BRIEF OF APPELLEE

COMES NOW Appellee _____ (your name), [Plaintiff/Defendant] below, and files this brief on appeal.

PART ONE

TABLE OF CONTENTS AND CITED AUTHORITIES

(If your brief is significantly long or complex, here, include a table of contents and a table of cited authorities, each with page references.)

PART TWO

INTRODUCTION

(Here, include a brief introduction setting out the key issues and your arguments on appeal.)

PART THREE

JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

(You may omit this section if you are satisfied with the presentation by the appellant. If not, explain why your case is properly in the Court of Appeals by identifying three things: (1) the basis for this Court’s appellate jurisdiction (OCGA §§ 5-6-34 and/or 5-6-35); (2) the basis for this Court having jurisdiction instead of the Supreme Court (See, e.g., Ga. Const. Art. VI, Sec. VI, Pars. II, III; OCGA § 15-3-3.1); and (3) the filing dates establishing that the appeal is timely (See, e.g., OCGA §§ 5-6-38 and 5-6-39).

PART FOUR

CONTROVERTED FACTS

(You may omit this section if you are satisfied with the presentation by the appellant in PART FIVE of appellant’s brief. If not, here set forth any material inaccuracy or incompleteness of the statement of facts in the appellant’s brief, any additional facts you think are necessary, and any additional parts of the record or transcript you think are necessary).

PART FIVE

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

(Here, if your brief is significantly long or complex, summarize the arguments presented in the body of the brief.)

PART SIX

ARGUMENT AND CITATION OF AUTHORITIES

(Here include argument and citation of authorities for each enumeration of error.)

CONCLUSION

If e-filed, this submission does not exceed the word count limit imposed by Rule 24.
