Dear Mr. Elleby:

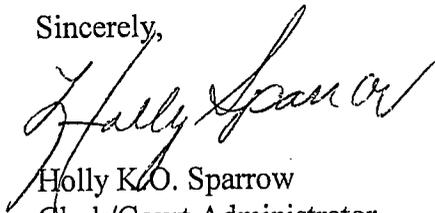

On November 18, 2011, you participated in a Mass Swearing-In hosted at Georgia State University. On that same day, this Court was made aware that there would be a delay in some of the admittees receiving their Georgia bar numbers.

As of the date of this letter, your application still is without a bar number to complete the admission process. If you still wish to complete the admission process to practice in this Court, you must provide us with your bar number.

If, you have not yet received your bar number, please call and let us know there has been an extended delay.

A follow up from GSU on admission just for you. Can you provide the names with the missing bar numbers? Nice to have someone looking out for us.

Hi Holly,

It was brought to my attention by Kirby Yeager at the Supreme Court quite a few of our graduates have not provided their bar number to finalize admission. Do you have any that you are missing a bar number? If so, please provide me the names so we can send out a reminder email.

Thank,

Maria
