The in Oakland cemetery.
tlemen will act as Eckford, Cliff Ansley
C. D. Montgomery, J
B. Dickson. Mr. L
of age. He was th
Mrs. Frank Logan, o
and the nephew of Logan and Mrs. P. lanta.

Monday morning at eral of the infant so Charles Winburn w chapel of Harry G. interment will be a tery. The death of curred Saturday mo
of its parents on the Funeral services o

Mr. C. T. Young, a gineer, who died Fri hospital, will be held at 3 o'clock at the f Dodd avenue. The at Westview cemeter 37 years of age. He wife.

The funeral serv
Green, who died Satu o'clock at her home street, will be condu noon at 2:30 o'clock
The interment will

Hoke Smith Invited To Help Texas Democrats

pendently.
 In addition to formally electing the moeratic candidates, the voters on Monday will express themselves rela-to the proposed court of appeals also upon the creation of the pro-

three candidates, no single-voting being allowed.

The state committee has provided that no tickets not bearing the names of all the candidates shall be counted in the primary.

THE COURT READY BEGIN WORK AGAIN

After a summer vacation, during which time members enjoyed a much needed and well merited rest, the supreme court is again ready to begin its work. Chief Justice William H.
 H. has assigned the associate justices, and this week the respective divisions are in consultation.

The first division will consist of Chief Justice Fish and Associate Justices Evans and McKin. The second division will consist of Chief Justice H. H., presiding, and Associate Justices
 K. and Atkinson.

A Wonderful Tonic

ROSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE

Refreshing and invigorating. Dispel languor, dragged out feeling during spring and summer.

Houston Superior Court.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 ACON, Ga., Oct. 1.—The officers of the superior court have left Macon for Houston county, where they will open court at Perry. Several important cases have been docketed since the last term court in Houston and the officers expect to do a week's work at the least. Those to be tried will be Judge W. H. Felton, and Solicitor Brunson.

Free distribution of the Penn Rheumatism Cure is now being made from the central office. The public and all visiting druggists are cordially invited to call and get a bottle.

STRUGGLING WITH FEAR

who develop lung trouble. Dr.
 New Discovery will cure them.
 Guaranteed. 50c. and $1.00. All Drugstores.

Miss Bloodworth Dead.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 ACON, Ga., Oct. 1.—After a lingering illness Miss Minnie Bloodworth, aged 17 years, died at the residence of her father,
 J. A. Bloodworth, 1336 Fourth street, Friday morning at 9 o'clock. She is survived by her father, two brothers and sisters. The funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. B.
 Hips and the interment will be in Clear Lake cemetery. Miss Bloodworth was a member of the Baptist church.

welcome their friends and customers.
 It is a compliment to the visiting druggists that will be appreciated, as it will be a great pleasure to them to see a familiar face when they call at the Coca-Cola building.

The Havana branch of the Coca-Cola Company has sent a large shipment of very best quality of pure Havana cigars. It must not be supposed that the Coca-Cola Company are manufacturing cigars in Havana. Their factory down-here is already over-taxed turning out cigars for the belligerent Cubans, and the company is now having plans drawn for a much larger building, in which a manufacturing plant, equal in equipment capacity to the Atlanta plant, will be installed very soon.

The company is proud to welcome so representative a body of men as the National Druggists, and she points them to this great enterprise.

The Coca-Cola Company says that it will keep open house throughout the week, and that a most cordial invitation is extended to all visiting druggists to call down, bring their wives, sweethearts and friends, and make themselves some.

Hon. B. H. Hill Commended By Georgia Newspapers

South Owes Hill Debt.

The people of Georgia—in fact, the whole south—owe a great deal to Ben Hill. He saved us from the worst of the humiliations of reconstruction times and was the first southern congressman to reply to the taunts of northern congressmen against the south. Our joke was heavy and an ungenerous foe who didn't know the meaning of magnanimity were making our burden almost heavier than
 we could bear; and when Ben Hill rushed on the floor of representatives and replied to Blaine's insults the whole country was astounded. The north mocked while the south was all anticipation.

In two hours after the speech was delivered he was the hero of the whole south. We owe this man's memory more than we owe to the memory of any man, and we dare say that four-fifths of the old soldiers, Ku Klux and sons of old soldiers who were old enough to understand these things will vote for Ben Hill, Jr., for Judge of the court of appeals on account of our debt to his father. The old soldier don't forget such men as Ben Hill. Besides all this, Ben Hill, Jr., is a good lawyer and in every way competent to make an acceptable Judge.—Cordele Rambler.

Hill's Ability Unquestioned.

At the solicitation of a numerously signed petition by the Atlanta bar, Hon.
 Benj. H. Hill has announced his candidacy for one of the places on the proposed court of appeals. Mr. Hill is well known to a great many people of the state and especially here in Augusta, and there is no doubt of his great ability and fitness for the office for which he aspires.—Augusta Herald.

Possesses Fine Legal Ability.

Mr. Hill is one of the ablest and most prominent lawyers and Democrats in the state, and his many friends throughout Georgia will read his announcement with much pleasure.

After his graduation he practiced law, being associated with his distinguished father, the late United States Senator Benjamin H. Hill, with whom he remained until the latter's death. During his career he has held some of the most important legal positions in the state, and in all of them he has acquitted himself with great credit. He is a man of fine legal ability, and would make the state a most excellent judicial officer.—Columbus Ledger.

Honor Belongs to Him.

Announcement is made that Benjamin H. Hill is a candidate for a seat on the bench of the court of appeals. The elevation of this able and distinguished citizen to that position would reflect the highest credit on that branch of the judicial and by almost common consent he would be selected as a man to whom such honors properly belong. He comes of a family which ranks high in the judicial annals of the state. His father was one of the most eloquent and gifted men the south has ever produced. It would be in the nature of the entire fitness of things for such a man as Mr.
 Hill to be elevated to the position for which he has been proposed, and it would add strength to the recently

Rain Coat

Buy one and defy the "Equino-xial" other types of tempestuous wear.

Eiseman Bros.' new fall
 now ready. CRAVENETTES

QUALITY is the way to deserv-

The GENUINE CRAVENETTES

the most serviceable coat in the is the ever ready garment for storm and nights.

Those for sale at Eiseman

as stylish in cut and finish as any able top coat—made of identical same weaves—Black Thibet—E finished Worsteds. Colors—L

Oxfords, Mixtures and Overplaid

They are cut long and full,

and sleeves lined with Venetian

Serge or Silk, according to price.

$12.50 to $30.00

Call in and select one anen downpour.

Cravenettes for small boys and all ages.

EISEMAN BROS.

11-13-15-17 Whitehall

Baltimore, Md.

Washington

his servant.—North Georgia Citizen. (Dalton.)

such a name and desc an ancestry, deserves every old Confederate Georgian—if not for his

Worthy Son of Worthy Sire.

iting drug-as it will to them to call at the Coca-Cola
plant of Georgia cit-that the turning down out ibans, and are drawn which a equipment plant, will so repre-
National into them
ise.
s that it houl the invitation uggists to
s. sweethemselves
...

Benjamin H. Hill, with whom he remained until the latter's death. During his career he has held some of the most important legal positions in the state, and in all of them he has acquitted himself with great credit. He is a man of fine legal ability, and would make the state a most excellent judicial officer.—Columbus Ledger.

Honor Belongs to Him.

Announcement is made that Benjamin H. Hill is a candidate for a seat on the bench of the court of appeals. The elevation of this able and distinguished citizen to that position would reflect the highest credit on that branch of the judiciary and by almost common consent he would be selected as a man to whom such honors properly belong. He comes of a family which ranks high in the judicial annals of the state. His father was one of the most eloquent and gifted men the south has ever produced. It would be in the nature of the entire fitness of things for such a man as Mr. Hill to be elevated to the position for which he has been proposed, and it would lend dignity and strength to the recently established court of appeals.—The Atlanta Georgian.

Lawyer of Unusual Learning.

There are many candidates for the proposed court of appeals, and, without intending to disparage the claims of any of the eminent lawyers who aspire to judicial honors, we desire to state that we will be glad to see Benjamin H. Hill, of Atlanta, selected by the people as one of the three judges if this court is created.

Mr. Hill is known throughout the state as a lawyer of unusual learning and power. He has followed strictly his profession and has never been tempted aside by the allurements of political position.—Dalton Argus.

Stands High as Lawyer.

Hon. Ben Hill is one of the most prominent and well known candidates for a judgeship in the proposed circuit court of appeals and stands high as an able and efficient member of the state bar. Just how the vote will go in Macon for the three judges is yet to be seen, but one thing seems evident and that is that Mr. Hill will come in for a good big vote in Bibb county.—Macon News.

Name Appeals to Georgians.

The names of Hill and Stephens appeal to all Georgians, and just at this time the people are going to have an opportunity to honor the son of one of them by voting for Hon. Benjamin Hill for judge of the court of appeals.—North Georgia Citizen. (Dalton.)

No Man Surpasses Him.

Among the many candidates for the new court of appeals to be voted on October 3d, is Benjamin H. Hill, of Atlanta. In the organization of this important court it is highly important that lawyers of unquestionable ability and high personal character should be selected. There is no more responsible position under the government than that of appellate court, and the people should see to it that none but the best men are put upon this bench. It is the consensus of opinion that no man in the race surpasses Mr. Hill in legal attainment and personal fitness. We hope that the people of the state will elect him one of the three judges on October 3d, as we believe that in so doing they will secure the services of an able and valuable pub-

Call in and select one agent another downpour.

Cravenettes for small boys and boys of all ages.

EISEMAN BROS.,

11-13-15-17 Whitehall

Baltimore, Md.

Washington, D. C.

lic servant.—North Georgia Citizen. (Dalton.)

Worthy Son of Worthy Sire.

B. H. Hill, Esq., of Atlanta, is a candidate for judge of the court of appeals, which was recently established by the legislature of Georgia.

Mr. Hill is eminently fitted for the position to which he aspires, is endorsed by all of his brother lawyers of the Atlanta bar and by all other people who are familiar with his standing as a lawyer.

He is a son and namesake of the illustrious Ben Hill, one of the most famous men Georgia ever produced, and is a worthy son of a worthy sire.—Coweta Gazette.

Deserves Support of Veterans.

Editor Augusta Chronicle:
On October 3d we are to vote for three judges for the new appellate court. I imagine there are thousands of people in Georgia, who like myself, are not acquainted with either of the candidates for this high judicial position. It has been a matter of some concern to me as to who I should vote for, because I am not acquainted with any of the candidates. My mind has been fully set upon one of the gentlemen, however, and he shall have my unqualified support. I refer to Hon. B. H. Hill, Jr. A man with such a name and descending from an ancestry, deserves the support of every old Confederate soldier, and every Georgian—if not for himself alone, for what his honored father did in the brave and able defence of the southern people in the United States senate and in Georgia hustings. We cannot forget the great B. H. Hill for what he did, and then let us old Confederates show our appreciation by voting for his son, that he emulate the virtues of his sire, and become the traditional mouth piece of the south.

JOHN M. WEAVER

Diamonds

Choice values in stones, loose or mounted, can be found at our store this week. Our recent importations so favorably purchased, enable us to make you some unusually attractive offers. See these stones and be convinced of their splendid value.

Maier & Berkeley

It Costs No More to Dress Correctly Than Awkwardly.

We make hats and furnishings a study—have for twenty years. Our information is yours for the asking. The price is the same perhaps, the material or color is similar. The difference is that nifty effect which you get only at exclusive haberdashers.

GEO. R. LAW & CO.,
The Only Exclusive Hatters and Furnishers in Atlanta. 4 Whitehall creased.

h. atch, or the large in vary
S ll St.

THE MORNING convention in Evening.
In their ity, and we that she ace of such
The part when
and

low with the spirit of the program they and one of the program. A lone his persistent. As he left the porch
the old man, was was waiting as usual, saw him up to open his. The man had ever, anticipated him for some Well, he remarked pleasantly, and other bone, I suppose? How is it that though I displease you week after week, you will still keep attending my church? Why don't you stay away?
Jones was simply staggered by the suggestion.
"Well," he gasped, "Me stay way! Ye'd made it that. O'womever, Aw've the interests of the whole village to consider. If there's any way there's a knowin' what I should do, I'll do it."

These turn from blotted archives of the past
And find the future's page as white as snow Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from thy spell.
Art thou a sinner? Sin may be forgiven Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell.
Each night a star to guide thy feet to Heaven.

Orchard Wisdom.

Atchison Globe.
Old people think an orchard red with apples is prettier, but the young people decide in favor of the orchard in bloom. Old people are hard to think more of fulfillment than

Here are some of his good qualities:
He spends most of his time, outside of business hours, with his wife and family.
He doesn't go in for theatres, high-priced dinners, and exclusive entertainments in which he would be ashamed to invite his wife.
He seldom drinks intoxicating liquors, although he is largest owner of the biggest distillery in western Pennsylvania.
He is a church member and attends services every Sunday.
He doesn't care for fine horses.
He doesn't play poker.

land and built about 50 over manufacture of coke.
Success came his way. He led the company and today largest coke producer in the owns nearly 40,000 acres of c Connellsville region, and the s
the 20,000 coke ovens and th 15,000 miners and coke operato dence of the dollars that flo coffers dally.
It was after becoming coke
he went into the iron busines also the owner of some of t
real estate in Pittsburg.

TECH BEGINS WITH MANY STUDENTS

NINETEENTH ANNUAL SES-SION OPENS MONDAY
WITH LARGEST ATTEND-ANCE IN HISTORY.

The nineteenth annual scholastic session of the Georgia School of Technology was opened Monday morning with the largest enrollment of students in the history of the institution.

Class and shop work was begun immediately after the term was opened by Dr. K. G. Matheson, president of the college, who in a few appropriate remarks outlined the duties of the students during the coming year.

The first administration of Dr. Matheson as the active president begins under the most favorable auspices. While he was chairman of the faculty last year, Dr. Matheson began several improvements in the curriculum of the college, which will be perfected under his presidency.

The new school of mines, under the direction of Assistant State Geologist S.
W. McCallie, the equipment of the new chemical laboratory, and the appointment of four additional members of the faculty, testify to the school's advancement.

The last examination was concluded Saturday and from now on the students will be steadily at work.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the fraternal neighbors and friends who so kindly gave us their assistance on the death of our beloved father and husband.

MRS. YOUNG AND CHILDREN.

DRUGGISTS FIND
WARM WELCOME

The Coca-Cola Company Will Conduct Open House

Regular State Election To Be Held Wednesday

In Addition to Election Court of Appeals Judgeship Primary Will Also Occur.

The regular state election, coupled with the appellate court judgeship primary, will be held on Wednesday—the first Wednesday in October, as the law provides. Hon. Hoke Smith, of Atlanta, will be formally chosen as chief executive of Georgia, to succeed Governor J. M. Terrell, whose term of office will expire next June, and the other candidates nominated by the state Democratic convention will be formally elected, as will also several supreme court justices and superior court judges for every judicial circuit in the state.

The Democratic nominees, in most instances, will be opposed by Socialist nominees. J. B. Osborn heads the ticket of his party, and will oppose Hoke Smith for governor. The other nominees of the Socialist party have been published in The Journal.

Hon. S. G. McFendon, the regular Democratic nominee for railroad commissioner, to succeed Hon. Joseph M.
Brown, has opposition in the person of Hon. T. C. Crenshaw, who is running independently.

In addition to formally electing the Democratic candidates, the voters on Wednesday will express themselves relative to the proposed court of appeals and also upon the creation of the proposed county of Ben Hill. Both are constitutional amendments, and a majority of the voters participating in the election must ratify the amendments before either of them become a law.

The same managers who conduct the general election will also have charge of the judgeship primary. Separate boxes for the primary have been provided.

There are sixteen candidates—all Democrats—running in the judgeship primary. In the event the constitutional amendment creating the court of appeals is ratified in the general election, the three candidates for the judgeships receiving the highest number of votes will be declared the Democratic nominees for the positions. They will be formally elected in November.

Success of the court of appeals amendment is practically assured, and, as a result, considerable interest is felt throughout the state in the nomination of the three judges. Under the rules of the Democratic party all voters participating in the primary must vote for three candidates, no single-voting being allowed.

The state committee has provided that no tickets not bearing the names of all the candidates shall be counted in
the primary.

SUPREME COURT READY TO BEGIN WORK AGAIN

After a summer vacation, during which time
the members enjoyed a much needed and well-earned rest, the supreme court is again ready to begin its work. Chief Justice William H.
Fish has assigned the associate justices, and this week the respective divisions are in conference.

The first division will consist of Chief Justice Fish and Associate Justices Evans and Lumpkin. The second division will consist of Justice Cobb, presiding, and Associate Justices Beck and Atkinson.

A Wonderful Tonic

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE
Cooling, refreshing and invigorating. Dispel that dragged out feeling during spring and summer.

Houston Superior Court.

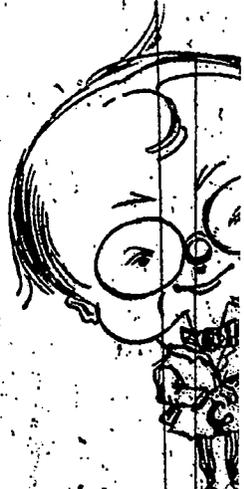

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
MACON, Ga., Oct. 1.—The officers of the superior court have left Macon for Houston county, where they will open court at Ferry. Several important cases have been docketed since the last term of court in Houston and the officers are

Hon. B. H. Hill Commended By Georgia Newspapers

South Owes Hill Debt.

The people of Georgia—in fact, the whole south—owe a great debt to Ben Hill. He saved us from the worst of the humiliations of reconstruction times and was the first southern congressman to rap-ply to the taunts of northern congressmen against the south. Our joke was heavy and an ungenerous foe who didn't know the meaning of magnanimity were making our burden almost heavier than
we could bear; and when Ben Hill
rushed on the floor of representatives
and replied to Blaine's insults the whole country was astounded. The north mocked while the south was all anticipation.

In two hours after the speech was delivered he was the hero of the whole south. We owe this man's memory more than we owe to the memory of any

Rai

Buy one and other types of Eiseman T
now ready. C QUALITY is The GENU

president of the Mormon church, Joseph Smith, was arrested and bound over to the district court yesterday on the charge of living unlawfully with five wives.

The complaint was sworn to by a Mormon deputy sheriff, the warrant was served by order of a Mormon sheriff and the committing magistrate is also a Mormon.

President Smith was arraigned immediately after his arrest and waived preliminary hearing. After being bound over and released on his own recognizance.

Forty-Third Child.

President Smith reached here two days ago on his return from Europe. He then learned that an attempt had been made

The complaint was made from a distinctly anti-Mormon source. The county attorney refused to approve a prosecution on this charge. The attorney was then cited to appear in court and show cause why he should not be compelled to act in the matter.

After the hearing the court found that the attorney was justified in refusing to prosecute, because the complainant offered no evidence that the mother of the child was not the wife of President Smith.

SPECULATION RIFE AS TO JUDGESHIP COMBINE

Report Goes Rounds in Macon That Three Candidates Join Chances.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)
 MACON, Ga., Oct. 2.—There is a report going the rounds in Macon today that Judge R. B. Russell, late candidate for chief justice of the supreme court, governor of Georgia and now candidate for a judgeship place on the court of appeals, has formed a combine with two other judges in the race, and that the combination is playing hard to win. Just who the other two candidates are hasn't developed here, but from letters received from the North congressional district by parties in Macon it is believed that the combination exists.

The people of Macon, however, will hardly vote for Russell this time, but will support George S. Jones, the Macon candidate, Henry C. Peoples, of Atlanta, and Arthur Gray Powell, of Blakely. It is the general belief here that these three men are the best ones in the race, and that they are going to win, despite the combination made by Russell.

A good vote is going to be polled here on the day of the election, and although there was some opposition to the amendment for the new court at first there has been very little of it lately. It is thought that the amendment will go through so far as this county is concerned, and the general opinion seems to be here that the people of the state as a whole will vote for the amendment.

Mr. Jones' friends here are very confident of his success. He has been endorsed by the people of the county and has been voluntarily given the unanimous endorsement of the Macon bar.

PHYSICIAN KILLED ON STEPS OF TROLLEY

(By Associated Press.)
 SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 2.—Dr. Randolph Croft Soney, a well known physician was instantly killed and two other passengers were seriously injured while standing on the steps of a north-bound Devisadero car last night. A car approaching in the opposite direction left the track at a switch, said to have been defective, and crashed into the first car. W. B. McRae and Clarence Howell were also caught between the cars.

Dr. Soney was a son-in-law of J. J. Wilson, president of the San Francisco National bank. He came of a well known Charleston, S. C., family. He achieved distinction as a military surgeon in the Spanish war.

Lots of folks wonder why Norman Eberfeld, field captain of the Highlanders, trots over to the pitcher so many, many times during every game, to put just a word or two in his ear, even in games when the "kid" is not merely stalling for time, as was the case Thursday.—Cleveland Press.

Our brands are sold only to the consumer direct.

"Ask the Revenue Officer."

We close Wednesday, October 3d, on account of elec

HON. THOMAS F. GREEN FOR JUDGE OF THE NEW COURT OF APPEALS

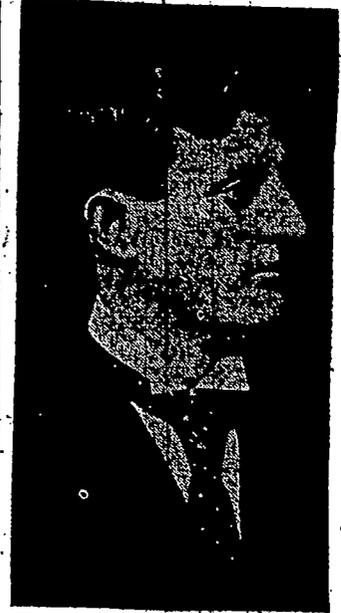

Hon. Thomas F. Green, of Athens, is now considered one of the foremost candidates in the race for a position on the new court of appeals in this state, should the people adopt the amendment creating the court at the election next Wednesday.

From every section of the state, from personal friends, from acquaintances and from men who know him only by reputation, come assurances of hearty and active support in his race. The people have been doing some investigating on their own motion and they have found that the candidate put forward by the Athens bar with its unanimous indorsement, is one of the ablest and best lawyers in the state, well qualified in every way for the position he seeks.

Mr. Green has been at the bar for the past seventeen years, having graduated from the University of Georgia in 1899. His experience as a lawyer has been wide and varied. He has been given an insight into all branches of the law, as well as a thorough knowledge of the procedure of all the courts. His mind is naturally judicial, and he possesses every qualification for a judge. He is wise, conservative, careful, upright.

In addition to an unquestioned ability, he possesses a character unblemished, and is an advocate at all times of sobriety and morality. His position in the community in which he lives is attested by the solid front of the people of Athens in support of his candidacy.

Mr. Green is at present lecturer on federal law in the law department of the HON. THOS. F. GREEN, OF ATHENS, GA.

University of Georgia, a position held up to the time of his death by the late Chancellor Walter B. Hill. He is a grandson of the late Chancellor Andrew A. Lipscomb, of the University of Georgia, and much of the ability of that distinguished Georgia educator and scholar descends to the grandson.

Georgians who are looking for a man of unquestioned ability, high character, abundant courage and convictions, experience in his profession and conservatism in his judgment, will find in Mr. Green the man of their choice for the position of judge of the court of appeals.

For Elegant and Delicious Meals and Lunches

"Go" to THE CHILDS Hotel AND Cafe.

45, 47, 49 W. Mitchell St.

Our chef has no equal in Atlanta. Everything the best. Quick and polite attention. Ice cream parlor in connection. E. BASIL, Propr.

His master's choice is a Cluett
 COT SHIRT
 Made as a custom shirtmaker would make it. All the materials are shrunk before cutting by the C. U. P. C. O. process, this feature on each shirt maintains its proper relation, making easy work for the home launderess.
$1.50 AND MORE
CLUETT, PARSONS & CO.
 Largest Makers of Collars and Shirts in the World

From 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Bleached Cambric, yard wide, finished like Lonsdale; for one hour at, per yard. 5c

Floor Oilcloth, good patterns, heavy quality; in the basement for this hour at, per yard. 15c

Boys' Suits of good wool materials, well made; for this hour only at. 69c

From Noon to 1 p.m.

Table Damask, full bleached, 60 inches wide; good weight; 50c value; per yard. 25c

Pillow Shams in beautiful new lace effects; for this hour sale at, only. 10c

Ladies' Skirts of fine Panamas, etc.; worth up to $6.00; one hour at, choice. . . . $1.98

Curtain Rods of polished brass sion style; between hours named only, at.

Ladies' Coats of fine imported cloth; new styles, worth $12.50 to $15.00, at. . . . $5

BASS

GENERAL STATE ELECTION IN GEORGIA WEDNESDAY

Coupled With Election Will Be the Appellate Court Judgeship Primary.

The qualified voters of Georgia—white and black—will on Wednesday, October 30, participate in the regular state election, when a governor, state house officers, supreme court justices and superior court judges will be formally chosen. Coupled with this election will be a white primary for the nomination of three judges for the proposed court of appeals, and in the primary only white people will be permitted to vote.

Hon. Hoke Smith, Democrat, is opposed for governor by Hon. J. B. Osborn, Socialist, and a number of the other regular Democratic nominees are opposed by candidates of the Socialist party.

Hon. S. G. McLendon, of Thomasville, Democrat, is opposed by Hon. T. C. Crenshaw, an Independent, for railroad commissioner.

Mr. McLendon, one of the best qualified men in the state, was nominated for the railroad commissionership by the Democratic party of Georgia in convention assembled at Macon. His nomination was unanimous.

Mr. Crenshaw has in times past been honored by the Democratic party, and hundreds of people throughout the state are at a loss to understand his present conduct. He has bolted the nomination and is running independently, though it is understood he would have gladly accepted the nomination of the Macon convention had it been tendered to him.

Mr. Crenshaw has served as a railroad commissioner.

As it is practically assured that all the Democratic nominees will be elected, none of the opposition having developed any strength, interest centers in the court of appeals amendment and the primary for the nomination of three judges to serve

GEORGIA MAN KILLS SELF IN CALIFORNIA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

JACKSON, Ga., Oct. 2.—O. S. Carmichael, the 23-year-old son of David N. Carmichael, prominent and wealthy farmer of Butts county, is reported to have shot himself to death in the streets of Stockton, Cal., on the night of September 28th.

It was first reported that A. J. G. Carmichael was dead in Stockton, Cal., but the family of the dead man have received information that it was O. S. Carmichael, he being identified by J. W. Lammus, who served with him in the Spanish American war, and who is now in California.

Mr. Carmichael comes from one of Butts county's most prominent families, but for several years he has been out west. The sad news has caused a gloom on his friends here.

The body of Mr. Carmichael will be brought home for burial. He left home three years ago, leaving a wife and child. His wife, who was a Miss Woodward, after his departure obtained a divorce from the courts.

the court in the event the amendment is ratified.

A majority of the voters participating in the primary must record themselves as in favor of the amendment, otherwise the proposed court will be defeated. It is believed, however, that the amendment will be ratified by a safe majority.

Sixteen candidates are running for the three judgeships, and in the primary for their nomination every voter participating must vote for three. No single-shotting will be allowed. The three candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be declared the Democratic nominees for the positions, and they will be formally elected in November.

LITTLE GIRL KILLED IN AUTO TRAGEDY

(By Associated Press.) DENVER, Colo., Oct. 2.—A high-

PRESS PUSHES PEEPLES

Newspapers of Georgia Advocate Atlanta Candidate For Court of Appeals.

To Henry C. Peoples and his thousands of friends throughout the state nothing is more gratifying than the manner in which his candidacy is being received by the press of Georgia.

The mutual reluctance of newspapers to urge upon their readers the wisdom of one of a large number of eminent men aspiring for judicial honors has not interfered with their high commendation of Mr. Peoples.

The following editorial comments from leading newspapers in different sections of Georgia indicate the widespread strength of the candidacy of Mr. Peoples. From the Savannah Press:

Mr. Henry C. Peoples, of Atlanta, will be a candidate for one of the places on the court of appeals of the state of Georgia to be decided upon next month in the state election. Mr. Peoples was a former law partner of the Hon. Hoke Smith and is one of the best and ablest men in the state. He is a son of the late Congressman Peoples and is a lawyer of great industry and acumen. He took first place at the bar shortly after entering upon the practice of his profession. He has never been a candidate for any public office, but his ambition leads him naturally to ask for a place upon the bench of the new appellate court. Mr. Peoples will have a following all over the state from lawyers and friends anxious to see him occupy this place and anxious to see the court so well fortified and so well equipped. If the Press had its way it would certainly award a place to Henry Peoples among the three jurists to be chosen on the 30d Instant.

From the American Times-Recorder:

Hon. Henry C. Peoples, of Atlanta, is a candidate for judge of the appellate court judgeship, the election to take place October 30d. Mr. Peoples is unquestionably one of the best lawyers in the state, and is a gentleman of rare attainments. He is not a politician, but has made the profession of law his life work. For many years he was a partner of Mr. Hoke Smith. He is a son of the late Judge Cincinnatus Peoples, one of Georgia's most distinguished jurists, and a grandson of Hon. Ellerbe Cabaniss, of Forsyth, who after a well spent and honorable career as lawyer and chairman went to his reward twenty-five years ago. Mr. Peoples is in every sense a high-minded, distinguished lawyer, and if elected Georgia will have cause to be proud of him on the bench.

From the DeKalb New Era:

There is Henry C. Peoples, lately a partner of Hon. Hoke Smith, the Democratic nominee for governor. Mr. Peoples is a man of the highest moral and professional character. He has had much experience as a reporter of the supreme court, and is thoroughly familiar with all the duties of an appellate judge.

From the Monticello News:

For a number of years Mr. Peoples was deputy clerk of the court and was afterwards reporter by the judges of the court. He resigned the position of reporter to enter into partnership with Hon. H. Smith, which partnership continued seven years, and he is now the partner of Mr. Lee M. Jordan. His disinterested by the bar of the state sustains of his fitness for judicial honors.

From the Athens Banner:

Mr. Henry C. Peoples will be a lawyer was appointed reporter of the state court by Chief Justice H. H. Blockley and the other judges of the court. For some time or ten years he discharged the duties of reporter in substitution of the court, resigning at the end of that time to practice his profession. The experience in such a position is a great advantage to a lawyer or judge, as it necessarily familiarizes him with the duties of a court of review of appeals, and also makes him quite conversant with the decisions of the highest court in Georgia.

From the Gwinnett Journal:

Henry C. Peoples, candidate for appellate court judge, to be voted for on Wednesday, is the son of Cincinnatus Peoples, who used to practice law in this county and was one of the best lawyers of his day, and a cousin of Mr. Peoples and Henry L. Peoples. In an election nobody can vote for a man more than three and therefore everybody keep Peoples' name on his slate.

From the Valdosta Daily Times:

The friends in this county of Henry C. Peoples, one of the candidates for position on the court of appeals, are working actively for his election. He will no doubt receive a large vote in this part of south Georgia.

Mr. Peoples is the son of the late Cincinnatus Peoples and is a cousin of Mr. Peoples brothers in this city and in this county. He was court reporter of the supreme court of Georgia for a term of years, and is well known as a very popular associate among his townsmen in every section of the state. Some of the leading lawyers will call attention to the fact that by reason of his long connection with the supreme court and thorough acquaintance with the procedure that Mr. Peoples will be a peculiarly valuable man in organizing the court of appeals.

He has commanded a large practice and is well equipped in every way to the hard work and responsibility of the proposed new tribunal.

Piles Cured Quickly at Home

Without Pain, Cutting or Surgery. Instant Relief.

We Prove It. Sample Package Free. Seven people out of ten are said to have Piles. Not one man in a million need have them and we are proving it every day at our own expense. We send a sample package of the wonderful Pyramid Pile Cure to any person absolutely free. We don't do this as a matter of

$1.00

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT OF THE NEAL BANK

Interest allowed at the rate of THREE AND ONE-HALF PER CENT PER ANNUM, compounded semi-annually.
E. THORNTON, President. W. F. MANN, Cashier.
R. C. CALDWELL, Asst. Cashier.

T. M. POOLE County Commissioner candidate of the people.
is opposed by a banker corporation director for T. M. Poole.

BOWDEN LITHIA WATER is dispensed from our attractive coolers. When you ask for BOWDEN LITHIA WATER see that you get it.

JUDGE HENRY'S ADDRESS TO VOTERS OF NORTHWEST GA.

ROME, Ga., Oct. 2.—Judge W. M. Henry, of Rome, is one of the leading candidates for Judge of the court of appeals, the primary to select a candidate being on tomorrow.
Judge Henry held the position of judge of the superior court of the Rome County for twelve years, and is one of the best-known lawyers in Georgia. He is strongly endorsed by the bar of the Rome circuit and will receive an immense vote throughout north Georgia, and will get a large vote wherever he travels.

Below is a letter addressed to the people of northeast Georgia:
"ROME, Ga., Oct. 2, 1906.
THE PEOPLE OF NORTHWEST GEORGIA:
I am a candidate for the nomination, at the primary election to be held on Monday, as one of the three judges of the court of appeals.
You readily understand that, in making a race like this, covering the entire state and necessarily made in a few days, it is utterly impossible to make a campaign by seeing the people, or even by writing them letters. So I take this method of speaking to you, and of respectfully soliciting the votes of the good people among whom I have always lived and whom I served for many years on the bench.
In this election, counties do not count, but the three men who have the most aggregate number of votes, in the whole state, will be the nominees.
May I not therefore respectfully urge that each of you not only go to the polls on the 3rd, but also ask your neighbors and friends to do so and vote for your state and county nominees, and for your constitutional amendments, but also for three judges of this court which will be second in its importance and usefulness to no court in Georgia?
Cherokee Georgia, with a white population, in character second to none in any other state, and in numbers equal to one-fourth of the entire white population of the state, has had no representative on the supreme court bench for nearly forty years. Surely this splendid section of the state is now entitled to representation on the court of appeals bench.
Sincerely yours,
W. M. HENRY.

will be one of the successions. Bartow, Willing County, who has entered old McDume boy who has fortune in his adopted had many positions of conferred upon him by Monroe county, and in stands at the head of the qualified for the position primary election has been on the same day the held to nominate three court of appeals and voters of McDume could Willingham a very late old home county.

Col. B. S. W. From the Rome Tribune Col. B. S. Willingham is in our city with friends, and he wants his friend just now and fact, but he is encouraged by his circle of friends on this particular visit, date for appellate judge. And why not? He is a would make a good one

Hon. B. S. Willingham From the Golden Age. One of the prominent people of Georgia now iningham of Forsyth. He himself for a place on court of appeals to be present legislature, and Age is not a political party to be a servant, especially we count it wholly lines of this publication Georgia and everywhere for any position, public when that man has a moral bravery and Chris ship as Bartow S. Willing both in private life and p. As author of the fam hill—one of the strong measures ever offered to Georgia, he won not only but almost a national, able advocacy of that bill was a man of superior oring courage. An ast in a rare composure of mind, a ly recurrent conscience, he cial qualities as few men. We do not know how are going to offer for t peals, but we believe t three places ought to be filled by Hon. Bartow S. the whole state recognize he would meet the demar ly responsible position, w himself, honor to the jud

"The Daylight Corner."

How Good It Feels

to wear a suit of clothes and an overcoat that fit you at every point. You enjoy this sensation when you have on a suit or overcoat made by L. Adler, Bros. & Co., Rochester, N. Y., which is not only as comfortable but stylish as one made-to-order, costing twice as much money.

We have complete line of the new models for fall and winter. Let us show them to you and explain why they are the best clothes in America. Prices $15 to $40.

If it's correct you'll find it here. Everything in Apparel for Men from Hats to Shoes.

Opellets

WILLINGHAM FOR APPELLATE JUDGE

Well Known And Able Forsyth Attorney One Of The Strong Candidates. Something Of His Career.

HON. BARTOW S. WILLINGHAM.

Of the numerous candidates for a place on the court of appeals, none are better qualified for the position than B. S. Willingham, of Forsyth, Ga. He is in no sense a politician, and if elected will devote his entire time and energy to the office. He has for twenty-two years devoted himself exclusively to his profession, and enjoys a practice to no lawyer in his section. Possessed of robust constitution, studious habits, keen analytical mind and fine moral character, he would make an ideal judge. He enjoys the confidence to the fullest extent of all who know him as is evidenced by the enthusiastic support given him from every section of the state.

W. print below several clippings, showing how his candidacy is being received in different parts of the state:

Hon. Bartow Willingham.

McDuffie Journal.
It may not be generally known, but McDuffie county has a candidate for one of the three positions on the new court of appeals, and the indications are that he will be one of the successful contestants. Hon. Bartow Willingham, of Monroe county, who has entered the race, is an old McDuffie boy who had won fame and fortune in his adopted county. He has had many positions of honor and trust conferred upon him by the people of Monroe county, and in addition to this stands at the head of the legal profession in his section of the state and is well qualified for the position he seeks. A primary election has been called to be held on the same day the state election is held, to nominate three justices for the court of appeals, and we believe that the voters of McDuffie county will give Mr. Willingham a very large majority in his old home county.

Col. B. S. Willingham.

ing safety to the public good.

Mr. Willingham a Candidate.

From American Recorder.
Hon. Bartow S. Willingham, of Forsyth, Ga., has announced his candidacy for judge of the court of appeals—the court that was created recently by an act of the legislature. The editor of the Times-Recorder has had a long personal acquaintance with Mr. Willingham and knows him to be one of the ablest and most scholarly lawyers of the state. He is a man of unflinching honor and enjoys the highest respect and esteem of all who know him. Georgia has few men who have his high political integrity, and the Times-Recorder takes great pleasure in commending him to the voters of this section. Mr. Willingham has a high appreciation of the responsibility of the office, and the ethics of the situation will provide him entering into any combination. He should be elected to this office without a scramble. No man deserves better the position than does Bartow S. Willingham, of Monroe.

From Milledgeville News.
When that state appellate court is established—if ratified by the voters at the next election—good men and not politicians should be put on the bench. Our friend, Col. B. S. Willingham, of Forsyth, would make a good one to draw two more to.

From The Athens Banner. COLONEL WILLINGHAM, OF FORSYTH

Spent Yesterday in the City — Is a Candidate For Judge of Court of Appeals.

Hon. B. S. Willingham, of Forsyth,

M. RICH & BRO

One special lot of gray for school wear, at.....

Very nobby solid color wim and trimmed with plaids, at.....

A big assortment of extrin plaids and checks, special values at.....

One lot of Ladies' Rain made of the best Craver

Values up to $10.00

Values up to $20.00

M. RICH & BR

DEPOSITS

Both large and small placed in our Savings Department during the first five days of any month will draw

INTEREST

can Cigar Co. has and is carrying on ly by merit of its reference of cigar use it knows how st cigars, has the aking them, and them.

make them you e with a critical y of these brands r the "A" (Tri-

The NEW MO Cigar—5c.

f giving improved values at r new scientific methods of quality that can be produced the average $ for 25c cigar. ig any brand bearing the "A" riangle A) merit x is our guarantee.

dealers who give values

igar Company

.00

HOME BANK and book or with the book

EPARTMENT OF

L BANK

THREE AND ONE-HALF PER CENT PER ly.

F. MANNY, Cashier.

WELL, Asst. Cashier.

Igar Company
Manufacturer

HOME BANK and book or with the book DEPARTMENT OF AL BANK
THREE AND ONE-HALF PER CENT PER
W. F. MARRY, Cashier.
ELL. Asst. Cashier.

BOWDEN LITHIA WATER is dispensed from our attractive coolers. When you ask for BOWDEN LITHIA WATER see that you get it.

'S ADDRESS TO NORTHWEST GA.

Henry, of Rome, is one of the leading candidates, the primary to select a candidate judge of the superior court of the Rome of the best known lawyers in Georgia. of the Rome circuit and will receive an vote, and will get a large vote wherever it is people of northeast Georgia.
"ROME, Ga., Oct. 2, 1906.
"ROMA:
it the primary election to be held on the court of appeals.
a race like this, covering the entire state, it is utterly impossible to make a by writing them letters. So I take this respectfully soliciting the votes of the good, ved and whom I served for many years on count, but the three men who have the the whole state, will be the nominees. urge that each of you not only go to the neighbors and friends to do so and vote nices, and for your constitutional amend- his court which will be second in its im- Georgia?
population, in character second to none in equal to one-fourth of the entire white representative on the supreme court bench plendid section of the state is now entitled is bench.
Sincerely yours,
W. M. HENRY.

"The Daylight Corner."

How Good It Feels

to wear a suit of clothes and an overcoat that t you at every point. You enjoy this sensation when you have on a suit or overcoat made by L. Adler, Bros. & Co., Rochester, N. Y., which is not only as comfortable but stylish as one made-to-order, costing twice as much money.

We have complete line of the new models or fall and winter. Let us show them to you explain why they are the best clothes in the world. Prices $15 to $40.
it's correct you'll find it here.
Everything in Apparel for Men from Hats to Shoes.

Eiseman & Weil

enthusiastic support given him from every section of the state.
We reprint below several clippings, showing how his candidacy is being received in different parts of the state:
Hon. Bartow Willingham.
McDuffie Journal.
It may not be generally known, but McDuffie county has a candidate for one of the three positions on the new court of appeals, and the indications are that he will be one of the successful contestants.
Hon. Bartow Willingham, of McDuffie county, who has entered the race, is an old McDuffie boy who had won fame and fortune in his adopted county. He has had many positions of honor and trust conferred upon him by the people of McDuffie county, and in addition to this stands at the head of the legal profession in his section of the state and is well qualified for the position he seeks. A primary election has been called to be held on the same day the state election is held to nominate three justices for the court of appeals, and we believe that the voters of McDuffie county will give Mr. Willingham a very large majority in his old home county.

Col. B. S. Willingham.
From the Rome Tribune:
Colonel B. S. Willingham, of Forsyth, Ga., is in our city shaking hands with his friends, and he wants everybody to be his friend just now, and at all times in fact, but he is engaged in widely extending his circle of friends and acquaintances on this particular visit, as he is a candidate for appellate judge, if we have any. And why not? He is a fine fellow and would make a good one.

Hon. B. S. Willingham.
From the Golden Age:
One of the prominent men before the people of Georgia now is Hon. B. S. Willingham of Forsyth. He has announced himself for a place on the bench in the court of appeals to be established by the present legislature, and while the Golden Age is not a political paper and is intended to be a servant, especially of the whole south, we count it wholly within the province of this publication to commend in Georgia and everywhere else any man for any position, political or otherwise, when that man has such a record for moral bravery and Christian statesmanship as Bartow S. Willingham has made both in private life and public endeavor.
As author of the famous Willingham bill—one of the strongest temperance measures ever offered to the people of Georgia—he won not only a state-wide, but almost a national, reputation. His able advocacy of that bill proved that he was a man of superior strength and unflinching courage. An able lawyer with a varied course of mind and a refreshingly recondant conscience, he blends the judicial abilities as few men do.
We do not know how many good men are going to offer for the court of appeals, but we believe that one of the three places ought to be filled and will be filled by Hon. Bartow S. Willingham; for the whole state recognizes the fact that he would meet the demands of this highly responsible position with distinction to himself, honor to the judiciary and inspi-

of the highest respect and esteem of all who know him. Georgia has few men who have his high political integrity, and the Times-Recorder takes great pleasure in commending him to the voters of this section. Mr. Willingham has a high appreciation of the responsibility of the office, and the ethics of the situation will preclude him entering into any combination. He should be elected to this office without a scramble. No man deserves better the position than does Bartow S. Willingham, of Monroe.

From the Milledgeville News.
When that state appellate court is established—if ratified by the voters at the next election—good men and not politicians should be put on the bench. Our friend, Col. B. S. Willingham, of Forsyth, would make a good one to draw two more to.

From The Athens Banner.
COLONEL WILLINGHAM, OF FORSYTH
Spent Yesterday in the City. — Is a Candidate For Judge of Court of Appeals.

Hon. B. S. Willingham, of Forsyth, spent yesterday in the city. Mr. Willingham is a candidate for one of the places as judge of the proposed court of appeals and has many friends throughout the state who are enthusiastic for him. Mr. Willingham lived in this city for a while and has many warm friends here who will give him their support. He is an able lawyer and well qualified to fill the office of judge.

From the Milledgeville Recorder.
Colonel B. S. Willingham, of Forsyth, was in the city this week circulating among his many friends. He is in the race and hopes to be elected one of the three judges of the proposed new appellate court of the state. He is a good fellow and is in every way qualified to fill the office. If the voters want to put the best men at the head of this new and necessary court they will include Colonel Willingham on their ticket as one of the three judges.

From Henry County Weekly.
Hon. B. S. Willingham, of Monroe county, is a candidate for one of the judgeships on the proposed court of appeals. Mr. Willingham is a man of fine intellect and fully equipped with the attainments necessary to successfully fill this important position. He is the only candidate from the Flint circuit, and should receive the solid support of Henry and other counties in the circuit.

Col. B. S. Willingham.
From the Monroe Advertiser:
Colonel B. S. Willingham has announced that he will be in the race for one of the places as judge of the court of appeals recently created by the legislature.
Colonel Willingham ranks as one of the ablest attorneys in Georgia. He has splendid executive ability and has represented his county in the legislature with credit. He has many supporters throughout Georgia, who will give every encouragement. Colonel Willingham has every reason to believe that his candidacy will meet with favor throughout the state and that he will be one of the successful aspirants.

From the Moultrie Observer:
Hon. Bartow S. Willingham, of Forsyth, was in this section a few days ago in the interest of his candidacy for one of the places on the appellate court. Mr. Willingham made a favorable impression upon south Georgians on this trip and received the warmest assurances of support on all sides.
His friends say that he will carry the middle section of the state almost solidly and they feel quite sure that he will be one of the winners for the appellate court judgeship.

Mr. Willingham is one of the ablest lawyers of the state and enjoys a lucrative practice, second to no lawyer in the Flint circuit. He has the endorsement of the bar of his circuit and the other counties in that section of the state where he has practiced his profession for more than twenty years. He is not a politician and has never been in politics further than to serve his county in the general assembly, where he pushed the Willingham prohibition bill to passage in the lower house of the assembly the first and only time that this measure has been passed. He has for several years been one of the most active temperance leaders in the state.
Mr. Willingham is a man with a judicial turn of mind and with his long experience at the bar and natural endowments and high character, he is de-

Values up to $20.00

DEPOSITS

Both large and small placed in our Savings Department during the first five days of any month will draw

INTEREST

From the first of that month. This interest is credited on the first of January, April, July and October—that is, at the rate of 3 1-2 per cent per annum.

Quarterly

Trust Company of Ga., Equitable Building

all over Georgia commend him to the voters of the state with the assurance that he is in every sense worthy of the high trust he seeks.

HARRY LE SUE WALKER
ARCHITECT
1731-23 Candler Bldg. Main 1734

Stillman's
Brass Doll's
75c
REGULAR
Value $1.50.
Exactly Like Out
This Doll Bed is 18 in. long bent brass rods. Has mattress coverings are made of beautifully flat, and each bed is girl's Christmas gift.
Special Wednesday only.
STILLMAN
Mail Orders Given Prompt Attention

THE ATLANTA

VOL. XXXIX—No. 81

ATLANTA, GA., TUESDAY MORNING

EVERYTHING CUT AND DRIED FOR THE STATE CONVENTION WHICH MEETS IN MACON TODAY

Action Has Been Settled in Advance on Every Matter Except the Court of Appeals.

RAILWAY COMMISSION WILL BE ASKED TO QUIT BY THE CONVENTION.

And It Is Hinted That Men Who Are Running Things Would Like for All Other Officials to Get Out—Great Crowd Present for Convention and Everybody in a Good Humor.

Macon, Ga., September 3.—(Special.)—They are all here from all parts of Georgia, and the lobby of the Hotel Lanier looks like it used to look around the old Kimball when there was a convention contest in sight.

Despite the fact that there is

THERE'S PERIL LURKING IN THE CONVENTION AIR FOR THE APPEALS COURT

It is Proposed for Convention to Reassemble to Name Candidates for Bench After Amendment is Ratified.

MACON, GA., September 3.—(Special.)—There is danger for the court of appeals bill lurking in the convention air.

It is confidently stated here that Mr. Smith and his friends will oppose any action on the part of the convention looking to the nomination of candidates for the court of appeals prior to the ratification of the constitutional amendment creating the court by the people.

It is generally conceded that if candidates were nominated by the convention tomorrow, prior to the ratification of the amendment, it would defeat the bill.

But another programme has been arranged, it is said, which, if carried out, may prove equally disastrous to the new court so much needed to relieve the supreme court of its heavy and overgrown burden.

It is stated the plan is not to name

candidates, but to pass a resolution providing that if the amendment providing for the court of appeals is ratified, the same convention which meets tomorrow to nominate Hoke Smith shall reassemble to nominate three candidates for the court of appeals.

The object of this, it is said, is to await the ratification of the amendment and then to nominate three partisan Hoke Smith men for the new court of appeals.

This programme has been freely discussed on the streets of Macon today, and there has been no little criticism of it.

"That's about the most strenuous ring politics possible," was the general comment.

The general opinion was that if this course is pursued it will result just as effectively in defeating the bill for the court of appeals as would nominations by the convention prior to the ratification of the amendment.

Everybody in a Good Humor.

Macon, Ga., September 3.—(Special.)—They are all here from all parts of Georgia, and the lobby of the Hotel Lanier looks like it used to look around the old Kimball when there was a convention contest in sight.

Despite the fact that there is nothing in the shape of a lively contest before the democratic state convention which assembles at noon tomorrow in the Macon auditorium, there are perhaps more people here longing for something to turn up than have gathered at a state convention under similar circumstances in years. There are plenty of them here who wish not only that every railroad commissioner would resign, but that every other state house officer and every county judge and solicitor would get out of the way and give them a chance, and yet good feeling is a drug on the market. Everybody seems to be in a good humor.

Practically every detail of the programme for tomorrow's convention appears to be outlined and there is little to talk about tonight outside of the question of the state court of appeals. That seems to be the subject that is agitating every one's mind more than anything else, and that is the only question upon which there appears to be any doubt as to what the convention will do. It is definitely settled that the convention will not nominate candidates for the court of appeals in advance of the ratification of the constitutional amendment, but will adjourn to meet subject to the call of the chair for the purpose of nominating candidates after the amendment has been ratified. That is the question that is agitating many of the candidates and their friends here tonight. Friends of the court of appeals are here in large numbers and some fifteen or twenty or twenty-five of the candidates for the bench of that court are also electioneering with the delegates to the convention, for they believe that the same convention is to be called to make nominations. They generally express the fear that such action by the convention will endanger the court of appeals bill, but they are all first and foremost for the establishment of the court and practically all of the candidates are putting that above their personal ambition.

The Platform.

Next to the court of appeals the platform is perhaps occupying most attention, and there is considerable curiosity as to what it will have to say. It is generally known here that the platform was prepared and brought to Macon by Editor James R. Gray, of The Journal, who will be chairman of the platform and resolutions committee, subject to such changes as the committee may demand. It is currently talked that the platform will in a general way deal with practically all the reforms which Hon. Hoke Smith has demanded in the course of his campaign. It is said it will demand full government regulation of railroads and of the trusts and will endorse Bryan for president. It is also understood that the platform will demand a reduction of interstate rates, will demand the port rate and will practically call on the members of the present state railroad commission to resign.

Of course it will have a disfranchisement plank, there is no doubt on that score, but it is believed it will be set forth in very general terms. In fact Mr.

bill. But another programme has been arranged. It is said, which, if carried out, may prove equally disastrous to the new court so much needed to relieve the supreme court of its heavy and overgrown burden.

It is stated the plan is not to name politicians possible, was the general comment.

The general opinion was that if this course is pursued it will result just as effectively in defeating the bill for the court of appeals as would nominations by the convention prior to the ratification of the amendment.

THREE INJURED WHEN BIG AUTO HIT STREET CAR 45 WAR SHIPS ARE REVIEWED BY ROOSEVELT

C. E. Currier's Car Torn to Pieces in Collision Yesterday. President Reviews Greatest American Fleet Ever Assembled.

FRIGHTENED NEGRO WOMAN WAS CAUSE OF ACCIDENT EIGHT NATIONS' ATTACHES WITNESS GREAT ENSEMBLE

Trying to dodge a frightened negro woman on Peachtree road late yesterday afternoon, C. E. Currier, president of the

CHARLES E. CURRIER
Who Was Hurt in Auto Smash Yesterday.

Atlanta National bank, drove his speeding Franklin into an incoming street car, three people being badly bruised as a result of the accident.

Oyster Bay, September 3.—Under skies that broke brilliantly blue before a whistling westerly gale, which swept down Long Island sound and blew out to sea, the clouds and tempestuous rain which this morning threatened to immeasurable mar the spectacle President Roosevelt today, within hailing distance of his summer home, reviewed the most magnificent naval fleet ever assembled under the American flag. Forty-five of the most splendid types of fighting vessels afloat lay at anchor in three columns as the navy yacht Mayflower, which just a year ago was written into history as the meeting ground of the peace plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan, passed up and down the lanes, the president an applauding spectator on the bridge.

The Mayflower's journey was made amid a continuous boom of saluting cannon and gun after gun spoke the navy's honor to the commander-in-chief of all America's military forces.

Distinguished Guests.

President Roosevelt had as his guests on board the Mayflower the secretary of the navy and several other government officials, members of the senate and house committee on naval affairs and the naval attaches of eight of the powers of the world. There was something of an object lesson in this gathering of a representative array of the American navy, about one-third of the fighting forces being in the review.

When the parade of the Mayflower was over and the president had looked with critical eye at each of the flag-dressed vessels, his yacht came to anchor and he received on board the commanding officers of the fleet. Then followed a gala luncheon at which

HC

Killing ha

SLAYE LEA

E. G. I. Playf Lin

In a t er make of Aug night: I maker, catur st Hospital The terr out the anyone. capped o'clock I and boat that pla About C. Oury, bom and makers were gat front of Fentall's hands of

...many of the candidates and their friends here tonight. Friends of the court of appeals are here in large numbers and some fifteen or twenty or twenty-five of the candidates for the bench of that court are also questioning with the delegates to the convention, for they believe that the same convention is to be called to make nominations. They generally express the fear that such action by the convention will endanger the court of appeals bill, but they are all first and foremost for the establishment of the court and practically all of the candidates are putting that above their personal ambition.

The Platform.

Next to the court of appeals the platform is perhaps occupying most attention, and there is considerable curiosity as to what it will have to say. It is generally known here that the platform was prepared and brought to Macon by Editor James R. Gray, of The Journal, who will be chairman of the platform and resolutions committee, subject to such changes as the committee may demand. It is currently talked that the platform will in a general way deal with practically all the reforms which Hon. Hoke Smith has demanded in the course of his campaign. It is said it will demand full government regulation of railroads and of the trusts and will endorse Bryan for president. It is also understood that the platform will demand a reduction of interstate rates, will demand the Port rate and will practically call on the members of the present state railroad commission to resign.

Of course it will have a disfranchisement plank, there is no doubt on that score, but it is believed it will be set forth in very general terms. In fact Mr. Smith himself has presented no specific plank on this subject, leaving it to be worked out.

Knowing ones say the platform will call for elimination from the councils of the party of all who are connected with corporations or special interests of any kind and again that there will be a demand for the South Carolina primary plan, which eliminates the convention and calls for running the race over between the two highest candidates.

Place for Hooper Alexander.

Chairman A. L. Miller, of the convention of tomorrow will not make an extended speech; he has practically stated he would leave that to Congressman T. W. Hardwick, of the tenth, as temporary chairman. While Mr. Hardwick will be temporary chairman he will not, he said tonight, accept the vice-chairmanship of the state convention. Mr. Hardwick, it is stated, was tendered the chairmanship of the convention, but declined it. While he accepted the temporary chairmanship he declined to become even a member of the state committee, he says, and will urge that Hooper Alexander, of DeKalb, be made vice-chairman.

Quite a number of state house officials who will be renominated at tomorrow's convention are here tonight talking with

Continued on Page Two.

WAS CAUSE OF ACCIDENT WITNESS GREAT ENSEMBLE

Trying to dodge a frightened negro woman on Peachtree road late yesterday afternoon, C. E. Currier, president of the

CHARLES E. CURRIER Who Was Hurt in Auto Smash Yesterday.

Atlanta National bank, drove his speeding Franklin into an incoming street car, three people being badly bruised as a result of the accident.

C. E. Currier was cut on the face, a long deep slit from lips to chin, receiving bruises in addition. Mrs. Jack Cutler, of Macon, Ga., was thrown from the auto and severely bruised, but it is not believed that her injuries will prove serious. Hugh Foreman was cut across the left eye, but was not tossed from the machine. Jack Cutler, Jr., was sent flying through the air, but was not hurt. The only uninjured one in the machine was the dog "Dry."

According to Hugh Foreman, who was in the car, the accident happened in front of the home of T. L. Seely, out on Peachtree road. The auto was going at the rate of some 15 miles and hour when it hit the incoming car.

Mr. Foreman says that a negro woman was on the street getting ready to take the street car for town. Seeing the fast coming machine and the street car at the same time she was frightened and did not know just which way to move and in her anxiety to get out of the way got into the way. As a result Mr. Currier, who was doing the driving, dodged her, but struck the street car while doing so.

The mobile was a complete wreck after the accident. The handsome Franklin was torn all to pieces, the front of it being particularly damaged.

Mrs. Cutler is the wife of Jack Cutler, of Macon, one of the best known men in that city and in the state. He is the general freight agent of the Georgia Southern and Florida road. Before her marriage to Mr. Cutler Mrs. Cutler was Miss Bell, the daughter of Mrs. Emma Bell, of 228 Peachtree street.

Oyster Bay, September 3—Under skies that broke brilliantly blue before a whistling westerly gale, which swept down Long Island sound and blew out to sea, the clouds and tempestuous rain which this morning threatened to immeasurable mar the spectacle—President Roosevelt today, within hailing distance of his summer home, reviewed the most magnificent naval fleet ever assembled under the American flag. Forty-five of the most splendid types of fighting vessels afloat lay at anchor in three columns as the naval yacht Mayflower, which just a year ago was written into history as the meeting ground of the peace plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan, passed up and down the lanes, the president an applauding spectator on the bridge.

The Mayflower's journey was made amid a continuous boom of saluting cannon and gun after gun spoke the navy's honor to the commander-in-chief of all America's military forces.

Distinguished Guests.

President Roosevelt had as his guests on board the Mayflower the secretary of the navy and several other government officials, members of the senate and house committee on naval affairs and the naval attaches of eight of the powers of the world. There was something of an object lesson in this gathering of a representative array of the American navy, about one-third of the fighting forces being in the review.

When the parade of the Mayflower was over and the president had looked with critical eye at each of the big-dressed vessels, his yacht came to anchor and he received on board the commanding officers of the fleet. Then followed a gala luncheon at which the officers, the government officials, the attaches, senators and congressmen were guests together with a number of the personal friends of the president.

Flanking the war vessels which glistened in purest white under the direct rays of the sun and against a low-lying bank of the sound of sorm-black clouds along the horizon, was the greatest fleet of private yachts, small boats and pleasure craft probably that has ever been drawn together in such a small compass. Each of these was decorated with signal flags from stem and stern and added materially in the painting of a marine spectacle unparalleled in the history of the American people.

Boom of Many Guns.

This was the stirring scene which greeted the president as the Mayflower steamed out from Oyster Bay shortly after 11 o'clock. It was just 20 minutes past that hour when the rowing yacht came within range of the flagship Maine, which stood at the head of the center column of the fleet. There came a flash of flame and a puff of gray smoke from the starboard, saluting cannon of the flagship, which was the signal for the other vessels to join in a unanimous salute of twenty-one guns. It required twenty minutes for the Mayflower to run down the first lane. Then she put about and came up on the outer edge of the most westerly column of the ships. Reaching the head of the column again the Mayflower turned once more to the west and took a tour outside the torpedo boat line, coming eastward to the Maine's position once more and then east anchor.

Politician Suicides.

Sedalia, Mo., September 3.—W. F. Hansberger, a member of the city council, and a prominent democratic politician, killed himself at his home today.

IN GEORGIA"

PRIMARY FOR NEW JUDGES TO BE CALLED OCTOBER 3

State Committee, It Is Said, Will Take That Action Wednesday--Meeting of Candidates Held, But No Action Taken--State Capitol Gossip.

THE new state democratic executive committee will meet at the Piedmont hotel, in Atlanta, next Wednesday at noon, under call issued by Chairman A. L. Miller, of Macon, for the purpose of taking action regarding the nomination of candidates for the state court of appeals.

There appears to be no doubt about the fact that the state committee will call a primary for nominations for judges of the court of appeals to be held October 3, the same day as the regular state election. This was practically announced as a fact yesterday by parties who assert they are in a position to know something about what will be done.

It is stated the executive committee will make a request of the managers in the regular election to keep separate boxes for this primary, and the expense, which under these circumstances will be small, will doubtless be borne by the candidates.

The amendment creating the state court of appeals will, it is expected, be ratified in the general election on the same day. Then the nominees for judges of the court of appeals will be regularly elected at the election for congressmen, which will take place early in November.

Candidates Take No Action.

Fourteen of the twenty-five or more candidates for judgeships on the state court of appeals met in the library of the state supreme court yesterday, in response to call, and, after variously discussing the matter for about an hour, adjourned without taking any action.

It was, as one of those present remarked, a unique meeting. Seldom have opposing candidates for an office met in convention to determine upon some agreeable and harmonious course of action, for that was considered to be the object of the meeting, both as to the proposed constitutional amendment and as to the method of nominating candidates.

The views of those present were found to be somewhat conflicting and after day will be payable on the next business day.

To Elect New Colonel.

The officers of the Third infantry regiment will elect a new colonel and two new majors at an election to be held tomorrow night in Augusta, the headquarters of the regiment. Captain John D. Twigg will be chosen colonel of the regiment, but the names of the two new majors who will be elected at that time have not yet been made public. The new officers were nominated for these positions by Colonel W. G. Obeir, inspector general of state troops, who has had charge of the reorganization of the regiment.

Mark Johnston Thanks Friends.

Hon. Mark Johnston, in the following card, thanks those who supported him in the recent state primary:

"Editor Constitution: Adequate words fail when I would express my appreciation, my gratitude, to the 59,961 democrats who supported me in the late primary. To know that practically 70,000 men, citizens of my native state, the biggest half of whom know me personally, are still blind to my faults overwhelms me, and all that I can say will ever appear to me but a feeble response to their kindness.

"Two defeats are inclined to cause one to be skeptical as to one's chances for success; an unhappy state of affairs, truly, and at a critical point in my political life, when above all else, I need tranquility. However, the matter may be amicably arranged, I may meet with success; I may be happy yet two years hence, and happily this is my belief, this is my judgment, as my vote of 1906 is nearly double that of 1902. But the looking back over it all is frightful and so irremediable; I feel as if I had traveled over miles and miles of desert earth.

"Now that the days have scattered the cobwebs, which for a time obstructed my clear perceptions, I am surprised at the enigmatic inscrutable dexterity so adroitly and secretly employed in trimming my sails by these modern political geniuses, the gentlemen of the great New England book trust. But I will not cavil. I will

Hon. Turns at Last.

I all a part--
at last!
hat taken the valley are as of rest where no rude all that.

are God's and the rest is

I turns at last!

I.
and the blast--
d turns at last!
it have wounded the sor-

beautiful roses of rest:
the best--it was all for

I turns at last.

II.

are overcast-- ns at last!
deep sorrow seems-- of desolate dreams:

heraldy over us streams--
d turns at last!

From Georgia.

that shelters. Love may enough to reach around rt hitch your wagon to a tent to let the old mule lath on the way.

no a wilderness of woe.
umping room on the

they open the life-windows you, and save up a little e stormy days.

Halleluia Way.

I.

elievers,
lella way,

of

o' the day,
ose the sorrow
d times stay--

ellars,
ella way!

II.

believers,
alleluia way,
ar of break' o' the day, don lose the sorrow
and times stay-- ers,
alleluia way!

I.
believers,
alleluia way,
oo hear the music
ange play;
as ar shinin'
light of day-- believers,
alleluia way!

...
s from Billville.
st a white in our fields as souls of us ought to be.
true our office last week,
Mr. a new county, just said in the paper, "We are e a site for a new library.

ster's Unabridged Diction-to Mr. Carnegie now to ver the dictionary.
nces were granted in our and one man who had was sent to the asy-
a naturally belongs.

...
New Version.
I. swiftered Jonah
ex kin be,
say: "I done terday-- ag we wid me!"

II.
de battle,
un er stay;
no electric lights dat time hit on de way!"

III.
ch de chillun,
courage fail,
all sum Jonah,
lso 'um de whale!

...
d After Meeting.
Eber Williams," said an lat you preach 'um de Bi-in "er'body could see you sids down?"
Quire too close into de rovidence," replied Brother
d much I'll tell you: No ou look at de Bible, hit's a roun!"

adjourned without taking any action.
It was, as one of those present remarked, a unique meeting. Seldom have opposing candidates for an office met in convention to determine upon some agreeable and harmonious course of action, for that was considered to be the object of the meeting, both as to the proposed constitutional amendment and
as to the method of nominating candidates.

The views of those present were found to be somewhat conflicting, and, after several propositions had been made and rejected, it was finally decided, upon motion of Ben Hill, to adjourn, thus leaving the matter exactly where it stood before the meetings, so far as
the candidates are concerned.

There was one thing upon which the candidates present were unanimous, and
that was that the constitutional amendment providing for the new court should be ratified. Individually, each of those present pledged his support to the amendment, and stated he would do all possible to influence friends and acquaintances to vote for it.

Judge A. L. Miller, of Macon, chairman
of the state democratic executive committee, though invited, was not present
at the meeting. He sent the following letter, which explains itself:

"Macon, Ga., September 7, 1906.—
Logan Bleckley, Esq., Atlanta, Ga. My
Dear Bleckley: Your letter of the 5th
only reached me this morning, on account of my absence at Tom Felder's convention yesterday morning, and my spending the evening in Atlanta. In reply, I beg to say that I cannot be in Atlanta tomorrow as requested, to attend the proposed meeting of candidates for the court of appeals.

"Let me say, however, that if the gentlemen who meet together on that occasion desire to make any suggestions to the state committee, and will reduce the same to writing, it will give me great pleasure to present the same to the committee upon its assembling next Wednesday in Atlanta. With sincere regards, I am, faithfully yours,

"A. L. MILLER."
This letter was read at the meeting, but no action being taken, the whole matter is left to the state committee to do with it as it sees fit.

Following are those who were present at the meeting: Ben H. Hill, Atlanta; Judge A. G. Powell, Blakely; Judge D.
M. Roberts, Eastman; B. S. Willingham,
Forsyth; Judge P. P. Proffitt, Elberton;
Judge W. R. Hammond, Atlanta;
Thomas F. Green, Athens; Judge C. J.
James, Cedartown; T. J. Chappell, Columbus; Frank Harwell, LaGrange; E. P.
Davis, Warrenton; N. C. Peoples, Atlanta; Judge M. S. Henry, Rome, and Judge Fred C. Foster, Madison.

The Gordon Monument.
Upon the return of Governor Terrell from New York it has been decided to call a meeting of the John B. Gordon Manument Association for the purpose of taking active steps to complete the work of erecting an equestrian statue nerally double that of 1902. But the looking back over it all is frightful and so irremediable; I feel as if I had traveled

over miles and miles of desert earth.

"Now that the days have scattered the cobwebs, which for a time obstructed my clear perceptions, I am stupefied at the enigmatic inscrutable dexterity so adroitly and secretly employed in trimming my
sails by these modern political geniuses,
the gentlemen of the great New England
book trust. But I will not cavil, I will not wall. Rebellion on my part shall not enter here, although the gentlemen
of the great trust set their nefarious
plans to defeat me, secretly, in the dark places, as preying vultures, unworthy of
the light, build their obscure nests in deep dusky caverns; yet I will not revolt.

"To be a party to any disturbance, to jeopardize the present tranquillity would be a crime; but for the 70,000 friends who supported me, the wise 70,000, my heart will never fail to pulse sympathetically.

MARK JOHNSTON.
Atlanta, Ga., September 8, 1906."

Railroad Commission.

The state railroad commission will hold its next regular meeting on Wednesday
next, September 12. At that time, so far as is now known, the only questions of interest to be considered are the rates on marble from the north Georgia quarries,
and the complaint of the people of Boston, Ga., who have asked for lower freight rates, claiming the right to the rates given Quitman and points similarly situated. While none of the commissioners have said anything about it, it is pretty well settled that none of them will comply with the request of the recent state convention that they tender their resignations.

Weaver Declines.

J. Calvin Weaver, of Thomaston, has written the adjutant general's office declining to accept the position of second assistant surgeon of the Second infantry regiment on account of a lack of time to devote to its duties. No appointment has yet been made to fill the vacancy.

New Company in Georgia.

The Dixie Fire Insurance Company, of Greensboro, N. C., a new company in the field, has entered Georgia for the purpose of doing business in the state. This company, in accordance with law, today deposited $10,000 in bonds as a guarantee fund with State Treasurer R. E. Park.

.....
LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
.....

Moore Memorial Chapel.

Editor Constitution: It was my privilege to be present last Wednesday as an invited guest at the dedication of the Moore Memorial chapel at the Methodist Orphans' home in Decatur.
While I have been a very frequent visitor and a friend to the home since

PRIMARY FOR JUDGES CALLED FOR OCTOBER 3

No Single-Shotting Allowed and Candidates Must Tell What They Spend.

STATE COMMITTEE NAMES
C. H. HALL, JR. SECRETARY

Committee Pronounced Against Use of Money in Elections—Will Not Accept Proxies at Future Meetings—Absent Members Must Explain.

A primary election for the nomination of three judges of the new court of appeals will be held on October 3, along with the regular election for statehouse officials, in which primary no "single shotting" of candidates will be allowed, and as a result of which no candidate can be declared the nominee of the democratic party until he has first filed with the chairman of the state executive committee an affidavit showing in detail his expenses in making the race and where he got the money.

Such, in brief, was the action of the state democratic executive committee at its meeting held in the convention hall of the Piedmont hotel yesterday at noon.

The resolution providing for the primary was introduced by Reuben Arnold, of Atlanta, one of the committeemen at large, and was finally adopted as amended, after considerable discussion.

Committee Is Organized.

More than three fourths of the new state executive committee were present at the first meeting. In addition the names of all candidates for said three offices, and no ticket shall be counted by the managers of the election if either more or less than three candidates are voted for, the intention of this resolution being to prevent single-shotting of candidates.

"Be it further resolved, That each candidate whose name shall be placed upon the ticket shall make such deposit and comply with such requirements as the subcommittee to which the matter of arranging the details of said election is left shall require.

"Be it further resolved, That the ticket to be voted at said election shall contain the names of all the candidates who have entered their names with the subcommittee to be appointed by the chair, and that the voters shall strike from it the names of every candidate except the three intended to be voted for.

"Be it further resolved, That the chair appoint a committee of five to arrange all details of said election not covered by this resolution, and arrange for the assessment upon the candidates to pay the expenses of said election, of which committee the chairman of this committee shall be ex officio chairman.

Must Tell What They Spend.

"Be it further resolved, That no candidate shall be declared to be the nominee of the party at this election until he files with the chairman of this committee an affidavit setting forth a detailed statement of the amount of money expended in his race, from what source the money came, and in detail how it was expended.

Against Use of Money.

The following resolution by N. A. Morris, of Cobb, was unanimously adopted without discussion:

"We hereby declare our purpose to faithfully enforce the provisions of the platform adopted by our democratic state convention on September 4, prohibiting the use of money or other thing of value to employ workers at the polls, or in advance of the election, as well as the buying or selling of votes.

"And it is furthermore directed that no man shall be eligible to be declared the nominee of the democratic party in Georgia for any office where it is made to appear that in connection with his candidacy, he has violated the provisions hereinbefore set forth."

Letters from two of the candidates, Judge Howard Van Epps, of Atlanta, and Judge P. P. Proffitt of Elberton, making suggestions as to the manner of conducting the primary, were read for the information of the committee.

Committee to Send Out Form.

Assistant to the N. J., its team contests went to following gratified

Burplitt,
Atlanta,
given by the New for the at 600
immunimedal, mg with itt and national ade ten e of 50.

money,
and sec-for the not being ar with knew it sergeant ted for.

de what "an 11
just on or Row-y Jersey levation

o range made a medal.

Colonel
ed after result of hoped, but a detained in Ohio, xious to available ill there

at the Harris opposition years of 10

Harris
position kers of and quar-
Jr., ta.
un-
lib. con.
Harbol,
ry, Au-
Sanford,
gia vol-my, and
y. state en com-three at son, Eis. It is will be ye been nt Gen-ls, comannah.
on, com-lek, Ga. y to fill riculture repent
a Satur-rpose of ission of he cattle as been man of mmittee, er which
of the
Dr. L. on counsolation ther one
r. If the
r. Hard-the leg-
i session
id heard Boston, tes, and Georgia
luced on ere con-
the esterday arter of under its cap-00.

More than three fourths of the new state executive committee were present at this, the first meeting. In addition to this the appearance of about fifteen out of the twenty candidates for judgeships on the new court of appeals, and candidates for other offices, created a lively scene in the lobby of the hotel, just before the meeting.

Hon. Hoke Smith met and mingled among the members of the committee, but did not attend the meeting.

The committee was called to order at noon by Judge A. L. Miller, of Macon, chairman.

Hall Permanent Secretary.

H. H. Cabanis, of Atlanta, was, on motion of Hooper Alexander, selected as secretary. But later just before the meeting adjourned Mr. Cabanis resigned the position as secretary, and Charles H. Hall, Jr., of Macon, law partner of Congressman Bartlett, was elected permanently to that position.

There was a good quorum of the committee present and it soon got down to business.

Reuben Arnold, of Atlanta, introduced the resolution providing for the primary for judges of the new court of appeals on October 3, and providing for the appointment of a subcommittee of five to arrange for the details of this primary.

Sid Holderness, of Carroll, and R. L. Greer, of Macon county, objected to holding the primary on the same day on which the amendment is to be submitted to the people for ratification, on the ground that such action would have a tendency to defeat the amendment.

This objection was overruled by other members on the ground that this is the only time at which it can be expeditiously and satisfactorily done, and especially because of the great expense, something like $20,000, attached to holding a primary in Georgia.

Boykin Wright, of Richmond, offered an amendment, which was accepted, providing the machinery for making the returns of the primary and declaring the result.

After further brief discussion the primary resolution was then adopted by practically unanimous vote.

The Primary Resolution.

The Arnold resolution providing for the court of appeals primary, complete as amended, is as follows:

"Be it resolved by the democratic executive committee of the state of Georgia. That on the 3d day of October, 1906, a primary election be held by the democratic party of the state for the nomination of three judges for the proposed court of appeals. The qualification of voters shall be that defined in the platform of the party as fixed by the recent convention at Macon.

"Be it further resolved, That the subcommittee of five hereunder appointed shall confer with the several democratic conducting the primary, were read for the information of the committee.

Committee to Send Out Form.

After some discussion started by Hooper Alexander, of DeKalb, as to the source of the funds to pay for the printing of the democratic ticket to be used in the regular election, Chairman Miller stated that the committee would simply send out a form of democratic ticket to the chairman of each county committee and that all tickets to be used in the regular election in each county would be furnished as heretofore by the candidates for local offices.

Mr. Alexander also offered a resolution condemning the practice of assessing candidates for state house offices by county committees, and providing that such assessments should be prohibited. After brief discussion, in which it was shown that assessments were only made for primaries, and were usually ignored by the candidates, Mr. Alexander's resolution was killed.

Amendments on Ticket.

H. H. Dean, of Hall, who held the proxy of Howard Thompson, moved that the constitutional amendment providing for a state court of appeals, be declared a party measure, and that only the provision "for" such amendment be printed on the democratic ticket.

Mr. Morris, of Cobb, and others, declared that such action would be unfair to a large number of democrats who opposed this and other constitutional amendments, and that they should be given a chance to vote on either side of the question.

The committee then adopted Mr. Morris' substitute providing that the democratic ticket shall contain both sides of each constitutional amendment, or both "for" and "against" the amendments.

No Proxies Hereafter.

Several proxies were presented at the meeting, and those holding them were allowed to participate in the deliberations. But just before the close of the meeting a resolution by Mr. Alexander was adopted, providing that hereafter no proxies will be accepted at meetings of the committee. The resolution provided that not only must the members attend in person, but if any member is absent from two consecutive meetings without good excuse, his resignation is considered offered.

Henry Greene, of Chatham, presented a lengthy petition asking the state committee to take up the contest for solicitor general of the Atlantic circuit, in behalf of Livingston Kenan, who claims that N. J. Norman was not legally nominated. This question was settled by the state convention at Macon in favor of Mr. Norman, and after a lengthy discussion of the petition presented by Mr. Greene, the committee decided by unanimous vote that it had no jurisdiction to deal with the matter.

HAZING CAUSES DISMISSAL.

ruce on re con-by the yesterday
er of nder ap-10. by the t of the
W. H.
s ago.
senator-ict, and were he state

yesterday
of the d Amos month

EETS.
Meets 15 ociation ution

The
the ion will
ng. At ard will utine of follow-
Atlanta,
Wilson,
Hous-

Nogales"
in Prem-feridian,
King,
delphia,
racts" nists of the W.
J. B. stanced.

ria. That on the 3d day of October, 1906, a primary election be held by the democratic party of the state for the nomination of three judges for the proposed court of appeals. The qualification of voters shall be that defined in the platform of the party as fixed by the recent convention at Macon.

"Be it further resolved, That the subcommittee of five hereunder appointed shall confer with the several democratic county executive committees to the end that the election managers who shall at the various precincts in the state hold the election for the ratification or the rejection of the proposed amendment to the constitution, creating the court of appeals, shall at the same time and in a different box, hold a primary election for the three judges of the court of appeals.

Declaration of Result.

"The places and hours for holding such primary election shall be the same as those fixed for general elections. At the close of the election the managers shall proceed publicly to count the votes for said judges and declare the results.

"They shall certify the result of said election and transmit the following day such certificate with the tally sheet or poll list together with the ballots cast and all other papers relating to such primary elections to the democratic executive committee of the county, which shall meet at noon the day after the election in the court house to consolidate and declare the returns.

"The chairman of the county democratic committee shall then forthwith certify and transmit the said consolidated vote of the county to the secretary of the state executive committee, who, with the state chairman, shall count and consolidate the votes of the several counties of the state and declare the result not later than — days after said election.

"If in any instances, the regular election managers will not agree to serve, then the subcommittees hereunder appointed shall on the said day through the committee hold the election with managers of its own selection in such precincts in which the regular election managers will not serve.

Plurality Rule to Govern.

"Be it further resolved, That at said primary election the three candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared the nominees of the democratic party for such positions, as judge of the court of appeals. We depart from the majority rule in this instance only because of the short time elapsing between the primary and election, and the great expense and inconvenience to the voters of holding a separate primary for judges of the court of appeals alone, disconnected with any other election.

No "Single-Shotting."

"Be it further resolved, That the tickets to be voted at said election shall contain

N. J. Norman was not legally nominated. This question was decided by the state convention at Macon in favor of Mr. Norman, and after a lengthy discussion of the petition presented by Mr. Greene, the committee decided, by unanimous vote that it had no jurisdiction to deal with the matter.

HAZING CAUSES DISMISSAL.

Student Dropped by University of Alabama.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., September 12.—(Special.)—A firm stand has been taken by the university faculty on the question of hazing, and the determination to stamp out the so-called evil is most pronounced. A member of the sophomore class was this morning dismissed on his own admission of this offense, and according to President Abercrombie the same punishment will be meted out to all others who are found guilty of hazing the new students.

Rev. M. A. Jenkins Is Called.

Dublin, Ga., September 12.—(Special.)—The Baptists of this city are afraid that they will lose their pastor, Rev. M. A. Jenkins, he having been called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Hopkinsville, Ky. He is now at Asheville, N. C., taking his vacation, and it is not known whether or not he is seriously considering accepting the call. Mr. Jenkins is greatly beloved by the members of his flock and by the people of the city generally, and it is the universal wish of all that he will decline the call.

Steamship Hanover at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., September 12.—(Special.)—The second largest merchant vessel that has ever visited this port to receive a cargo is the German-American steamship Hanover, which has just arrived with a cargo of kaint, part of which is to be discharged here and the rest at Charleston. The ship is 427 feet long and draws 25 1-2 feet when she entered this port. She has accommodations for passengers, unlike the Mississippi, which was the largest vessel ever to visit Savannah.

Forming Alumni Clubs.

Athens, Ga., September 12.—(Special.)—A movement has been started for the organization of alumni clubs among the graduates of this department throughout the state and it is the intention of the department to bring them into permanent and highly beneficial organizations. Tomorrow in this city the local graduates of the law school will meet and begin the organization of the first club in the system that is to be organized throughout the state.

POLLS OPEN WEDNESDAY FOR REGULAR ELECTION

Establishment of New Court of Appeals Will Be Submitted to Voters.

THREE CONTESTS OFFERED TO VOTERS OF FULTON

Sixteen Candidates in Race for Election to New Court—S. G. McLendon and T. C. Crenshaw Are Running for Railroad Commissioner.

At 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, October 3, the polls will open in the eight wards in Atlanta and close at 7 o'clock in the evening, and in the country precincts will open at 8 o'clock in the morning and close at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, for the regular state election.

State house officers, from governor down through the list, are to be elected, each of them having been nominated by the state democratic convention held at Macon, pursuant to the vote cast in the primary election of August 22 last.

The entire state house ticket is without opposition with the single exception of the nominee for railroad commissioner, S. G. McLendon, who is opposed by T. C.
Crenshaw, and is running as an independent candidate. Mr. McLendon was nominated on the floor of the convention as the democratic nominee to succeed Joseph M. Brown, railroad commissioner, whose term of office expires on October 15, 1907. Judge A. L. Miller, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, declined to print Mr. Crenshaw's name on the official ballot.

For Treasurer—Robert E. Park.
For Attorney General—John C. Hart.
For Commissioner of Agriculture—T. G.
Hudson.
For State School Commissioner—W.
B. Merritt.
For Prison Commissioner—Clement A.
Evans.
For Railroad Commissioner—S. G. Mc-Lendon.

For Chief Justice of Supreme Court for Unexpired Term, Ending January 1, 1911—William H. Fish.

For Associate Justice of Supreme Court for Unexpired Term, Ending January 1, 1911—Marcus W. Beck.

For Two Associate Justices of Supreme Court for Unexpired Terms, Each Ending January 1, 1907—Samuel C. Atkinson, Joseph H. Lumpkin. (Vote for both.)

For Two Associate Justices of Supreme Court for Full Terms of Six Years Each,
Beginning January 1, 1907—Samuel C.
Atkinson, Joseph H. Lumpkin. (Vote for both.)

For Judge Superior Court, Atlanta
Circuit—John T. Pendleton.

For Judge Superior Court, Atlantic
Circuit—Paul E. Seabrook.

For Judge Superior Court, Augusta
Circuit—T. A. Parker.

For Judge Superior Court, Chattahoochee Court—W. A. Little.

For Judge Superior Court, Cordele Circuit—U. V. Whitole.

For Judge Superior Court, Flint Circuit—E. J. Reagan.

For Judge Superior Court, Macon Circuit—W. H. Felton.

For Judge Superior Court, Middle
Circuit—B. T. Rawlings.

For Judge Superior Court, Northeastern Circuit—J. J. Kimsey.

For Judge Superior Court, Ocmulgee
Circuit—H. G. Lewis.

For Judge Superior Court, Pataula
Circuit—W. C. Worrill.

For Judge Superior Court, Rome Circuit—Moses Wright.

For Judge Superior Court, Southern Circuit—R. G. Mitchell.

For Judge Superior Court, Tallapoosa
Circuit—Price Edwards.

For Judge Superior Court, Western Circuit—C. H. Brand.

For Solicitor General, Atlantic Circuit—
N. J. Norman.

For Solicitor General, Cordele Circuit—
Walter F. George.

For Solicitor General, Northeastern
Circuit—W. A. Charters.

For Solicitor General, Tallapoosa Circuit—W. K. Fleider.

For Senator from Thirty-fifth District
—E. P. Dobbs.

King's METHODS, PROB SKILL
IN RING PROVING, THERAPY
AND MEDICAL EASES

Announcement.

A doctor's discovery for a quartury, and hence with fully antiquated, obsolete do, but, on the other hand, and practices are of the present day—and the experience of superior knowledge and of the present. They discovered, whose efficacy, and our experience of Chronic and Special for the past ten years, in standing, the permanent, and the indorsements, whom we have sent back to health, and the only specialists defeat, confidence in our for our services to the proprietor of

ILLIAR NEED BE NTU CURED.

DEFENCE IS

ATLA
SEC

Dr. Ru
FIN

Dr. Ship
Seven
That

Dr. Rus
one of th
the Unita
ed the call rian churc nait a col stalwart ly, of the
He begai

Dr.
The ne cl

REFERENCE IS LARGE NEED BE PAID
IL CURED.
KING'S and SURGICAL VICES
AND PEACHTREE
7 Marietta, Atlanta
GA.

Afflicted is to

Following Statements:

Arteriosclerosis

Increase by painless method no retention from bur-nament blood is driven veins with the assist proves Arteriosclerosis. True vein process. The parts of their natural condition
re-established.

about severe opera-an application
ing on the parts ating the stricture com-genuine electric mediis painless and in no with your business du-

Debility of Men

Working in the power of by our methods will and strength to you your. Our rement but gives satisment results.

Blood Poison

In its primary stage it hereditary or contrac-ed. It cures all its complications. It is the of its progress. It of poison from the
by the use of harm-which leaves no after effect.

Sex Diseases

Acute and chronic cases and itching. In-discharges stopped in cured quickly and about fear of compli-

Uterine and Prostatic

Disorders. Frequent desire in back, brickbat and and catarrhal dis-

Piles

Our methods and with need no acid inand pure

Great and cure this of too complicated by aradic electricity, our inner, bloodless and from business

Leases of Women

S. G. McLendon, who is opposed by T. C. Crenshaw, and is running as an independent candidate. Mr. McLendon was nominated on the floor of the convention as the democratic nominee to succeed Joseph M. Brown, railroad commissioner, whose term of office expires on October 15, 1907. Judge A. L. Miller, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, declined to print Mr. Crenshaw's name on the official ballot.

The only other contest offered to the voters of Fulton county in the election of Wednesday is that between Robert F. Maddox, Dr. George Y. Pierce and Thomas M. Poole, all of whom are candidates for the position of commissioner of roads and revenues to succeed Hubert L. Culberson, who resigns that position on December 31 to assume his duties as treasurer of Fulton county.

All other candidates for county offices were nominated in the democratic primary of August 22, and are without opposition.

New Court of Appeals.

Particular attention is called to the question of the ratification of the amendment to the constitution establishing the new court of appeals. Voters are one and all urged to vote for this amendment, the establishment of this court being a matter in which every citizen of the state is vitally interested. The state supreme court has been heavily overburdened with business and unless relief is afforded by the establishment of the court of appeals cases now pending on appeal before the supreme court will be affirmed by operation of law, and the decision of the lower court thus affirmed without the merits of such cases being determined by the court of last resort. If the amendment is ratified by the voters on Wednesday the court will be established and begin its sessions on January 1, and many cases now pending in the supreme court will be at once transferred to the new court.

Voters are also urged to vote for the ratification of the amendment to the constitution creating the county of Ben Hill, of which Fitzgerald will be the county seat, and for the amendment authorizing the legislature to provide additional superior court judges when the business in any circuit justifies such action.

In addition to voting for the regular democratic nominees for state and county offices on Wednesday, the people will also vote in a separate ballot box for the nomination of three judges of the court of appeals, which is to be established January 1, provided the people at this election ratify the proposed amendment to the constitution, and that they will do so there is no doubt. The three judges thus nominated will be elected at the congressional election to be held in November.

This side primary election will be a hat-box election in Fulton county, twenty-two large, new hat boxes having been provided yesterday morning by Secretary Charles N. Allen for the reception of the votes cast in this primary election. Daniel

Circuit—Price Edwards.
For Judge Superior Court, Western Circuit—C. H. Brand.
For Solicitor General, Atlantic Circuit—N. J. Norman.
For Solicitor General, Cordale Circuit—Walter F. George.
For Solicitor General, Northeastern Circuit—W. A. Charters.
For Solicitor General, Tallapoosa Circuit—W. K. Fielder.
For Senator from Thirty-fifth District—E. P. Dobbs.

(Scratch One.)

For amendment authorizing legislature to provide additional superior court judges.

Against amendment authorizing legislature to provide additional superior court judges.

(Scratch One.)

In favor of ratification of the amendment to the constitution creating the county of Ben Hill, with Fitzgerald as the county site.

Opposed to the ratification of amendment to the constitution creating the county of Ben Hill, with Fitzgerald as the county site.

(Scratch One.)

For court of appeals amendment.

Against court of appeals amendment.

For Sheriff—John W. Nelms.

For Clerk of the Superior Court—Arnold Broyles.

For State and County Collector—A. P. Stewart.

For State and County Tax Receiver—T. M. Armistead.

For County Treasurer—Hubert L. Culberson.

(Vote for Three.)

For Representative in the General Assembly—Madison Bell, R. B. Blackburn, J. M. Slaton.

For Commissioner Roads and Revenues, County at Large—E. V. Carter.

For Commissioner Roads and Revenues, from the Country—Clifford L. Anderson.

(Vote for One.)

For Commissioner Roads and Revenues, County at Large, for Term Defined by H. L. Culberson—Robert F. Maddox, Dr. George Y. Pierce, Thomas M. Poole.

For Coroner—W. W. Thompson.

For County Surveyor—Charles S. Robert.

Polling Places in the City.

The polling places in the city will be located as follows:

First Ward—Curtis drug store, corner Forsyth and Mitchell streets.

Second Ward—County court house.

Third Ward—Cole's store, corner Fair and Fraser streets.

Fourth Ward—Pierce's store, corner Auburn avenue and Jackson street.

Fifth Ward—A. J. Martin Hardware Company's store, 248 Marietta street.

Sixth Ward—94 North Pryor street.

Seventh Ward—Mrs. M. I. Florence's store, 206 Lee street.

Eighth Ward—Judge Langston's court room, 824 Peachtree street.

Polls open at 7 o'clock a. m. and close 7 o'clock p. m.

In the county precincts the polls will

The n

seven

a minist

he was d

many ye

as was in center. M

as minist

ton. D. C.

in Brock

signing fr

with his

During hi

for ten ye

with Unit

Attracted

genial cli

cepted the

here, and

first Sund

After in tinuous a ministry, and busy.

made ther

he has ex

heartily w

denominat

LUCK

"Busted"

the

(From

"A drum

in peculiar knight of

"I was at small town

and was n

I could no

It was in my wallet,

until even

ticket. It

ring and itching, in-discharges stopped in ms; cured quickly and hout fear of complica-

Idar and Prostatic Diseases:

ions, frequent disrebrickdust sedbw i catarrhal con-

Piles.

less methods and with n business; no acid in-res used.

Urticaria.

...treat and cure this
...too complicated by
...radic electricity; our
...piles, bloodless and
...on from business.

Cases of Women.

...treat all nervous and
...of women, and such
...to their sex, such as
...Displacement; Un-
...Nervous Decline.

In the Back.

...to avoid "instruments"
...and unnecessary oper-
...ult us.

Conditions Cured.

...Nose, Throat and ...treated by our new
...It removes all ir-
...forehead; "dropping";
...sitting; and prevents
...chronic bronchitis
...leaves. Call at once
...near of our twentieth
...had cure.

Lines Furnished.

...and furnished to
...each individual case;
...purest of chemists.

NOTICE

...Waiting
...Gentlemen.

ADVICE FREE

ADVICE TO CURE IS

...need be paid until
...cured.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

Medical Co.

...and Diseases
...Atlanta, Ga.
...No. 100
...N. W. Cor.

democratic nominees for state and county offices on Wednesday, the people will also vote in a separate ballot box for the nomination of three judges of the court of appeals, which is to be established January 1, provided the people at this election ratify the proposed amendment to the constitution, and that they will do so there is no doubt. The three judges thus nominated will be elected at the congressional election to be held in November.

This side primary election will be a hat-box election in Fulton county, twenty-two large, new hat boxes having been provided yesterday morning by Secretary Charles N. Allen for the reception of the votes cast in this primary election, Daniel Bros. Company having furnished this novel election paraphernalia. The hat boxes have the usual slip cut in the top, and will be securely sealed and in every way made as safe as the wooden, battle-scarred boxes in which the ballots for the state and county nominees will be deposited.

None but ballots bearing the names of all sixteen candidates for the three places on the new court of appeals can be voted at the state democratic primary to be held next Wednesday, October 3. This is the ruling of State Chairman Miller and reiterated by him in a statement given out to the press today.

The names of all sixteen candidates, three of whom "must" be voted for by every voter depositing a ballot, are as follows: Frank Harwell, Bartow S.
Willingham, Howard Van Epps, Richard
B. Russell, D. M. Roberts, P. P. Proffit,
A. G. Powell, H. C. Peoples, George S.
Jones, Charles G. Johns, Benjamin H.
Hill, W. M. Henry, W. R. Hammond,
Thomas C. Green, Frederick C. Foster
and Thomas J. Chappell.

When Judge Miller's attention was called to the protest from LaGrange, he said:

I have already taken the matter up with Judge Harwell and the chairman of the county, and have informed him that only the official ballots sent out from Macon can be voted. I have sent out the ballots to every county, but have declined to allow candidates have the ballot copied for fear that some typographical error might occur. I informed the candidates that I would be glad to furnish them official ballots with the names of all the candidates hereon at their expense. You can say that no ticket can be voted in the primary unless the names of all candidates appear thereon. The executive committee has been very careful about this matter and intends to see its ruling carried out.

Official Democratic Ballot.

The official democratic ballot for state and county officers is as follows:

For Governor—Elliott Smith

For Secretary of State—Philip Cook

For Commissioner General—William A.

Miller

The polling places in the city will be located as follows:

First Ward—Curtis drug store, corner
Forsyth and Mitchell streets.

Second Ward—County court house.

Third Ward—Bole's store, corner Fair and Fraser streets.

Fourth Ward—Pierce's store, corner
Auburn avenue and Jackson street.

Fifth Ward—A. J. Martin Hardware
Company's store, 248 Marietta street.

Sixth Ward—94 North Pryor street.

Seventh Ward—Mrs. M. I. Florence's store, 206 Lee street.

Eighth Ward—Judge Langston's court room, 824 Peachtree street.

Polls open at 7 o'clock a. m. and close 7 o'clock p. m.

In the country precincts the polls will be located at the same places in the following districts as they were on the day of the democratic primary election held on August 22: Adamsville district; Battle Hill, Edgewood, Collins, Hapeville, Cook's Oak Grove, Peachtree, South Bend, Black Hall, East Point, Bryant's, Buckhead and College Park.

Polls open at 8 o'clock a. m. at the country precincts and close at 3 o'clock.

DOG RAN AMUCK BITING TWO

Family of S. M. Carson Vis- ited by Second Tragedy This Year.

Covington, September 29.—(Special.)—

Several days ago a mad dog ran amuck near Mansfield and before it was killed had bitten two persons. The first victim was the little 7-year-old daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. S. M. Carson. The little girl was attacked by the dog while playing in the yard and was bitten on one of her hands. Accompanied by Dr. W. E.
Knight, of Mansfield, Mr. Carson carried the little girl to Atlanta for treatment at the Pasteur institute.

From the Carson place the dog proceeded to Newborn, and after biting a negro child, was killed by Robert Harwell. The head of the dog was immediately snipped to Atlanta, where an examination developed evidence of hydrophobia.

The family of Mr. Carson was visited by a smaller, though more tragic, misfortune about this time last year, when a young child was accidentally run over and killed by a two-horse wagon loaded with cotton.

until even ticket. It pass away
thing to do.
I had accu-sal dimensh in my pock-frained from

"Well, it should have when Provk unexpected around the and just as buy a ticke
he dropped under a sea
it rested, fall to find notice his k and left.

"After wa
no one else carelessly coin lay, dr
the prect marched to next day I never want
I was that station."

Mon Fe

Probably in this cour amount of Discovery, th
the leading years by L.
anthropist.

Cooper cl troubles is or tape wor will drive th man system
Thousands visited by preparation and have be creatures. I has sold th
duced.

Mr. O. C.
St., Cincinna account of

"For month
a droway, li Cooper's New
was relieved long. The have gained Cooper New
I know what with me all

Jacobs B
the Cooper p say "We are covery and quantities in going round

and then he told allow the
the next call them speak of them

of a Decato take a ci-showed for naked neo who wa id:

own and he is a at trade and he is the negro or to plaint against the they do not sell out a decision to themselves and olson. It is not one does of it is out of a negro mission of almost this respect are to make drink and quicker they dition the better

Places
are dirty and are hat make them a of decent people lisease is well as

I instances where they were robbed em under the pre-money until the he owner reinemind called for the generally got it, blank the money
saloonist.
covered by the po-that some of the fences," that is, disposed of their payment

"cappers," cappers," the fells for the saloon
d down the street working man on week's wages they id hand and ex-

kind to see you?
with me. Oh, you
The drinks are in you in a month fields. He enters e "capper" pilots

In a few minutes numbered his brain
r drink and "sets
and his chums.
ning of the inport while he is loon closes at 10
his money all (him up)

some saloons on that are tolerably ood order is kept old, but there are this latter class tes will make its nittee recommend ertain of the dis-liquor is sold, but which are allowed under stricter po-is to be no more
as in the past.
not be permitted els by the hour purs. People who to go in, get it
And when they et to go on and is to be business in usia, A. A. tember 20.—(Spe-accompanied by bean, raging for pen hours. Tele-ires are all down, serious, especial-

to, and the further commission of the nameless crime: a question which every white man and every negro of sense and character have their minds centered upon this thing must stop, and we believe the end of it is not far off, for the class guilty of the commission of these crimes, is now on the run, the loafers and frequenters of barrooms and crime-breeding dives. There is much to be deplored in this situation, but at one thing we do rejoice, that the dives of immorality, the pool rooms, the chain restaurants and other hang-out places for the de-based and depraved of the race are to be closed up for all time. Had this step been taken years ago in Atlanta, we do not believe there would have been cause for the recent outbreak of passion and vengeance.

"Let us throw the mantle of charity over the entire affair and all pray earnestly and fervently that much good may after all be the result, for we all are in need of no little amount of prayer in these hours of trials. It is a tried and never-failing weapon of defense and righter of all ills and wrongs when used in connection with sufficient faith. It is the only weapon our people ought think of using, in times so terrible and pregnant for ill as the recent unfortunate demonstration in Atlanta. There are lots of us who stand for order, decency and right, and we hold ourselves ready for directions to perform whatever duties we can in ridding the southland of the inhuman brutes who allow their passions to get the better of their reason."

Cure Constipation Without Drugs

IN THE PRIVACY OF YOUR OWN HOME.

FREE COUPON BELOW.

PROF. G. H. MIDGLEY Constipation Specialist, Inventor of the Drugless Constipation Cures.

Without the use of pills, purgatives or drugs of any kind, I can and do cure the worst cases of chronic constipation—cure them to stay cured, and restore the patient to a state of health and happiness such as they had never known before.
I can cure constipation no matter how bad it is. I can show you how to cure yourself right in your own home without the use of drugs. Constipation is cured for all time when cured my way. Fill out free coupon below and mail today.

FREE COUPON.

Fill in your name and address on dotted lines below and mail to Prof. G. H. Midgley, 230 Midgley Block, Kalamazoo, Mich., and by return mail he will tell you how to cure constipation without medicine.

EDUCATIONAL

declined the position in a letter, which created much favorable comment at the time throughout the whole country. In 1885 he was appointed by President Cleveland United States attorney for the northern district of Georgia, and performed the important duties of that office with credit to himself and satisfaction to the government. Some years ago Justice White, of the supreme court, and Judges Pardee and Newman appointed Mr. Hill standing master in chancery of the United States circuit court. This is a position of great responsibility, the standing master having to try on the law and facts all equity causes in the United States circuit court. Mr. Hill has decided many important and complex equity cases, and in no case has his decision been reversed by the court. The lawyers all over Georgia recognize his fine legal attainments and unusual judicial temperament, and have frequently urged him to speak a position on the bench, but he has heretofore declined. The splendid tribute paid him by the bar of Atlanta in urging him to offer for one of the places on the proposed court of appeals has induced him to become a candidate. His friends feel anguine of his success, and are confident, if elected, he will add additional luster to a name already beloved and honored in the state. Attention is called to the correspondence between the bar and Mr. Hill given below:

"Atlanta, Ga., August 14, 1908.—Hon.
B. H. Hill, Atlanta, Ga. Dear Sir: If the bill passed by the general assembly creating the court of appeals is ratified by the people at the October election, we,
as members of the Atlanta bar, would like to have you elected as one of the judges of that court.

"We think that this court should be composed of lawyers of acknowledged ability and of high personal character.
We have practiced law with you, some of us, for many years, and we believe that you possess, in a marked degree, the qualifications essential to a good judicial officer.

"You filled the office of solicitor general to the satisfaction of the bar and the people, and your administration of the office of United States district attorney was clean, able and efficient. You have long been standing master in equity of the United States court for this circuit, and your decisions in the many important causes submitted to you have received the commendation of the court and the lawyers.

"Our only interest in this matter is to help secure for this court judges, who by their learning and standing as men and lawyers will maintain the dignity of the court, administer the law promptly and impartially, protect the right of our people, and conserve the public good.

"You have had long experience at the bar and have lived an honorable life in this community for many years, and have the respect and confidence of every one. We believe the people generally will select the best material for these high judicial positions, so important to every man, woman and child in Georgia, and we feel assured of your success.
Trusting you will become a candidate,
we are, yours truly,

- "R. R. Arnold,
- "Luther Z. Rosser,
- "Morris Brandon,
- "W. D. Ellis,
- "Burton Smith,
- "Jack J. Spalding,
- "Alex W. Smith,
- "John L. Tye,
- "Hudson Moore,
- "James L. Key,
- "L. C. Hopkins,
- "E. R. Black,
- "Robert C. Alston,
- "James L. Mayson,
- "W. L. Calhoun,
- "Lowry Arnold,
- "V. A. Bachelor,
- "Eugene Dodd,
- "Ernest Kontz,
- "J. D. Bradwell,
- "John A. Hynds,
- "A. M. Brand,
- "C. B. Reynolds,
- "Rev. W. Wall,
- "J. S. Slicer,
- "Milton Hirsch,
- "F. L. Neufville,
- "Lee M. Jordan,
- "C. W. Smith,
- "J. E. McClelland,
- "T. W. Rucker,
- "T. A. Hammond,
- "T. V. Cartier,
- "R. T. Dorsey,
- "F. H. Brewster,
- "H. L. Culbertson,
- "George L. Bell,
- "C. B. Rosser, Jr.,
- "Alonzo Field,
- "Lamar Rucker,
- "Francis L. Eyles,
- "Madison Bell,
- "Herbert J. Haas,
- "Judson Chapman,
- "Lawton Nalley,
- "J. A. Branch,

- "C. D. Maddox,
- "Fulton Colville,
- "M. J. Tolbert,
- "S. C. Crane,
- "Ben Z. Phillips,
- "E. M. Underwood,
- "Harry Dodd,
- "Walter A. Sims,
- "F. M. Hughes,
- "H. A. Fuller,
- "C. L. Pettigrew,
- "Clarence Bell,
- "Albert Boylston,
- "Vassar Wooley,
- "W. E. Talley,
- "O. A. K. Stevens,
- "A. J. Orme,
- "John W. Moore,
- "Malvern Hill,
- "Marvin Joe,
- "P. F. Thompson,
- "R. R. Shropshire,
- "George Gordon,
- "James W. Austin,
- "Spencer R. Atkinson,
- "Clifford L. Anderson,
- "Edmund W. Martin,
- "Milton A. Candler,
- "Edward P. King, Jr.,
- "Daniel W. Roundtree,
- "Thomas E. Felder,
- "W. P. Bloodworth,
- "John D. Humphries,
- "Thomas R. Arnold,
- "William M. Smith,
- "Henderson Hallinan,
- "Thomas M. Sinton,
- "George Westmoreland,
- "Courtland S. Winn,
- "George W. Brink,
- "Victor Lamar Smith,
- "William H. Withers,
- "W. Carroll Latimer,
- "Henry A. Alexander,
- "Walter T. Colquitt,
- "Joseph W. Humphries,
- "Isaac Stiles Hopkins,
- "Samuel D. Hewitt,
- "F. H. Brewster, Jr.,
- "Frank L. Harralson,
- "Hollis N. Randolph,
- "Marion M. Jackson,

"Atlanta, Ga., September 12, 1908.
"Messrs. R. R. Arnold, Luther Z.
Rosser, Spencer R. Atkinson, Burton
Smith, Milton A. Candler and others:
"Gentlemen: Your request that I become a candidate for one of the three judgeships of the court of appeals, if the constitutional amendment creating said court is ratified by the people on October the third, has been in my hands for some days. The establishment of this court is of great importance to all the people of this state. Every citizen of Georgia is entitled to have his rights of person or property adjudicated by a tribunal of the highest rank, and on account of the large increase in the number of cases due to the rapid growth in population and business, this is now a matter of physical impossibility by our supreme court. Both the people and the supreme court therefore, need the relief contemplated by the court of appeals.
The democratic executive committee has called a primary for the selection of three nominees for this court on October 3rd,
the date of the general state election.
Subject to this primary, and relying upon your estimate of my fitness for the position, I submit my name to the voters of the state for one of the three judgeships. While always interested in public questions and a loyal member of the democratic party, and an earnest advocate of its principles and its standard bearers, I have never offered for public position before the people. I frankly confess to you that I have an ambition to serve the state in a judicial capacity, and if the voters of Georgia approve my candidacy and elevate me to this high position, I promise them to bring to the discharge of the important duties of the office an earnest purpose to seek truth and justice, and in consecrated service to declare and protect the rights of all the people under the law. I can find no words fittingly to express my grateful appreciation for the language in which you convey your wish, and I assure you that whatever may be the result, whether I win or lose in the contest, to be considered by so large a number of my professional brethren as worthy to occupy this exalted station is an honor I deeply prize and will be gratefully cherish. It will not be possible between now and the election for me to meet in person all the voters of the state and I beg that each one will consider this announcement as a personal request for his support and influence.
Again, assuring each one of you of the clemency of my sincere appreciation, I am, Yours truly,
BENJ. E. HILL

portion of the love created to